Beautiful Wedding at Keating Summit.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was witnessed at Keating Summit by about fifty guests who assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heath on Wednesday, October 19th. When their daughter Miss Ina Mable Sheadell was married to Mr. John Truman Beech of East Smithfield, Pa.

The ceremony took place at five o'clock when the bridal party entered during the rendition of Mendelssohn's Wedding March by Miss Janet Rose of Port Allegany. The groom and best man entered and took their places under a prettily decorated arch followed by the maid of honor, and the bride leaning on the arm of her mother who gave her away. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. N. Crottsley of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which the bride and groom are both members.

The bride was beautifully attired in white silk and carried a bunch of bride roses. The groom wore the conventional black. The maid of honor Miss Jessie Camp, of Port Allegany wore white organdie over yellow and carried yellow roses. The mother of the bride wore black satin and carried pink carnations. The best man was Mr. Gerald Bullock of Elmira, N. Y.

After congratulations the party was ushered to the beautiful decorated dining room where a delightful supper was served. After which the happy pair were accompanied to the station by their friends who expressed the extreme regret of their departure by the regulation shower of rice &c. Mr. and Mrs. Beech left for a short trip to Williamsport, Elmira and other points. Mud slinging appears to be the favorite vocation of some people. "You may fool the people part of the time, but you cannot fool all the people all the time," said Lincoln. In this campaign the smut machines have already commenced to grind out the usual doses of campaign filth. Having no arguments to give why the candidates upon the Republican ticket should not be accorded the suffrage of the people, campaign lies of the vilest nature have already started the rounds. Character, homes, reputation—nothing stoppeth them.

Arrangements are being made at the War Department to bring to this country for burrial bodies of all the soldiers of the American army who died in Cuba, Porto Rico or the Philippines. Congress made an appropriation of $200,000 for this purpose and the execution of the law has been placed in the hands of the Quartermaster General, with instructions to spare no effort or expense. The present plans contemplate the removal of the bodies of the soldiers buried in Cuba and Porto Rico as soon as the weather is cold enough to justify such action. A ship will be fitted for the special purpose of transporting the bodies to this country.

From a Swedish American.

I will vote for Hon. C. W. Stone for Congressman; and, furthermore, I will vote for every man on the Republican ticket this fall, and I hope that all of my countrymen in McKean county, and in the whole State of Pennsylvania, will vote a straight Republican ticket at the polls this fall. Don't split your ticket, because we cannot afford to lose anyone nominated on the Republican ticket. We must not lose the two branches of Congress this time through any carelessness on our part to support the party that governs the land with sound principles. To this party we belong, and as we have declared ourselves Republicans let us keep our word as men and vote the Republican ticket at the election next November. Don't let any other party have the glory of your vote this fall. I hope every man will do his duty this fall and elect the whole Republican ticket.

JOHN CARLSON, Smethport, Pa., Oct. 12, 1898.

—McKean Miner.

It Was a Boomerang.

The publication of the alleged action of Mays Post, G. A. R., relative to the appointment of a postmaster at Franklin, together with the gross misrepresentations of Congressman C. W. Stone in connection therewith, has acted as a "boomerang," returning upon the perpetrators and causing a feeling of indignation among the members of the Post and veterans generally, throughout the county, who feel that the fair fame and name of the organization was dishonored and prostituted by a small coterie of individuals for political purposes, who violated the most solemn obligations and vows taken by each member of the Grand Army of the Republic, in order to carry out their scheme. The demand is vigorous for an investigation by leading members of the Post to ascertain definitely the names of the men who violated their oaths in publication of false statements in the name of the organization, and the case will probably be called to the attention of the State Department of the G. A. R.

The whole despicable job was gotten up for the sole purpose of influencing and prejudicing veterans against Hon. C. W. Stone, the Republican nominee for Congress, whose devotion and industry in their behalf in the matter of securing pensions and every other interest and request presented to him for consideration has deservedly won for him their regard, confidence and respect. No veteran ever applied in person or by letter to Charles W. Stone for assistance that it was not cheerfully rendered. All letters received from veterans were promptly answered by him, and every request was granted. Mr. Stone was never too busy to attend to all demands made upon his time and services for the veteran soldiers. A multitude of soldiers not only in this county and Congressional district, but throughout the State, can bear testimony to the truth of this statement.—Franklin Citizen-Press.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin. "When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is the best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. County Institute.

The most successful institute this county ever had, opened at 1:30 p. m. Monday, October 17th, 1898, and closed Friday at noon.

During the week the following educators gave efficient instructions in their various subjects:

Dr. Martin G. Benedict, of State College, took up, and very ably discussed, the following subjects during the week: "Methods of Studying the Mind," "How to Use, How to Abuse the Memory," "Spelling Its Place in the Public Schools," and "Man is Hidden in the Heart and Not in the Head." On Wednesday his address to directors was appreciated by all.

In his course of talks, Dr. Benedict showed us that we struggle with "chology every day and that the best place to study that branch of science is in the school room.

Dr. Lincoln Hulley, of Bucknell University, gave several very interesting and instructive talks on "The Adoption of the Constitution." He showed that "The Essential Things in U. S. History" could be very profitably centered around ten important dates. After hearing Dr. Hulley we are sure that the history of a country depends largely upon its geography. The Doctor's address to directors was of great interest.

Miss Katherine Sweet, of Canton, read papers on "Oratory" and "The Need of Physical Culture," which was interesting as well as highly instructive. The applause of the audience showed that her "Readings" were appreciated.

Prof. R. D. Owen, of New York, very ably conducted the musical department of the institute, as well as giving instructions in the rudiments of music. Miss Myrtle Smith presided at the piano and rendered able assistance.

Prof. H. F. Stauffer's discussion on "Child Study" was thorough and showed that he is familiar with child nature. He also gave a very plain interpretation of the Compulsory school law.

Prof. S. D. Fess, of Ada, Ohio, in his instruction in literature is fine. He makes two divisions of the results in the study of literature, 1st. Many study literature merely for the information thus gained; 2nd. The most important result to be attained is Power. The talk on History Thursday afternoon showed deep insight on that subject.

Supt. T. A. Roberts, of the P. R. R. gave an interesting talk to the directors on Wednesday.

Resolutions. It is with pardonable pride that your committee on Resolutions would call the attention of teachers and Patrons to the present efficiency of the schools of Cameron county.

Your Committee would also bring to mind the tendency toward greater excellence under the supervision of our superintendent, and it is encouraging to look forward to what may be done in the future if the three educational forces, Superintendent, Teachers, and Patrons work together in harmony.

We believe the Teachers of Cameron county are intelligent, progressive, energetic and fully capable of their responsibility, and as a teaching body, in Institute assembled, we would express our views and record our opinions concerning the present Educational laws that concern us and our professions. Therefore be it

Resolved—that we, teachers of Cameron county, express our sympathy with and give our endorsement and recommendation to the following laws:

First—The Compulsory School Law. We recognize in this law, an instrument by which we can reach a class of pupils hitherto beyond our influence.

Second—The law with reference to the establishing of Township High Schools. We recognize in this law the best means of spreading higher education and therefore of making our public school system more complete. As Teachers we would urge that the Directors, in making provisions for High Schools throughout our county, be it further,

Resolved—that the Legislature demands our thanks and we would respectfully pray a continuation of the same liberal policy.

That music is an important factor in Education and its importance should be recognized by its being placed by law upon the same standing as the common English branches.

That a teachers duties, a teachers responsibility, and the debt he owes to the profession demands that he be progressive. To be progressive a teacher must study, and, therefore, we as an institute would urge the teachers of Cameron Co. to procure the professional works adopted by the Institute of Cameron county. Signed,

R. E. ANDERSON, HELEN VAN VALKENBURG, MINNIE BROOKS, Committee.
