Port Allegany's New Paper.

One of the cleanest, brightest and most interesting acquisitions of editorial matter that has ever graced our desk, is the initial number of the Port Allegany Press which reached us last Friday. It is the product of the pen of that well known newspaper man, B. G. Bartle, who may well be proud of his new enterprise for it reflects great credit not only upon the editor but upon the town whose name it bears, and is something Port Allegany should have had long ago.

My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bot. at L. Taggart's Drug Store.

Going West?

If you are, enquire of your nearest ticket agent about rates via the Nickel Plate Road, the short line between Buffalo and Chicago. Many improvements have been made in the past few years. Now the elegantly upholstered coaches, vestibule sleeping cars and powerful locomotives have been added to the equipment and substantial structures of steel and stone have replaced the old bridges, heavier rails and ties have been laid, and the road now stands at the front of the best roads in the country. The rates, however, still remains lower than via other lines.

Lowest Rates West.

Rates to the west are lower via the Nickel Plate Road than via other lines, while the service is excelled by none. Three fast trains are run every day in the year from Buffalo to Chicago. The day coaches are of the latest pattern, are elegantly upholstered, and have all the modern improvements, such as marble lavatories, steam heat, lighted by Pintsche gas, while colored porters are in charge to look after the wants of passengers, especially the ladies and children. Vestibule buffet sleeping cars are run on all trains, while the dining cars and meal stations are operated by the company and serve the best of meals at moderate prices.

Didn't Live Up to It. "I never made a promise that I did not live up to," she asserted proudly. "No?" he said inquiringly. "No," she said emphatically. He made no reply. Argument, he knew, was useless. Facts alone would count. Therefore he hunted up a copy of the book of Common Prayer, and when he had found it he returned to the marriage service and where it says "love, honor and obey" he underscored the word "obey."
