EDITOR'S NOTICE.

WHEN you see this item marked with an X across its face you will know that your subscription is due, or past due. Your name will be found printed on each copy of the Press, as you receive it, and gives the last date to which you have paid. Our terms are $2.00 if not paid in advance, $1.50 in advance. Many, very many, of our patrons allow their subscriptions to run year after year. This we are unable to stand. It requires money to purchase paper and pay employees and we must insist upon the payment of subscriptions due us. We have been patient, but "patience has ceased to be a virtue," and we now propose to weed out all those subscribers who show no disposition to pay for their paper. We labor hard to give the public a good journal and while a majority of our patrons realize that fact and pay for it there are hundreds who never give the matter a passing thought, taking it for granted that we will always send them the Press, whether we receive pay or not. We have had an elegant sufficiency of that kind of kindness. If you want this paper pay for it—if you don't want it, stop it and pay what you owe. We know money is scarce in this county, yet we also know that our delinquents could pay if they desired—a part at least.

Chicken Thief.

Daniel Britton informs us that he detected a chap in the act of stealing chickens last Sunday night. He desires us to state that a well loaded shot gun awaits any further visits from these midnight marauders.

Now Don't Forget

That Rockwell's is the place to go for soda water and ice cream soda for the reason that the water is boiled and filtered, then charged with carbonic acid gas. Syrup jars are solid porcelain, so there can be no impurities.

Ice Cream and Cake.

The Emergency Class of the Presbyterian Sabbath school will serve ice cream and cake on the lawn between the Crane block and W. D. White's residence this Thursday evening, Aug. 4th. The following flavors will be served: Vanilla, chocolate, peach, carnal and orange ice.

Dr. Ullsh Heard From.

The editor of the Press has received a private letter from Dr. W. H. Ullsh, who is Asst. Surgeon on the U. S. S. "Yankton," dated Guantanamo, Cuba, July 23. The Dr. is well and writes an interesting letter. We should like to publish it, but the regulations are such that we dare not do it.

Union Sabbath School Convention.

The first annual convention of the Lumber, Gibson and Grove Union Sabbath School Association will be held at Mason Hill, Friday and Saturday, Aug 12th and 13th. A very interesting program has been prepared. The prominent Sabbath school workers of the county are down on the program for addresses.

One Hundred Years Old.

We were reliably informed last week through John Taylor, of Roulette, that his father, John E. Taylor, formerly of Emporium but now living at Leoux, Minn., had celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of his birth on June 4th, and was still enjoying fair health, being able to be up around the house the greater part of the time. Mr. Taylor resided at Emporium until about five years ago when he went west to live with his daughter in Minnesota.

New Train Service.

We understand that through the efforts of Manager John J. Soble, a through train of parlor, dining and buffet sleeping cars has been established on the W. N. Y. & P. Ry., to run between Port Allegany and Emporium for the accommodation of the Emporium Base Ball Club. Those fortunate enough to secure transportation on this elegantly equipped train report the service complete in every detail.

Any one desiring to take advantage of the conveniences offered by the early morning train; south-bound, should consult the late revised timetable, which can be seen at the office of Mr. A. C. Blum.

The following report was made on the R. R. register, by the engineer of train number 1492, which reached Emporium about two o'clock, Friday morning July 29th: "Had clear track and good running, air unusually cool, passed Port Allegany at 12:50. A large number of persons, some with crash suits on, were visible on the platform at the depot; semaphore showed white signal." The conductor and brakemen on this train reported much strong language used about depot at Port Allegany, while train was passing.

Another "hay-ride" to Sizerville, is booked for this week.

Life in the Navy Yard.

MARINE BARRACKS,
League Island, Pa.

Editor Press:—
When I left Emporium I promised to write to the Press. Owing to the fact, however, that I have not yet gotten to the front, nor am I liable to, I will strive to give to the readers of the Press a short account of our mode of life and duties in the Navy Yard.

The U. S. Marine Corps, though the oldest military organization in the country, is, I think, the least known of any branch of the service. Not that they are considered as a secondary branch, as the actions of our brave boys in Cuba would refute. The reason is, it is the smallest branch in the service, numbering, when I enlisted, less than 3,600 men. Since then, however, the number has been rapidly increasing. When I enlisted they were taking nothing but five year men, but now the enlistment reads "during the war."

I learn from some of my friends that my reception in Philadelphia became public through Mr. Landis, Chief Coiner at the Mint. Of Mr. Landis, I must say he is a perfect gentleman. He treated my comrade, Mr. Alfred Trude, and myself to a courtesy fit for any true born American citizen, though I told him I was only a foreigner. He put himself to a great deal of inconvenience to "put us onto the ropes." On returning after having enlisted his kindness did not then cease. He called a guide, put us in his care and sent us through the Mint. While the other visitors had to stand on the outside of the railing, we were taken inside, and we were allowed to handle the bright, shining coins—gold, silver and bronze—new from the stamp. To say we were overjoyed with Mr. Landis is to express it tamely. We shall always remember Mr. Landis as our first Philadelphia friend. I would also extend my thanks to Messrs. Johnson & McNarney for their glowing letter of introduction to such a man.

However, this is not life at League Island. I will therefore now strive to give a short account of my sojourn here. Our barracks are situated at the gate of the Navy Yard, on South Broad street, about four and a half miles from the public buildings. They consist of officers' quarters on west of Broad street and guard house on the east, with the gate between; extending east from guard house are Mess Hall, Kitchen, Clothing Room, and No. 2 quarters. At right angles with Mess Hall, south, is No. 1 quarters. At southern end, east, are Colonel Forney's office, First Serg't Rooke's office, bath room and library. To fill out the square, we have canteen, orderly room, my carpenter shop and coal shed. At the extreme south of the square and facing the back channels (the fresh water basin for storing ships when out of commission) is our shooting gallery, bowling alley and gymnasium. Our bugle calls are as follows: 6:15 a. m., reveille; 6:35 a. m., roll call; 7:00 a. m., breakfast; 7:30, police call; 8:30 guard mount; 9:00 a. m., drill; 9:30 a. m., sick call; 10:00 a. m., inspection; 10:30 a. m., Saturday only, fire quarters; 12:00 p. m., dinner; 1:00 p. m., till 4:00 p. m., supper; sundown, retreat; 9:00 p. m., tattoo; 9:15, taps. Guard duty lasts twenty-four hours—two on and four off. Drill lasts one hour in forenoon and one hour afternoon. Now do not picture Jim marching up and down the navy yard with a rifle on his shoulder. No; no! Picture a little carpenter shop with Jim presiding and you've got him.

I have volunteered three times to go to the front, since I came here. Col. James Forney, who is at present in command of the Marine Guard at Portsmouth, N. H., who are over Carter's sailors, was our commander here until July. He only laughed at me when I volunteered and said there was more need for me at League Island than at the front. I am here for the summer at least, if not for five years.

Mr. D. D. Alderfer and sons George and Clem paid me a pleasant visit and we made a tour of the Navy Yard and the Marine Quarters. George made the remark that our quarters beat Emery's camp all to pieces. Our quarters and mess are all right. I work six and one-half hours a day: 8:00 a. m. till 11:30 a. m., and 1:00 p. m., till 4:00 p. m. From 4:00 p. m., till 8:00 a. m., I am at liberty to go where I please; do as I please.

Now, lest the editor and readers alike, get disgusted, I'll quit; with a cheer for the Army and Navy of the U. S. A.

JAMES CASSELS,
July 25th, 1898.

Finely Equipped Office.

While in Ridgway a few days ago, we visited the post-office so ably conducted by W. H. Baker and efficient assistants, and certainly was surprised to see how elegantly it was arranged for the prompt dispatch of business. The office is located in the business centre of the town and is fitted up in first-class city style, with a modern outfit, such as is used in cities of the first-class. It is the best arranged office in this section and has been made a second-class office by the department at Washington. The citizens of Ridgway certainly realize the fact that Mr. Baker is giving them first-class service and is not sparing money to furnish them the best. Ridgway and Emporium offices are the best equipped, and, we believe, the best conducted of any between Warren and Williamsport.

Death of Prominent Mason.

Byron F. Ely, a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity, died at Ridgway on Monday. His funeral took place on Wednesday, the services being conducted by Knapp Commandery. Many from Emporium attended.

Odd Fellows Picnic.

The Northern Tier Association of I. O. O. F. will hold their seventh annual meeting at Roulette, Pa., on Thursday, August 11th, consisting of basket picnic, ball game, between Roulette and Emporium, grand civic parade and bicycle parade, besides two able addresses by Grand Master, McKeever, of Philadelphia and Esau Loomis Deputy Grand Master, of West Chester. All baskets and baggage will be taken care of by a committee at the train. Good meals will be served on the grounds. Half fare rates have been secured on all railroads and special trains, making good connections at all points, will be run on the W. N. Y. & P. Splendid time is assured to all who attend.

Fast Black.

When Henry Graham returned from a visit on Monday evening, he discovered that several razors and clippers, also a fine razor hone, and over ten dollars in money, were missing from his barber shop on Broad street. He immediately had a warrant sworn out for the arrest of Harry Dale, who had been employed to take charge of the shop in Mr. Graham's absence. In the meantime Dale had boarded Philadelphia & Erie mail, east, which leaves at 9:40 p. m., and word was sent to Renovo to have him arrested on the train when it reached there. Upon the arrival of the train at Renovo, Mr. R. A. Reed, of the P. R. R. Co.'s special officer, took Mr. Dale in custody and brought him back to Emporium, on Tuesday morning, where he was brought before Squire Larrabee, who after hearing the evidence, bound Dale over for his appearance at court, in the sum of $300. In default of bail he was committed to the tender keeping of Sheriff Mundy.

Won by a Score.

Last Thursday's game between the Port Allegany boys and our own team was one of the most hotly contested games ever seen on the Port Allegany grounds. It was a game "for blood" and the very flower of the base ball talent of both towns had been selected for the contest, a large crowd of spectators were present and enthusiasm ran high.

At 4:20 the game was called Bush going in the box for Emporium and Overturf for Port Allegany. Up to the seventh inning Emporium played errorless ball, the score at that stage of the game, registering 2-0 in our favor, but owing to the failure on the part of Morgan to trap a ball, thrown for the purpose of catching a man on third, which together with his unexplainable action in refusing to field the ball caused by his own error allowed the Port Allegany boys to score twice, which number was increased to three before they were retired for that inning.

With the game standing 3-2 against us, our boys went to the bat determined to atone for the costly error of the seventh. Lee got a base on balls and by successful stealing managed to reach home, thus tying the score. Port Allegany suffered a shut out in the eighth and as Emporium did the same in the ninth the score stood 3-3 with Port Allegany at the bat. Bush struck out two men but a wild throw by Lee let Page, who was on third, in home, and for the first time in the history of its games with Emporium, Port Allegany was acknowledged the victor. Score—3-4.

Batteries:—Port Allegany, Overturf and Cavanaugh. Emporium, Bush, Mumford and Lee.

Died on the Train.

On Wednesday evening, Jacob Werkman, accompanied by his daughter, boarded Niagara Express at Round Island intending to go to his home at Johnsonburg. Mr. Werkman was very ill when he got on the train and seemed to be suffering great pain. As the train pulled into Emporium junction he grew suddenly worse and fell back in his seat in a dying condition. The railroad officials telephoned Dr. Bardwell to meet the train at the upper depot, which he did, but upon examination pronounced life extinct, and the remains were removed to the baggage car and placed on a stretcher. Deceased was sixty years old and formerly superintended the lath mill at Cameron, Pa.

Be sure you read E. M. Hurteau's big auction "ad" in this issue.

Appeal to Cameron County.

The associated society of the Red Cross, of Philadelphia, has, during the present war and the distress in Cuba, which preceded the breaking out of hostilities between our country and Spain, been actively engaged in its humanitarian work of ministering to the necessities of the men in the field and of the suffering Cubans. It has sent many articles of comfort, even of life saving importance to our troops in their various camps, sometimes in response to the most touching appeals; the appeal came and the society was ready. It has besides made a large number of shipments of goods, provisions, clothing and medicines to the Cubans. In all its work it has been nobly upheld, notably by the people of Philadelphia, but also by those of other parts of the State and of New Jersey.

During the blockade and siege of Santiago, one branch of its ministrations was necessarily suspended, but the society was not idle—stores continued to be received, money to be collected. Among other things the equipment of a field ambulance and hospital service has been undertaken, and already has so far proceeded as to be properly regarded as an accomplished fact, and the society will be able to put into the field six ambulances with their proper appurtenances and a properly equipped field hospital.

The fall of Santiago re-opens the opportunity for merciful work in Cuba. The society has already made arrangements to forward several tons of stores which have only been waiting a chance to be sent, and has appropriated in addition to this shipment, $1,200. But this is but a drop in the ocean of suffering. More must be done. The society proposes, therefore to charter a steamer to sail from Philadelphia about August 15th, to convey the ambulance corps and equipment to the front and to load the vessel with stores, such as soldiers may need and which the Government does not provide, and with clothing, food and medicine and such other things as may be required by those wretched, suffering people whom we encourage to resist Spain and to make a struggle for liberty, and whose suffering has been fearfully and necessarily enhanced by the war upon which we have entered.

The society, therefore, appeals to what has never been appealed to in vain—to the grand old heart of Pennsylvania, the grand old Commonwealth whose foundations were laid in love to man, irrespective of race—and asks for contributions of goods and money to enable it to carry out its project, to save lives, to relieve suffering, to feed the starving, to clothe the naked. The society makes this appeal in all confidence. Pennsylvania has never failed when called upon in the name of patriotism and humanity. She will not fail now.
