

CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

THURSDAY, : : OCT. 3, 1867.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Argument Court is at present in session...

A Word to School Directors... came too late for insertion in this week's Freeman.

In consequence of the continued serious illness of the publisher of the Alleghenian, this paper will be issued from that office the next week.

One of the largest and finest droves of cattle that traveled the road this summer, passed through our town, Eastward on Tuesday forenoon.

Another cow was killed on the Branch on Monday evening, the property, we believe, of Mr. John Evans. This is the third one killed within ten days.

A Radical meeting held in Johnstown, on the evening of the 21st inst. began in a row and ended in a fight. At least Captain A. B. Row was the President, and the meeting it was a failure.

Thomas Kearns, a coal miner employed at the station, Westmoreland county, was killed by a mass of coal falling on him while at work in the mines, on Thursday afternoon last.

The barn of Mr. Gibson Lightcap, near New Alexandria, and Mr. Josiah Masters, of Franklin township, Westmoreland county, with their entire contents, were destroyed by fire before last.

The barn of David Gochmour, in Marion township, Bedford county, was struck by lightning, on the 20th ult., and with its contents entirely destroyed. Loss between two and three thousand dollars.

Strenuous efforts are being made to secure the pardon of William Johnston, of Hollidaysburg, and many of the papers and most of the people acquainted with him and his circumstances, favor the interposition of executive clemency.

On account of the resignation of County Superintendent Condon the examination of teachers for the schools here did not take place on Tuesday last week, and consequently the schools did not open on Monday of the present week, as announced.

Two Ebersburg boys—Ernest D. Rhey and Charles W. Deaghtery—have bought out a lot, cap and for establishment and gone into business in Leavenworth, Kansas. We hope it will prove a successful investment.

The chickens reared in the highest at the State Fair in Pittsburgh last week. We have heard of three Cambria boys who were victorious in this way, one being relieved of one seventy dollars, another of some forty dollars, and the third came out minus about seventeen.

We were promised a full account of the Carrolltown picnic, but it has failed to reach us. The affair itself was of the most elaborately prepared and best conducted ever convened in the county. The festivities were kept up two or three days, and the amount realized is said to have been $900.

A black fiend named John Brown attempted to outrage Miss Nora Miller, a young white lady residing in Bedford, on the evening of the 20th ult., but the approach of some persons fortunately alarmed him before he accomplished his heinous purpose. The young lady, however, was badly lacerated in the scuffle. The villain made his escape and a reward of one hundred dollars is offered for his arrest.

Three Bohemians, evidently a father and two sons, were struck by the engine attached to the Westmoreland train, near Homewood station, on the Pennsylvania R. R., on Friday morning last, and the two young men were killed instantly, and the father one died of his injuries the same night.

The fog was so dense that the presence of the unfortunate men was not discovered until after the accident. Their names were not known, as neither of them could speak English or German, and all that could be learned of them was that they and several other of their countrymen had stopped at East Liberty and obtained employment, some three weeks previously, while on their way to the West.

DEATH OF COL. JOHN D. O'CONNELL.—Our citizens have been exceedingly pained to hear of the death of this distinguished Cambrian and gallant officer. It occurred at New Orleans some time since, and he and his most estimable lady falling victims to the yellow fever, and both dying, as we understand, on the same day.

Col. O'Connell had highly distinguished himself in the service of his country. Reared on a farm in the vicinity of Ebersburg, he became a candidate for West Point, where he graduated with honor, and at once entered the army. For the last fifteen years he has been engaged in active service, except during the period when his wounds disabled him. He fought gallantly through the whole war of the rebellion, and though but a captain at the time, commanded a regiment in many of the severest battles. Few survived so many and such serious wounds, but his temperate habits gave unusual vigor to his constitution.

All who knew the Colonel were his friends and admirers. To the most determined bravery and manly bearing, he added the simplicity of a child and the modesty of a lady. In his demise the country has lost a gallant patriot and society a benevolent christian gentleman.

PUBLIC SALE.—Mrs. Susan Rhey will offer at Public Sale, at her residence on Centre street, Ebersburg, on Saturday, October 12, 1867, at 1 o'clock P. M., Chairs, Tables, Cooking Stove, Bedsteads, Bedding, Harness, Lady's Saddle, and a variety of other articles. Terms will be made known on day of sale.

WHEN a man wants money or assistance the world is generally obliging enough to let him want, but when he wants the full worth of his money in any kind of merchandise, all he has to do is to go to the cheap store of H. A. Shoemaker & Co., on Main street, where everything from a bodkin to a bureau can be bought at the right kind of prices.

POOR HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.—We understand that the following appointments were made at the Poor House, on Monday last, by a majority of the Directors—Henry Byrne, Esq., being absent, Steward, A. D. Criste, of Hunter township; Treasurer, George C. K. Zahn; Physician, Wm. Lemon, M. D.

LEO BROKEN.—We regret to learn that our friend, Mr. Jacob Nagle, a much esteemed citizen of Clearfield township, had one of his legs fractured in two places, on Sunday last, in consequence of the horse he was riding breaking through a bridge, while on his way to church.

ACCIDENT.—Sheriff Myers was thrown out of his buggy, on Tuesday evening, in consequence of one of the wheels striking a large stone, and sustained several severe contusions about the head and body. His injuries are painful, but comparatively slight.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, SEPT. 30, 1867.

Dear Freeman—It is my painful duty to chronicle this week the sudden and terrible death of Michael Boland, a citizen of Millville, which occurred at Blairsville Intersection on Wednesday evening last. Mr. Boland had gone to Pittsburgh on the preceding Monday, and was returning home on the Philadelphia Express the evening above stated, and when in the vicinity of the Intersection he left his seat to pass into the adjoining car, and it is supposed that in crossing between the cars he missed his footing, and falling beneath the wheels, was crushed in such a manner as to cause his death within an hour after the accident occurred. His body was brought to this place on Thursday and interred in the Catholic cemetery on the following day. Mr. B. was about 38 years of age—a kind, genial, good hearted man—and was universally esteemed. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his untimely fate.

Patrick McDonald, whom I noticed not long since as having been blown up in the mines, died from his injuries on Monday last. This poor fellow had been at work here but a few days when the accident occurred, and was charged by the overseer of the mine. I believe all that medical skill could accomplish was done in his case, but owing to the severe nature of his injuries, it was impossible to prolong his life. Far from the green shores of his native land, he fell a victim to the hazardous business in which he was employed, and friendless and homeless, with no loved one near to soothe his dying moments, he departed to solve the great mystery of man's redemption.

Another lively foot race came off on Portage street, on Saturday, between Blacklock and Redmond, (both of whom have figured in like contests heretofore,) for a purse of $50. Over two thousand people posted themselves along the route, and as there was no delay on this occasion, everybody appeared perfectly satisfied except those who "went it blind" or on friend Blacklock. It was nip and tuck with the contestants for about one half the distance when the superior speed of Redmond displayed itself, and he took the lead, winning the race by about forty yards. Another race on the same evening between Parfit and Ream, for a stake of $10, was easily won by the former.

Two young men, twin brothers, hailing from Norristown, were arrested last week for assaulting a man named Snyder, an employee at the Company's coke yard, near this place. It appears they got on a cargo of "tangle-foe," and going to Snyder's place and "tangle-foe" from some cause pitched into him and gave him a severe beating. Not appreciating such striking manifestations of regard, Snyder made information against them for assault and battery, and in default of bail they will be taken up to your place to-morrow.

Another cap thief entered a store on Clinton street, on Saturday, and purchasing a cap, started out. He returned shortly afterwards and wanted to get his money back in exchange for the cap, but the proprietor, who was a stranger in this vicinity, I must say that it was a grand affair, and was got up in style. The principal promoters were Mrs. Geo. M'Gough, Mrs. Col. W. A. M'Dermitt, Mrs. Kate Burgoon, Miss Ellie M'Guire, Misses Sue and Maggie Glass, and several others whose names I cannot recollect. They had a splendid dinner and supper, seasoned with wine and lemonade, and all appeared to enjoy themselves, especially on the dancing floor. Mr. John A. McInnis was the ball by dancing several Irish jigs, which he did in style. Next came the "prince of landlords," George M'Gough, who more than enjoyed himself, but business matters called him away at two o'clock, which did not please him, as I judged by the look of his "physog" when he left the grounds. When I seek for fun and a good time again, I will be sure to visit St. Augustine. That the shades of heretofore inhabitants may never grow less, is the sincere wish of your sincere friend, STRANGER.

LIVE STOCK INSURANCE.—This branch of insurance is something entirely new. The Hartford Company insures horses, cattle, etc., against death from any cause. It will be of great advantage to the teamster, or small farmer, who has a large portion of his capital invested in his team, from which he derives his livelihood. The death of a horse, in such a case, will often put him in comparative poverty, whereas, by the payment of a few dollars, he can now be secured against such calamity. The rich can also provide against the loss of valuable stock in the same way. The Company has had application for Agencies from all points of the Union, and starts with every prospect of success.—Hartford Courant.

Mr. B. is a strong yearning for the rugged hills of Cambria, and designs purchasing a farm, if he can suit himself, within its limits, and devoting his energies to the peaceful pursuit of tilling the earth. A host of warm personal friends and well-wishers will greet the return to this county of Mr. B. and family with genuine emotions of delight.

Messrs. Fronheiser and Kress are building a very extensive brewery on the Old Portage Railroad, opposite Woodville.

Another theatrical blow came off on the Public Square, on Saturday evening. The meeting was addressed by J. T. Owens of Philadelphia, Muller of Pittsburgh, and W. R. Jones of this place. See Bal.

ALTOONA, OCT. 1, 1867.

Friend Mac—As an occasional chronicler for your journal of occurrences transpiring in this vicinity, it is my painful duty to announce the death of a most amiable young lady, Miss Sarah Stewart, which occurred in this place on Tuesday last, after a short but painful illness, in the 26th year of her age. When the angel of death appeared with the dread summons it did not find her unprepared. It was hard to die to be torn so young from scenes fraught with many happy and endearing memories—to bid a final adieu to mother, sisters and friends—and to the good being demanded the sacrifice, and she bowed submissively to the stroke. Blessed with an amiable disposition and a loveable nature, in which there was neither coldness nor reserve, utterly free from selfishness, jealous only of the affections of those to whom she was particularly attached, and remarkably cheerful in her manners, she gained the respect and esteem of all her acquaintances, and won from her friends the most ardent and devoted affection. Her mortal remains, as they lay exposed in a rich and beautiful coffin, were viewed by a large number of visitors, and as each one passed slowly by and looked upon the cold, prostrate form, the silent tears which fell from many an eye to the ground, which words could not express, bear a place she held in the affections of all who knew her. This has passed from earth to heaven a pure spirit.

Oh! why should we mourn for her who has gone? To a brighter and happier world she has flown; She is free from all sorrow, her soul is at rest In the realms above, with God's chosen and blest.

Requiescat in pace.

One of the most shocking accidents it has ever been my misfortune to witness occurred in this place at noon on Saturday last. A very promising lad of 14 or 15 summers, son of Mr. Washington Foutz, a blacksmith in the employ of the P. & C. Co., was on his way to a shop with his father's dinner, and stopped for a few minutes or what is known as the scale track, and while his attention was attracted by the trains moving

West, he was struck by the front car of a train which moved up behind him, and falling under the wheels, three of the cars passed over him, mashing his head and breast and severing his arms from his body. Of course he was killed instantly. His remains were followed to the grave on Sunday by a large concourse of people. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

A somewhat exciting incident occurred here, one day last week, on the mail train, which arrives at 7.30 r. m. This train, as you are aware, stops here twenty minutes for supper, and one of the gentlemen who alighted from the cars for the purpose of dining, at the time stated, returned to find his seat occupied by a portly "American of African descent." The white gentleman very politely informed his colored contemporary that he would oblige him by vacating his seat, but the "colored gemman" replied that he couldn't see it in that light, and peremptorily refused to get up. The white gent, finding that moral suasion was of no use, concluded to try what virtue there was in knock-down argument, but had scarcely given the negro a taste of his pugilistic powers before he was arrested and taken to the lock-up, where he was forced to spend the balance of the night. I would remark here, for the information of all interested, that no one, not even the conductor, has a right to dictate to a negro where he shall sit in the cars, provided he has paid his fare. He has the lawful right to go into any car or any seat he pleases, and can even force himself into the sleeping couch of a white man, as is said to have been done on this very road not long since. He is literally and practically freer than any white man that travels. A Radical Legislature has passed, and a weak and impotent Governor has approved, a special act whereby a negro is not only made the equal (so far as the law is concerned) of the white man, but infinitely his superior in privileges.

Did you notice in the last Tribune but one the doleful wail over the defeat of Col. Hall for re-nomination for State Senator? It almost brings tears to the eyes to peruse it, and reminds me very forcibly of the lamentations of poor old Job over his sins.

Hundreds of Physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle. Every drop is mixed by Dr. Fobias' hand, and can be depended on. Only 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 55 Cortlandt St., New York. [Oct. 3-1m.]

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.—A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on. That is now to be obtained in Dr. Fobias' Celebrated Venereal Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Cramp, and Sea-sickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions; and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest, and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can be seen by any one at the Doctor's Depot, 55 Cortlandt street, New York. GOING VERY FAST.—This is an age of wonderful inventions. The minds of ingenious men have brought forth machinery facilitating and making labor easy. And among the rest the Blacksmith has not been forgotten, for I. C. Singer has invented a machine which makes the process of bending light or heavy tires, hoops, &c., an easy and very pleasant task. This machine is gauged and numbered so as to tell exactly where to place the rollers in order to bend any desired diameter. Hundreds of references can be given. To get the machine, address R. H. Singer, Ebersburg, Pa.

N. B.—A few State rights remain to be disposed of. None need apply for Pennsylvania, as the inventor intends holding it for the purpose of selling machines.

P. S.—The place to get your horse well shod, your wagon tire made and general blacksmithing done, is at R. H. Singer's shop, near Isaac Evans' tannery.

DR. J. H. JORDAN, Indianapolis, Indiana, says: "I have known Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy to be thoroughly tested in numerous cases during the past year, and with perfect success in every instance. And so it is with his Remedy for Diarrhoea or Cholera, and his Cough Balsam. They are all genuine and pure."

PAMPHLET LAWS.—The Pamphlet Laws for the session of 1867 have been received, and are now ready for delivery to these persons entitled to receive them. GEO. C. K. ZAHM, Prothy's Office, Ebersburg, Sept. 24, 1867.

CANT SLEEP NIGHTS.—A hacking cough, a sore throat, difficulty of breathing, are the results of hard colds. Cough Balsam always the irritation, gives ease and rest to the patient, and effects a permanent cure of all lung and pulmonary complaints.
