

CAMBRIA FREEMAN. THURSDAY, AUG. 8, 1867.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We cannot give place to the production of "Parson." It is too local and personal in its character, and could not interest the general reader.

EDITORIALS, LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The old leaven.—Thad. Stevens is pitching into the Masons again. "Quadrant"—Why is Covode like a cow's tail? Because he's attached to the bump.

A man named F. B. Thomas, on his way to his home in Philadelphia, died in the cars between Gallitzin and Altoona, on Friday night week.

On Sunday week last, the shingle mill of Messrs. F. & T. Nutter, in Chest Springs, was totally destroyed by fire.—Loss $3,000. Insured for $800.

The barn of Mr. Wm. Campbell, Brush-valley township, Indiana county, was destroyed by fire one night week before last. Supposed to be struck by lightning. Loss $1,000.

A young lady, while riding at the Summit last week, was thrown from her horse. In consequence of her foot catching in the stirrup she was dragged some distance, receiving several severe cuts and bruises.

A company has been formed and engine and machinery purchased for the purpose of boring for oil on ground belonging to Mr. Shuster, 2 1/2 miles north of Ebensburg. The indications are said to be promising.

Four Corde offered a resolution in Congress that the "Great Abolition" be struck as much of the "Great Abolition" as was as vulgar in its terms, that was the "Great Abolition" to consider it.

Maria Young, of Blair county, arrested on suspicion of having caused the death of her father by administering poison to him, has been discharged, a careful analysis of the stomach having failed to reveal the presence of poison.

It was rumored in our town, on Saturday last, that the dwelling house of a Mr. Carnegie, near Mansfield, was destroyed by fire on that morning, but we failed to trace the report to a reliable source, and doubt not it was erroneous.

A frame building at Altoona used by the P. R. E. Co. as a wheel shop, was destroyed by fire, communicated, as is supposed, by the spontaneous combustion of oil and waste stored in the building, a couple of weeks ago. The damage to the stock and machinery was trifling.

Miss Amanda Deane, of Huntingdon, while passing a boiler of hot water, a few weeks ago, accidentally stumbled and fell, and in doing so her clothing caught on the handle of the boiler, separating the vessel and scalding the contents over her person, scalding her very severely.

A young man named Steward, engaged in throwing his into the snow of a barn near Phillipsburg, Clearfield county, on a Saturday last, threw the fork he was using to the floor beneath, and by some unaccountable chance it fell into the manger, and in doing so he was struck on the head, and the fork entered his skull, fatally wounding him, and causing his death in a few hours. He leaves a wife and infant child.

Visitors.—Thomas P. Fenlon, Esq., and family, of Leavenworth, Kansas, are at present spending the heated term among their relatives and friends in Ebensburg. Mr. F. is always a welcome guest on the mountain, and is always leaving and is always heard as when he graced our village with his presence in "Auld Lang Syne." We regret to learn that the health of his accomplished lady is not quite good, but the best results are anticipated from a return to the pure air of her old mountain home. May they be fully realized.

Col. Long, Private Secretary to President Johnson, and son-in-law of our distinguished friend, Gen. H. D. Foster, called to see his Ebensburg friends on Thursday last. It is a gallant, warm hearted gentleman, and always welcome to "these diggings."

Ed James, local editor of the Cardington (O.) Republican is just now rusticiating among his friends and schoolmates in this vicinity, and finds but little change in our town and its surroundings since his departure from our midst a twelve month or more ago. Mr. James is a graduate of the Alleghenian office, and is a worthy disciple of a noble art. If report speaks correctly of the object of his visit here, the "better half" of the story is not told yet. We shall see what we shall see, and in the meantime we congratulate him on the success of the Republican, albeit it is the advocate of a bad cause politically.

The Governor of Pennsylvania and Secretary Jordan paid Ebensburg a visit on Friday last. The Governor was called on by many of our citizens at Linton's Mountain House, where he made his headquarters. We had the pleasure of meeting the party on the street, but were too ill to accept the Governor's hospitality. We understand he was much pleased with his visit.

SICKNESS.—To be ill—sick—confined to your room and your bed, for a number of the loveliest days in an Eben-burg summer—nobody even calling to see you but your physician—compelled to take from him what you would take from no other man living—all this, we say, is a strong draught upon human patience and endurance. To talk there, too, week to week, nobody to talk to—to hear the joyous outbursts of your "old friends" in the street, entirely oblivious that there was such a being—it convinces you of one thing, at least, that if you die no great deal will be made in society! Then to hear the classic game of riuqs go on all day, and find yourself, for once, "out of the ring." Well, sickness must be endured!

A Gay Party.—Our agreeable and facetious Philadelphia friends, Messrs. Ridlo, Holliday, Gould, Frank and Hunter, paid a flying visit to Ebensburg a few days since. They enjoyed themselves well among us, as only whole-souled fellows can. "The new species of dog introduced by "Flem" attracted much attention. He is easily fed, always fat, and as soon as matched goes off in a very amusing manner. Still we believe he will never catch a rabbit, for the reason—so well known to sportsmen.

KINDLY GREETINGS.—Our editorial brethren of the Altoona Tribune, Holliday Standard, Leader and Radical, Huntingdon Globe, Johnstown Tribune, and others of our exchanges, will please accept our profound thanks for the kindly greetings extended to the Freeman on the occasion of its recent anniversary. We hope ever to merit the good opinion of our brethren of the press.

THE POOR HOUSE DIRECTORS held their monthly meeting at the Poor House, on Monday, July 23rd. Messrs. Daly and Byrne were present. After the usual routine business had been attended to the following paper was laid before the Board by the Steward:

Directors of Poor of Cambria Co., Pa.—GENTLEMEN: The late Ebensburg Convention having by its action probably deprived of the regular business, proceeded to the election of Burgesses. The names of A. Kopselin, W. H. Rose and R. V. Hook, Esqs., were suggested in connection with the office, and a ballot was taken, resulting: Kopselin 8; Rose 4; Hook 1. The first named gentleman having received a majority of votes in council, was declared duly elected to serve out the unexpired term, caused by his own resignation. The re-election of Col. K. gives general satisfaction to the order-loving community, and he no doubt feels highly flattered at the recognition of his former successful efforts to maintain the peace and quiet of our town.

Accept, gentlemen, my sincere thanks for your long continued confidence and kindness. Yours, &c., JAMES J. KAYLOR.

Mr. Daly—I regret that this step has been taken. I hope that it will be reconsidered. Mr. Kaylor—My action in this case is the result of mature deliberation. My resolution is final.

Mr. Byrne—In this view of the case I move that this paper be placed upon the minutes and published in all the county papers.

Mr. Daly—I object. This is to advertise for a Steward, and will never consent this to send the office begging.

Mr. Kaylor—From a very different view of the case, I will ask Mr. Daly to withdraw his objection, and allow these proceedings to be published.

After some discussion Mr. Byrne's motion was adopted, and the Directors order the proceedings to be published.

DRAPED CASE OF DROWNING.—A pleasure boat containing four ladies and four gentlemen, capsized in Bar Harbor, off Mount Desert Island, on the 24th ult., and all on board were drowned. Among the victims were Rev. Robert B. Chase and wife, of Philadelphia, who spent a portion of two seasons in Ebensburg, and who had acquired the respect of all our citizens by their affable demeanor and unostentatious piety.—Their dear little child has been preserved by this sad occurrence.

In connection with this awful catastrophe the Portland Star relates the following heart-rending incident: When the unfortunate boat was about leaving on her trip, Mr. and Mrs. Clark proposed to take their little girl, about six years old, with them, but the child persistently refused to go, and begged her parents to remain behind. She clung to her mother and begged her with sobs of grief not to go. But they regarded her fears as childish, and kindly gave her in charge of friends, and started on their excursion. The little one cried as if her heart would break, and when she was left, no one had had dared to tell her of the awful calamity. She would tell her parents what she had seen, and when they returned she was so overcome with grief that she could not speak. She ran to meet every boat that comes to the shore, only to return with deep disappointment, and every passing carriage is eagerly examined to see if it has brought her loved ones. God help that little one in her terrible affliction.

MARRIED VS SINGLE.—The best contested and most interesting game of base ball that has been participated in here this season, was played on Saturday afternoon last, between the marrieds and the singles. The game occupied two and a half hours and resulted in a well earned victory for the bachelors. The score was as follows:

Table with columns: SINGLE, MARRIED, R. O., A. Y. Jones, W. H. Seehler, Ed. James, J. O. Evans, S. Williams, F. Barker, E. R. Dungan, H. Kinkead, W. Hutchinson, Jno. Thompson, B. O., 3 A. Y. Jones, 4 W. H. Seehler, 3 Ed. James, 2 J. O. Evans, 3 S. Williams, 4 F. Barker, 2 E. R. Dungan, 3 H. Kinkead, 3 W. Hutchinson, 2 Jno. Thompson, 2 B. O., 31 27

THE JUNIOR INDEPENDENTS.—As the author of the following communication has furnished us with his name we give it place, although the matter is of but little importance one way or the other!

JOHNSTOWN, July 18th, 1867. Editor Freeman—In reading your paper to-day I noticed an error in "Sku Ball's" letter that does not do justice to the Independent, and in this place.

It is mistaken in regards the "Juniors" having challenged the Monitors of Indiana. "Great preparations" were not made, although they were surprised to see our Juniors. The score of the game in Indiana was 27 to 81, or three to one, while the score of the Somerset Club here was only 15 to 73, or more than four to one.

You will confer a favor on the Juniors if you will correct the mistakes made by "Sku Ball." Yours, respectfully, A Friend of the Juniors.

QUACKENBOS'S ARITHMETICS.—Quackenbos's new Arithmetics claim to be the best in the field, and we think not without reason. Why? Because their rules and analyses are admirably condensed. Because in number and variety of examples they are unequalled. Because in interest and all other business operations (on which they are particularly full) they teach the method actually used by business men. Because, being written since the war, they are up to the times (which none of the old text-books are)—give present prices, teach that there is a difference between gold and currency, describe Government Securities, and show how to find the comparative results of investments in them. New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, &c., have adopted them for their Common Schools, and we think their merits have only to be known to introduce them generally. We see the Publishers (D. Appleton & Co., of New York) are advertising for local agents for these Arithmetics in every county.

WHAT A SPECTACLE!—Yes, we may say that a lot of spectacles, to suit all ages and optical weaknesses, are comprised in the varied stock of notions, &c., at C. T. Roberts' watch and jewelry store, on Main Street. Persons requiring such aids should sample the assortment. Telescopes and magnifying glasses will also be found in Cham's stock of goods.

SICK-HEADACHE.—Very many are troubled with this distressing complaint every few days through the summer months. A gentleman from Ohio who has been subject to such attacks writes that Coe's Dyspepsia Cure cured him.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, AUG. 5, 1867.

Dear Freeman—A special election was held in the 2d, 4th and 5th wards on the 27th of last month, to fill vacancies in Council. On Monday night last Council convened, and the new members, five in number, having been sworn in, they, after disposing of the regular business, proceeded to the election of Burgesses. The names of A. Kopselin, W. H. Rose and R. V. Hook, Esqs., were suggested in connection with the office, and a ballot was taken, resulting: Kopselin 8; Rose 4; Hook 1. SICK-HEADACHE.—Very many are troubled with this distressing complaint every few days through the summer months. A gentleman from Ohio who has been subject to such attacks writes that Coe's Dyspepsia Cure cured him.

USE THE BEST.—Blades' Euphonia Lubricators are a medical preparation in the form of a Lozenge, and are universally considered the most pleasant, convenient and effective remedy in use for Asthenia, Coughs, Colds, Croup, Catarrh, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Diphtheria, and all Pulmonary Complaints. They are WARRANTED to give quicker and more lasting benefit in the above affections than any other remedy. Also to contain no deleterious ingredient, and not to offend the weakest and most sensitive Stomach.

Blades' Constitution Pills are so called because of their peculiar effect upon the Liver, Stomach, Blood and Nervous System. For inactivity of the Liver, for the Stomach in derangement, or Dyspepsia, they will delight the patient with their mild and beneficial effect, especially after long continued indigestion and constiveness. They are left with periodical returns of the Sick Headache. In case of a severe cold, producing Chills and Fever, you can break it very soon by using the Pills as per directions with each box. JOHN H. BLADES & CO., Proprietors, Elmira, N. Y. For sale by all Druggists; 25 cts. per box.

A TALE OF WOE.—I clasped her tiny hand in mine, I gently pressed her lovely form, I vied if she'd be only mine, To shield her from the world's cold storm: She set her beautiful eyes on me, The pearls tears did wildly flow, And with her pouting lips she said— Confound you, let me go!

Go where? Why to the Loretto Drug Store to buy a quantity of toilet articles for mother, such as soap, perfumery, etc.; and father wants a box of those extra cigars, and sister has the whooping cough and needs medicine, and I—why, I'm to be married, and want some of that wall paper to decorate my little home. You can find all the articles she wanted, and many more, at the Loretto Drug Store. See advertisement.

A CURIOSITY.—There is said to be a large stone, used in the construction of an aqueduct on the Branch road, a short distance east of our town, which bears upon its surface the impress of an Indian's moccasins. We do not know that the "track" points in the direction of H. A. Shoemaker & Co's store, but we do know that if you want to be in time to get your share of the splendid goods Harry is selling at greatly reduced prices, you had better "make tracks" along Main street on "double quick."

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 15, 1867. MESSRS. WARDWELL & CLARK, General Agents Hartford Live Stock Insurance Co.—Gentlemen: I wish to acknowledge the receipt of $200 for loss of my horse "Charcoal," one of my stock of horses incidentally in your Company. This horse was accidentally killed on the 28th ult., and I thank you for the prompt payment of my claim. I am convinced of the value and certainty of the insurance which I have effected. Yours, &c., ALBERT WEAVER.

DR. STRICKLAND: Having used your Anti-Cholera Mixture during the cholera epidemic here last summer, and induced others to do the same, in cases that had all the cholera symptoms, in every case it promptly checked the disease. I believe it's the best remedy known for cholera and diarrhoea of every form, and advise those afflicted to try it.—W. BARNER, of the firm of Barber, Choate & Naber, Cincinnati.

MARRIED.—In this place, on Tuesday last, by Rev. R. C. Christy, Mr. E. R. DUNEGAN, of St. Augustine, this county, and Miss MARY ANN GREILEY, of Ebensburg.

There it is—done again. The same old story of love and courtship, culminating in matrimony! Well, all we need say for them is that we hope God will bless and prosper them in their new relations, as they are both worthy of each other and deserving the benedictions of all well-wishers. May she who in committing herself to the care and keeping of our generous friend has said, "I would be thine!" Not passion's wild emotion! To show thee, fatal as the changing wind; But, with a still, deep, fervent life-devotion, To be to thee the help meet God design'd! For this I would be thine!

At Chest Springs, on Friday, July 26th, by Rev. Edward Burns, Mr. FRANCIS COOPER, of this place, and Mrs. MARY ANN M'KEZIE, of Chest Springs.

May they live long and happy, and be blessed with an abundance of the pleasures of married life, duly seasoned with those little responsibilities which can only render their happiness the more complete.

DIED.—At the residence of his grandfather, Peter Collins, Esq., in this place, on Sunday night, 28th ult., JOHN CHRISTOSTOM, son of Edward and Ellen Shoemaker, aged 3 years, 2 mos. and 8 days.

The deceased was a beautiful child of uncommon promise—the idol of the household and a favorite in all circles, and was quite healthy until within a short time of his death. The little sufferer endured great pain with extraordinary fortitude until death terminated his afflictions. The stricken parents have the sympathy of the community, and the prayers of all feeling hearts for divine aid in their behalf in this their sad bereavement.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—To the Citizens of Cambria County: I offer myself as an Independent candidate for JURY COMMISSIONER at the approaching election. JOHN PORTER, Susquehanna Tp., August 8, 1867.

LAST NOTICE.—The subscriber regrets the necessity which compels him to leave all his notes, books, etc., including the books of E. Glas & Co., up to April 1st, 1865, with a Justice for collection. After the first day of September next this will be done. R. L. JOHNSTON.

ASSIGNEE'S ACCOUNT.—The final account of Robert A. McCoy and George C. K. Zahm, Assignees of John M. Coy, has been filed in the Prothonotary's Office of Cambria county, and will be presented to the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of said county for confirmation, on the first Monday of September next. GEO. C. K. ZAHM, Proth'y, Proth'y Office, Ebensburg, July 29, 1867.

TRIAL LIST.—List of Causes set down for trial at a Court of Common Pleas of Cambria County, to be held at Ebensburg, commencing Monday, the 2d day of September next: First Week. Tiernan, endorsee, vs Laws et al; Guckenhelm & Bro vs Sweeney; Hall & Co vs Moore; vs Callahan; vs Brown. GEO. C. K. ZAHM, Proth'y.
