Blinzler—Flettermen.

On Monday, Jan. 16th, Miss Minnie Flettermen was given in marriage to Mr. Edward Blinzler, of Emporium, Pa. The ceremony was performed according to the rites of the Catholic church in progress of a low mass at St. Marys Church, Rev. Isidore officiating. Mr. Fred Flettermen and Miss Julia Johnson served a groomsmen and bridesmaid respectively. The bride was becomingly attired, while the groom appeared in the regulation suit in black. A large circle of friends and relatives attended the services and witnessed the "union until death doth sever."

After the ceremony the wedding party and invited guests repaired to the home of the bride on North St. Marys street, where the day and greater part of the following night were spent in feasting and merry making. And as the emporium cup passed round amid song and dance and joyous sound the friends toasted the health and happiness of the bridal pair in merry glee.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. Aug. Flettermen, while the groom is one of Emporium's enterprising young men. They will be at home at the latter place.

The Gazette joins as host of friends in wishing the young couple a Bon Voyage over the matrimonial—St. Marys Gazette.

GOVERNOR STONE SURE OF QUAY'S TRIUMPH!

From a Staff Correspondent Philadelphia Inquirer.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 22.—Governor William A. Stone sat in his library this evening and chatted entertainingly with The Philadelphia Inquirer correspondent on the political situation. He seems entirely satisfied that Senator Quay will be re-elected. When asked for a public expression of his views on the Senatorial canvass he gave the following signed statement:

"My opinion has not changed since I expressed the belief, after the action of the caucus making Colonel Quay the nominee of the Republican party for United States Senator, that he would be re-elected. His supporters have not had a break in their lines since that time, and they have made gains. Pennsylvania is a Republican State, and unless there are some serious reasons why a regularly nominated candidate of the Republican party in the State should not be elected, it is usually safe to predict that he will win. More than two-thirds of the Republican members of the General Assembly are already publically committed to him. No one can honestly or fairly question the regularity of the nomination of Senator Quay. The caucus was regularly called and properly conducted. Stalwart Republicans generally throughout the Commonwealth have accepted him as the candidate of their party and want to see him elected."

"The conspiracy case brought against him in the heat of the campaign has been fully ventilated, and the political character of the proceedings is fully understood by the people. The argument of Attorney Watson before the Supreme Court clearly demonstrated that there was nothing in the bills of indictment against Senator Quay, nor in the testimony, showing him to have violated any law. This has been made plain to all, as has the fact that this prosecution was inspired and instituted for the purpose of influencing votes against Senator Quay in his Senatorial canvass. It is not my purpose or intention to quarrel with any one who is opposed to Senator Quay. That is his right and privilege. But I do say that I believe that way down in the hearts of the nearly half a million Republicans of Pennsylvania who voted for me for Governor at the last election, there is a feeling of sympathy for Senator Quay in the present contest. He has been a brave soldier in the hour of his country's trials, he has been a gallant, able and victorious field marshal of the Republican party, not only in local and State campaigns, but in one of the greatest and most bitterly fought national contests ever waged in American politics—to him more than to any one else, as Chairman of the Republican National Committee did we owe the election of General Benjamin Harrison to the Presidency."

"As a member of the United States Senate he has watchfully and zealously guarded the great industrial, manufacturing and commercial interests of our Commonwealth. His influence was potential, not only in materially aiding the passage of the McKinley bill, but, with the Democrats in control of Congress, through his close relations with his colleagues on both sides of the House, and his statesmanlike course on the floor of the Senate, he saved Pennsylvania's industries from ruin by the amendments he had inserted in the Wilson bill for their special protection."

"There should be no occasion for concern among the friends of Senator Quay on account of the present deadlock on the Senatorship. Public sentiment in his favor is making itself felt among the members of the Legislature. If Senator Quay's supporters stand firm, as I am convinced they will, his re-election will certainly follow in due time."

Correspondence.

HULLING, W. VA., Jan. 1, 1899.

DEAR EDITOR:—Train No. 3, on Otter Creek Boom & Lumber Co.'s road was wrecked on last Saturday.

The wreck was caused by a stringer in the road bed settling and spreading the rails, throwing the engine over a high embankment into the river. Paymaster Walter Steverson and Mr. Kaler, the fireman, succeeded in jumping, but H. H. Sayre, the engineer, had no time to escape as the others were before him. The engine is a complete wreck, having turned over twice. Mr. Sayre went with it, but only sustained a few bruises, some of his teeth being knocked loose and his lip cut. It was only by a miracle he escaped.

Five From Austin.

C. H. Felt, of Emporium, was transacting business in Austin on Tuesday. Mrs. J. M. Matteson, of Emporium, is the guest of her daughter Mrs. W. S. Warner. F. X. Blumke, of Emporium, had business in Austin, Tuesday. Mr. Blumke is one of Emporium's solid business men and has many friends in Austin and vicinity. W. L. Herron station agent for the W. N. Y. & P. Ry. at Keating Summit for a number of years, is now one of the head operators for the Postal Telegraph-Cable Co. at New York City.—Austin Autograph.

Reward Offered.

On the night of Tuesday, Jan. 24th, some person unknown entered the residence of Mr. Josiah Howard and carried off a seal skin jacket. Any person succeeding in detecting the party and recovering the jacket, returning it to owner, will be suitably rewarded.

Fingers Smashed.

Henry Farr, of the East End, is carrying his right hand in a sling, the results of getting his fingers caught in one of the wood-pulp machines at the Johnsonburg paper mill, on Wednesday morning, Jan. 25th. The middle and third fingers are the ones injured but at this writing it is not thought that amputation will be necessary.

Never such bargains offered in clothing as those now being offered by N. Seger.

Wm. McDonald visited friends in our burg to-day. He was arranging for the winter band tournament.

Dr. Parsons is busy here and at Gardeau. His wife arrived to-day and will assist him in his special treatments.

We noticed P. M. Metcalf on our streets a few days ago. He is still Supt. for F. H. Goodyear.

Mr. Kress, one of H. C. Crawford's men in the woods, had a log roll on him, on Monday, injuring him severely.

It is reported that H. C. Crawford has settled with the W. N. Y. & P. Ry., for damage sustained by fire three years ago.

Candidates for township offices are shivering around, discussing their chances for success at the coming election. The slate-makers are busy.

Quite a commotion was created here late week by reports of oil wells going down and mineral springs being sold and sanitariums going up. May the dream of years be realized.

It is indeed pleasant to remember how royally the visitors from Cameron county were entertained at Harrisburg last week by ex-Representative Mullin. Many did not get a glimpse of the present member.

Prof. Sheeter's team ran away, on Monday, throwing him out and dragging him over the ground for some distance, when he finally broke loose and was picked up unconscious. The frightened animals ran into one of E. D. Sizer's tenement houses, throwing Mrs. Sheeter out and injuring her severely. The Prof. is very low at this writing, being hurt internally. Dr. Parsons is attending him.

JUDGE WILLIAMS DIES SUDDENLY.

Associate Justice Henry W. Williams, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, died suddenly of heart disease yesterday morning, in his apartments at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia. He had been under the care of his physician, Dr. John V. Shoemaker, since November, and had been confined to his room since Saturday last.

Justice Williams did not rest easily during the night, and early in the morning he arose and sat in an easy chair by his desk. Suddenly he showed signs of weakness, and died within a few minutes of 6 o'clock. Mrs. Williams was with him at the end, and his daughter, Miss Virginia Williams, was on the floor below, summoning Justice McCollum. The latter on reaching his friend's room, found Justice Williams dead, his head resting on his desk and his arms hanging down. Dr. Shoemaker was sent for, but it was too late. On Saturday morning interment will be made at Wellsboro, where Justice Williams resided.

AN HONORABLE CAREER.

Associate Justice Henry W. Williams, of the Supreme Court, was born in Hartford, Susquehanna county, Pa., July 30, 1830. He received his early education at the village school in Hartford and the Franklin Academy. He studied law in Wellsboro, Tioga county, and in 1854 was admitted to the bar. The following year he was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of the State.

He continued in active practice at Wellsboro until March 1865, when he was appointed by Governor Curtin additional law judge of the Fourth judicial district, then consisting of Tioga, Potter, McKean and Cameron counties. At that time he was the youngest judge in the State. In November, 1865, he was elected additional law judge for the full term of ten years, and in 1871 was elected president judge of the district.

In 1874 Judge Williams was appointed by Governor Hartranft a member of a board of seven commissioners to suggest amendments to the Constitution. As early as 1872 he was pressed forward as a candidate for the Supreme Court, and a year or two later was proposed as a nominee by Judge Williams, of Allegheny, who secured the place.

The subject of this sketch served for over twenty-two years as a judge in the Fourth district, and in June 1887, was nominated by the Republican State Convention for the Supreme Bench. The death of Chief Justice Mercer occurring about that time, Judge Williams was appointed by Governor Beaver to fill the vacancy. The following November he was elected, and on January 1, 1888 was commissioned for the full term of twenty-one years.

Justice Williams was prominent in the Masonic fraternity and was Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

Many of our citizens will be pained to hear of the death of Judge Williams, who so acceptably served as President Judge of this district, when Cameron formed part of the judicial district, composed of the counties of Tioga, Potter, McKean and Cameron. He was an able, conscientious and upright jurist and Pennsylvania loses one of its most brilliant men. Judge Williams attended the inauguration of Gov. Stone and administered the oath of office.

MEETING OF THE CAMERON COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION.

The members of the bar of Cameron county met at the office of Green & Shaffer this (Thursday) morning, the following members being present: Hon. J. C. Johnson, F. D. Leet, B. W. Green, J. P. McNarney, M. Brennan and C. W. Shaffer. Hon. J. C. Johnson was elected chairman, and C. W. Shaffer secretary. A committee composed of F. D. Leet and B. W. Green was appointed to draft suitable resolutions upon the death of their friend.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That the members of the Bar of the county of Cameron have learned with sincere regret of the death of the Hon. Henry W. Williams, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; that in the death of Justice Williams, who, for many years was President Judge of the Fourth Judicial District, of which the county of Cameron formed a part, the members of the Bar of this county realize that they have sustained a personal loss of one of the best and most able jurists that have presided over the several Courts of this Commonwealth. And, as a mark of esteem, a copy of these resolutions be presented to the Court at its next session to be entered upon the records of the same, and a copy thereof to be transmitted to the family to whom we hereby tender our sympathy and join with them in their sorrow, and that a committee of the Bar be appointed to attend the funeral.

Hon. J. C. Johnson, B. W. Green, and F. D. Leet were appointed a committee to attend the funeral.

Laundry Opened.

Mr. Daniel E. Fox has leased the laundry recently operated by J. C. Bonham, on Chestnut street. He has commenced operations and asks your patronage.

BRIEF MENTION.

Special low bargains in Overcoats at N. SEGER'S. You are not in style if you have not a dead clutch on the grippe.

Fresh Baltimore shucked oysters every other day at Day's.

Boys' clothing at wonderfully low prices at N. SEGER'S.

Don't forget the Hamilton Hose Co., Ball, Monday evening, Feb. 13.

Big bargains in winter clothing at the pioneer clothing store of N. Seger.

A most delicious beverage is that made from "Royal," Java and Mocha coffee, 55c. lb. 3 lbs. for $1.00 at Day's. It is reported that the Goodyear's contemplate erecting a saw mill at Sizerville.

Always buy your crackers at Day's and you will not get disappointed in quality or freshness of goods.

The Press received a copy of the Los Angeles Sunday Times, no doubt from our schoolmate, Mrs. V. M. Kepler. It is a grand paper and we certainly enjoyed reading the issue.

American Poultry food, crushed oyster shell, Pratt's Poultry Powder, fresh but bone scraps, are invaluable for the production of eggs. On sale at Day's.

A Pittsburg firm have secured a lease of territory and are preparing to drill a test well for oil or gas near Sizerville. The parties are now here making arrangements to commence operations.

The barbers at Ridgway have inaugurated a crusade against Sunday work and on Monday last they had one of their number arrested and he was fined $2 and costs for cutting a man's hair on the Sabbath day.

The Bradford Star says: "A Bradford man returning from the Gaines oil field says that the Atwell No. 1 is doing several barrels a day; Atwell No. 2 is doing fourteen barrels a day, he says. This man states that the South Penn Oil Company is leasing all the land it can get hold of, notwithstanding the apparent poor success of the field as an oil territory."

The local institute to be held Saturday, Feb. 4, in the High School building, will be of interest to everybody. Class drill, music both vocal and instrumental, and discussions on School Hygiene, Mothers' Associations, Character Building, etc., will be discussed by school principals and superintendents from this and neighboring counties.

The Penny Magazine, New York, which is the lowest-priced magazine in America (20 cents a year), and which is owned by Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, the eminent American orator, wants a representative in this vicinity. It is a good opportunity for one of our ambitious young men or young women. Applications should be addressed to the Subscription Department, The Penny Magazine, Temple Court, New York City.

* * * A humorous piece, "The Leap Year Wooing," was next given, showing that the speaker did not lean only to the sublime, tragic or pathetic, but could move an audience to laughter quite as easily as to tears. The evening closed with one of Prof. King's own poems, "Mine Enemy," probably the best from many standpoints of any that he recited. The time had passed so rapidly that many, looking at the clock, exclaimed to find it almost 10:00 o'clock.—St. Paul Globe.

The Coudersport Journal talks right to the point upon a subject that fittingly applies to Cameron county as well as Potter. It says: "Some municipal officers consider it a great victory when they succeed in forcing the local papers to bid the official printing down to starvation prices. It does not occur to the penny-wise officials that the best friends a man has is his newspapers and the more prosperous the newspapers the more it can donate to every public enterprise, and to every beneficial institution. The same rule applies in a more general way to a county. If publishers of local newspapers were enjoying inordinate incomes and grabbing for exorbitant profits only, it were well to organize against, but such is not the case, at least in this county, and parsimonious treatment of the local papers is not in the interest of the town nor county."

Mr. King is a young looking man with a smooth shaven face and power of facial expression possessed by few first-class actors. He took the rostrum amid deafening rounds of applause, and should a Brown City audience ever have to listen to him again, we are sure he would be greeted in an equally enthusiastic manner. From the beginning to the end he held the best attention of his audience, first would have them in roar of laughter,—"When the Frost is on the Pumpkin, and the Fodder's in the Shock," would bring a smile to the face of a condemned criminal—then his portrayal of death would bring tears; his face grew thin and ashy hued, and every feature quivered as if he were dying a real death.—The Standard, Brown City, Mich. At the Court House, Saturday, Feb. 4. Reserved seats at Lloyd's, Wednesday, at 1:00 p. m.

Lloyd's Long Range Forecast of the Weather FOR EMPORIUM AND VICINITY.

FRIDAY, Slightly warmer; rain or snow.

SATURDAY Cloudy; probably snow flurries. SUNDAY, Fair.

Demonstrating

WE ARE DEMONSTRATING—That January is as pleasant as May to do shopping at this merry-go-round; That January brings low tide, it is the time to buy; That we are very close to the people; That satisfying our customers, increases our business; That it is a perfectly safe store to deal at; That we are the shopping centre; That the store is beautifully full—full of bright new merchandise; That the people know what they want when they see it at Lloyd's; That with bigger bargains than ever, we are giving pleasanter and prompter service; That we are the open door to low prices; That we are creating business; That lower prices than neighbors sell them, is doing the business; That a dollar spent in this store, will do the work of a dollar and a half spent in another store; That dollars become elastic when brought to spend at Lloyd's; That it pays to advertise; That a store will shake apples from the best trees. Therefore it rains dollars to the Governor of the greatest stationery store in Cameron county.
