That Are Much the Better Part of the Costume

At Sensible Prices

Kumsi Kumsa appears for the new season in exquisite new patterns and shades—far more beautiful than ever before. An artistic diamond pattern seems highest in favor just now as it lends itself particularly well to the shirred and plaited styles that mark the new mode.

In our salon you will find it in exquisite colors—a soft red shade that is called "Heart of France," an Apricot tone known as "Capucini" and a wondrous shade of Orchid which has been christened "Pershing Orchid." Some of the loveliest models are of Wilson White. Then, too, there are combinations of League of Nations Blue with soft silver tones and a vivid Turquoise and White that is charming.

Crepe de Chine makes up many fetching models that are finished with shower ornaments of colored beads and large buckles of Ivory. Satin-striped Mirette is noticed in styles of rare beauty, as are fine white serge and wool jersey.

Skirts of white cotton Gabardine display interesting new style features.

Prices range from the Cotton Skirts at 7.75 to the loveliest of Silken ones at 34.75.

The Finest Furs Nature Produces

We know that our Furs are the finest obtainable, because they are Northern Furs—they come from the frozen northlands, where nature provides the thickest, longest, silkiest pelts, because there it is coldest. Our Squirrel Fur—even that used as trimming—comes from Siberia; our Mink is the finest Eastern Mink; our Seal comes from the icelands. Yet our prices are lower than prices being paid daily for inferior qualities.
