EDITOR'S NOTICE.

WHEN you see this item marked with an X, in blue or black pencil mark across its face you will know that your subscription is due, or past due. Your name will be found printed on each copy of the PRESS, as you receive it and gives the last date to which you have paid. Our terms are $2.00 if not paid in advance, $1.50 in advance. Many, very many, of our patrons allow their subscriptions to run year after year. This we are unable to stand. It requires money to purchase paper and pay employees and we must insist upon the payment of subscriptions due us. We have been patient, but "patience has ceased to be a virtue," and we now propose to weed out all those subscribers who show no disposition to pay for their paper.

Letter From Puerto Rico.

COAMA BATTLE FIELD, Porto Rico, Aug. 11, 1898.
I suppose you have heard of the battle in which the 16th regiment was the "whole thing." We are all waiting in anticipation, for the report is now that peace is declared and we are all willing to quit too.
Well, I will endeavor to give you a description of the battle.
We were camped at Camp Huilings, half way between Juan Diaz and Coama, when we received word to move the light artillery and the 2nd and 3rd Wisconsin were the attacking parties. The 16th Pennsylvania were sent around the city by the right flank to cut off the Spaniards' retreat. Well, we marched until ten o'clock the night of the 8th, and went into camp on top of one of the high mountains, where we could command a good view of the country around us and laid ourselves down on the grass to rest, (and we needed it too.) We broke camp at 3:00 a. m. and continued our march over the mountains and through the woods, Co. C, being the advance guard and we were led through ravines and cactus patches where we had to cut our way with our machettes and got tangled up in the jungles and about 7:30 a. m., we came out on top of a high plateau and could easily hear the boom of cannon from the city. The regular guide we had rode ahead and came back pell-mell shouting, "The Spaniards are in full retreat. Follow me, double-quick time!" Well, we all made for the road where the Spaniards were retreating and I being in the point of the advance guard was not very far behind the first man. We came down the hill pell-mell into the clearing and not a devilish Spaniard in sight, when, bang! bang! bang! and zip, whiz!—you ought to have seen us duck into the grass. My side partner, Clyde Frank, fell with the rest with a hole through his leg about eight inches from his hip and a bullet struck my blanket roll at the same time and I can tell you my thoughts went "home" more than once while I was lying there with the bullets cutting the grass all around us. We kept up the fire from our Krag-Jorgenson rifles at a very rapid pace for one hour and twenty-five minutes, when up went a white flag on the Spaniards' line and you ought to have heard the cheer which went up from the lines of the 16th, and we all made sure and then got up out of the grass and found two of Co. C's boys were wounded, both of them were hit in the same place on the right leg; both being shot through and through. Frank having a compound fracture of the bone made with a brass bullet, and Whitlock having a wound through the fleshy part of the leg. Co. C then accompanied the Major over to where the Spanish soldiers were and took charge of them, taking them to Ponce and turning them over to the Regulars.

I am feeling first rate and we have the promise that we will be home in six or seven weeks and I hope we may too. I have several relics of the battle. One a cactus leaf, pierced with a bullet, behind which I laid through the battle. Also the blanket with the hole shot through it.
I got 22 shots, and every time I shot I had a bead on a Spaniard.
The new rifles we have are beauties. They are five shot repeaters and we have sword bayonets, which are a very good thing when you get into a patch of cactus.

EMORY J. FAUZY,
Co. C, 16th Reg. P. V. I.

An Honored Judge.
The judicial nomination that was presented to Hon. C. A. Mayer by the Republican conference at Ridgway Friday is an action that is very flattering to the recipient. The sentiment is growing that the judiciary should be elevated above the rivalries of politics, which sentiment is meeting with favor in many localities. But when it is considered that in many judicial conferences, conferees assemble in an unenviable frame of mind owing to the ill feelings engendered by the possible victory of an opposing candidate, the contrast in this case, where the nominee secured that honor by the unanimous vote of six sets of conferees, cannot be regarded in any other light than that of being of a very marked character. But the unanimity by which the nomination is given is not only the proud feature of this happy procedure. Judge Mayer has heretofore been honored by the people of this district, not only once or twice, but the fourth time. For nearly the whole of three ten year terms has he presided in the courts of this and neighboring counties. During that long period of time he has made decisions, effected settlements and presided with such impartiality, that each successive year of his long service has so strengthened him in the popularity as well as in the affections of his constituents, that the voters of both leading political parties have honored him with the nomination for the fourth time. In this respect, the fourth nomination gives Judge Mayer an honorable distinction not possessed, so far as we know, by any other living judge.

This nomination, then, carries with it an appreciation, an honor and a renewed confidence, that is as creditable to the political parties that conferred it, as it is an enviable and gratifying distinction to the official receiving it.—Lock Haven Democrat.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Entz.

Miss Mame Conerton, a very estimable Emporium young lady, was called to Kane, last Thursday, by a telegram informing her that her sister, Mrs. Wm. Entz, of St. Marys, who was in Kane hospital, was at the point of death. Miss Conerton arrived there before her sister died. The remains were taken to St. Marys to the home of the bereaved husband and three children, one a babe only a few weeks old. The funeral took place on Sunday and was very largely attended. The scene at the grave was a very sad one, when the little son begged that his mamma be not interred.

A Few From Austin.
From the Democrat.
A. H. King, of Erie, has charge of Hackenberg's bona-fide auction sale. Ray White, an attaché of the CAMERON COUNTY PRESS, was in town on Sunday.

Miss Helen Van Valkenberg, of Emporium, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hackenberg this week.

John A. Noe is in Galeton this week fitting out three private libraries with choice books from the large line of standard works which he handles.

Miss Mamie McCabe, of Emporium, is spending a few weeks in town the guest of her friend Miss Loretta Swayne.

W. H. Erhard and family who were entertained by Wm. Hackenberg while in town, have returned to their home in Erie.

Masonic Prosperity.
The Scottish Rite Masons of Coudersport have bought the second story of the double brick block on Main street, the first story of which is occupied by Scoville & Haugheberry and by Wm. Gunsberger, and the third story by Eulalia Lodge F. & A. M. It is being fitted up in regal style for occupancy by the new lodges of the Scottish Rite, Carl Breunle, the contractor, is rapidly pushing the work to completion. The lodge, room proper has a working floor of 22x50 feet, with galleries on each side, an orchestra, 7x10 in the rear. In front of the lodge room is a stage 20x24, connected with a reception room by a hall above the stairway. The reception room is 17x23 and back of that is the banquet hall, 15x68 feet. Toilet rooms and property rooms are provided in addition to those described.

The building will now properly be called "Masonic Block," as the fraternity own two floors of it.—Coudersport Journal.

Hemlock Crop is all Right.
Charles W. Goodyear, who has extensive lumbering interests in Pennsylvania, and who is second vice president and general manager of the Buffalo & Susquehanna Railroad, was asked about the condition of the lumber market. F. H. & C. W. Goodyear have three mills in Potter county, Pa., that saw about 150,000,000 feet of lumber a year, chiefly hemlock.

"The market is good for this season of the year," said Mr. Goodyear. "We shipped more lumber last month than we did in July last year."
"How is your railroad doing?"
"Very well indeed. It does a general railroad business, carrying freight and passengers."
The Buffalo & Susquehanna is 160 miles long, all told, and has connections with the W. N. Y. & P. at Keating Summit, the Erie at Wellsville and Addison and at Ansonia with Fall Brook.

"Many people suppose, Mr. Goodyear," said the reporter, "that there will be no more hemlock timber standing after a few years."
"That is a mistake. We expect to continue to lumber about 15 years at the present rate. The Pennsylvania hemlock will likely last about 20 years. There is plenty of hemlock in Michigan, Wisconsin and Maryland and lots of it in Washington and Oregon. There is a great deal of hemlock in Canada. This generation need not worry about the timber question. If the timber States will take hold of the matter of forestry in an intelligent way and keep fire out of the land that has been cut over, there will be plenty of timber for generations to come."—Buffalo Times.

The Sinnemahoning Bridge.
During the past three years considerable litigation and controversy has been in vogue over the question of erecting a bridge across the Driftwood stream to accommodate the citizens of Wyside, who have been compelled for years to ford the stream with teams, and cross the railroad bridge on foot, when the water was too high to ford. The question came before the grand jury at two separate terms and they recommended the erection of the bridge. The court appointed viewers who made a survey and reported to court in favor of the erection of the bridge. At the argument court held last Monday, Hon. C. A. Mayer decreed that a mandamus should be issued to compel the County Commissioners to pay to the Supervisors of Grove township $5,850, in equal payments, as the work progresses. The bridge will be 350 feet long and will cost the township $7,000, not including the approaches.

At Half Price.

I desire to inform the people of Cameron county that until the 20th of this month I will do all dental work at half price. The materials I use are absolutely the best.
DR. J. M. CARD.

AMOS HORNING, JR.

Running Day and Night.

The tidal wave of returning prosperity has struck Emporium and as a very strong criterion of such we would point to the fact that Howard's planing mill is kept running day and night to keep up with orders.

"Too Good to Drop."

C. W. Berfeld writes us from First Fork, enclosing a check and says: "I do not wish to have the paper discontinued; it is too good to drop." That's what they all say, friend. We are certainly very thankful to our friends for the very encouraging letters we receive from them and shall labor to make the PRESS as welcome as it has been for years. Our circulation continues to grow and daily new names are added to our list.

Seriously Burned.

Last evening Gordon, the six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Vogt, while in the act of testing the soothing influences of corn-silk cigarettes, set fire to his blouse waist. He immediately started for the house, but was severely burned about the breast and arms before his parents could extinguish the flames. Miss Minnie Vogt was painfully burned on her hands in her efforts to save the boy. Dr. Bardwell was called and the boy will be out in a few days but we hope not ready for any more cigarettes.

Well Protected.

A. F. Vogt & Co. have had a folding iron front placed on their store on West Fourth street, by the Emporium Machine Company, in order to protect it from being entered by burglars. The above establishment has been burglarized three times during the last eleven months.

Agricultural Meeting.

The meeting of the State Board of Agriculture, on the 12th and 13th of October, promises to be an unusually interesting event. Not only every farmer but every citizen of the county should arrange to take advantage of the favor of this meeting on the part of the state officers. The Governor of the state and other state officials have promised to be present.

Her Ninetieth Milestone.

Mrs. Delilah Quay Clark, mother-in-law of W. F. Lloyd, was ninety years old last Sunday and in the evening she demonstrated her remarkable vitality by walking down Fourth street as far as Broad, after dark. During the day many of her old friends and neighbors called to congratulate her upon the ripe old age she had attained and they received a cordial welcome from the aged lady.

Thrown From His Engine.

As Niagara Express was about to take water at Howard Siding last Thursday evening, engineer James Mills, who was holding the tank spout in the man-hole of the tender by means of a shovel, was thrown over the side of the tender by the sudden raising of the spout as the valve was opened, and sustained serious bruises about the shoulders. He managed to take his train to St. Marys, where he was relieved by another engineer.

Last Week Day Excursion of the Season to Portage Falls.

The W. N. Y. & P. Ry. will run the last week day excursion of the season to Portage Falls, Saturday, Sept. 17th. Special train will leave Emporium at 7:30 a. m. Fare for round trip $1.00. Train will arrive at Portage Falls Park 10:50 a. m.; returning leave 5:30 p. m., giving 6 1/2 hours at the Falls, and returning home at a seasonable hour. Fill your lunch basket and join the last week day excursion of the season to Portage Falls. 28-2t

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of the Cameron County Agricultural Society, held at Emporium, on Saturday, Aug. 27th, the following resolution was unanimously passed:
The Cameron County Agricultural Society places on record its high appreciation of the excellent services rendered by its late fellow member, Mr. E. N. Fairchild, in whose death the society loses one of its most useful and active members. Mr. Fairchild was foremost in the efforts to bring the Society to its present condition of usefulness. He was successively elected Secretary, State delegate and Treasurer, which is sufficient evidence of the confidence reposed in him by the Society.

In the sad dispensation, the Cameron County Agricultural Society extends to the bereaved family its sincere condolence.
By order of Society,
E. W. GASKILL,
N. H. OSTRUM,
I. K. HOCKLEY,
Committee.

Pressed Bricks.

Treat every girl as you would like to have every boy treat your sister.—Ex. Argument court was held last Monday afternoon and considerable business transacted.

Ira C. Chatham, of Farrandsville, Pa., formerly a resident of Emporium, has been appointed postmaster at that place.

The Watson town boot and shoe company has received a contract from the government to make 25,000 pairs of shoes.

An exchange says the best way to mark table linen is to leave the baby and a blackberry pie alone at the table for three minutes.

For the next ten days N. Seger will run a special line of men and boys' underwear, at cost. These goods are well made and guaranteed to wear.

It is said that the Buffalo & Susquehanna Railway now has 11 first-class locomotives, 854 freight cars, 156 miles of main-line track and about 100 miles of branch track.

Francisca, the four months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer, died last Saturday of membranous croup. The funeral was held from St. Mark's church on Sunday afternoon.

It is not hard to write funny paragraphs. All you have to do is to procure a pen, some paper and ink, and then sit down and write them as they occur to you. It is not the writing, but the occurring that is hard.—Ex.

Contractor J. W. Kriner and his crew of carpenters are busily engaged in the erection of a large circular shaped barn, on the farm of Josiah Howard. The barn will be fitted up with all the modern conveniences and when completed will be one of the finest in this section.

State Senator J. Henry Cochran's fishing party has returned from Nepigon, on the north side of Lake Superior. The party consisted of Senator Cochran, his son Joseph, who stopped with them on his return from the Klondike, John G. Reading, Esq., and Dr. G. B. Campbell.—Williamsport News.

R. Seger & Son, of Emporium, have leased the Reilly store, on the corner of Main and Franklin streets, and will on or about Sept. 15th, open a fine line of clothing and gents' furnishing goods. The stock will be new throughout, and as the Messrs. Seger will have one of the finest business locations in Smethport in which to display their goods, there is no question but what they will meet with fine success. The firm are two of Emporium's oldest and best known business men, and they come to us well recommended.—Smethport Democrat.

If a fellow is going to tell a story he might just as well tell a good one. Read the following told by a man in Davenport, N. Y.: "Seven years ago I left my vest, containing a gold watch, hanging on a fence while mowing the back yard. A young pet calf wandered up and proceeded to eat the vest and swallowed the watch. I gave up the watch for lost, of course, and gave it no further thought. A short time ago the calf, which had become full grown, was slaughtered for beef. The watch was found in such a position between the lungs that the respiration of the lungs closing and filling had kept the stem winder wound up, and the watch had only lost about four minutes during the seven years."

Ball Game Postponed.

The ball game advertised to take place at Sizerville to-day, between Emporium and Port Allegany, has been postponed until Thursday, Sept. 15th, owing to the bad condition of the grounds. Remember the date; next Thursday. Excursion rates, two cents per mile each way. Special train will leave Sizerville for Port Allegany at 9:30 p. m., and leave Sizerville for Emporium at 11:30 p. m. This is expected to be a big time, for mine host H. W. Martindale is preparing to entertain all who attend with a baked clam and green corn supper. There will be dancing on the platform during the evening.

Sad shooting Affair.

On Monday afternoon as Ward, the little twelve year old son of Robert Colter, who resides at Half Mile, just above Gardena, was returning from school, he stopped at one of the neighbors house to see a revolver which one of his companions had. While they were handling the dangerous weapon it was suddenly discharged, the bullet entering his heart and producing instant death. The funeral was held from his late home at Half Mile yesterday morning, Rev. Robt. McCaslin officiating. The remains were interred in Newton Cemetery. Mr. Colter and family formerly resided at Emporium, and their many friends join the PRESS in extending to the bereaved family, their deepest sympathy in their great affliction.

The Bucktails.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Bucktail association, held last week in conjunction with the citizens committee of Kennett Square, Thursday and Friday, October 13th and 14th, were fixed upon as the date for the next annual reunion. Secretary Rauch, will, in a few days supply all the members of the association, both active and honorary, with card orders, which will call for a low rate of fare to Kennett and return, and as Emporium and vicinity has quite a number among the membership, it is to be hoped a good delegation will be in attendance from this vicinity.
Further information will be cheerfully given by H. H. Mullin, Emporium, Pa.
