John Edelman, the East Ward merchant tailor, visited our sanatorium on Monday. He justly complains because many of our citizens are sending their orders for clothing to Buffalo and other places. Is that the proper way to build up a town?

Harry C. Kaye, who has been in the employ of C. B. Howard & Co., at this place, for several years, left yesterday for Williamsport, where he will attend Commercial College, this winter and resume his duties with above named firm in the spring. Mr. John T. Earl, former publisher of the Herald, and wife, arrived home last Friday evening after a pleasant visit of two weeks in Philadelphia, where they intend to make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Earl had an unpleasant experience on the way home—they were on the train on the Lehigh railroad which met with the disastrous accident in the storm on the mountains last Friday morning. No passengers were injured, but considerable baggage was destroyed. Mrs. Earl's trunk was smashed, but fortunately none of the contents injured.—Depew Herald.

Sorely Afflicted.

Last week the PRESS chronicled the death of one of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Normanly's children. It seems that in this world troubles never come singly. Yesterday the deeply afflicted parents followed another of their children to the silent city of the dead.

Senator Cochran's Generosity.

As it is not every day that we meet with acts of great generosity, it is with much pleasure we note a case that occurred at Williamsport recently. James B. Davis, a motorman on the Williamsport street car line, was so badly injured in a collision as necessitated the amputation of a leg. Before consenting to the operation, Davis requested that Senator J. Henry Cochran be sent for, who promptly went to the hospital, when Davis expressed his great anxiety and fear of facing the world with but one leg. The Senator, without hesitation, said: "Ben, you have been a good, faithful employe, and these gentlemen here may witness that I say as long as you live you or your family will never want."—Clearfield Journal.

Charles W. Stone will be missed in the next Congress. He has been a valuable member, is a great friend of Reed's and as chairman of the Committee on Coinage was looked upon as a bulwark of the sound money forces.—Buffalo News.

Late in June a man arrived in Dawson City with a paper containing the first account of Dewey's May day victory to reach that remote spot. An enterprising Yankee bought the paper for $10, then hired a hall and charged 50 cents admission to come in and hear him read it. A crowd came in and whooped applause. Next night he repeated the show clearing $400 off the two entertainments. Then he sold the paper to a miner who was going to the diggings. For $50.

John H. Kepperly, the well known passenger engineer, stands an excellent chance of being elected a member of the advisory committee of the P. R. R. Volunteer Relief Fund. The election will take place in Pittsburg next month and in the meantime Mr. Kepperly is making a complete canvass of the district. If elected, there is no question but that he will make an excellent member upon the committee.—Renovo News.

Going West?

If you are, enquire of your nearest ticket agent about rates via the Nickel Plate Road, the short line between Buffalo and Chicago. Many improvements have been made in the past few years. Now the elegantly upholstered coaches, vestibule sleeping cars and powerful locomotives have been added to the equipment and substantial structures of steel and stone have replaced the old bridges, heavier rails and ties have been laid, and the road now stands at the front of the best roads in the country. The rates, however, still remains lower than via other lines.

If your ticket agent cannot give you all the information desired, address F. J. Moore, Gen'l Agent, Nickel Plate Road, 291 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y. 31-10-ly
