

Some Recent Utterances on Lynching.

In an address delivered at Chautauqua last week Chief-Justice Lore of Delaware said:

"The people should be taught in season and out of season that our safety as a people lies in implicit obedience to the law. This should be taught in our public schools, by the press, by the pulpit and on the forum. Indeed, wherever there is a teacher or an opportunity it should be taught."

In an article which he has just written Justice Brewer of the Supreme Court says:

"Our Government recently forwarded to Russia a petition in respect to alleged atrocities committed upon the Jews. That Government, as might have been expected, unwilling to have its internal affairs a matter of consideration by other governments, declined to receive the petition. If, instead of so doing, it had replied that it would put a stop to all such atrocities when this Government has put a stop to lynchings, what could we have said?"

What is the best position for an advertisement? The answers given to this question depends largely upon individual opinions and preferences, as well as upon a variety of conditions. The patent medicine man, in contracting for newspaper space, usually insists upon getting "top of column, next to pure reading matter." Sometimes he will accept as an alternative the foot of a broken column of reading matter alongside of a reading column. Occasionally an advertiser will evince a fondness for the first page, while others will not be satisfied unless their advertisements are inserted in the vicinity of the local news. Some demand a position next to the marriage notices, some want a place near the sporting news or the shipping reports, and some are content, or appear to be, with taking "the run of the paper." The fact is that the way an ad. is written and displayed is of much more importance than the position it occupies. When it is left unchanged for weeks it will not be read in any position. The fact that it may always be found in a certain place makes it less difficult for readers to avoid it. The advertiser who is in the habit of telling the people what they want to know in a bright newsy manner will have his advertisements read in any part of the paper. The ad. that is tastefully displayed will attract attention without regard to position. But the stale, unchanged ad. at the top of the column next to reading matter, or in any other favored spot, will be passed over like so much blank space, while the new, well written announcement in a less prominent position will be carefully read and will produce the desired effect.—Retailer and Advertiser.

Everybody—that is everybody who assumes that life is worth living—takes a bath at night, but a good many people feel too many duties pressing consistently upon them to stop for a bath when they rise in the morning, says the New York Tribune. And yet the moment when she lifts her head from the pillow is the worst of the day to many a woman, especially in the hot weather. She feels languid and "head-achy," lethargic and carries dull eyes and face to the breakfast table. A cold shower bath and a brisk rub would brighten her eyes and enable her to begin the day with a smile. Failing the shower, a plunge bath will serve, and if this be inconvenient a brief sponge at the washbasin will set the blood circulating to clear the heavy head. Then drink something immediately on rising. A quantity of cold water is beneficial. Some people get a better effect from a glass of hot water with half a lemon squeezed in it. The principal of the early morning drink is that it washes out the stomach, which during the long hours of night becomes coated with mucus. It tones up the digestive apparatus and gets it ready for work. Then if the woman puts on perfectly clean clothes and gets five minutes in the fresh morning air outside, taking full, deep breaths, she will feel like a different creature. This may sound like a good deal of time for busy woman to spend at the beginning of things, but it will not amount to more than ten minutes extra, and that number of minutes could be deducted from the time taken scoring the ice man on account of shortage in weight.

Growing Business.

The business of the Empire Mills, Messrs. J. P. and C. H. Felt proprietors, is a growing one, and to meet the demands of the eastern trade the firm will begin at once the construction of a large warehouse for the storage of bran and middlings. The warehouse will be built near the mill property at North Olean, and Mr. B. U. Taylor has the contract. The dimensions of the proposed warehouse are 134x54 feet and it will have a capacity of fifty cars of feed or one thousand tons. This warehouse will permit the firm to give prompt shipments, which the trade demands. The firm have a splendid reputation for honorable dealings which accounts for the largely increasing business. They keep two traveling salesmen and all orders are supplied from the local mills. Last week the workmen at the mills were given a ten per cent increase in wages, another evidence of the prosperous condition of business. Alderman Sloane, the manager of the mills has contributed in no small degree to the substantial increase of the business of the firm—Olean Times.

The Boy's Outing in Hick's Run.

The boys from Emmanuel Sunday school who passed two days at the Smith camp in Hick's Run last week report that they had the best kind of a time and should have been glad to stay longer. This is evidence of great bravery on the part of the younger boys of the party, for some of them had thrilling tales to tell of the bears they heard rushing passed the camp in the dead hours of the night pursued by Kelly's bull pups. One morning two of the boys started out to pick blackberries but were back in camp inside of fifteen minutes, having seen a big black animal with a pointed nose moving rapidly through the forest. In the face of the positive testimony of these two boys, no one can prove that it was not a bear.

The chief attraction for the boys, however, not even excepting the bears was the deep swimming hole at the old lower dam, a mile below the camp. This hole is said to be sixteen feet deep, none of the divers could "bring bottom." On the second day the boys were organized into a trial court to punish one of their number. The charge against the prisoner, as expressed in the formal legal phraseology of the prosecuting attorney, was that he went in swimmin' when he hadn't orter." The testimony against him was direct and clear. The attorney of the defense made a perfunctory attempt to show that the presence of his client in the water was the result of an accident. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and recommended that the prisoner be condemned to go without coffee and cocoa during the remainder of the outing. This sentence was accordingly imposed and executed.

For the benefit of parties who may be thinking of going to the Smith camp for an outing, the warning is extended that a good round charge for the use of the camp may be expected.

Japanese Fete and Bazaar.

The Corner Stone Club, assisted by the Candy Kitchen Club and all the girls they can persuade to join them, will hold a Japanese fete and bazaar in the opera house, Thursday evening, Aug. 27th. The opera house will be lighted with Japanese lanterns, decorated with Japanese draperies, and cosy corners arranged with Japanese screens, with stools and rugs to sit upon instead of chairs. There will be Japanese music and a Japanese farce rendered so realistically as to cause you to laugh every time you think of it. Tea will be served in little Japanese cups which you may keep as souvenirs. They have asked John Wanamaker to donate the Japanese department of his big store, so will have all kinds of pretty and useful Japanese articles for sale, at such prices as will make you long to buy them all.

Bring the children and enjoy their delight, the old folks and let them be young again. Boys, bring your best girls, also those of other fellows—if they don't themselves. You will be served with dainty little luncheons by pretty Japanese attired maidens, who will look at you so coyly over the tops of their fans, as to cause you an almost irresistible desire to give them a hug and a kiss, and if you did, they would only have themselves to blame for looking so pretty and bewitching. Everybody come and bring your neighbors, be happy and make everybody else so. The proceeds will go to the new church building fund.

EDITOR CAMERON COUNTY PRESS.

Sunday afternoon, Coit Mason, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mason, of Vine street, fell from a tricycle and broke his left arm. Dr. Heilmann reduced the fracture and cheered the little fellow up.

Mr. Gregory of the Howard Lumber Co., is promoted to the position of superintendent at the new mill. He is a very capable man, and can fill this place to the satisfaction of all concerned. We wish him success in his new position.

The gun club medal was won last week by Mr. W. C. Clark. The club is now shooting what is called a walk up, and are doing good shooting for this class, which is a harder class to shoot in than the standing shots, and furnishes a great deal of amusement for the onlookers. Remember the night, Wednesday evening at six o'clock.

Miss Hazel Carpenter, of Howard mill, is the proud possessor of a new bicycle. Miss Hazel is a charming Miss and appreciates anything her parents may do for her.

Miss Myrtle Hastings, of Shingle House, Pa., who has been staying with Mrs. E. L. Mason, for some time is now visiting at Mrs. W. A. Dalrymple's. Miss Hastings is one of Pennsylvania's successful school teachers. Her school begins at Shingle House the first of September.

Mrs. Daniel Downey is on the sick list. She and Mr. Downey have just returned from a six weeks' visit, at Harrisburg, Lancaster, and New Holland; at the latter place they visited a tobacco plantation. Mr. Downey reports a fine time at all the places visited.

Speaking of tobacco, makes me think, that is the only evil habit the Indians ever taught the white race. While we have taught him all the evils there is in civilization, whisky, cards, lying, stealing, murdering and last but not least, divorce. The Indians were naturally of kind disposition, as is shown in all early history. You all know how Captain John Smith was received by them and kept from starving. Then you all know how he paid them back for their kindness. History tells how the Indians were kidnapped and taken to England as slaves. But no Indian was ever a successful slave, too much mar about him for that. History seems to say if we want to civilize a people we send first a Missionary, then a barrel of whisky, then a pack of cards, when they get the whiskey and learn to handle the cards then we call them civilized.

"Rev. Lloyd."

That was the way one of our daily papers headed an article descriptive of the Rev. Dr. Lloyd which was published at the time of the late convocation. That is the way, too, that we clergy find ourselves addressed and spoken of again and again.

We know of a certain Sunday school teacher who in giving instruction upon the eighth commandment told her class of girls that they ought never to steal, "because it was so unladylike—besides being wicked." And the above expression is so ungrammatical—besides being disrespectful.

The word "Reverend" is an adjective, not a noun, and cannot properly be used alone as a sufficient title. In this respect it is entirely different from—say, "Doctor" or "Professor." It is more like the term "Honorable," and yet men and women who talk calmly and contentedly of "Rev. Brown" would hesitate to speak in the same off-hand way of "Hon. Jones."

If you do not know a clergyman's initials and still wish to give him a title, "the Rev. Mr." is sufficient. If you are in a very great hurry, call him plain "Mr." like the rest of the world.—North Dakota Sheaf.

His Judgment at Fault.

When Theodore Roosevelt was President of the Board of Police Commissioners in New York, he learned to appreciate the work that Jacob Riis has done for the betterment of the East Side, and when he became Governor of the State he testified to his appreciation of Riis' services by pronouncing him to be "the most useful citizen in New York." A little later when Riis lectured one night in a town up the State, the chairman of the committee in introducing him, quoted Roosevelt's testimonial. An old man in the audience who was slightly hard of hearing remarked, "I always did think that that man Roosevelt is lacking in judgment, and now I am sure of it, if he says Riis is the most beautiful citizen in New York."

New State Law For Collecting School Taxes.

The last Legislature passed a law relating to the collection of taxes in boroughs and townships. The collectors must now make a monthly statement of the amounts which they have received. The following is a copy of the law, as filed in Prothonotary Phipps's office, and will be read with interest by the school authorities and collectors of the county.

Section 1. Be it enacted, etc. That each and every collector of school taxes in the several boroughs and townships of this Commonwealth shall hereafter, on or before the tenth day of each and every month, after receiving the duplicate containing a statement of the school tax to be collected by him, delivered with such duplicate, a statement in writing signed by him, showing the names of the persons from whom he has collected any school taxes upon his duplicate, to and including the last day of the preceding month, the amount collected from each, and the date of such collection, and also the amount of the uncollected school taxes upon the same duplicate, and shall at the same time, if required by the secretary or any member of the School Board exhibit the duplicate, showing the said uncollected taxes, for examination; and the said tax collector shall pay over on or before the said tenth day of each and every month during his term of office, to the treasurer of the school district, all taxes collected by him during the preceding month, less the commission or fees to which he is by law entitled for the collection of the same.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Board of School Directors and the collector of the school taxes, in each of the boroughs and townships of the Commonwealth, to meet together, at the usual meeting place of the said School Board, on the first Monday of each and every year and examine the duplicate of the school taxes, which the said collector is hereby requested to produce and exhibit to the said Board of School Directors, and ascertain the amount of school taxes then collected; and it shall be the duty of every such collector, on or before the first Monday of June thereafter, to collect and pay to the treasurer of the proper school district the whole amount of the balance of the taxes charged and assessed in the said duplicate, excepting such sums from which the said school directors, in their discretion, may exonerate them.

Section 3. Any tax collector who shall fail to pay over to the treasurer of the proper school district the taxes collected by him, according to the provisions of this act, or who shall fail to make and deliver to the secretary any of the statements in writing required by this act, or who shall fail to produce and exhibit the duplicate of the school taxes to the Secretary of the Board of School Directors as required by the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Section 4. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved—The 21st day of April, A. D., 1903.

Taken With Cramps.
Wm. Kirruse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day.
