

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

Japanese Tommy has been made a captain in the Japanese army, and intends another visit to this country. Lightening struck the Court House of Orange county, Va., on the night of the 2d inst., setting it on fire and destroying it and five other buildings. The silver chalice of St. Michael's Church, Charleston, S. C., has been rescued from a pawnbroker's shop in New York and restored to the church. Prentice says 'tis a pity that elections in the South cannot take place at this time, for although the negroes there are strong now they will be stronger in the dog days. Mrs. Hannah Armstrong, residing in the lower part of the city of Philadelphia, committed suicide by taking laudanum Friday night. She said her domestic troubles were more than she could bear. Two boys who were standing in a harvest field about four miles from Litchfield, Ill., were struck by lightning during a storm on the 3d, and instantly killed. A house in Gillespie was struck during the same storm, and one boy killed. A man named McCarthy, in Baltimore, took a girl named Ruth Langford out riding in a buggy, Friday afternoon, and, when a few miles from the city, the pair got into a quarrel, when McCarthy drew a pistol and shot Ruth, killing her instantly. The murderer was arrested. Mrs. Swisshelm says there is a little "sculptress" at Washington who "is as lavish in the display of her own bust as that of her Congressmen patrons." This must be the same fascinating creature who got an appropriation of $15,000 from the Rump for doing up the "late lamented" in marble. A few days ago a gentleman went into a saloon in Boston, and upon calling for some strawberries, observed a man near him eating some with his fingers. "Don't you furnish your customers with spoons?" asked the astonished stranger of the proprietor. "Oh yes, sir," said he, "but that is General Butler at that table!" The following is said to be a sure cure for neuralgia: Take two large table-spoons full of cologne, two table-spoons full of fine salt, and mix them together in a small bottle; every time you have any acute affection of the nerve or neuralgia simply breathe the fumes in your nose from the bottle, and you will be immediately relieved. Among the novelties abroad is a small steamer, made of steel, as thin as card board, to be used by the exploring party in search of Dr. Livingstone. The boat is thirty feet in length, and from gunwale to gunwale eight feet in breadth, the weight being rather more than one ton. The boat can be taken to pieces in a very short time, and taken across the country by negroes. The following hints are reasonable, and may be true; they are at least worth trying:—Oil of pennyroyal will keep musquitos out of a room, if scattered about in small quantities. Ronches are exterminated by scattering a handful of fresh cucumber parings about the house. No fly light on the window which has been washed with water in which a little garlic has been boiled. A terrible riot occurred last Friday week, at a circus, at Marietta. It seems that a quarrel took place between a showman and a citizen, when the former shot the latter through the head, killing him. A general fight then ensued, when a citizen struck the above showman on his head with the butt of the piece, killing him. At the same time the gun was discharged, the bullet passing through the heart of the man in whose hands it was. A man in Brooklyn having reason to suspect that his wife was criminally intimate with a male friend, bored some holes in the ceiling of her apartment, and, stationing himself in the room above, armed with a bottle of vitriol, awaited the course of events. He saw conclusive evidence of guilt, and used the vitriol with such terrible effect that both eyes of the woman were destroyed, and her visitor was burned so badly that he could not be removed from the house. A convict named Dewitt Clinton Scholl, undergoing a sentence at the New Jersey State prison, a few days since received a letter containing the highly important and satisfactory information, that by the death of his great grandmother he had fallen heir to a fortune of thirty thousand dollars. His comrades and others in prison warmly congratulated the lucky scamp, who seemed intensely elevated with the idea of good fortune, although he has to serve five years longer in the prison before he can enjoy it.
