The oyster supper at Mrs. C. W. Williams' on Friday night was considered "out of sight," by those who participated. A sleigh load of "old people" of this place took supper with W. P. Barr on Huston Hill, one night last week.

Walter Bar has turned his law office into an ice house and will furnish ice next summer, free of charge within the city limits. George still hands around the Havana's, since he is the proud and happy father of a bounding boy. He says the lad will be a help to him and his father in his old days.

The Hon. Judge Huntley Miller, of this place, announces himself a candidate for President Judge of this 25th Judicial district, subject to the rules governing the Prohibition party. "Con Lemuel" had an awful spasm last week and in an attempt to say something wrote one of the worst articles ever penned in the storm centre of ignorance. He said it would not do to run a poor farm on the same principle that a majority of the Mason Hill farms are conducted. Now, we don't pretend to farm like the great western farmer, but we always have all we want to eat, whether we raise it, buy it or steal it, and don't ask the county to build a poor house for our own especial benefit. He says farming is a science. I will admit that but when we have a year like last year (oats struck with the rust, buckwheat killed by the sun, potatoes struck with the blight, fruit, cabbage all elab rot, hay, wheat and rye rotted in the field by the continuous wet weather, how can a man in this rough, rocky, bleak, mountainous country make a living altogether on a farm? He also criticised Mr. Brooks' chicken story. He says he knows of a farm that two years ago raised 1,300 bushels of corn on ten acres. I think he exaggerated that story about half, because we have as good farms and farmers as there are in the county and they say seventy-five bushels per acre is an exceptionally good crop, while most farms only yield 40 or 50 bushels per acre. He also says everybody are in ignorance because they can't see the poor house question in the same light as he sees it. A man would be a fool to preach up a doctrine that would be detrimental to his own benefit; and now I will say as the Dents Run scribbler said, that perhaps friend "Con" has a farm for sale (this is no doubt the farm that raised 1,300 bushels of corn) or never owned any property, or still better probably he contemplates going to the poor house, if there be one established. DING, Feb. 14, 1898.

Sterling Run Letter. James Mason is somewhat under the weather. S. S. Hackett, of the Independent, was canvassing our town Saturday. D. B. Peterson, of Cameron, had business in town last week. Dr. Smith made us a professional call Sunday.

A number of our young people enjoyed themselves immensely at the home of Miss Cora Mason, last Friday evening. We are glad to note that our old friend Patrick Killen is improving from his recent illness. Miss Jessie Kissell visited Emporium between trains Saturday.

Postmaster Lewis, R. Frank and son Gregg, were passengers to the county seat, Saturday. Miss Mae Darrin has returned from a few day's visit with Emporium friends. Some low-lived scoundrel entered C. C. Craven's barn, one night last week, and cut his cow's tail off. The work-house is too good for such a villain.

Sam'l Ebersole, Jr., who has been working at Straits, Pa., for the last three months, returned home Sunday evening, for election. Rip.

Huston Hill. Snow all gone. Plenty of mud. Warren and John says, "The taffy ain't good." Not much wonder.

Mrs. Maud and Alizina Barr were the guests of Mrs. Tina Miller, on Wednesday. Wonder what takes the school dad over to Powell's so often? Mr. A. S. Bailey is selling stoves. He makes a good agent; is a good talker and is having remarkable success—selling from six to eight ranges daily.

Huntley Miller and Orlo Miller sawed nine cords of wood in four hours last Saturday. Harvey Hicks and Norman Strait started for Marshfield, Tioga county, last Friday. The distance is forty-eight miles across the mountains. Wonder what takes Omer down to Hanscom's so often? Hanscom is going to grow seventy-five bushels of strawberries this year. Last year he grew sixty bushels and sold fifty bushels at ten cents per quart.

Last Wednesday night the pumpkin rig came into town, arousing our citizens from their peaceful slumbers by their yelling, crowing and singing. The rig came from Mason Hill. Judging from the noise they made they were out serenading, instead of sleighriding. The next time you come don't make so much noise. BALL BABY.

Rich Valley Notes. Editor Press:—Joseph Housler, of Lock Haven, came up Saturday to see his many friends. Mrs. Lydia A. Lewis went to Cameron last Saturday returning on mail Sunday morning. The nights are dark and the roads are very muddy but the prayer meetings are going on as usual.

Another little lady has come to live in our valley; this time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lu. Wheaton. G. E. Housler has sold his farm and is moving into one part of his father's house. There was once a certain king who made an image and then made a law that all people and nations should worship the image, and all who would not worship should be cast into a fiery furnace. This was the law of the land but there were three men who refused to obey this law, because the law of God said they should not make images nor worship them. Ex. 20; 4, 5. So they were cast into the furnace, but the only effect the fire had upon them was to burn the things with which they were bound and set them free, because they refused to obey the law of the land when it was contrary to the law of God. See Daniel, third chapter.

There was another king who made a law that no man should ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, except of this king. But it was contrary to God's law and one man refused to obey, but knelt and prayed to God three times a day, just as he had done before. He was cast into a den of lions; but God sent an angel and shut the lion's mouths, because he refused to obey the laws of the land when they conflicted with the laws of God. See Daniel 6. Then the apostles were forbidden by those in authority to preach in the name of Jesus; but God had commanded them to preach. And Peter and the other apostles answered and said: "We ought to obey God rather than men." Acts 5; 29.

Now did these men do right in refusing to obey the law of the land? They certainly did, as every honest Bible student will admit. Then is there not a lesson in this for us? If we refuse to obey the law of the land we will probably be punished but we dare not do otherwise when it is contrary to the law of God. We will obey God's law and leave the result with Him. We are thankful that "the God who lived in Daniel's time is just the same to-day." And He is able to deliver those who put their trust in Him. Feb. 15, 1898. AFINA.

Mothers Friend. What is it? Much has been said and written about it but the half has not been told. It is a remedy which if used by Expectant Mothers robs the ordeal through which they all have to pass of an incredible amount of suffering and makes her recovery more rapid. "If a price can be placed on pain, "Mother's Friend" is worth its weight in gold as an alleviator. My wife suffered more in ten minutes with either of her other two children than she did altogether with her last, having previously used four bottles of "Mother's Friend." It is a blessing to any expectant mother, says a customer." HENDERSON DALE, Druggist, Carmi, Ill.

If any lady who desires to investigate the merits of Mother's Friend will send their address we will mail to her free of charge our little book containing valuable information and voluntary testimonials. THE BRADFELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga. Sold by druggists.
