

Old Reliable Drug Store.

Owing to the very liberal patronage I have had from our people and in view of the hard times I will until MAY 1st, reduce the price of Physicians Prescriptions as follows, viz:

- All 1 oz. mixtures, regular price, 20 to 15
All 2 oz. mixtures, regular price, 25 to 19
All 3 oz. mixtures, regular price, 35 to 25
All 4 oz. mixtures, regular price, 45 to 30
All 6 oz. mixtures, regular price, 65 to 50
All 8 oz. mixtures, regular price, 85 to 65

And a corresponding reduction on all packages of Powders, Pills, Ointments Also liberal discount on all Patent Medicines, Baby Foods, Perfumes, Toilet and Fancy Articles and extra liberal discount on Fountain Syringes, Hot Water Bottles, Atomizers and Nursing Bottles.

I will guarantee my goods to be strictly fresh and equal to any goods in the market.

Thirty years experience in the town of Emporium is sufficient evidence of competency. If you wish to avail yourself of the liberal offer, leave your Physician's Prescriptions and drug trade in general at the OLD RELIABLE DRUG STORE.

BRIEF MENTION.

Judge Harry White, of Indiana county, defines what he considers a man of intemperate habits, and consequently a man who should be refused intoxicants in the following words: "To our mind, then, a man so given to the habit that he occasionally gets under the influence, yields to the temptation of getting liquor when offered, or accepts a treat whenever invited, leaves his employment in working hours to get a drink, spends his earnings for it while other responsibilities are neglected, feeds a growing appetite for liquor without any effort to control, is a person of intemperate habits. When known to the community in general or in the neighborhood where he lives, or among the people with whom he has intercourse and see him from time to time in the indulgence of these habits, he is under the ban of liquor laws as "A person of known intemperate habits."

Philadelphia Press: The opinion was expressed by Pennsylvania Congressman that Senator Quay and Mr. Magee reached an understanding at their conferences and that the candidate will soon be brought forward whom they will both support. It is regarded here as probable that Mr. Wanamaker will not consent to be a candidate. Representative C. W. Stone is being prominently mentioned as a most likely compromise candidate. Representative Olmsted, of Harrisburg, has also been mentioned. He stated to-day that the use of his name was without his knowledge or authority. Mr. Olmsted is by no means a factional man and for this reason is regarded as a possible compromise.

Some writer in an exchange emphasizes a great truth when he says: "A black ball in a secret society is not a club with which to avenge a personal grievance. It is not a dagger for a coward's use with which to even up an old score. It is not a brush dipped in black paint with which to besmirch the character of one who may hold different views from your own. A black ball is a fraternity's shield, to protect not individuals but the order from those who would injure it. It should never be cast with a prejudiced mind or a selfish thought. Remember, it is a serious thing to constitute one's self judge, jury and executioner in one single act without the orders interests demand it.

Among the passengers on the steamer City of Seattle, which sailed on February 9th for Alaska, were Joseph and Charles Cochran, sons of State Senator J. Henry Cochran, of Williamsport, Frank Forsman, also of that city, and Mr. Anderson, of Tacoma, accompanied them. This party purchased their outfits at Tacoma and they are said to be the best equipped that ever left the coast for the Klondike. The last heard from the party was at Victoria, which place they had reached in safety.

An exchange is responsible for the following: Here's to the kicker, the treacherous kicker, the kicker who is never true; who always is crying and never is trying some good for his town to do. No use to correct him nor need you expect him to come to the front like a man; while others will hustle he sits down and rustles objections to raise to each plan.

A few days ago a number of Bradford young married women were discussing the subject of dress. Several of them were of the belief that they should use one-half of their husband's income for this purpose, whereupon one of them remarked: "If I could only dress to the extent of one-half of my husband's income, I would be arrested for indecent exposure."—Bradford Star.

The Butler Times remarks: The sentiment among Republicans in the Northwestern Pennsylvania counties seems to be growing in favor of the nomination of Congressman C. W. Stone, of Warren, for Governor. Mr. Stone will probably have every delegate from Butler north in the western tier of counties.

The coincidence of the two leading candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor being named Stone, and both members of Congress, is leading to some confusion, remarks the Philadelphia Press. There is no reason why these gentlemen should get mixed in anybody's mind. They are entirely distinct. One is Charles Warren Stone, of Warren county, who has rendered important service in the Legislature, as Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of the Commonwealth and in Congress. The other is William A. Stone, of Allegheny, who having been United States District Attorney, was afterwards elected to Congress to succeed the late Thomas M. Bayne. They can be distinguished by their political relations and associations as well as by the fact that one comes from Warren county and the other from Allegheny. Unless these things are borne in mind there is likely to be a mixture now and then, for the average of people are not careful about initials.—Kane Republican.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Gordon, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at L. Taggart's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.
