

THE CAMERON COUNTY PRESS.

ESTABLISHED BY C. E. GOULD, MARCH, 1866.

"Liberty and Union, One and Inseparable."—WEBSTER.

TERMS: $2.00—$1.50 IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 33.

EMPORIUM PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1898.

NO. 25.

EDITOR'S NOTICE.

WHEN you see this item marked with an X across its face you will know that your subscription is due, or past due. Your name will be found printed on each copy of the Press, as you receive it and gives the last date to which you have paid. Our terms are $2.00 if not paid in advance, $1.50 in advance. Many, very many, of our patrons allow their subscriptions to run year after year. This we are unable to stand. It requires money to purchase paper and pay employees and we must insist upon the payment of subscriptions due us. We have been patient, but "patience has ceased to be a virtue," and we now propose to weed out all those subscribers who show no disposition to pay for their paper. We labor hard to give the public a good journal and while a majority of our patrons realize that fact and pay for it there are hundreds who never give the matter a passing thought, taking it for granted that we will always send them the Press, whether we receive pay or not. We have had an elegant sufficiency of that kind of kindness. If you want this paper pay for it—if you don't want it, stop it and pay what you owe. We know money is scarce in this county, yet we also know that our delinquents could pay if they desired—a part at least.

Republican County Committee.

The Republican county committee met at the Warner House last Thursday, to fix the date for the holding of the primary election and county convention. Every district in the county was represented and the best of feeling prevailed. On motion it was resolved that the primary election be held on Saturday, Sept. 24th, and the convention on Tuesday, Sept. 27th.

The committee passed a resolution empowering the committeemen from each district to select the delegates to be voted at the primaries, also that all candidates file their names with the Secretary of the County Committee that their name may be printed on the tickets to be presented to the primary election officers in each district. It was also decided that inasmuch as the Associate Judge to be nominated is conceded to the eastern section of the county that no instructions be voted for said office in Shippen and Emporium—leaving the delegates free. That the Republicans may fully understand the matter, we will briefly give the plan decided upon. Each district is entitled to a certain number of delegates; the committeemen from each district will select the exact number of Republicans to act as delegates and place their names in the hands of the Secretary of the county committee; the Secretary of the county committee will place the names at the top of the ticket; below will follow the names of all candidates for the several county offices; the voter will mark an X after the candidate he desires to vote for and the candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast in each district will receive the votes, in the convention, of the delegates from his district for five ballots. The plan is practically the Crawford county system and gives the voter a choice of candidates, not leaving the decision to the delegates. The tickets will be placed in the hands of the chairman of the district committee. The primary election will be conducted under the Act of Assembly. We believe the new system will work better and be more harmonious than a general, at times disgusting, scramble for delegates. The plan adopted is honest and fair to all.

Back From Alaska.

Edward Dion, Jas. Lysett and Urban Butler returned from Alaska last Saturday. They report all Emporium men, located in that country, as being well and doing well. The boys are glad to get home and are content to remain here.

To Farmers.

I desire to inform the farmers of this and adjoining counties that I have recently purchased a Fearless Thresher and Cleaner, and am prepared to do any work in this line in first-class manner and at reasonable rates. Having the best machinery I take pride in giving my customers good clean work.

I am also making contracts to bale hay, having purchased the Eli hay press. Give me a call.

L. G. COOK, Emporium, Pa., Aug. 8, 1898.—24tf

A Model Farm.

In a slightly place, between 400 and 500 feet above the valley, on one of the prominent hills which surround Warren, with a background of native forest, standing on the brow of the hill, is the summer home of Hon. C. W. Stone.

Some distance back of this comfortable country home is the Airmont dairy farm, stocked with a registered herd of Jersey and Holstein cows, well cared for in comfortable barns, arranged for wintering and storing the crops that are produced by good farming and judicious fertilizing of the cultivated land.

The nearness of the farm to the Warren Electric Power company's plant makes it practicable to use electricity, power being used is generated by means of a 15 horse power motor and used whenever power is needed. Especially is this convenient in putting up ensilage, of which large quantities are used, and it is considered one of the best milk-producing forages of the farm.

All the domestic stock on the farm shows great care in selection, and Mr. Stone does not object to riding behind some fine roadsters when at home during his vacations, having laid aside his official duties. It is then that he finds his farm a resort for rest and recreation and a never-ending source of pleasure in watching the progress of improvements, such as making roads, setting out varieties of trees and shrubs, obtained at home and abroad, and there is no greater enjoyment for our worthy Congressman than the taking of a hand in this work himself.

Mr. Stone's knowledge of horticulture is extensive as is evidenced by his farm and as can be seen at his Warren residence where the grounds are covered with a fine variety and collection of ornamental and fruit bearing trees. Among the ornamental variety are the English oak and walnut and the St. Helena weeping willow.

At the close of President Harrison's campaign in '88 the large log cabin that was erected on the late Judge Scofield's lot on Liberty street by Harrison's supporters, and which did excellent service in the progress of the local campaign to the Republican cause, was purchased by Mr. Stone and carefully taken down, removed and re-erected at a conspicuous point on his farm west of Warren, a large old fashioned fire-place having been added for parties frequently given by the family of our Congressman, and it is a common saying: "A party up at Stone's to-night; see the light."

A gas well on the farm furnishes gas for heat and light, and when the family are at home a large beacon light may be seen guiding and welcoming the guests to this hospitable farm and country home.—Warren Mirror.

Harmony all Along the Line.

Senator Quay and David Martin met at Philadelphia last Thursday and now the Combine and Anti-Combine factions will bury the differences and work together for the success of the Republican ticket at the November election and the re-election of Quay to the Senate. This is a Republican year and harmony all along the line is the watch-word. Cameron county Republicans will join the column to victory.

Enacted by the School Board.

At a recent meeting of the Borough School Board a resolution was passed, that all pupils attending the public schools last year who were not present for examination at the close of last term must be examined before they can be promoted. Examinations will begin at 9:00 a. m. in the High School building, Thursday, Aug. 25th. Those who cannot be present on that day will remain in the rooms in which they were last year until another date set for examination.

A Slight Blaze.

The alarm of fire was sounded in the west ward, Sunday evening at nine o'clock and upon investigation was found to be at the dwelling house on Sixth street, occupied by W. W. Weeks and owned by Hyde, Murphy & Co., of Ridgway. The flames had eaten a small hole on the inside wall, back of the kitchen stove, and were soon extinguished with the aid of a few pails of water. The family were out of town on an excursion at the time and Mr. Weeks thinks it must have been the work of incendiaries.

Barn Destroyed.

About two o'clock Tuesday morning, the barn belonging to John Costello, located at the rear of Eagle Hotel, was discovered to be on fire and a general alarm was given, which was quickly responded to by all four companies.

The Citizens and Hook's were the first to arrive on the scene and their prompt action prevented the fire from spreading to the adjoining buildings, and in a short time had the flames entirely subdued.

Mr. Costello estimates his loss on the barn and contents at $200, with no insurance. It is reported that a number of "hoboes" were seen issuing from the burning building at the time the alarm was given.

Keeping Up His Record.

There is probably no where around, a more prosperous business man than Frank McGloin, the "sailor boy grocer," and real estate owner of Ridgway. For the past twenty-six years he has resided in the borough of Ridgway and he can with just pride point to the fact that he owns and has paid for a house for every year he has been in the town. On Tuesday he closed one of the biggest real estate deals of the season and became the owner of the R. I. Robinson property, corner of Center and Elk streets, which he purchased from W. H. Hyde, paying therefore the round sum of $8,000.

The newly acquired property consists of two lots facing Centre St., on which there are three good dwelling houses. The houses are very desirable ones and are now occupied by H. H. TenBroeck, Herman Nauert and Thos. C. Galbraith's families respectively. Mr. McGloin's 27 years residence in Ridgway will not be reached until next March, and, in order that his record for one house for every year may not be broken, it is his intention to build on one of the new lots before that time. He is a good landlord and keeps his properties in good repair, thus pleasing his tenants and maintaining the value of his investments.

Mr. McGloin is not much of a man for fuss and feathers, and he is perfectly well satisfied if he can but become the owner of "just what joins" his own property. His valuable holdings of real estate have been acquired by close attention to business and all who patronize his grocery or have any dealings with him in any line of trade always find that he sells at the lowest possible living profits and that he handles only goods that he can recommend to his friends.—Ridgway Advocate.

Frank McGloin is well and favorably known in this section. For many years he was associated with M. C. Tulis, of Emporium and together they traveled this country, visiting the people who seldom had an opportunity to visit the stores. Mr. McGloin married Miss Mary Farrell, of Emporium, a very excellent young lady. Their host of Cameron county friends are pleased to know they have prospered.

Sinnemahoning News.

Theodore Kephart is confined to his home, a victim of typhoid fever.

Miss Blanch Motter, one of Williamsport's charming young ladies is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Julia Earl, of Depew, N. Y., has been a Sinnemahoning visitor during the past week.

B. V. Wykoff has commenced operations in Montour's Run and will employ a large force of men there from now until driving time.

A few days ago Brady Weikel a farmer, of Grove, discovered that one of his hen's nests was being robbed so he placed a china egg in the nest near the side of the barn in which was a knot hold. That evening when he put his hand in the nest he caught hold of a large blacksnake which had swallowed the artificial egg, and being unable to make his usual exit through the knot hole had made himself a prisoner and was promptly executed by his captor. Now this is not a production of the liars club nor the result of an over-indulgence in Joe M's snake producing fluid, but is a true bill and can be vouched for by Bill Michaels or Norman Johnson. ANGUS.

North Creek Items.

D. N. Chandler had the misfortune to cut his foot very bad a few days ago.

Alfred Marsh who has been working for Robt' Warner for a year left Monday for his home in Potter county.

Mrs. Eliza Harman and daughter Beulah, of Rich Valley and Miss Elizabeth McNalley, of Lock Haven, were guests of W. B. Moore's and Elihu Housler's families the past week.

Chas. Chadwick is laid up with a lame arm caused by receiving a severe blow from a skid, while rolling logs.

Leon Brundage, of Wrights, Pa., is working for J. W. Lewis.

A party of our people were taking in the sights at the Kinzua Bridge, last Friday and Saturday. All report a pleasant time.

Elihu Housler who has been ill for the past three months, is able to be out again.

Rev. Walter Readett and family were callers at some homes on Friday.

Mrs. E. Housler has been having a severe swelling on her right hand. It is some better at this writing.

Miss Alice Lewis has been quite ill for a few days.

MUCH TALK.

Sterling Run Budget.

A. W. Mason has commenced shipping bark to L. R. Gleason & Sons' tannery at Driftwood.

Bessie Baker of Coudersport, formerly of this place is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jos Kissell.

Sterling Run is famous for its two B. B.—base ball and blackberries.

Drs. Bardwell and Smith were here on a professional visit a few days ago. Mason Hill seems anxious of our whereabouts. We would say that they are too fond of chicken there for us, which accounts for things disappearing mysteriously at the convention last Saturday. For further information we refer you to Sam'l Ebersole.

Mel. Smith and wife are visiting his father, Samuel Smith, for a few days.

Jos. Kissel and Benj. Dayton have both taken bark jobs of Whiting & Thomas in Potter county, draying to the railroad.

There is some very loud talk in regard to parties here who blockade the sidewalks at night and molest people who are attending to their own business. We understand this business will be stopped even if it has to be brought before the grand jury when they meet, as unlawful assemblages, resulting in a public nuisance.

The potato harvest will be about one half a crop this fall. Blight and dry weather is the cause.

Miss Amy Summerson, one of Gibson township school teachers is taking in the firemen's convention at Ridgway.

Mrs. Julia Earl, of Depew, N. Y., is visiting relatives here.
