Mr. Mahan, who is a partner in the Elbensburg store, has been in place in Elbensburg up to this time the others have been deported.

On Sunday afternoon the body of an unknown man was found in the cemetery near Elbensburg. The body was not identified and it is supposed to be that of the tramp who was supposed to have been killed by the Elbensburg cars on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks during the recent flood.

The Blair county Democrats in conducting a campaign on Monday nominated the following ticket: For assembly, A. A. Patterson and Abraham H. Johnson; for prothonotary, H. A. McPike; for justice of the peace, David C. Frank; for jury commissioner, B. J. Murphy, of Altoona.

The Democratic Blair county committee is selecting a candidate for prothonotary, but themselves honor in naming A. McPike as their candidate. There will be much talk of an election for a Democratic ticket, but if the voters of Blair county want to elect a good man to the office, they will make no mistake in casting their ballots for H. A. McPike.

A firm of horse dealers, hitherto unknown in this section appeared in the Starling place a week or two ago. It began with a horse and progressed so rapidly that it was necessary to send out a party of seven men in order to check the business. It operated for a few days, but to minute description of the business has been published.

Two small children, one 3 and the other 4 years of age, sons of Farmer Harman, who died on last Sunday, were left in the house for a short time Sunday, when they were taken to a bed and stacked with the bed clothes in order to reach a place where they were to be buried. In attempting to remove the gun it was discharged, the contents entering the hip of the child and bearing the limb almost to the body. The child expired in minutes after the leg was amputated.

Contractor M. Fadden says the big cut in the Blacklick extension, which finished Saturday of this week. As a large amount of filling was washed out below the bed, however, in order to get sufficient cut will be sloped and it will require two weeks more to complete the grading. The rails are now laid to the west of Elbensburg and the work is being delivered as fast as

The farmers of Monroe county are battling with cut worms, which bite off the tender shoots of corn just as they come through the ground. In many cases whole fields have to be replanted. Salt and plaster are tried with but little effect and some farmers patiently go over the ground digging about every hill.
