

SARGENT'S PAINTINGS IN THE BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY WHICH HAVE EXCITED A STORM OF CRITICISM.

"Christianity" as depicted by Sargent has drawn much adverse comment from both Christian and Jewish authorities and religious heads. One Boston rabbi in commenting on the picture declared the figure of Christ is neither impressive nor dignified.

Copyright, International Film.

"The Synagogue," by Sargent, according to Rabbi Eichler of Boston, has nothing about it suggesting Jewishness. William B. Savery, who is a Christian, declares the painting is entirely out of accord with American principles of religious freedom.

Copyright, International Film.

Shamrock IV, the yacht with which Sir Thomas Lipton challenges the New York Yacht Club to race for America's Cup. The Shamrock IV has been lying in a shipyard in Erie Basin since an earlier race in which she was to figure was called off on account of war.

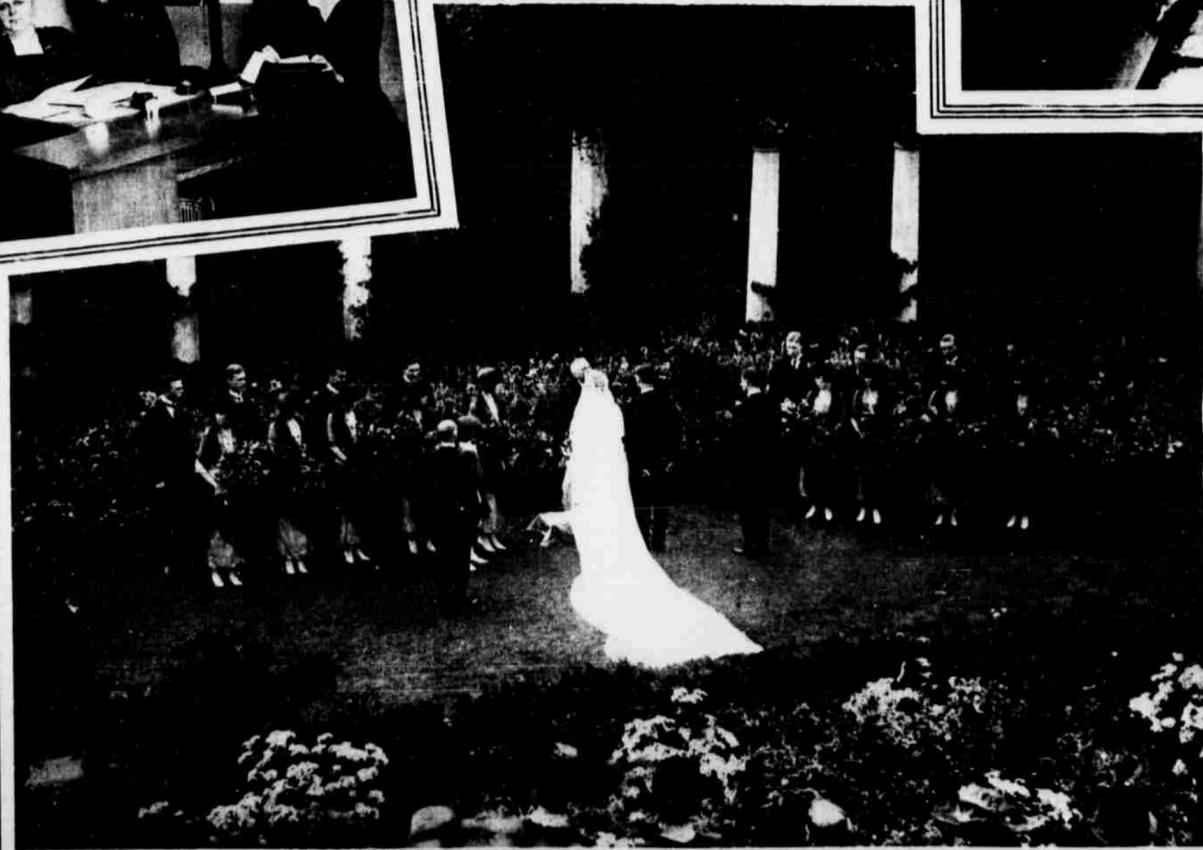

Col. Edward M. House was a very ill man when he arrived from France. The picture shows him being assisted from the Northern Pacific at Hoboken.

Copyright, International

Women leaders at Republican National Headquarters in New York. Left to right—Miss Mary Schwarz, Miss Mary Garrett Hay, Mrs. Amanda Miller and Miss Marion Parkhurst.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

At right—One of the striking fall weddings was that of Miss Helen Ladd Pratt and Richard Stockton Emmet at the Pratt estate, Glen Cove, L. I. The ceremony took place outdoors.

Copyright, International Film.

This statue has been presented by the French town of De Grasse to the U. S. S. Seattle, first naval vessel to escort American troopships to France. Ambassador Jusserand made the presentation speech and the Secretary of the Navy accepted the gift.

© 1919