REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

- For Governor, Wm. A. Stone, of Allegheny. For Lieutenant-Governor, J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon. For Secretary of Internal Affairs, Joseph W. Latta, of Philadelphia.

COL. STONE'S PLATFORM.

"It will be my purpose when elected to so conduct myself as to win the respect and good will of those who have opposed me as well as those who have given me their support. I shall be the Governor of the whole people of the State.

The Issues are National.

The New York Sun says: "The Hon. William McKinley's administration is to be endorsed or disapproved by the voters of New York next November. The campaign and the election cannot reasonably be regarded as local or personal. The issues are national.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent.

up before us—a policy that will be carried out if the Republican party retains power. It is solely the policy of that party. To overthrow Republicanism in Pennsylvania and other States is to overthrow Republicanism in the nation and to despoil that nation of its victories.

It is a national issue in New York, says the Sun, and there is no one to dispute that assertion except "Dick" Croker and the yellow journals. They dispute it in order that the plundering Tammany mob may enlarge its power to embrace the State as well as the city.

George A. Jenks, Democratic candidate for Governor, is opposed to the policy of the McKinley administration. He is not only for free silver and free trade, but is the foe of the magnificent plans for commercial expansion which alone are fostered by the Republican party.

With this knowledge, he declares that Senator Quay could not in any sense of justice be charged with the sins of omission and commission committed by that body, for the Senator did not pay the slightest attention to what was being done at Harrisburg, his time being taken up with his duties at Washington.

POLITICAL COMMENT.

The opposition to Mr. Stone's candidacy for Congress, in the district, is more formidable on paper than in any other form.—Warren Mirror.

The Democrats of Pennsylvania who insist that the present campaign is to be fought out on state issues ought to explain what state issues have to do with the choice of two Congressmen-at-large.

These are the issues and the only issues before the people to-day, and they are magnificent issues, too. Let Jenks, and Swallow, and Wanamaker, and the Democrats, and the Populists, and Popocrats rave all they please, but they cannot for one moment cast a shadow upon the only issue, that of the advancement and prosperity of Pennsylvania and the United States of America.—Phila. Inquirer.

Leach is Out for U. S. Quay.

Frank Willing Leach, who up to a few months ago was the active political manager of John Wanamaker, is out in an open letter declaring for Colonel M. S. Quay for United States Senator.

He says the alliances that are now being formed throughout the State in Mr. Wanamaker's interests are nothing more or less than alliances with the Democracy for the overthrow of Republicanism.

While he expresses his esteem for Colonel Quay, Mr. Leach does not hesitate to score some of his former lieutenants whose activity he declares drove him away from the Senator's ranks three years ago.

DEALS WITH DEMOCRATS.

With this knowledge, he declares that Senator Quay could not in any sense of justice be charged with the sins of omission and commission committed by that body.

In speaking of Mr. Wanamaker he says that in 1896 he believed that Mr. Wanamaker would make a splendid Senator and as such he fought hard with him and for him inside the party lines.

In concluding, Mr. Leach says: "While urging that your friends refrain from personal abuse, as a method of campaigning, I do not lose sight of the fact that the chief weapons of your own opponents are slander and vilification of the most vicious kind."

[In another column we publish the letter of Frank Willing Leach, in full.—Ed. Press.]

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Now that the Peace Commissioners are well on their way to Paris, President McKinley will complete the Commission to investigate the conduct of the war and will get it to work at the earliest possible moment.

The gentlemen who have consented to serve on the Commission, are so well known that no one would question their report when it is made.

The sensation mongers hardly got a chance to spread their imagination on the stories of such a serious situation at Manila that more American troops were needed, before the sensation was punctured by an official report from Gen. Otis.

Maj. General James H. Wilson, who commanded a corps in the Porto Rican campaign, and who is now at his Delaware home on furlough, said when asked for his views of the war: "I have nothing to complain of. I am very much like the grave digger who, when asked while digging a grave, who had died and what was wrong, replied: 'There ain't nothing wrong; everybody is satisfied'."

by a man who is wedded to that character of a financial policy? It is not possible.—Kane Republican.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Now that the Peace Commissioners are well on their way to Paris, President McKinley will complete the Commission to investigate the conduct of the war and will get it to work at the earliest possible moment.

The gentlemen who have consented to serve on the Commission, are so well known that no one would question their report when it is made.

The sessions of the Peace Commission, to meet at Paris, Oct. 1st, are to be held in the famous "Salle des Ambassadeurs," the French Government having tendered the use of that apartment, in which have been enacted numerous international diplomatic dramas.

The instructions given our representatives on the Peace Commission has been a well kept secret. Surmises have been plentiful, but there are no facts before the public.

President McKinley says the policy of this government in the negotiations of the treaty of peace with Spain will be recognized as thoroughly American when it becomes known, and that it will be endorsed by our people as a whole.

More than that he does not deem it prudent to say at this time.

The sensation mongers hardly got a chance to spread their imagination on the stories of such a serious situation at Manila that more American troops were needed, before the sensation was punctured by an official report from Gen. Otis.

Postmaster General Smith, who will deliver an address at the Omaha Exposition on Pennsylvania day, has accepted invitations to deliver political speeches at Topeka, and Wichita, Kansas, on the 7th and 8th of October, and has under consideration, invitations to make speeches in Nebraska and Ohio. He will accept as many invitations as he can.

There is already evidence that the democrats, in their anxiety to make political capital, have overdone the criticism of the War Department by spreading stories so ridiculously false as to carry their own refutation.

Sympathetic Husbands.

The sympathetic tenderness of a loving husband is everything to an expectant mother, especially during her first ordeal.

A customer of mine, whose wife has used four bottles of "Mother's Friend" before confinement, says, after seeing the effects of the remedy, that if she had to go through the ordeal again, and there were but four bottles on the market, and the cost was $100 per bottle, she would have them.

"Mother's Friend" is a scientifically compounded liniment which affords certain relief in the various ailments preceding childbirth, and assures proper elasticity to the cords and muscles involved in the final ordeal.

"Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists, or expressed on receipt of one dollar.
