LOCAL AND PERSONAL

White, of Allegheny county, a few days ago, involving the validity of a borough ordinance imposing a license of $1 a day upon hucksters who sold produce to consumers in the borough. Judgment was given against the borough, the judge deciding that such a license "is an oppression upon the seller and upon all the citizens, except storekeepers."

A commission, appointed by the court of common pleas to inspect the Clearfield county poor house, met Wednesday at the site, near Du Bois, and recommended the same to be taken off the contractor's hands. The site cost $2,000; main buildings, $25,000; furniture $2,000, and bars $1,000. Estimated cost when fully completed is $30,000. The home will accommodate two hundred and fifty inmates.

A great coke war seems at hand. The H. C. Frick company announced some days ago that its price for coke would be advanced to $2 a ton. W. J. Rainey, the second largest producer of coke, declared Saturday that he will sell coke after January 1 for $1.25 a ton. This great cut in prices means a war among the operators, it is believed. H. C. Frick refuses to say what he will do about prices now.

Word comes from Dunbar, Pa., that the father of an Italian girl, who is only fifteen years old, received $300 for her from an Italian coke worker, and the pair were married Tuesday evening. The facts of the sale leaked out through a disappointed Italian, whose bid of $300 was refused by the girl's father. The buying and selling and exchanging of wives is not a new thing in the Italian colonies in the coke regions.

On Saturday morning Johnstown Accommodation ran into John McNally's farm wagon on the railroad crossing about a mile east of Cresson station. The rear end of the wagon was struck and was broken to pieces. The driver, a young man, was knocked from the vehicle and his face and knee injured, but he immediately jumped to his feet and pursued his team, which ran off. He succeeded in catching the horses.

On Saturday afternoon an Italian, who had been in the employ of Collins & Martin at Kittanning Point, was walking on the railroad track in the neighborhood of Twenty-fourth street, Altoona, when he was struck and run down. His skull was fractured, his left leg crushed from the knee to the ankle and he rised from the ground. The man was picked up and taken to the hospital where he died without regaining consciousness.

A sure remedy for the relief of choking is this: To immediately reverse the upright position of the body with the head down and with body supported by the hands and feet elevated, when instant relief will be obtained and the obstruction will fall from the mouth. A child can be seized by the legs, and head turned down, and relief will be instantaneous. A knowledge of this may save a life in such an emergency.

Mr. Thompson Carney died at the residence of John Miller, in Jackson township, on Sunday, from pneumonia. Mr. Carney was a resident of Indiana county, and at the breaking out of the civil war enlisted in Company A, 11th Penna. Reserves, which was raised in Ebensburg. He was a good soldier and served through the war and on his return made his home in the neighborhood of Strongstown. He was about 60 years of age and unmarried.

Saturday's Johnstown Tribune says: A letter received in this city by a friend of Mr. H. A. McPike, formerly of Johnstown, afterward editor and proprietor of the Cambria Freeman, and more recently a partner in the ownership of the Altoona Times, but now in the government printing office, Washington, D. C., brings the good news that he and his family are enjoying the best of health and are prosperous and contented in their new home.

Johnstown Republicans are making quite a kick over an attempt to steer the influence of the liquor men in a certain direction for the nomination of a candidate for county treasurer on the Republican ticket. A prospective candidate, who is said to have agreed, if elected, to run the county on the shares, is being recommended with a club to the good graces of the liquor men, and they will at once proceed to dance to the music prepared for them.

At the annual election of officers for the Cambria County Agricultural association, at Carrolltown, the following officers were chosen: President, H. J. Kramon, nacker; vice president, P. J. Dietrick; treasurer, T. A. Sharrbaugh; secretary, J. V. Maucher; directors, Charles Feighner, John H. Hoover, James Westrick, Benjamin Wertzner, H. J. Eckenrode, W. J. McCombe, Jos. A. Gray, John S. Wetzel, D. A. Luther, Sr., H. J. Buck, Simon P. Kline and C. A. Sharrbaugh.

A few days ago while Charles Hall was driving along the road near Emporium, he saw what he thought was a bundle of rags burning in the middle of the highway. He stopped his car, got out and jumped out of the vehicle and was astonished to see that it was the badly burned body of 4-year-old Lottie Palmeter. The child in some manner had set fire to her clothing and then started to run to her mother who had gone to a neighboring house but died on the way.

Mr. Harry Irwin, employed by the Cresson & Clearfield Coal & Coke Company at its saw mill at Frugality, was instantly killed on Thursday afternoon of last week at Loydsville while attempting to load a freight train. He was about 30 years of age and leaves a wife and two children. He was sober and industrious and had been employed by the Coal and Coke Company for the past several years. The body was taken to Emporium where it was prepared for burial.

On the night of November 2, 1916, a baggy and set of harness was stolen in Indiana county, presumably by a man who is supposed to have sold them in Cambria or Blair county. The baggy was made by Isaac Beck of Indiana, Pa., and bears his name on the rear end of the bed. It has Dexter Queen springs, cherry running gear and black body. The shafts are new. The rig when last seen was drawn by a blind horse. The information is to be conveyed to the nearest police office, at Wheelersburg to Box 90, Indiana, Pa.

A telegram from Bellefonte says: Robert C. Lyle was arrested on Monday and lodged in jail here on the charges of desertion, immorality and having two wives. In 1888 Lyle, then a resident of Centre Hall, married a woman, Miss Koller, a member of one of the best families in that place, whom he deserted after the birth of a child. He went to Hellwood and married another girl, who has borne him three children. He was in Virginia, where he was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad. It is expected that the building will be reconstructed as soon as possible. Ash, coal overlays the clay no better locally for clay works can be found anywhere.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that clerical orders for the year 1920 will be issued on Monday, the 15th of February. Clerical orders for the act of party primaries for borough and township officers and school directors must be filed with the clerk of the board of directors on or before January 31st, and nomination papers filed with the clerk on or before the 15th of February 3rd. It is a safe rule to wait until the last day, but to file the certificates as soon as possible.

The spring elections are not a great ways off and the substance of the law relative to these elections may not be out of place at this time. The elections next spring will take place on Tuesday, the 15th of February. According to the act of party primaries for borough and township officers and school directors must be filed with the clerk of the board of directors on or before January 31st, and nomination papers filed with the clerk on or before the 15th of February 3rd. —1896 will be leap year, and the last one for eight years. There will be four eclipses, two of the moon and two of the sun. Only one of them will be visible in the United States, and that is due on the 23rd of August. Lent, the period in which all churches are interested, falls somewhat earlier the coming year, as Ash Wednesday is on February 19th. This brings Easter Sunday on April 5th. Last year Easter Sunday was on April 14th. Of the holidays, the Fourth of July will fall on Saturday, thus bringing two days of business suspension together.

—Major P. H. Walls, says Wednesday's Philadelphia Times, who writes himself down as from Altoona on the Girard House register, is really from the new town of Prosperity, on the Cresson and Coalport road, where he is general manager of a large store and manages it in a manner quite satisfactory to the miners. Prosperity is one of three towns in the new Cambria coal belt opened by Judge Dean, General Beaver and Governor Hastings in 1888. The other two were Frugality and Congruity, singular names for towns and about as odd as the maps produced. Major Walls says they are growing centres of trade.

—The jurisdiction and authority of the teacher over the pupil is neither limited by the school house walls nor the time the school is actually in session. As a general rule in all matters connected with the schools and the manners and morals of the scholars the teacher's jurisdiction commences when the pupil leaves the parental roof and continues until his return from school. The teacher, however, is not responsible for the misconduct of pupils on the way to and from school, though he has right to punish for such misconduct when brought to his attention. This is the Pennsylvania decision on the subject.

—"Oweny," the canine globe trotter, passed over the Pennsylvania railroad on Wednesday, bound for his home in Tacoma, Washington. He left there August 19 on a trip around the world, and traversed the Pacific ocean, China Sea, Strait of Malacca, Indian ocean, Gulf of Aden, Red Sea, Suez canal, Mediterranean Sea, Straits of Gibraltar and Atlantic ocean, arriving in New York on board the steamship Port Philip on the 24th inst. More than ten years ago Oweny wandered into the post office at Albany, was picked up and traveled the continent over and over again. From his leather collar dangled 126 brass tags or souvenirs from the various places he has visited.

—The hemlock, which a few years ago seemed inexhaustible and was so long despised by lumbermen, will before many days be as scarce as pine, says the Bradford Era. The output of hemlock in Pennsylvania is estimated at 650,000,000 feet annually, necessitating the cutting over 6,000 acres of land which is thus rendered practically valueless unless underlaid with coal, oil or other merchantable mineral. The cutting of this vast area of timber is of the most wasteful character, young and old being alike destroyed. After the lumbermen come the fires which semi-annually follow in their wake. These do not confine themselves to the slashings, but invade and destroy the younger of the standing timber.
