REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

For Governor, Wm. A. Stone, of Allegheny. For Lieutenant-Governor, J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon. For Secretary of Internal Affairs, Joseph W. Latta, of Philadelphia.

Still Talking of Sibley.

So far as can be ascertained by a reading of the newspapers of the Twenty-seventh Congressional district, composed of Warren, Venango, Cameron and McKean counties, it does not matter to the Republicans whether Mr. Sibley accepts the Democratic nomination there or not.

The Republicans of the district have the dual advantage of a candidate in the person of the statesmanlike Charles W. Stone, who has been tried far beyond the ordinary representative in many public capacities, and who always acquitted himself honorably and to the advantage of the district; and in the fact that their majority is large enough to admit of a reduced vote without even slightly imperiling the election of their Congressional ticket.

In view of these facts it might be advisable for Mr. Sibley to accept the nomination. Defeated in his own district, he would also be defeated here, and thus be eliminated from the politics of that section except as a contributor to campaign funds or as an adviser whose advice would in all probability be rejected.—Kane Republican.

STONE SPEAKS TO THE VETERANS

Addresses the Soldiers' and Sailors' Encampment at Athens. Special Despatch to the Press.

TOWANDA, Aug. 26.—Colonel W. A. Stone, of Allegheny, to-day made his second address in Bradford county, when he spoke at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Encampment at Athens. Notwithstanding it was the last day of the gathering, there was a very large crowd on hand.

Colonel Stone spoke particularly to the veterans, and, reviewing pension matters, said in part: "It is due almost entirely to the Republican party that the defenders of the Union receive each year the munificent sum of $143,000,000.

On the return of the victorious soldiers of the Spanish-American conflict this sum will be largely increased, as the general pension laws apply to those disabled in the wars of the United States, not specifying any particular conflict. This is proper and the country can afford and should be proud thus to care for its defenders."

He then reviewed and compared the achievements of the old soldiers and the new, and aroused great enthusiasm among his hearers, his own record as a soldier being familiar to them.

Of his candidacy and State politics he spoke but little, yet he defined his own position, and, while he was not a member of the last Legislature and was not responsible in any degree for its alleged misdoings, he assured the voters of Bradford county that if elevated to the Governor's chair he would do all that was in his power to see that no jobbery was perpetrated upon the taxpayers and that his administration would be one they could "point to with pride."

"What the issue of the coming campaign will be," he said, "no one knows, but the Democrats will certainly oppose whatever the Republicans propose. They say the issue is reform, but little can be hoped for in that direction from them. The Republican party has administered the affairs of the commonwealth in a better fashion than would have been possible under Democratic rule as has been proven by experience. It has taken off the State tax on lands and returned one-half the money from corporations to pay school taxes. Bradford county gets over $52,000 more from the State than it pays in, yet critics say the party is ruining the State." Colonel Stone left this evening for Harrisburg and tomorrow will speak at Waterloo, Juniata county.

Critical Comment.

One thing to be kept in mind is that the brand of Americanism which Uncle Sam is now introducing into the islands of the sea is warranted to keep in any climate.—New York Mail and Express.

The Pennsylvania and California volunteers covered themselves with glory during the night attack on Malate holding their positions like veterans in the face of furious assaults, by superior number. The volunteers are all right.—Buffalo Enquirer.

The war is over, friends and fellow-countrymen! Now let us make things, and grow things and sell things, and buy things and capture trade, and conquer prosperity, and pay our debts and thank the Lord for all his goodness!—Philadelphia Record.

The opponents of the Tariff law are claiming that it is a failure as a producer of revenue. The facts contradict their claim. The Dingley law is producing $60,000,000 per year more than the Wilson law did, notwithstanding the disturbance of the war. It is producing over a million dollars a day, which in ordinary peaceful times would leave quite a large surplus with which to wipe out the debts caused by Democratic Tariff tinkering and mismanagement.—Rome (N. Y.) Citizen.

SPANISH FLAGS FOR PRESIDENT.

Royal Ensign Captured at Coamo, Porto Rico, to be Presented to McKinley.

Philadelphia Press.

Captain Harry Alvin Hall, of Company H, Sixteenth Pennsylvania Volunteers at the battle of Coamo, Porto Rico; Colonel John W. Clous and Colonel John Biddle, also of General Wilson's staff, arrived in this city yesterday from Porto Rico with the only set of Spanish colors captured in the islands, which they have been directed by General Miles to present to President McKinley. The presentation will take place next week.

The party left Porto Rico on the yacht May, leaving the vessel at Newport News, and coming to this city by train.

In the battle of Coamo, on Aug. 9, the Sixteenth was the only regiment engaged. It had to deal with the Spanish Twenty-fifth Infantry, killed and wounded eighty-two of the enemy and took 180 prisoners. In the course of the fight Company H, (Elk county), distinguished itself by unusual bravery, and Captain Hall, who had at his own request been allowed to lead his company instead of continuing his services as Judge Advocate, repeatedly exposed himself, for which it is understood he will be rewarded by the War Department.

The Spanish royal ensign and one other set of colors were taken. A third was flying over the infantry "curatel" in the town, but these have disappeared and will be the subject of official inquiry. The royal ensign is a beautiful new flag bearing the arms of the reigning family of Spain.

In the fight the enemy was hidden behind an embankment, while the Americans were in plain view on the hillside. Major Martinez, of the Spanish army, however exposed himself with a courage which won him the admiration of all observers. Who rode with his captain along the top of the embankment from the start of the fight to its finish and was the sole inspiration of his men. When he finally fell riddled with bullets they surrendered.

He was given a large military funeral by the Americans in Ponce and when it was understood that his widow there, whose brother is one of the boy King's tutors, was in poor circumstances, a purse was collected for her and Captain Hall chosen to present it. Instead of doing so personally, he decided to send her a letter testifying to her husband's bravery and extending his sympathy for her in her bereavement.
