Emporium Opera House.

An Uncle Tom's Cabin company without the customary adjuncts, a blaring brass band, ponies, donkeys and other animal features is to say the least a novelty, but when one comes to consider that a reputable actor will condescend to parade the streets in all sorts of weather, it can readily be seen that a company that employs only actors and actresses that are engaged solely to appear in the theatre, the performance must show a decided improvement over the old time representations of the play. Mason Bros., this season are using only a concert band on the street, giving daily concerts at noon and have engaged the strongest acting company ever seen in this, the greatest of all American plays. The public has evinced its appreciation of this departure by filling the theatres nightly. Emporium Opera House, Monday evening, Jan. 14th.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer."

One of the attractions booked at the Emporium Opera House, for Tuesday, Jan. 29, 1907, is "Quincy Adams Sawyer," the great New England drama in its fifth season of uninterrupted success. Everyone who has read the book of the same name from which the play was taken, will want to see the play just the same, for everybody loves a clean, wholesome play of the New England life, and this is just what "Quincy Adams Sawyer" is.

Best of all it has departed from the weather beaten tracks of the old-time drama. The pleasing points are a simple, sweet love story, a continuous series of humorous incidents, and an almost heretofore unknown naturalness and purity that pervades the entire play.

To begin with you start at the country store and postoffice where you see "Quincy Adams Sawyer" as the city chap helping his country friends and outdoing his country enemies. You are made known of the pretty love affairs of several of the village young folks and your interest in Mason's corner folks is firmly established.

Next you find yourself at the Cross Roads. Here takes place one of the prettiest touches of the clay, where Zekies describes the surroundings to his blind sister. The scene shifts to Mrs. Putnam's sitting room and you meet the ludicrous Samantha, and grow a bit apprehensive over Lindy's affairs which have got into a curious tangle.

Next you find yourself at a real husky log bee at the Pettengill farmyard. You will hold your sides in laughter at the gossamer dancing of Abner Stiles and Mrs. Crawley.

When you recover, you find that you are in the midst of a good old-fashioned snow storm, but you shiver for only a minute or two, for the interior of the comfortable Pettengill homestead is opened to your gaze. Everybody eats supper, all the tangled love affairs are straightened out and everybody is supremely happy. You are happy too, for the joys and sorrows of those quaint people have been your own. You go away with the singing of the doxology lingering in your ears; and feeling that you have tasted a piece of genuine rural atmosphere.

Game Warden Kalbfus is Much Encouraged.

"I am just getting in reports of the deer killing in this state during the open season which closed last month," said State Game Warden Kalbfus, "and I find that the killing was the largest for years. There were also more bears killed this year than for many years. Some of the deer hunters paid no attention to the game laws and will get into trouble. Game of all kinds has been plentiful, with the exception of quail and woodcock.

We want legislation that will close the season for shooting these birds for several years. Why the pot hunters even cleaned out the imported birds that we brought here from Alabama to propagate. In the lower end of Dauphin county two men paid $9 a dozen for Alabama birds intending to stock their farms, and when they liberated them they 'banded' their legs—that is placed a small aluminum band about the leg with the date of liberation on it. They did this to see if they would remain on the farm. They stayed on the farm all right, but a gang of pot hunters got in among them and slaughtered every one. If there is a law to forbid quail shooting for several years the birds could have a chance to live. We are getting much encouragement now for the passage of a law compelling every hunter to take a state license. If such pot hunters will be caught without a license, then they can be punished."

Oranges Frozen.

The Emporium owners of Florida orange groves were struck hard by frost last week, the loss running up into thousands. The following Emporiumites have interests at Emporia, Fla.: J. P. Felt, Judge B. W. Green, C. H. Felt, Thos. Gallagher, Dr. DeLong, John Beers, Mrs. J. W. Frank, Thos. Drudy, also Waldo Mattison, of Ridgeway. The loss is very heavy, especially on J. P. Felt, who owns five groves. The trees were not injured, only the fruit.

Dynamite in a Christmas Cigar.

Joseph Vater, a jeweler at Roulette, Potter county, is the victim of a cigar loaded with dynamite, which he received as a Christmas present. He smoked three cigars of a box received supposedly from a friend, and they proved good. He noticed that the wrapper of the fourth one was loose and he patched it with tissue paper. After he had lighted it an explosion followed, tearing a hole in his breast, fracturing one rib and burning his face, eyes and body.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

DININNY.

MRS. HANNAH M. DININNY, aged 63 years, widow of the late Theo. Dininny, who died several years ago, passed away on Dec. 21st, 1906, at the home of her sister, at Campbell, N. Y., after an illness of two years, of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Dininny went to Campbell last July, hoping the change might prolong her life. Deceased had resided in Emporium for many years and was universally respected. She leaves five children viz: Mrs. Emma Whitmore, Binghamton, N. Y.; Mrs. Frank Smith, Reading Centre, N. Y.; Frank W., of town; Ray E., of Buffalo; and Miss Myrtle, an adopted daughter, who will make her home in Buffalo with Ray Dininny, after she completes her schooling at Campbell. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Frank Walling, Campbell, N. Y., (who attended the funeral at this place) and one brother, Edward Tensler, of Campbell.

The funeral took place at her late residence, West Fifth street, Emporium, on Sunday, Dec. 23, 1906, Rev. Cleaver, of M. E. Church officiating. Mrs. Dininny has for years been an active and consistent member of M. E. Church, also a hard worker in Ladies Relief Corps, always lending a helping hand to the sick and needy.

Uncle Tom's Cabin Co.

Mason Bros., claim to have engaged this season the strongest acting company ever secured to present the great play of Uncle Tom's Cabin. By dispensing with the customary street parade and by the employment of only actors and actresses of ability they have been enabled to present for the first time in the history of the drama a cast capable of giving a correct and acceptable production. From Uncle Tom down to the most insignificant role, the characters are in the hands of artists. The company makes a feature of its daily band concerts but there is no street parade the performance being given in the theatre and not on the streets. Emporium Opera House, Monday evening, Dec. 14.

When to Stop Advertising.

An English journal requested a number of its largest advertisers to give their opinion concerning the best time to stop advertising and the following replies were received:

"When the population ceases to multiply and the generations that crowd on after you and never heard of you stop coming on."

"When you have convinced every body whose life will touch yours that you have better goods and lower prices than they can get anywhere else."

"When you stop making fortunes solely through the direct use of the mighty agent."

"When you forget the words of the shrewdest and most successful men concerning the main causes of their prosperity."

"When younger and fresher houses in your line cease starting up and using the trade journals in telling people how much better they can do for them than you can."

"When you would rather have your own way and fail than take advice and win."

Reduced Rates to Harrisburg Account Inauguration Governor-Elect Stuart.

Via Pennsylvania Railroad. Tickets sold January 14 and 15, good returning until January 16, inclusive, from all stations in Pennsylvania. Consult nearest Ticket Agent.

You can get all kinds of good cedar shingles at C. B. Howard & Co.

Deserves Support.

During the present year it is to be hoped that the Humane Society of Emporium, as well as the county, will receive the cordial substantial support that it deserves, and that the justices before whom are brought violators of the laws framed to protect poor beasts against man's cruelty will punish them with something more severe than a reprimand. Ordinances are being enacted in many boroughs imposing severe penalties on violators.

Gone to California.

Richard Bliss, who has for many years resided on West Creek, left last week for Powana, Cal., where he expects to permanently reside. His two daughters located there about two years ago. Richard has worked hard all his life and thinks he can do better there and live longer. Success to you, "Dick." The PRESS of course follows.

Seriously Ill.

Mr. John H. Trotter, who for some years has been an employe of C. B. Howard Company, in a clerical capacity, is confined to his bed very ill with locomotor ataxia. Dr. Heilman is attending him. Unknown to his friends, he has been ailing for three months.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., January 12th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and examined free. All work guaranteed.

Guaranteed Attraction.

Mr. Lester A. Davis who was with us a few days ago, looking after the interests of "Quincy Adams Sawyer" Co., which plays here at the Opera House Jan. 29th, makes a statement in which he guarantees that all of the scenery carried in this vast production will positively be used here. This in itself should insure the theatre goers of a fine entertainment. The book of "Quincy Adams Sawyer" are now on sale at H. S. Lloyd's store; price 50c per copy.

An Open Letter.

Citizens of Cameron county, I want you to take notice of this item. We had license court on the 17th day of December. I put in my petition for license according to requirements of law and was refused, but I can not see why I was refused. I think I ought to be entitled to license. I am the oldest hotel keeper here; all the other hotels have changed hands several times. I have had license here for the last twenty-one years.

I became a citizen of the United States thirty-six years ago and have been a good law abiding citizen. I do not think any one can say anything wrong about me and I do not think there is anything fair about this deal. I have worked hard for what little I have, and every dollar I made is invested in Emporium which every one can see, and still I am investing. I pay the largest individual tax of Cameron county in dollars.

It would be no more than right that the citizens should uphold me. I am disabled, having only one arm I can not do manual labor. I lost my wife over three years ago and I was left with five children. Three are little girls, going to St. Marys Academy, and these I have to take care of. I am under a big expense.

It is claimed there was too many licenses in Emporium. If so why was not the license taken away from some of the younger hotel men instead of the oldest man in town, no matter what church came to me for help I always helped them.

I ask the citizens of Cameron county whether this was a fair deal.

JOHN COSTELLO.

East Emporium, Pa., Dec. 31, 1906.

Close Call.

On Wednesday of last week, while H. C. Fritz, who has the contract of decorating Jos. Kaye's new residence met with a painful accident. He was boiling some rosin and other ingredients when the contents fired. While hustling to throw the pail out of a window it fired the paint and oil. For a time it was lively business and the workmen assisted by Mr. Kaye, succeeded in smothering the flames. Mr. Fritz's right hand and left thumb were horribly burned. Dr. Bardwell took charge of the afflicted gentleman. Mr. Fritz is able to be out and direct the work but it will be some time before he will have the use of his right hand.

Generous Act.

The employes of the Emporium Furnace Company were very agreeably surprised on Christmas to receive an advance in wages of ten per cent. for 1907. Each employe was also presented with a crisp new $5.00 bill. The generous act was highly commendable on Mr. Brady's part. The future prospects for the furnace is bright. The advance in pay means an additional outlay of $10,000.

James McCrea Elected.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 1.—James McCrea, former vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, in charge of the lines west of Pittsburg, was today elected president of the company to succeed the late A. J. Cassatt. The choice was made at a special meeting of the board of directors held here.

DEFINITION OF "A FRIEND."

As a result of offering a prize for the best original definition of "A Friend," several years ago, London Tit-Bits came into possession of thousands from all parts of the world. From these the following were selected as the most striking. The first was awarded the prize:

A watch which beats true for all time, and never "runs down."

One who to himself is true, and therefore, must be so to you.

The first person who comes in when the whole world has gone out.

A permanent fortification when one's affairs are in a state of siege.

One who loves the truth and you, and will tell the truth in spite of you.

One who multiplies joys, divides griefs, and whose honesty is inviolable.

The triple alliance of the three great powers, Love, Sympathy and Help.

A jewel whose luster the strong acids of poverty and misfortune cannot dim.

One who combines for you alike the pleasures and benefits of society and solitude.

A bank of credit on which we can draw supplies of confidence, counsel, sympathy, help and love.

Chief of Police Mundy, has been laid up with grip, since the first of the week, but Doctor Bardwell, who attends him expects him to be out in a day or two.

Mrs. Robt. E. Fleming, spent a few days in town, guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. McCarthy.

Chas. E. McCarthy, of Renovo, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McCarthy, at this place during the Holiday week.

In Memory of Hazel Wrightner, Who was Killed by Lightning at Mason Hill, July 9th, 1906.

"Our Hazel" was taken so quickly. By the lightning's terrible stroke, Cut down in her innocent girlhood, While the Thunder, dread echoes awake.

No time did she have to embrace us, Or bid us a loving good bye, The lightning's dread power came upon her From the terrible storm in the sky.

But God's will be done, is our motto, He speaks in mysterious ways; And we know she is with Him in heaven In that bright land of perfect day.

She is waiting with sweet smile to greet us As she did in the days of yore, And with Angels; she watches above us, With the same gentle love as before.

—J. F. SULLIVAN, Drifwood, Pa.
