

ITALIAN BEAUTY IS BRIDE OF GOELET

Mme. Riabouchinsky Bride of New Yorker Who Won Honors in Service.

CEREMONY IN PARIS She Is an Accomplished Musician and Speaks Five Languages.

By a Staff Correspondent of The Sun.

Copyright, 1919, all rights reserved. PARIS, Oct. 22.—Robert Goelet and Mme. Fernanda Riabouchinsky were married this afternoon in the American Church by the Rev. Mr. Goodrich in the presence of Baron de Paolo Arzoldi di Robbiate Metropopolita of the Italian peace delegation, Capt. Robert de Nexon and Prof. Mariano Rocchi.

DIED.

ACTION.—At Baybrook, Conn., October 11, 1919, Sarah T., daughter of the late Thomas C. and Sarah E. Action.

ADAMS.—Rochester, on October 21. Services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH" Broadway and Sixty-sixth street (Frank E. Campbell), Friday, 10 A. M.

CANFIELD.—Matilda J., on October 14, at her residence, 191 East 124th street, New York City.

COLWELL.—On October 19, at her residence, 231 West 102d street, Mary Ann Taaff, widow of Philip and dearly beloved mother of John J., Edwin G., Mary and Jean Colwell.

DEBIOCA.—Carmen Rodriguez, on October 19, lying in state "THE FUNERAL CHURCH" Broadway and Sixty-sixth street.

DONALD.—On Tuesday, October 21, 1919, at her residence, 191 East 124th street, Cornelia, widow of the Rev. E. Winchester Donald, D. D.

EVANS.—Miranda Lance, mother of Charles E. Heydt of New Canaan, Conn., in her eighty-first year.

GRIMES.—Edward, on October 21. Services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH" Broadway and Sixty-sixth street (Frank E. Campbell), Thursday, 10 A. M.

HEBERT.—On April 15, 1919, Anne E. von Hebert, in Paris.

KRECH.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

KNOX.—Suffering of pneumonia, on October 21, 1919, John Mason, son of the late John Mason and Maria Livingston Knox.

MANCHESTER.—At her late residence, 1061 St. Nicholas avenue, New York City, on Wednesday, October 23, Florence Pilkington, wife of James G. Manchester.

OWEN.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

POWELL.—Alonzo Services CAMPBELL'S FUNERAL CHURCH, Friday, 3 P. M.

REICH.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

ROBERTSON.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

WELLS.—On October 21, 1919, Dorothy, beloved wife of George Gilbert Williams Keoch, in the nineteenth year of her age.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Miss Lucy Lathrop Patterson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Lenoir Patterson, will be married to Casimir de Rham, a son of the late H. Casimir de Rham, this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Grace Church, Broadway and Tenth street.

Francis William Handwerker, who will marry Miss Augusta Chapman next Saturday, will give his farewell bachelor dinner at Delmonico's this evening.

Mrs. Charles Remsen will give a reception on the afternoon of December 1 at her home, 800 Madison avenue, when she will introduce to society her daughter, Miss Lillian Remsen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren have returned from Newport to 224 Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Olin, now at Glenburn, Rhinebeck, N. Y., will be at 110 East Thirty-ninth street for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Bryce Wing, who passed the summer in Old Westbury, L. I., will be at 44 West Seventy-seventh street for the winter.

Mrs. Arthur Murray Dodge has returned to 583 Park avenue from Waukegan, her country place in Westaugeo, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph du Vivier, who came here from Paris early in the summer, will call for France November 15. They will make their permanent home in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosseter Betts will give a theatre party this evening at the Globe Theatre for their niece, Miss Rosamond Betts, a Boston debutante. A supper and dance will follow at the Ritz-Carlton. Miss Johnson is the daughter of Mr. Wolcott Howe Johnson, who will give a party on Saturday, December 5 at the Copley-Plaza in Boston.

Mrs. Henry H. Rogers will give a dance for her daughter, Miss Millicent Rogers, on the night of November 24 at the Ritz-Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Randolph Bowers of New York and California announced the birth of a son, Robert Carman Bowers, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of New York, announced the birth of a son, John H. Johnson, Jr., on October 18. The father is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

HAIRLUB CUTS TO ROLE AS A LOVER

Use of Representative's Name in Play Stopped When Kick Is Registered.

Blame Put on "RECORD" Isabelle Lowe Starts Christmas Club for Wounded—Chorus Association to Meet.

It's an open scandal in America that nobody reads the Congressional Record except the members of Congress.

When the Record is published it is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

The Record is not read by the members of Congress.

POPE URGES WOMAN'S LEAGUE OF FASHIONS

Deplores Styles Showing Corruption of Designers.

By the Associated Press. ROME, Oct. 22.—"On the domestic hearth woman is queen," said Pope Benedict today in answering an address presented to him by the women's union.

The pontiff added that changed times had given woman functions and rights she did not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

"The Catholic woman," said the pontiff, "besides feeling it her duty to be virtuous, must feel it her duty to appear in the fashion of her clothes, repudiating those exaggerations of fashion which show the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center."

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

At the same time the pontiff deplored the corruption of those who do not possess in former ages and enlarged the field of her activities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission from the family, which was her natural center.

44 STARS NOW ON ROOSEVELT FLAG

Bryant High School Girls, Long Island City, Pay Their Tribute.

RESTS IN UNCLE'S HOME Banner To-day Will Be Taken on Tour of Richmond Borough.

Schoolboy couriers relayed the Roosevelt memorial flag to Bryant High School, Long Island City, yesterday morning, when the forty-fourth star was added as part of the celebration.

Four speakers paid tribute to Mr. Roosevelt and urged the students to spread the enthusiasm for membership in the Roosevelt Memorial Association.

The fifth speaker, Samuel F. Abbott, originator of the Roosevelt memorial flag plan, delivered an address, during which the five-pointed star was sewed in its place.

Mr. Abbott's speech dealt with the flag's journey over the State.

He declared that the five Bryant girls selected for the honor of sewing the star composed the most representative group that had yet encountered.

Introduced by Dr. Peter E. Demaree, principal, they were: Ruth Brower, great-granddaughter of the late President; Lillian Hotetz, Gen. Sherman's great-granddaughter; Veronica Walsh, whose father fought in the Spanish-American war; Margaret Morrissey, whose two brothers fought in the world war; and Rosena Slaght, who was born in Casco-Bowling Green, Maine.

After the star had been sewn in place the five girls held it aloft while "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung. They then bore the flag past the service flag of the Bryant High School in silent tribute to the thirteen dead.

The flag was taken to the home of Col. Roosevelt in Flushing and to Kings Park, Jamaica. At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning it will be in St. George, Nassau Island, for a tour of Richmond borough.

Col. Raymond Robins, who was the chairman of the Progressive party convention which nominated Theodore Roosevelt for President, presided yesterday afternoon at "Theodore Roosevelt" in the Advertising Club, 41 East Twenty-fifth street.

Organization of a Roosevelt memorial committee in London was announced yesterday in a cablegram received by William L. Thompson, president of the association, from L. P. Sheldon, chairman of the committee in England.

The cablegram said that American Ambassador Davis and former British Ambassador Bryce and heading are serving as honorary chairman of the committee in London.

It was announced yesterday that on Saturday at 1 o'clock on the Public Library Plaza will be staged the principal meeting for New York in connection with Roosevelt week. Officers and national, State and city executive heads of the association will be present.

An invitation to the association was extended to the King and Queen of Belgium, who will return to New York on Saturday morning, and is expected to attend the meeting.

Addresses are being made in the different theatres during the week to urge membership in the organization. Fifth avenue shops are featuring in the windows exhibits which have to do with the great American. Teddy bears are said to be coming popular again.

To be a member of the Roosevelt Memorial Organization in all the States, one must obtain an application blank, which can be obtained in any of the big hotels, theatres or clubs, and pay $1 or more when he sends in his application. There are no further dues.

OBITUARIES. ALFRED O. BLAISDELL. Alfred Osmond Blaisdell, designer of the propelling machinery which the monitor type of warcraft used during the civil war, died yesterday at his home, 261 Clermont avenue, Brooklyn, following an illness of two weeks. He was born in Lebanon, N. H., and was 86 years old. Mr. Blaisdell was graduated from Dartmouth in 1862 and came to this city in 1862. He worked in the New York Navy Yard, Brooklyn, as a draughtsman, and designed the machinery later used in all the monitors. A few years later he was made chief of the designing department and held that position up to the commencement of the Spanish-American war. He lived at the Clermont avenue house for the past fifty years. He is survived by a son, daughter and two grandchildren.

MRS. ROSINA COOKE ADAMS. Mrs. Rosina Cooke Adams, whose family had been prominent on the stage in England, died yesterday in her home in the Manhattan Square Hotel. Mrs. Adams was born in Manchester, England, and in an early age became active with her father, who owned the John Henry Cooke circus. After traveling through Great Britain, Ireland and the Continent Mrs. Adams came to this country fifty years ago and was married to George H. Adams, a famous clown. They both toured the country with circuses and in vaudeville.

Mrs. Adams was 73, and will be buried tomorrow at Cedar Lawn Cemetery, following funeral services which will be held at the Campbell Funeral Church, Broadway and Sixty-sixth street.

REV. JOHN C. MACERLAIN. News was received in Jersey City yesterday of the death of John C. Macerlain, town of Bally MacDonnell, County Antrim, Ireland, of Father John C. Macerlain, pastor of the Sacred Heart Church in Greenville, N. J. Father Macerlain was 76 years old. He went to Ireland for his health a few months ago. Father Macerlain was a strong temperance advocate and was the founder of the Macerlain Institute for Imbeciles, at Jackson and Bidwell avenues, Jersey City. He was born in Ireland and was ordained in France in 1874.

JOHN MASON KNOX. John Mason Knox, a lawyer, died Tuesday at his home, 102 Willow street, Brooklyn. He was born in this city in 1849 and was graduated from City College. He studied at Bonn University, in Germany, and upon completing his course in 1870 returned to study for the law. He was admitted to the bar forty-seven years ago and had practised continuously in this city. His offices were at 19 Liberty street.

He was treasurer of the Women's Union Missionary Society and a trustee of Roosevelt Memorial Hospital. He was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, the St. Nicholas Society and the Hamilton Club of Brooklyn. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

GEN. THOMAS S. CHAMBERS. Gen. Thomas S. Chambers, 67, who was well known in military circles in New Jersey, died yesterday at his home in Trenton. He was a veteran of the Spanish war and had been active with the Sons of the American Revolution. He served in the Jersey National Guard more than thirty-five years and was president of the Society of Colonial Wars.

Those present at an active part in Republican politics and was elected a member of the Assembly in 1889, was an assistant bank examiner for the State and became chief of the Clearing House. He married Mrs. Jennie Scudder Reed in July, 1916. She survives him.

SIMPLE BURIAL RITE FOR VISCOUNT ASTOR Many British Notables Attend Services at St. George's.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Simple funeral services were held in St. George's Church yesterday for "Viscount" Miles (William Waldorf) Astor. The rector of St. George's, the Rev. Francis Norman Thicknesse, officiated.

The body was taken later to Golders Green for cremation, the ashes to be conveyed to Cliveden for deposit in the private chapel there.

The plain casket was covered with a blanket of white chrysanthemum, with a single wreath of autumn leaves.

The mourners were Major and Mrs. Waldorf Astor and their children, Capt. John Jacob Astor and Lady Violet Astor-Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Herbert Spender-Lieut. and their children, Sir John and Lady Gould-Adams and Mrs. Gerald Thorp, Mrs. William Wilton Phipps and Major Phipps.

Ambassador Davis and Mrs. Davis, Viscount Burnham, Lord Winterston, Lord Lucan, Lady Ribblesdale, Lady Essex, Lady Edward Cecil, the Countess of Annesley, Lady George, the Countess of Minto, Sir George Lewis, Sir George and Lady Perley, and J. L. Garvin, editor of the Observer, and the staff of that periodical.

M