That Breach of Promise Case.

The Mock Court Trial, to be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church, in the Opera House, on Saturday evening, April 16th, promises to be an event of unusual interest. Judging from newspaper reports of similar entertainments, conducted by the present management it would seem to be one of the most amusing things now offered for public patronage.

It will be, in the first place, an exact reproduction of a court scene in methods and procedure and on this account will be extremely interesting to ladies and others, who have never attended a real trial.

Best of all will be the refined fun of the whole affair. With Hon. George J. LaBara presiding over the court, Miss Ximema Brooks appearing as the broken-hearted plaintiff, Arthur Orton as the defendant, Col. Newton prosecuting the case and Capt. J. C. Johnson defending the accused, to say nothing of the brilliant array of court officers, witnesses and jurors, it is pretty certain we shall have all the comedy and reality of a court scene and enough wholesome fun to last a whole year.

Indeed, it is predicted by those in position to know, that from the opening of the court to the close of the case the audience will be kept keyed up to the point of convulsions by the unique proceedings.

Wit, pathos, eloquence, laughable local hits and vagaries will be drawn upon without stint to keep up the current of merriment.

As an entertainment of innocent fun, conducted with mock dignity and without the shade of offence to refined tastes, the Mock Trial will be as mentioned above, an event of unusual interest. The following are the rest of the participants:

Clerk, C. Jay Goodnough; Court Officer, Frank Mundy; Crier, Fred W. Yentzer. Witnesses, Mrs. Chas. Seger, Miss Lora McQuay, Dr. H. S. Falk, George Walker, R. H. Edgar.

Jurors: E. E. Forbes, E. W. Gaskill, Rev. J. M. Robertson, H. H. Mullin, F. A. Pearsall, C. E. Crandall, J. H. Stephens, Dr. H. W. Mitchell, James Wright, J. F. Parsons, F. P. Strayer, and Chief Burgess Marshall.

Are You a Paint Maker.

You don't have to be one in order to mix your own paint when you have a house to paint. Its mighty easy to buy 4 gallons of L. & M. Paint, and 3 gallons of pure Linseed Oil, and put both in a large pail and mix well together. You will then make 7 gallons of the best paint at a cost of about $1.30 per gallon and then have a good painter paint your house.

The L. & M., is sold by Harry S. Lloyd, Emporium, Pa.

Upholstering.

All kinds of upholstering such as parlor suits, couches, chairs and mattresses made over. Good work guaranteed. HENRY JAEGER.

Hospital at Emporium a Necessity.

One of the greatest moves to institute a Hospital at Emporium, was made a couple weeks ago, when the PRESS came forward with a letter announcing its intention to do all in its power to establish one here. Its worthy editor had gone so far as to locate the building and secured the necessary data to push the enterprise along. As we all know, the proposed location, building, etc., is all that can be wished for and the co-operation of the various enterprises in this section which he has secured, certainly makes the proposition one not to be easily thrown away. An institution of this kind is a necessity here and, as we all know, many an unfortunate individual has to die simply because he or she has not the speedy and proper care that they should have and would have were it possible to take the patient to a hospital at once. Just a few instances as this world make the entire town feel glad.

Of course such things cost money, but if properly managed it could be gotten in proper running order without injuring any one financially. I sincerely hope the people of this town and county will forward, as I know they will do, and help as best they can to make this movement a success.

W. H. BUSH, M. D.
Emporium, Pa., April 6th, 1910.

Our people, very generally, we are pleased to note take kindly to the hospital proposition. Let us ALL put our shoulders to the wheel and boost this laudable project. While there is hard work connected with it, we must remember that we are working for suffering humanity and not to pile up wealth. As soon as some matters can be gotten into proper shape it is hoped a meeting may be called of all interested parties. No one person or a dozen, can pull off this great public necessity. All must unselfishly work—including the ladies. The PRESS would like a public expression from more of our citizens.

Umpire May be Needed.

Mr. Philip Dixon, the genial general Supt. of St. Marys Gas Co., of St. Marys, transacted business in town yesterday. It was nip and tuck between him and our obliging local Supt. Mr. H. C. Kenley, as to who could tell the biggest yarn. They have it out next month, even if they have to call in Bill Harry Hogan as umpire.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

PARKER.

Mrs. ELIZA PARKER, wife of the late Samuel Parker, died at the family residence, East Allegheny Avenue, on Friday, April 1, 1910. Mrs. Parker came to this country about 33 years ago from England. Deceased was the mother of ten children, five of whom are living to mourn her loss. The surviving children are Mrs. Mahlon Zurbrick, of Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. S. H. McDonough, Misses Eliza and Flora and Mr. Robert Parker, of this place. Deceased was born June 10th, 1840 and was nearly seventy years of age. Mrs. Parker has been an invalid for about three years. The funeral took place from her late residence on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. J. F. Anderson, pastor of the M. E. Church, officiated. All the children were present at the funeral except Mrs. Zurbrick, who was unable to come. Interment was made in the Newton Cemetery, beside her husband, who preceded her to the grave several years ago.

STERLING.

Mrs. NANCY AGNES, wife of Mr. Francis Sterling, died at her home at Sterling Run, Pa., March 31, 1910, age 70 years, eight months and 13 days. She was born two miles below Sterling Run and was the daughter of the late James and Ruth Mason. There is left to mourn her loss, her husband, three daughters, Mrs. J. W. Carter, of Galeton, Pa., Bertha and Jessica at home, and two sons, Bingham L., of Confer, Pa., and William J., of Vivian, La. All were present at the funeral except William, who could not come. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. W. H. Smith, and three brothers, Washington, James and Marion Mason to survive her. The funeral took place at one o'clock p. m., Saturday, April 2nd, at the family residence, Rev. J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, of Emporium, officiated, assisted by Rev. Ebersole. A selected choir rendered a touching and impressive service of song. A large delegation of friends and relatives gathered to sympathize with the bereaved family in their irreparable loss. Mrs. Sterling was a faithful christian, loving wife and mother, devotedly attached to her family, who in return lavished unfeeling care and tenderness upon her, who suffered with a patience and meekness almost without parallel. The casket bearers were Messrs. Wright, Harvey, Groves and Joseph Mason, Louis Whiting and Clarence Miller, all nephews of the deceased. Relatives from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carter and son Frank, of Galeton, Pa.; Mrs. Claude Williams, of Warren, Pa.; Mrs. Roy Harrison, of New Bethlehem, Pa.; Mrs. G. W. Huntley, Mrs. Maggie Pauley and Mrs. George English, of Driftwood; V. A. Brooks, of Sinnamahoning; C. J. Miller, Huntley; Miss Mabelle Reid and Joseph Mason, Renovo; Mrs. Thos. Joyce and Miss Cora Barker, of Emporium; Mrs. Hannah Williams, of Dents Run; Harry Ford, of Hicks Run, and Miss Floye Whiting, of Williamsport. The sympathy of the entire community is with the sorrowing family who have lost one whose place can never be filled. In closing we can only say, "He giveth His Beloved Sleep."

Wheeler's South Island.

To the average man, an outing of one day carries with it great pleasure, but when we are fortunate enough to have a whole week of such pleasure it inspires us with new ambitions and breaks down the barriers that have us hedged in the work-a-day world. Such inspirations and ambitions were our's last week when we spent our outing at South Island.

South Island is situated about twelve miles below Georgetown and can be reached easily by land or boat and comprises an area of twenty-three thousand acres. It is bounded on all sides by water, viz: Santee River, Santee Canal, Winyaw Bay and the Atlantic Ocean. It is by far the greatest piece of property on the Atlantic coast, abounding in all kinds of game and fish.

South Island was brought into note by such men as President Cleveland, Admiral Evans and others, whose annual visits were not only enjoyed by them but were looked forward to by the rice field dorkies as one of the greatest events of their lives, and even now they take great pleasure in pointing out to you where "Mas Cleve-land" stayed.

Mr. Wheeler now owns both South and North Island, comprising something over thirty thousand acres, which includes all buildings. A conservative estimate will place the number at one hundred, and the most of them good old dwellings.

Mr. Wheeler is one of those big-hearted, wholesoul, jolly fellows, who makes you feel at home and with ease all the time, and his wife shares equally with him in her consideration and attentions to the guests. She is a splendid type of the capable and intellectual American woman, yet with all, modest and unassuming.—The Marion Star, March 30, 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wheeler will be remembered by the residents of Emporium and vicinity, having formerly lived in this place, where they have a host of friends who will be pleased to hear from them and of their popularity in their Southern home.

Sweet's Play Pleases.

George Sweet's play, "A Messenger Boy," presented at the Elks' theatre, last evening, pleased a fair audience, all the performers being of a very clever brand. In fact the play deserved a much better house than greeted them.

Without a doubt the band and orchestra carried by Sweet is the best heard here this season, barring none. Should Manager Sweet return next season with his excellent company and musicians he can be assured of a better house and a hearty welcome—Sioux Falls Daily Press.

The above company will be seen at the Emporium opera house, April 13th.

All Announcements under this head must be signed by the candidate and paid in advance to insure publication.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce the name of HON. CHARLES F. BARCLAY, of Cameron county, as a candidate for Congress, upon the Republican ticket, in the 21st Congressional District, subject to the decision of the voters as expressed at the Primary Election, to be held in June of 1910.

Yours truly,
CHAS. E. PATTEEN,
Clearfield Co., Pa.,
November 30th, 1909.—t. p.

To The Editor—I hereby announce myself a candidate for Congress in the 21st Pennsylvania district, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primaries to be held June 10, 1910. I make this announcement and enter the contest in compliance with the earnest requests of many prominent members of the party in the district and also because I believe that in Congress, if elected, I would be in a position to effectively advocate those principles and measures of good government, which now more than ever, should be embodied in Federal legislation. I believe in clean politics and progressive Roosevelt policies. And to the end that I may serve their best interests, I ask the support of the Republicans of this district.
