Emmanuel Church Notice.

Celebration of the Holy Communion next Sunday at 8 a. m.
The offering next Sunday (Feb. 17,) will be for General Mission. The apportionment asked from the parish this year is $110.60. The amount already raised on this apportionment is $26.

The Boys' Brigade meets regularly in the parish house every Monday evening at half-past seven o'clock. In the absence of Captain Bliss, of Ridgway, Mr. R. K. Mickey is drilling the boys in a very successful manner. The drill follows the U. S. Infantry Regulations. Forty-six boys are enrolled.

The Teachers Training Class meets in the church immediately after the Friday evening service. The class is intended primarily for the Sunday school teacher, but others are heartily welcomed. Two meetings have been held with a good attendance at each. The text-book used for the opening course in "Sunday School Teaching" by Rev. William Walter Smith, M. D., Secretary of the New York Sunday School Commission.

"My Wife's Family."

There is something in the production of "My Wife's Family," a musical comedy in three acts, by Stephens & Linton, which commends itself strongly to amusement lovers. It is just a jolly bit of tom-foolery. It is never loud, never vulgar, always refined, and never fails to send away a well satisfied audience at the close of the performance. There are three hours of music, song and drollery, with never a minute that is slow or dull. It is one round of jollity from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The comedians are exceedingly funny, the ladies are decidedly pretty and vivacious, and the songs and music are catchy. Striking and effective costumes, stage pictures that please the eye, and snatches of wit that you laugh in spite of yourself. The company is made up of well-known people, especially engaged for the parts portrayed. At Emporium Opera House, Friday evening, Feb. 21.

Horse Killed.

Wm. Whitmer, a milk man, while crossing the railroad at Felt's mill, last Saturday, had the misfortune to have his horse killed by the Erie flyer going east. He did not notice the train approach on account of a freight passing on another track.

At Beechwood.

Saturday evening, Feb. 15th, a pie social will be held at the home of Mrs. Kirkpatrick. The ladies are kindly requested to bring pies.

Boys and Girls.

Do you want to earn a little money in your spare time. Send me 12c in stamps for Samples and Post Cards and other fast selling Novelties also send the names and address of five of your boy or girl friends and I will send you a Beautiful Five Cluster Brilliant Turquoise and Pearl Set Ring free of charge. This is not a cheap imitation ring but a high class piece of jewelry, fit to be worn by any one.

THE FARMERS EXCHANGE,
47th Pittsfield, Pa.

New Arrivals.

A number of very pretty new Spring Suits for Ladies have been received at the big Dry Goods Store of R. Kuehne. Black Taffeta Silk Jumper Suits as low as $9.98. Stylish Cloth Suits, tailor-made, from $13.50 up. Another shipment of beautiful Wash Dress Goods has also just arrived. The big sale of Cottons announced last week is continued. It means that you can buy Cottons and Sheeting much under price.

Pass a Pleasant Evening.

To pass a pleasant hour, profitably, take your children to the Theaterium. The pictures and songs are fine.

Jolly Sleigh Ride.

The "E. N. G. Club" held a social session at the home of Miss Edna Adams, Rich Valley, last Friday evening. After having a sleigh ride, which on account of the condition of the roads, included several upsets, Messrs. Elliot and MacOleavy were the entertainers of the evening. The former amused all by his expert slight-of-hand performance. Mr. MacOleavy rendered several tenor solos in a pleasing manner. The clubs "coffee drinking contest" still continues with Mr. Robinson at head of list.

Correct You Are.

Every once in awhile there comes rumors of a candidate for congress in the Twenty-first district to oppose the present representative, Capt. C. F. Barclay, of Cameron county, but thus far no candidate has appeared and none are likely to do so. The principal reason why Capt. Barclay should be unopposed is the fact that a two-term rule has always been admitted, although it is a poor rule, for no national lawmaker should have his efficiency handicapped by such a rule. It alone prevents this, as well as other congressional districts in the state, from receiving the highest benefit possible, for the district that sends a new man to the House of Representatives every two or four years are the districts that receive an apportionment of garden seeds and a few documents, while the district that return men term after term secure the desirable committee appointments, the appropriations and the best offices that come under federal appointment.

The real reason why Capt. Barclay should be returned to congress this year without opposition is because he can then be of great benefit to the district, and because he has already demonstrated his ability in looking after the needs of his constituents. It certainly is a great mistake for any organization, newspaper or individual to argue that one term is enough for any man, proving his work is satisfactory and he has shown himself capable of attending to the duties of the office which he holds.—Curwensville Review.

A Narrow Escape.

Mr. Geo. Eckstine, while working with the other machinists in the hoist engine room of Emporium Furnace had a miraculous escape from burning to death, last Friday morning. Owing to the cold weather it was necessary to have a fire in the engine room to keep it warm and comfortable for Geo., who has not fully recovered from the cold weather he experienced while in Wisconsin, where Geo. says it was so cold that horses are not allowed out of doors during the winter because the air is so cold that it freezes the air in the horses lungs and that means sure death to the animal. Of course Geo. is not an animal and that is why he is alive today. The accident that befell Mr. Eckstine happened in this way: Geo., while working at the engine in the engine room, was so taken up in his work, did not notice that he was so close to the open fire until the flames were crawling up his back. Geo. in the excitement suggested turning in a fire call but with the assistance of Weiman, Coyle and Green the fire was with difficulty extinguished. The loss was the seat of Mr. Eckstine's overalls.

The Press artist made a very life like sketch of Geo's predicament and we regret our inability to produce a picture of our sedate friend.

W. E. Devling Improving.

Mr. W. E. Devling, of Sterling Run, who has been confined in the Williamsport Hospital for a long time, came home Jan. 24th. His leg has entirely healed and he can walk by the aid of a cane quite well, not using his crutches any more. His health otherwise is very poor, but with the coming of nice spring weather he hopes to get all right again. He has certainly had an awful siege of it and his many friends hope he may fully recover his once robust health.

For Sale.

All new. 51-ly. W. H. CRAMER.

LOST—Monday evening, between Warner House and Rodgers' farm, a silver watch. Finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving same at PRESS office.

Emporium Boy Getting Up.

Among the charters entered at the State Department yesterday was one for the Gately & Fitzgerald Supply Company, of this city, with a capital of $60,000. In the corporation are Thomas M. Fitzgerald and C. O. Mayer, of Philadelphia, and Frank R. Downey, of this city.—Harrisburg Telegraph. Frank R. Downey, son of our respected citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Dan'l Downey, of West Fifth street, is a hustler and shows what strict attention to business, coupled with economy and honesty will do. His Emporium friends are pleased to know that he is climbing up.

"My Wife's Family."

"Smile On Me" sung in "My Wife's Family," a clever musical comedy success, which will be seen at the Emporium Opera House on Friday evening, Feb. 21st, is one of the big hits of the season. It is one of the catchiest melodies written in recent years and has a swing to it that sets everybody keeping time to the music, and humming and whistling it for days afterwards.

"The Endless Chain of Prayer."

Editor Cameron County Press:—
Kindly permit me in your columns to call attention to the fraudulent "Endless Chain of Prayer" into which many persons have been innocently drawn. The alleged originator of the prayer is "Bishop Lawrence," but the only bishop of that name has denounced the whole matter as a fraud. On receiving a copy of the prayer last week I promptly handed it over to the post office authorities, and am in receipt of the following letter from the Post Office Department, Washington: February 11, 1908.

REV. J. M. ROBERTSON,
Emporium, Pa.

SIR: The chain letter "prayer" alleged to have been written at the request of Bishop Lawrence, submitted with your letter of the 7th instant, is returned with the information that on account of the fraudulent representations made therein, the mailing of these letters is forbidden by the Department.

Very Respectfully,
R. P. GOODWIN,
Assistant Attorney General.

The chain letter is as follows: "Endless Chain of Prayer. 'Oh Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternally God, have mercy upon all mankind, keep us from sin and take us to be with Thee eternally.'"

"This prayer was sent by Bishop Lawrence, recommending it to be sent to nine other people. It must not be signed. He who will write this for nine days, commencing on the day received, distributing it to nine other different persons, and sending only one each day, will on the ninth day experience some great joy. At Jerusalem, during the great feast it was said, 'He who will write the prayer will be delivered of every great calamity.' Please do not break the chain. Please copy as received. Trusting that the blessing of God may rest upon you and to whom it is sent."

The terms of the chain letter are calculated to appeal strongly to the credulous and timid. A year ago a friend showed me a copy of this chain letter and asked me what should be done with it. "Burn it up," I replied. "But will not some calamity overtake me, if I do that?" "Burn it up," I insisted, "and have no fear of the calamity." This advice was followed.

J. M. ROBERTSON,
Emporium, Pa., Feb. 13th, 1908.

Lincoln's Birthday.

The large and attractive display of interesting histories and addresses on "Lincoln" were attractively displayed at the Reading Room yesterday. Few towns five times larger than Emporium, can produce a larger collection of standard works. Miss Brooks, the cataloguer, is certainly showing up the real merits of our Reading Room. The next display will be Washington's Anniversary.

Cramer.

As we go to press, we learn from Mr. W. H. Cramer that his father, Jacob K., died at Williamsport yesterday suddenly of neuralgia of the heart, in his 74th year. He leaves a wife and nine children, this being the first death in the family. Mr. Cramer and family leave to-day to attend the funeral to be held at Williamsport to-morrow. The family have the sympathy of our citizens.

The Latest Candidate.

Samuel D. McCool, the latest Republican candidate for Associate Judge, visited in Emporium on Monday and made a very favorable impression on the voters. Mr. McCool was a candidate for the nomination ten years ago and made a close contest.

DEATH'S DOINGS

DAVY.

Mrs. Clara E. Davy, mother of Mrs. T. F. Moore, died at the latter's home Saturday at 2:30 p. m., after an illness of five weeks. Mrs. Davy came here five weeks ago and despite every effort to nurse her back to health, she declined gradually until death claimed her earthly career as stated above. The remains were laid at rest at the home until Monday when they were taken to Emporium, the former home of the deceased. A number of friends and relatives accompanied the remains. Brief services were conducted at the home by Rev. J. H. Graybell.

Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Emporium. The deceased was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends as was evidenced by the large number who turned out at Emporium to pay her a last tribute of respect.

She is survived by her aged father, one son and three daughters. The son, Bernard Davy, is in the railway service with headquarters at Olean. The daughters are Mrs. T. F. Moore, and Mrs. C. W. Crum, of this city, and Mrs. McElhaney, of Buffalo.

In early life, Mrs. Davy professed faith in Christ and united with the Methodist church. She was possessed of a meek and quiet spirit, devoted to Christ and the church. She enjoyed the House of God and was glad like the palmist, when they said: "Let us go into the House of the Lord?" When opportunity afforded, she revently waited upon God in the sanctuary, and in her meek, unostentatious way lived the life of a true child of God before her friends and neighbors.

But it was in the home where she was seen at her best and where she shone with a peculiar luster, where she ministered to her husband and children in tender affection. The enduring affection here manifested, tended to develop these Christian graces in a high degree and which flowered into rare beauty.

Honored by her neighbors and devotedly loved by her children, full of good works and ripe in years, she fell asleep in Jesus and her body was tenderly carried by loving friends, who with tears and words of affection laid it away in the tomb of the cemetery at Emporium where lie her loved dead. Here her body reposes awaiting the Resurrection morn.—Elk County Enterprise, St. Marys.

RUSSELL.

ROY GORDON RUSSELL, aged 9 years, 10 months and 11 days, died at Medix Run, Jan. 30, 1908, and was buried at Benetette, Feb. 1, 1908.

The subject of this notice was the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Russell. Roy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Feeling, who lived at Truman, both died with pneumonia when he was an infant. He was taken in charge by the Aid Society of Emporium and given to Mrs. Russell, who gave him a good home until his death. Roy was stricken early last fall with infant paralysis, which rendered him helpless up to the time of his death. His death was due to pneumonia. Roy was a bright child, beloved by everyone that knew him; a favorite with his playmates. May the parents who so nobly gave him all the care possible, done every thing in their power to save his life.

Death, cold unfeeling death
Threw his unerring dart,
And stopped his beating pulse and breath,
And saddened every heart.

J. M. E.

WYGAUNT.

John Wygant, of Sizerville, Pa., aged 74 years, passed to the great beyond Feb. 6th, 1908, after a long illness. Deceased came to Cameron county in 1865, after serving almost three years as a member of New York Heavy Artillery, when he married his devoted wife, (Miss Almada Lucore) who survives him. During all these years he has diligently pursued his occupation of carpenter, at the same time filling many important offices of trust with fidelity. We knew and respected the deceased for his many good qualities, especially his faithfulness to every trust, his loyalty to his country, his family, friends and the Republican party. During his active life he always boasted that he could master any kind of work except hanging wall paper.

The funeral services took place last Sunday afternoon from the family residence at Sizerville and was largely attended by relatives and friends, including a delegation from Lieut. D. W. Taggart Post, G. A. R. Rev. J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church, Emporium, conducted the services. The singing was rendered by Mrs. Kackemeister, Miss Lillian Heilman and Mr. Geo. Metzger, Jr., and Mr. Chas. W. Rishell.

Head-On Collision.

VOLNEY COOK.

Pennsylvania Engineer Killed in Collision Near Olean, N. Y.

A serious accident occurred one mile south of Olean last Sunday morning, whereby several men were either killed or fatally injured. Volney Cook, of Buffalo, who was engineer of No. 98 freight train coming south was instantly killed, while his fireman E. A. Troy, also of Buffalo, who was taken to Olean hospital in a serious condition, died on Tuesday. W. F. Shaffer, fireman on the extra north bound and Thos. Butler of Emporium, were seriously injured and taken to the hospital. Mr. Butler was brought home on Monday. Both of his ankles are sprained and was otherwise injured. He is doing as well as could be expected.

The extra was made up of an engine and a cabin and was running light. It was in charge of Trainman Butler and Engineer Clare Blanchard of Olean, and Fireman Shafer were on the engine. The operator at Portville four miles south of Olean, it is said, sent the extra by when it should have been held there until after 98 passed.

Operator R. W. Bottsford and Dispatcher Cramer, of Buffalo, are said to be equally responsible for the accident, both having violated the rules changing the orders. Bottsford, who disappeared, was located on Tuesday at Portville, where the inquest will be held.

Train 98 and the extra met with considerable force but, not enough to derail either. The engines locked horns. Engineer Blanchard saved himself by jumping. The others were caught in the smash-up.

Considerably Improved.

Mr. Henry Robinson, of East Alleghany Avenue, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is considerably better this week. This will be good news to the many friends of the family.

Mrs. Belle Henry, his daughter, of Patterson, N. J., who was a professional nurse, has faithfully nursed her father.
