

Half a million destitute Serbian orphans will be fed and clothed as a result of this gathering, a tea at the home of Mrs. Oliver Harriman, 830 Park avenue. Among those present were:

Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Edward N. Breitung, Mrs. Oliver Harriman (sitting, third from right); Sergeant Farnum, Miss Everett W. Little, Mrs. Reginald Furman, Mrs. Philip Rhineland, 2d; Mr. Edward Crosby Brokaw, Mrs. Eugene Regnal, Miss Mary D. Steers, Mrs. William D. Sporburg, Mrs. Alfred C. Bossom, Miss Katherine Leith, Mrs. Julia D. Longfellow, William J. Doherty, United States Relief Commissioner just back from Serbia, and Col. William H. Cressy, Serbian army.

R. C. Leffingwell, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, prominently mentioned as a successor to Carter Glass, his chief.

Photo, International.

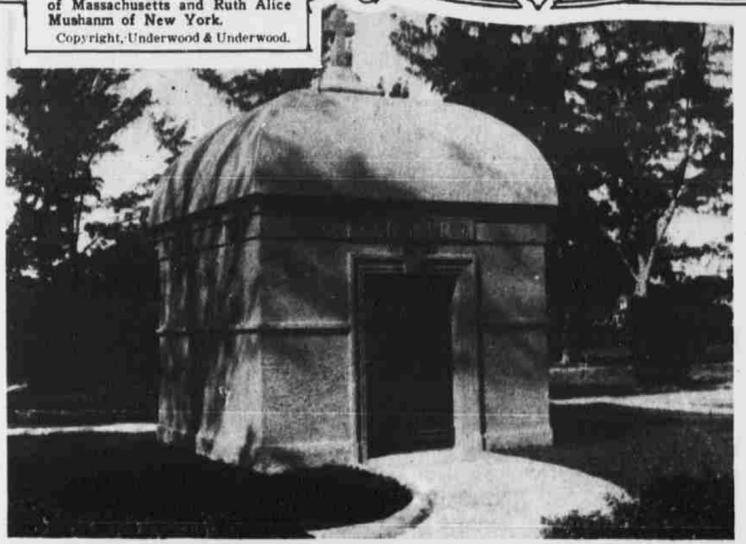

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Smith College girls in a skating carnival. In the group are:

Miss Eleanor Rau of Indianapolis, Ind.; Alice Chapman of New York; Frances Johnson of Massachusetts of Winchester, — Massachusetts, Dorothy Woods of Hatfield, Mass.; Constance Bower of Winchester, Mass.; Margaret Gable of New York, Mary Buttner of Massachusetts and Ruth Alice Mushann of New York.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

At Left — Tomb at West Palm Beach built by Richard Crocker, former chief of Tammany Hall.

At Right — Mr. and Mrs. Crocker in their garden at Palm Beach. They journey annually from Ireland to Florida to pass the winter.

Photos, copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

