LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 11, 1867. Dear Freeman.—A man named Barrett was last week arrested for attempting to shoot the proprietor of a lager beer saloon on Canal street. It appears Barrett was considerably under the influence of liquor, and becoming engaged in a quarrel with the landlord, he drew a revolver, but ere he had time to use it some persons in the room disarmed him, and information of assault with intent to kill being made against him, he was, after a hearing and in default of bail, sent up.

Another individual was last week arrested for trying to utter counterfeit money. He had passed a one dollar note of U. S. currency, and upon being arrested, shortly afterwards, another note of the same denomination was found upon his person. These counterfeiters are well executed, but it would not require an expert to detect the difference in the paper from the genuine. The alleged "shover" had a hearing on Saturday, but the Justice reserved his decision until to-day.

Several persons who were formerly employed at the rolling mill in this place are said to be among the killed and wounded by the unfortunate accident in Pittsburgh, last week. John Murphy, a young man who left this place some two weeks ago to work in the rolling mill where the terrible accident occurred, is reported as killed.

I understand that a new iron bridge is to span the Conemaugh river, in the vicinity of the old aqueduct, which will be erected by the use of the C. I. Co. as a railroad bridge.

I had intended making a few remarks about the many recent improvements which have taken place, or are in progress in this locality, but have concluded to defer them until another occasion.

Rev. M. Dominec, of Pittsburgh, administered the sacrament of confirmation yesterday in the English and German Catholic churches. An aggregate of about four hundred were confirmed.

S. B. was much pleased to greet his friends W. A. Kelly of Loretto and Jas. B. Zahm of Ebensburg, who paid a pop visit yesterday. They are both shining stars in this locality, but have concluded to defer them until another occasion.

Rev. M. Dominec, of Pittsburgh, administered the sacrament of confirmation yesterday in the English and German Catholic churches. An aggregate of about four hundred were confirmed.

S. B. was much pleased to greet his friends W. A. Kelly of Loretto and Jas. B. Zahm of Ebensburg, who paid a pop visit yesterday. They are both shining stars in this locality, but have concluded to defer them until another occasion.

Our friend Stearns certainly does not overrate the capacity and worth of Mr. MULLIN. Our only regret is that the peculiar talent of our friend did not find suitable remuneration at home. Indeed, we can only regret that from our own contracted sphere, and his absence from us will leave a void not soon to be filled. We can assure our Ashland friends that high as Mr. MULLIN stands from his record, their good opinion will be enhanced by actual contact with him in the business and social circle. They will find him a competent and correct officer and a high-minded, honorable man.

Visitors.—We had the pleasure, the other day, of taking by the hands our Philadelphia friends, Thomas J. Barger and Theodore M. Apple, both apparently in a state of high physical comfort—the former enjoying the election returns and the latter enduring them like a Christian. They both have our very best wishes.

By the way, Mr. Apple, mindful of our antiquarian propensities, (which once acquired the sobriety of Jonathan Oldbuck) has sent us a specimen book from the original residence of William Penn in Philadelphia. It is an old fashioned brick, or tile, about the thickness of an ordinary brick, and some eight inches square. Diagonally across this brick is the following:—"From Penn's Mansion House, built 1696; demolished 1867." We accept it as a good old brick, but not any better than the whole-souled gentleman who furnished us with it.

$250 REWARD.—In addition to the $50 dollars reward offered by the father of the murdered boy, we are glad to notice that Sheriff Myers has offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of the atrocious murderer, Cyrus Thompson, who shot and killed the son of Mr. Daniel McDonald, in Cambria borough, on the evening of the 31st October. Thompson is described as a man apparently about 36 years of age, is about 5 feet 10 inches high, weighs about 150 pounds, has dark eyes, black hair and dark complexion, wears a moustache and goatee, is addicted to drink, and had on when he left a stiff-rimmed low crowned hat and a soldier's long blouse. We sincerely hope that the villain may be captured. Mr. McDonald and his estimable family have our heartfelt sympathy in the great affliction which has befallen them.

COUNTY OFFICERS.—We should have noticed last week the fact that John A. Kennedy, Esq., the newly elected Commissioner, had entered upon his duties. He will make an efficient and faithful officer. The Board now consists of John Campbell, Esq., Conemaugh borough, John Ferguson, Esq., Blacklick township, and John A. Kennedy, Esq., Carrolltown. The retiring Commissioner, Lieut. Dunegan, has embarked in the mercantile business at St. Augustine, and will doubtless meet with success. He deserves to prosper, and those who know him best will not regret to patronize him.

William H. Sechler, Esq., has been appointed Clerk to the Commissioners, F. P. Tierney, Esq., Counsel, and Alex. Skelly, Mercantile Appraiser. The right men in the right places.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—William Boland, of Clearfield township, while in the act of drawing a loaded gun towards him which had slipped from his hands, on Thursday last, was dangerously wounded by the contents being discharged into his person—the ball entering his left breast and passing out at his back. He is in a critical condition, though his attending physician, Dr. Doyle, hopes for a favorable result.

MR. MICHAEL HUGHES.—We had the gratification, on our recent visit to New York, of meeting an old friend in the person of Mr. Michael Hughes, an elder brother of the late venerable Archbishop. Mr. Hughes is enjoying a green old age, and may live to see many birth days yet. Formerly a Pennsylvanian, he takes a lively interest in the news from the Keystone State.

THE ENGINE ON OUR BRANCH ROAD ran off the track, on Tuesday morning, and as a consequence no train left here until the evening of that day. Owing to this accident our Altoona letter did not reach us in time for publication.

BOOK NOTICES.

"COMETH UP AS A FLOWER" is the title of an autobiographical story of the richest kind just issued by D. Appleton & Co., New York. The London Times speaks of it with powerful and vigorous manner in which it is told, in the exceeding beauty and poetry of its sketches of scenery, and in the somnolence, sometimes quaintly humorous, sometimes cynically bitter, sometimes plaintive and melancholy, which are uttered by the heroine. It is written by a lady—a new hand—and is said to be so extraordinarily good that whenever you begin it you cannot lay it down again, hardly even when it is finished. New York: D. APPLETON & CO. Price, 60 cents.

BALLOON'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—This very popular and exceedingly cheap Magazine presents an attractive series of contents for December. Amelyst, Wayne's charming story, "The Derwent Eyes and Hair," is completed; Mrs. Edison's exciting serial, "The Lady of Lindenwald," is intensely interesting, while "Paul's Romance," by Miss Hale, and "My Darling," a poem, by James Franklin Pitts, are among the choicest of the month's reading. The illustrations are also remarkably good, making this one of the best numbers of Balloon ever issued.

The publishers offer unusual attractions for the coming year. With the January number the Magazine will be enlarged to one hundred pages, and several new and attractive features introduced. Miss William has written a romance entitled, "So as by Fire," which will commence the year. Amelyst Wayne will furnish an exciting serial for the month of February, entitled "Old Hugh's Look-off," which will be finely illustrated by Kilburn, and will appear in the new department, called "Our Young People's Story-Teller," a popular author will furnish a charming story for Girls, while there will be at least a dozen other stories and poems of the highest literary excellence, and intensely interesting, all complete in the January number.

It will be seen from the foregoing that Balloon's Magazine for 1868 will eclipse its present excellence, while the extraordinary low price is retained. It is only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents a number. Clubs receive for $1.25. The Proprietors have good cause for calling it "the cheapest magazine in the world." Published by Elliott, Thomes & Talbot, Boston, Mass.

An explosion of gas took place, and the man was much burned. Dr. Tobias' Venetian Linctivator was applied freely, and in three days the man was about his business in the Manhattan Gas Works as well as ever. His name is Samuel F. Waters. This is one of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Tobias' celebrated Venetian Linctivator.
