

SECTION 5
EIGHT PAGES

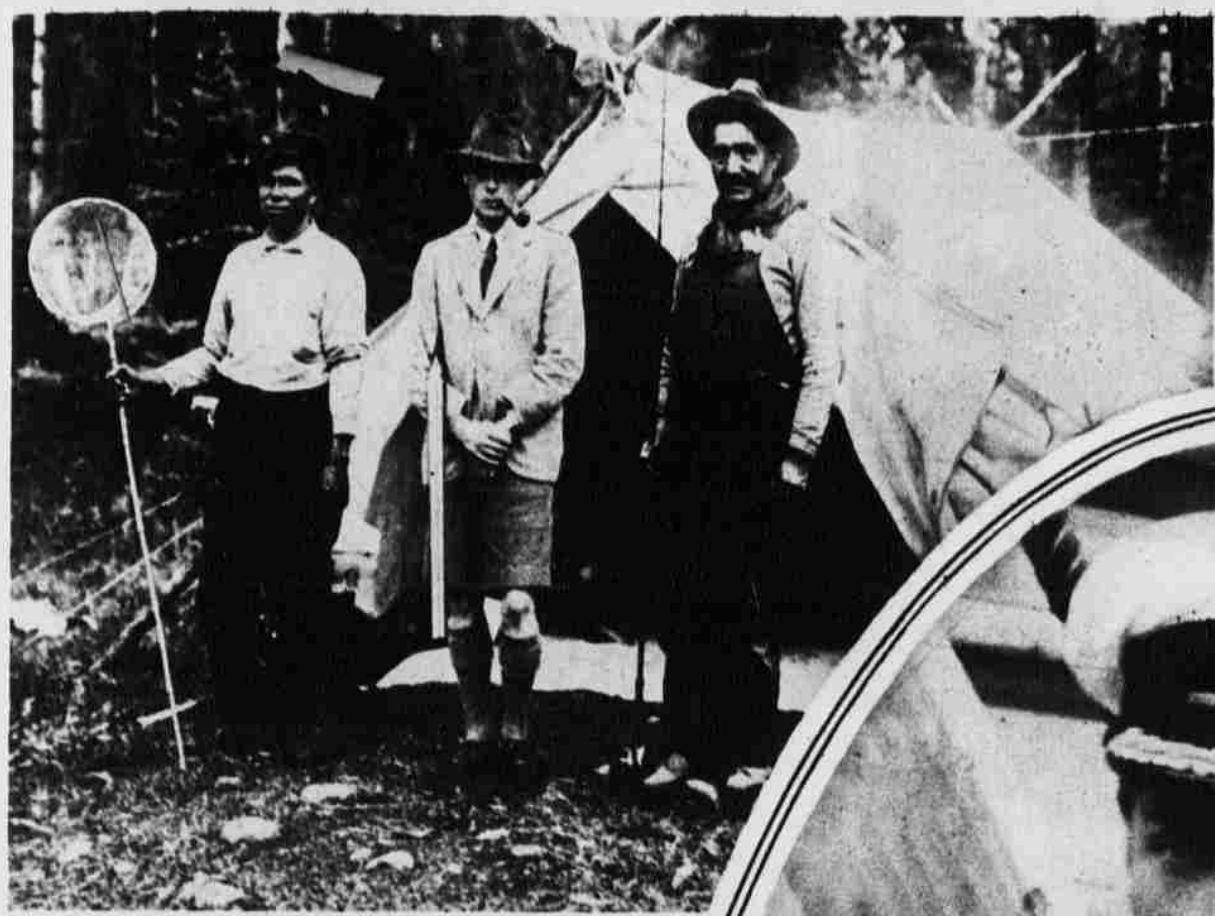

The Sun.

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1919.

Copyright, 1919, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

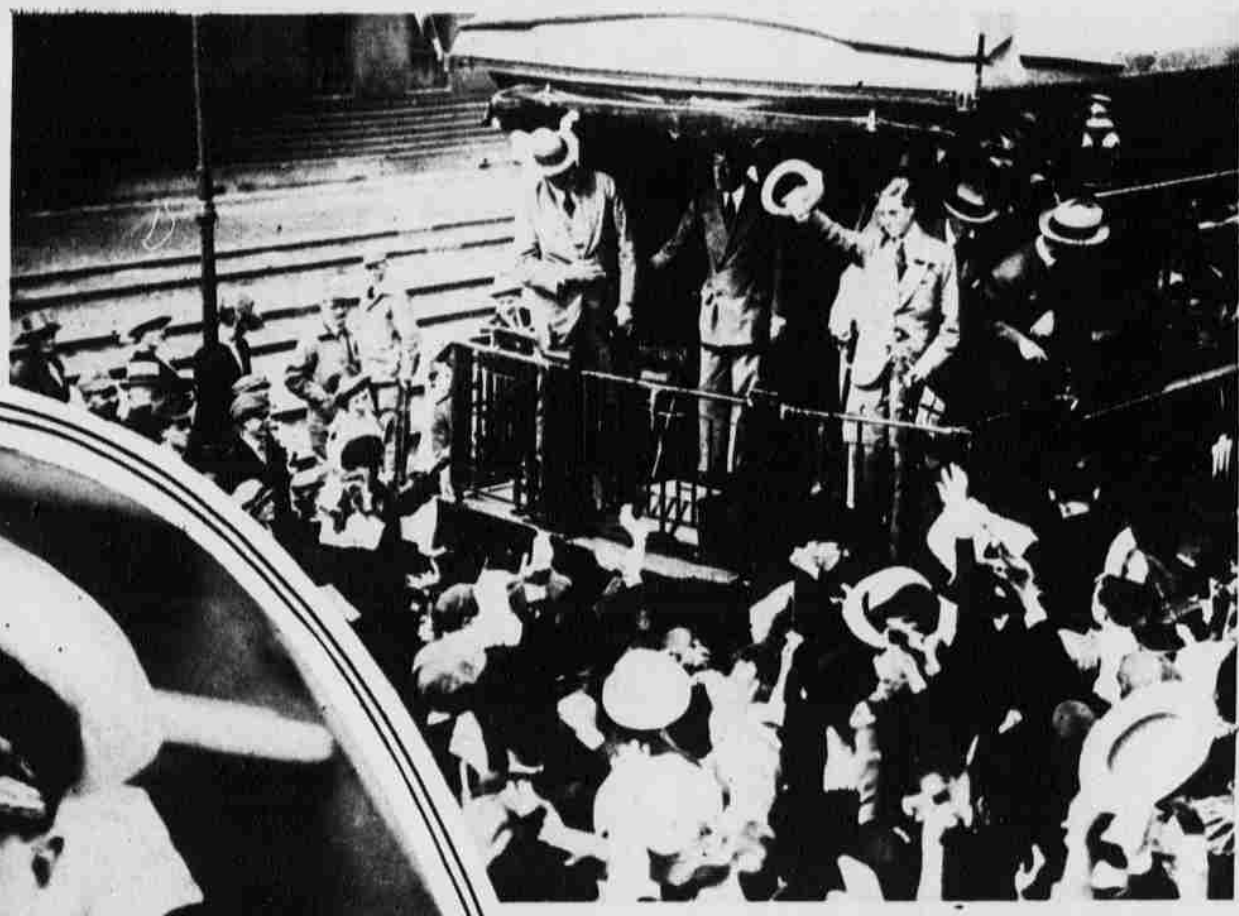

PICTORIAL
SECTION

Visit of the Prince of Wales

Camping in the wilds of Ontario with Indian guides was one of the enjoyable incidents of his stay in Canada, with hunting and fishing as chief amusements.

Copyright, Central News.

Bidding farewell to Canadian citizens from the rear platform of the special train that carried him through the Dominion. Great crowds greeted the Prince at every stop.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Unusual photograph of the Prince in locomotive cab on the Canadian Pacific. He guided the special train for some miles.

Copyright, Central News.

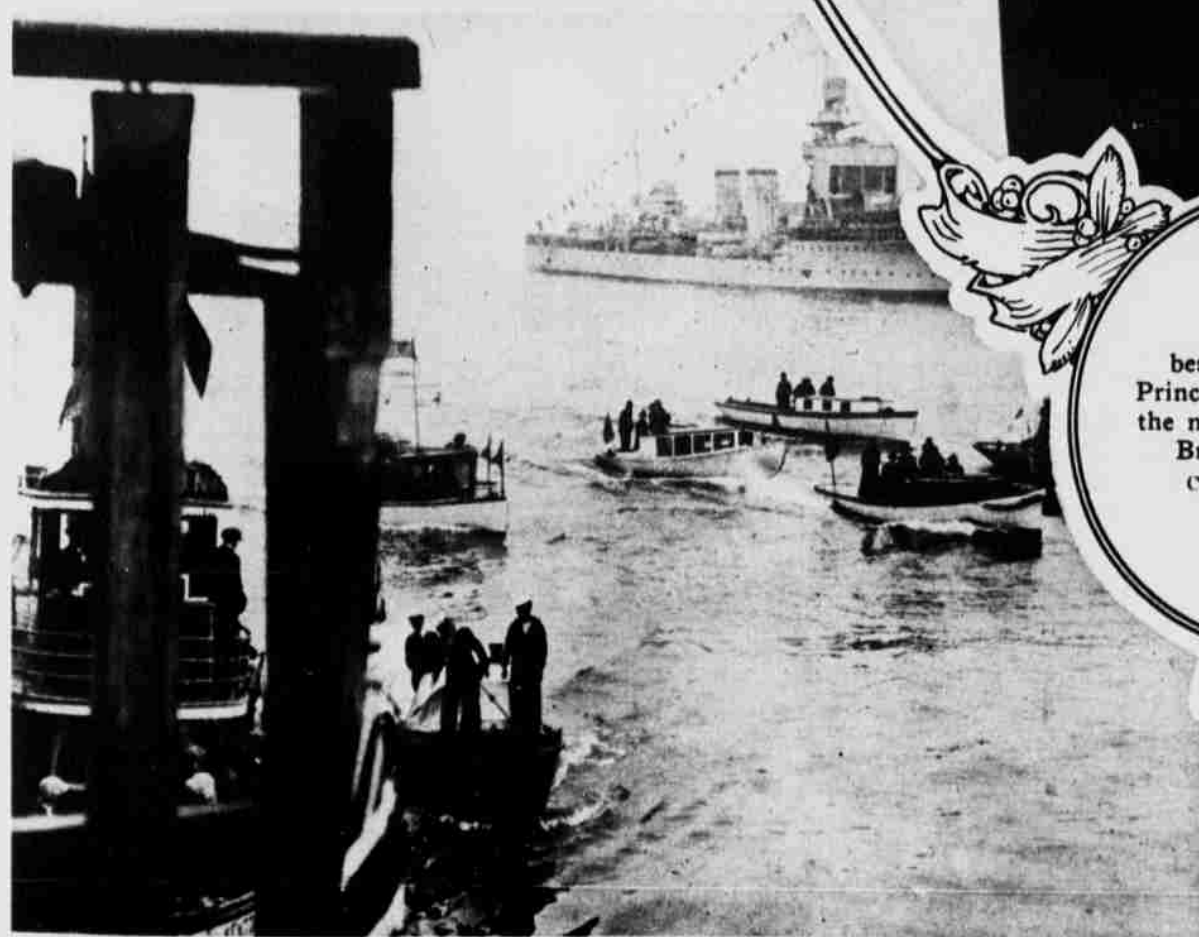

One of the best portraits of the Prince of Wales, guest of the nation, in uniform of British naval officer.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

This photograph of the Prince as Morning Star, Indian chief, was made especially for his own collection of incidents on the Canadian trip.

Copyright, Central News.

Landing of the Prince at Reed Point, St. John, N. B., the very spot where his grandfather, afterward Edward VII., first set foot on American soil in 1860. In the background is the Renown, the warship that brought the Prince over.

Copyright, International Film.

A canoe trip of thirty miles to Cameron Falls, Canada, was one of the Prince's experiences. Ordsen Loxy, chief Nipigon guide, is in the stern.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.