

THE FREEMAN.

THURSDAY, : : : : SEPT. 17, 1868.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

- FOR PRESIDENT: HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT: GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE, OF Fayette County. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT, OF Columbia County. FOR CONGRESS: COL. JOHN P. LINTON, Johnstown. FOR REPRESENTATIVE: Capt. JOHN PORTER, Washington Tp. FOR PROTECTOR: C. P. K. HITE, Johnstown. FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY: F. P. TRENNE, Esq., Ebensburg. MAURICE McNAMARA, Johnstown. FOR POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR: CHRISTIAN SNYDER, Jackson Tp. FOR AUDITOR: JAMES NILL, Allegheny Tp. FOR SURVEYOR: HENRY SCANLAN, Carrolltown.

PRIVATE LETTERS.

The Tribune rather gently blames the Freeman for publishing what it terms a private correspondence between Thomas A. Maguire Esq., and M. M. Adams, Esq. The correspondence may, for aught we know or care, have been confidential, though it does not appear so on its face. That is Mr. Adams' business, not ours. In justice to Mr. A., however, we may say that he thought it proper to show the people what means are being used to defeat a gallant soldier for Congress. He believed, too, from the tenor of Maguire's letter, that it was to be followed by one of a still more degrading character to himself. Maguire says: "I will write you more at length when I hear from you." Who can doubt that the next letter would have contained a dishonorable proposal to Mr. Adams? And Mr. Adams would not risk further insult to his principles as a politician and his integrity as a man. In short, he regarded the writer as a conspirator with whom, as an honorable man, he could have no confidential intercourse. Mr. M. well knows his men well. He has surrounded himself by those whom the Radicals call "Old Portage Rail Road Robbers." Thomas A. Maguire had grown fat and corpulent on the crumbs that fell from the Democratic table, and when that table was removed he felt, like ripe fruit, by his own gravitation, into the extended arms of Mr. Morrell. He "took the louny," receiving a clerkship at Washington, where he can write letters and speeches for his patron. The Democrats never complained of his apostasy, for he cost them more than he was worth. But when he attempts to seduce honest Democrats, through the wealth and position of Mr. Morrell, we think, as Mr. Adams did, that he subjects himself to exposure as much as if he had written a letter suggesting murder or highway robbery.

ELECTION FRAUDS.

The Alleghenian is unhappy in its working up of the fraudulent vote in the Centre district. It gives the Radical report of the testimony of John Casey, who swore that he was as ignorant as a "baste," that he could "neither read nor write," and that he "voted Democratic." It will astonish one reader to know how a man who can neither read nor write know whether he voted a Democratic ticket or not. The Alleghenian, however, explains this. It says, this "forged naturalization paper was furnished him by one Mark Leddy, a Democrat, who took him to the polls and directed him how to act." Now we shall state what the Alleghenian dare not deny. This Leddy is a leading Radical, and was on the stand at the Radical meeting in Ebensburg with Butcher Swope, the orator of the night, to confirm and enforce what Swope had to say about these same frauds. If Leddy was a Radical when Casey voted, the vote of Casey was Radical, for he could neither read nor write. If he was not--if he was a Democrat, and committed this act of fraud and perjury--no wonder he threw himself, body and breeches, into the arms of the Radicals--no wonder he travels with Butcher Swope, as he is entirely unfit to associate with Democrats.

COPPERHEAD.

The Hollidaysburg Register calls Colonel Linton the Copperhead nominee. The editors of that sheet were called upon, Over and Over, (or Over & Brother, as they have it,) to defend their country. They most respectfully declined. Col. Linton went to the front--led his gallant regiment into the thickest of the fight--is dangerously wounded in the thigh, and brought home. Before his wound is entirely healed he returns to his post, is again in battle, and his gallant right hand, from wounds received in the conflict, hangs almost useless by his side. And this is what Radical sneaks call a "Copperhead." The Register wants to know why the Democrats don't nominate soldiers in Democratic districts. We will answer this by stating that in Cambria county we have three soldiers on our county ticket, while the Radicals have none. So much for "Copperheads" and soldiers, Mr. Register.

AN EDUCATION IS A FORTUNE.--One of the best places to acquire a sound education is at the Normal School. Write for its circular. Address J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Erie Co., Pa.

The Maine Election.

An election for Governor and members of Congress was held in Maine on Monday last, and the Radicals are exceedingly jubilant over the result, though exactly "where the laugh comes in" it is somewhat difficult to determine. True it is that the indications seem to be that they have carried the State from 15,000 to 20,000, but they did the same thing in 1866 by a majority very little less than 20,000, and if they can stand such an immense falling off in two years and still find cause to rejoice, we are sure Democrats need not envy them such a small crumb of comfort. But we are told that the Radicals carried the State last year by less than twelve thousand majority. This is true enough, but only half the story. In 1867 the liquor law was the great issue both in Maine and Massachusetts. In the latter State the Radicals were defeated. In Maine their majority of 1866 was reduced 16,000. How silly, then, as the Age remarks, is this attempt to impose upon the public by measuring the great result of 1868 according to the vote on a local issue. If their victory in Maine is repeated all over the Union not ten States will be left to them. We congratulate all true patriots on the result. It is the coming event of history casting its glorious shadow before.

COFFEE--JELLY.

The Alleghenian charges the Democrats, in some districts, somewhere in the State, with forging naturalization papers, and to give them age, coloring them with coffee. The Radicals of this county are superior to the Democrats in inventive genius, and have adopted a simpler mode to accomplish the same result. They keep within the ordinary department, but as coffee has become very dear under Radical rule, they use a foreign article of Jelly with which to commit their frauds upon the naturalization laws. But it won't do. Jelly papers won't save them, and the whole party will be pounded into a jelly in November next.

Radical Inventions.

The Democrats have fished up fifteen Union generals who, they say, will vote for Seymour. But two of them have publicly pronounced for Grant; one of the others is dead; one was punished by court martial; two never saw a battle, and five left the army in disgrace. Of the remaining four, no name has any weight but that of Slocum. It will not do for the coppers to count on soldiers' votes, unless they give that name to deserters and to such rebels as Wade Hampton, Kirby, Beauregard, and their fellows. The soldiers as a body are a unit for their commander. Some other game must be tried.--North American.

Democratic Generals.

- Geo. B. McClellan, L. H. Rousseau, Dan Carlos Baell, Grenham Mott, W. S. Rosecrans, John A. McClelland, Jeff C. Davis, Geo. W. Custer, W. F. (Balley) Smith, Geo. W. Morgan, Henry W. Slocum, Robert C. Buchanan, Wm. B. Franklin, Richard Coulter, Wm. S. Hancock, W. H. H. Davis, Tom Easton, Jr., Tom Knape, James B. Steedman, Wm. B. McAndrews, Peter Lyon, O. B. Wilcox, Gen. Bullier, N. Martin Curtis, H. Naglee, Gordon Granger.

Will the North American print this list and point out the names of any two who have pronounced for Grant? Which one on the above list is dead? Nearly every one of them bears on his person marks of wounds received in the face of the enemy, but they all live, and to cast their votes for Seymour and Blair. What five or what one of them retired in disgrace? Who were court martialled? In his official capacity as Mayor, Mr. M. Michael has paid high honors to more than one of the gallant soldiers in this list, and yet party spirit induces him now to foully slander them. He has turned out more than once at the head of the civic authorities of Philadelphia to receive some of these very Generals, amid the grateful plaudits of the people. The chagrin which the Radicals experience in contemplating this list of Union heroes who are heartily engaged in the campaign for Seymour and Blair, prompts these unworthy assaults on them. Without undertaking for one moment to disparage the soldiers who find it their duty to support the candidate of the Radical revolutionists, the Democrats proudly contrast the above glorious names with the Radical Generals in the following list:

- Ben. Butler, Dick Bastedo, N. P. Banks, C. H. T. Collins, James S. Brislin, Jim McNeil, Neal Dow, Sam'l Burbridge, Dick Franchot, Bill Turchin, Chas. Van Wyck, B. Hunter, Carl Shurz, R. C. Schueck, Julius White, E. K. Scott, A. Willich, J. Kilpatrick, Jno. W. Geary, Dan'l Sickles, Jas. S. Negley, Jln A. Logan, H. L. Calkie.

If the Radicals are satisfied with the comparison, we shall not enter into controversy with them. The Tribune some time ago triumphantly asked what soldiers would vote for Seymour and Blair. The two lists above may afford a satisfactory index to the soldiers who support the respective candidates for President.--Harrisburg Patriot.

Five hundred ladies on horseback formed part of a Democratic procession lately, at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Political and New Items.

The charter election in Alton, Illinois on Tuesday week, resulted in a Democratic victory, and the vote shows Democratic gains.

In 1864 Grant said his tastes did not lead him to the Presidency. It is safe to inquire, do not Grant's "tastes" rather lead him to the bar?

The public debt has been increased more than forty-two millions of dollars in twelve months. Can this be ciphered away in a Radical "campaign document"?

The negro murderer, Alfred Alexander, now in prison in Philadelphia for murder, has been again respited by Gov. Geary. His color will probably save his neck.

The negro supposed to be guilty of rape on Mrs. Wildman, of Brookfield, on the 4th instant, and which resulted in her death, was arrested in New Haven, Conn., on Sunday last.

One of the negro Senators of Louisiana had a street fight with another of his color last week. The cause of the quarrel dates from six years ago, when the Senator was in the poor house.

The scene of all the romances about outrages in the South, is laid afar off, in Tennessee, or Mississippi, or away in Texas. We don't hear of any thing of the sort in Virginia. That is too near home.

A recent improvement in safety valves not only allows the escape of steam when the limit of pressure is reached, but when the water in the boiler gets too low it opens a valve and floods the fire with water.

A man in San Francisco has accomplished the feat of riding horseback three hundred miles in fifteen consecutive hours, on a wager of $2,500. It is called the greatest feat of horsemanship ever accomplished.

A German of Chicago offers to bet eight punchcocks of wine, worth $2,000, that Grant will carry Chicago.--Tribune. Another German offers to bet that Grant can drink the "eight punchcocks" before he is elected.

United States sixes (five twenties) sell for less in the markets of the world than Prussian, Russian, Moorish and Brazilian fives. Why? Because the country can't carry $3,000,000,000 of debt and the loil leeches too.

It has cost the people about $2,500 since the war for each negro that has been made a voter for the benefit of the Radical party. White laboring men in the North work five days for themselves and one for the negro, each week.

Amos Andrews, of Lowell, who is 77 years old, has been a chronic hermit for twenty-five years. He dwells in solitude on a 100 acre mountain, some 300 or 400 feet high, which is called by his name, and cultivates there fruit and maple orchards.

Andrew Lacy, a well-known negro living in Madison, Ark., at one time acted with the Radical party, but having become ashamed of his association and disgusted with carpet-baggers, changed to be a Democrat, for which reason his house was set on fire and burned down. Let us have peace.

A disturbance occurred on the afternoon of the 11th inst., in the Cincinnati rail mill, corner of Parson and Front streets, between John Thompson and John Kember, when Thompson snatched a red hot iron rod, about six feet long, and ran it through Kember's body, killing him instantly. Thompson was arrested.

The Hon. Wm. Jessup died at his residence in Montrose, on Friday last, at the age of seventy-one years. Judge Jessup, for a long time, held the position of District Judge, and was highly esteemed for the ability and impartiality of his judicial decisions. He was once a candidate for the Supreme Bench of Pennsylvania, but was not elected.

In Kansas City, Mo., they have a seven-citizen who is one hundred and seventeen years old. He is an old trapper, and his name is Ferlance. Only think of it; he was twenty-five years old when the Declaration of Independence was made, and sixty-four at the battle of New Orleans, in which he took part under Old Hickory Jackson.

A correspondent writing from Ohio, says: "The Hon. Henry Stanbery, late Attorney General of the United States, although in feeble health, has signified his intention of taking the stump for the candidates of the New York Convention. The State Central Committee have already announced him for an address at Lancaster on Saturday, September 26."

Bonner, of the Ledger, says if the Republican party don't make more of Hiram Sammy Grant than he (Bonner) did out of the biography written by the old man, (Grant's father,) they will have made a bad investment. He paid the old man a good round sum for that biography, yet somehow or other it not only did not increase the circulation of the paper, but actually reduced it.

If it is true, as the Radicals say, that the South was never in such their condition of anarchy as now, then their pet scheme of re-negro reconstruction is a failure, since its avowed object was to provide "adequate protection for life and property" in those States. If it has not done this it is a failure, isn't it? Nail 'em with this the next you hear them talking about the outrages of the South.

Great excitement was created in Bridgeport, Conn., on Sunday, by the discovery of a Fenish outrage on a highly respectable young lady of that city, by a negro. The negro was arrested shortly after the commission of the outrage, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the authorities could protect the scoundrel from the fury of the excited people. He was finally committed to jail to await trial.

The St. Louis Times says, and every one knows that Frank Blair was nominated for the Speakership of the Thirty-seventh Congress by the "fool" John Hickman, and supported by Bingham, Colfax, Conkling, Kelly, Lovejoy, Sherman and forty-three others, on the first ballot, when his name was withdrawn. These same Radicals now vie with each other in deprecating the election of Blair because he is a "rebel and traitor."

The howling derishes of the Radical party, a few months ago, proposed to appeal to the country on the impeachment question. We never hear a word of impeachment from the Radicals now a days. Are they ashamed of it?

Colonel J. J. Connor has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats in the Schuylkill and Lebanon District in this State. That makes the Radical "Cake all dough" in the Tenth District. Colonel Connor will be elected by a handsome majority.

A man forty-five years of age was found lying across a fence about a mile south of Alton, Illinois, on the 7th, dead. It is supposed that he attempted to cross the fence and his foot slipped, throwing him on the fence and knocking him out of breath. The position in which he was placed on the fence prevented his recovering a perpendicular position, and consequently strangulation ensued, which produced death. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from accident.

When General Rosecrans' army was afflicted with scurvy, an appeal was made to the Governors of the Northern States for fresh vegetables. All of them except Seymour responded by offering the subject to the several Christian and Sanitary Commissions. Governor Seymour sent one hundred and fifty barrels of potatoes and fifty barrels of onions raised on his own farm. The account from which we condense this statement, says they were the only vegetables received before the army marched. Comment is unnecessary.

Terrible Earthquake in Peru.

The Guiding Star, from Aspinwall, brings the New York Evening Telegram the following:

On the 13th ult., a terrible earthquake visited the cities along the coast of Peru and Ecuador, whereby thirty thousand lives and property valued at three hundred million of dollars were destroyed. A rumbling sound preceded the earthquake, and the sea was terribly agitated, and flooded the land for a great distance.

Arequipa City, of 35,000 inhabitants, has passed away, scarcely a vestige of it being left. Only four hundred lives were lost here. Arica, a town of 25,000 inhabitants, was also destroyed, leaving not a house standing. Five hundred perished here.

Tidal waves forty feet high rolled with a terrific roar on shore, carrying ships further on land than ever before known. The United States storeship Fredonia was capsized and all on board lost. The Fredonia had $1,800,000 worth of naval stores. The vessel was rolled over and smashed to atoms. The United States steamer Watere was carried half a mile inland and left high and dry. Only one sailor was drowned. Owing to the great distance, she never got afloat again.

The Peruvian corvette America was also carried ashore, and thirty-three were drowned from her. The American merchantman Rosa River, the English ship Chancelor, and the French bark Edwards were also lost.

The towns of Iquique, Moquega, Laramba and Pisuaga are all utterly destroyed. Over six hundred perished at Iquique. The American merchants lost heavy, nearly all being totally ruined. The towns of Igarra, San Pablo, Atunigu and Inabandi are in ruins. Where Cotacachi formerly stood it is now a lake. The populations of the above named towns are almost entirely destroyed. Pachio, Paellars and Cachignania are also destroyed. The dead are so numerous that the surviving inhabitants have been forced to fly from the stench of the putrefying bodies.

In Guayaquil the earthquake was felt, but no damage was done. Letters from Quito, dated the 19th ult., announce that earthquakes continue at intervals of a few hours.

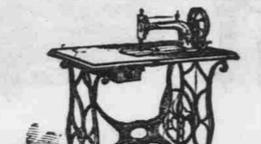

The President has issued a proclamation to the people to come forward and help the sufferers.

PLANCHETTE.--The Freeman's Journal, of last week, comes out hard upon the "devilries" of Planchette. It says: "It is very evident that this planchette is but a new phase of the table tipping rascality, and is fraud except where diabolical, and diabolical where not humbug. It is most dangerous to meddle with what are called the obscure powers of nature. It is seldom any one does so without damage to body, or mind, or to soul--generally the damage extends to all three. We earnestly advise and entreat all our friends and readers, whether Catholic or not, to let alone table-tipping, spirit mediums, planchette and all other silly deviltries, by which the lost angels seek to fool and perplex the human race."

Dr. S. I. TOMPA'S PNEUMONIC LIFE SYRUP, for the cure of Incipient Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and General Debility. For several years I have been urged by kind friends, who have used, and been benefited by, my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but few know the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same. For years past I was reluctant to do so, as the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to curtail the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, thanks to the generous public, who have appreciated my Venetian Liniment, I am now able to do so without any detriment to my large business in that medicine. The foundation of my success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my PNEUMONIC SYRUP. The ingredients are perfectly harmless, but act on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cents. Depot, No. 37 Cortlandt Street, New York, near Jersey City Ferry. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers. [Sept. 2, 1y.]
