

—John Fulton, of Homer City, Indiana county, aged 80 years, wandered away from his home a few days ago, but was finally found by a searching party. He suffered much from the inclement weather but will recover.

—A paper from Minnesota says: "Corn will be burned for fuel this winter in many sections of Minnesota and South Dakota. Coal is $2 a ton dearer than last year, and with corn at eleven cents a bushel, it is much more valuable as fuel than food. It makes an excellent fuel, and an ear of corn makes more heat than its bulk in wood."

—Three fires within two days occurred recently in Indiana county. The barn of Clark Nell, near Jackson, was burned, killing a loss of $2,000; the dwelling of John L. Robinson, in the same vicinity, suffered a similar fate and the loss is placed at $1,800, and the barn of D. F. Shaffer, also near Jacksonville, was destroyed by the flames, the loss being $1,500. There was little insurance on the properties.

—Hanging in front of the Central Hotel yesterday were three fine specimens of the deer family, consisting of a doe and two fawns. The animals were brought in by Wood Kelley, of Brady township and were shot near the head of Stone run by him Thursday. The peculiar part of it was that the three of them were killed inside of a minute and that the three fell dead within a circle of twelve feet. He fired six shots at the trio and five bullets took effect.

—About two weeks ago a child was born to Isadore Kingston and wife, of Hiram City. That event in itself is nothing unusual but when the diminutive size or weight of the infant is taken into account something rare. The little one weighs exactly one pound, and is dressed in cap, socks and is rocked in a cradle made of a doll's coach. The mother is a woman above the average height, and the father is of medium height. The child coughs, cries, sneezes and gets colic like other babies. —Lilly Standard.

—Samuel H. Berkeimer, a young man of Bedford, who has been ill for a couple of years with what was supposed to be consumption, on Friday, November 15th, passed four reptiles resembling lizards, says the Bedford Gazette. The largest one is one of three four inches long. They were alive. This remarkable occurrence is puzzling the physicians, and the Medical Chirurgical college of Philadelphia will try to solve the anomaly, and give the result of its investigation to the medical world. Since the strange occurrence the young patient has been improving in health.

—About noon on Saturday, an Italian woman at Bens Creek, undertook to hurry up a fire in the cooking stove with coal oil. An explosion was the result and the clothing of the woman and a little child were set on fire, the latter being so badly burned that it is feared he will not recover. The woman was carried to the hospital, which was entirely consumed. The woman with the help of the other people about the house extinguished the flames from her clothing before she was fatally burned. The building belonged to the Camoria Mining and Manufacturing company and was occupied by four families, about thirty people, who lost nearly all their effects.

—On Saturday morning J. D. Raab, a section foreman on the Cresson and Coalport railroad, started from Dysart with three section hands, to go to Frugality on a head car. Near Dysart, on the rear engine of a freight train they were following out loose and ran back to do some shifting. In the dense fog the engine and hand car crashed together. All the men save Foreman Raab saw the engine in time to jump. He was fatally injured and died in a few minutes. The engine was carried to Frugality, where he was taken to the hospital. His home was about 55 years old and a veteran of the late war.

—At the celebration of the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Angus B. Stewart, of Franklin township, Blair county, on Saturday, about sixty persons were poisoned by some poisonous matter that was partaken with the food. Many guests from far and near sat down to an elaborate banquet and after it was over about sixty of them began to feel queer sensations and pains. A physician, who was present started for Hollidaysburg but became too ill to return and sent other physicians with a plentiful supply of drugs and remedies. The symptoms shown by the patients indicated that the poisoning was of an arsenical nature and was supposed to have been in the chicken salad. All affected are recovering.

—Sentence of a P. R. R. Official.
Washington, Nov. 28. —Robert E. Marshall, thirty-four years old, superintendent of the Altoona division of the Pennsylvania railroad, shot himself at his brother's house in Washington City on Monday.

Mr. Marshall was one of the most valued young men in the Pennsylvania's services. For some time he has suffered from acute nervous troubles, resulting from overwork, and it is to this that the tragedy is attributed.

He was a son of J. W. Marshall, at one time a professor at Carlisle College, Pa., and a member of the Pennsylvania legislature. His wife, who was Miss Tyson, of Maryland, died a year ago, and doubtless contributed to the condition which brought about his end. He leaves two sons.

—Mascot Up to Date.
On Monday, December 7th, the people of Ebensburg will have an opportunity of seeing the comic opera Mascot up to date, played by the Gilbert Comic Opera company. The play is a first class one in every respect and our people will not have an opportunity of seeing a better company during the season.

The McConeville Herald says of the performance of the Mascot: "The performance of the kind which ever appeared in our opera house. The house was packed and the enthusiasm was unlimited, so were we our people pleased."

Tickets now on sale at James' drug store.

—A Horse for Two Cents.
The farm stock of James A. Arnds, of Longsawm township, Berks county, was charged to regularly ordered clergymen in favor of the church. He claimed that the judgment was the result of a misunderstanding and when his property was put up for sale the neighbors declined to bid. A claim to ownership of the property was made by Arndt's wife and his father-in-law, and as a consequence when the sale commenced horses sold as low as two cents each, and there was no higher bid than fifty cents for any thing. At the latter figure several hundred bushels of corn and oats were sold. All the household furniture was knocked off at twenty five cents.

—P. R. R. to Issue Clerical Orders.
The Pennsylvania Railroad company announces that for the first time it will issue orders to regularly ordained clergymen in charge of churches located on or near its lines east of Pittsburgh and Erie. To secure these orders clergymen should make application to the nearest ticket agent as soon as possible, as it is desired that all applications reach the general office by December 15th.

—Remarkable Accident.
The Johnstown Democrat of last Thursday says:
One of the most remarkable and painful accidents in the annals of Cambria county happened near what is known as the "Wildcat Reservoir" just about dark last evening.

The victim of the affair was Mrs. Archibald John, of Morrellville. She has been the guest of her relatives in Jackson township, and late yesterday afternoon she went out with some children in a small wagon to gather apples. The tire on one of the front wheels of the wagon was wrapped with heavy wire to keep it in place. The children were driving and at a most unfortunate time Mrs. John dropped her left arm between the front and hind wheels. As she did so an end of the wire on the front wheel firmly caught in the ring on the third finger, tearing the finger off at the middle joint and pulling about 12 inches of tendon from the hand and arm. The woman's screams were agonizing. What had happened could hardly be realized. Mrs. John, however, was taken to the home of the Widow Riblet near by and Dr. Wakelield hurriedly sent for the latter summoned Dr. Sheridan to assist him. They found the injury the most remarkable in the history of their practice. They amputated what remained of the finger, after putting Mrs. John under the influence of chloroform, and treated the arm to the best of their ability. Dr. Wakelield believes that no serious results will follow.

In speaking of the case late last night Dr. Wakelield says: "In all my life I have never known of such an accident. It beats anything I ever heard of. The part of the finger torn from Mrs. John's hand and the tendon drawn from her arm were picked up after the accident. The tendon was fully 12 inches long."

—Instantly Killed.
Rose McNally, a bright little girl aged 13 years, was struck and instantly killed by Pacific express about 9 o'clock on Monday morning, the accident occurring about 300 yards west of the road crossing near the freight station. There was scarcely a bone in her body which was not broken.

The home of the deceased was about one mile from Portage, but for some time past she lived with her sisters, who reside there. Every morning the unfortunate little girl crossed the railroad tracks while on her way to school, and to deliver a bucket of milk to the Hotel Brown. On Monday morning she, in company with a girl of about the same age, who was also going to school, was in the act of fulfilling the daily errand. They had passed the rear end of a freight train, which was standing on the track, and started stepping immediately in front of the rapidly moving express. Little Rose was killed and her companion made a narrow escape from being a victim, but escaped without injury.

The deceased is being buried by her parents, her father being a well-to-do farmer, three sisters, four brothers, three of whom are employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The young victim of this tragedy was quite a pretty little girl, of a happy disposition and beloved by all.

—Death of Hon. John Scott.
Philadelphia, November 30. —John Scott, ex-United States senator from Pennsylvania, and a noted general solicitor for the Pennsylvania Railroad company, died last night at his residence in this city after a brief illness. He was 74 years of age. Mr. Scott was born in Huntingdon county, Pa., and had little to do with him in winning the distinction he attained as a politician and a lawyer, his educational advantages being confined to the primitive district schools of his day. He studied law with Judge Thomson, at Chambersburg, and after his admission to the bar he located in Huntingdon. He was devoted to the law, and at an early age he won a high rank among the more prominent legal minds of the interior of the state.

Mr. Scott leaves a widow and six sons — William W. Scott and Walter Scott, prominent lawyers in Pittsburgh; John Scott, Jr., a lawyer of this city; George Scott, a coal merchant in the same city; Dr. J. Allison Scott, assistant medical director of the Pennsylvania Mutual Life Insurance company.

Mr. Scott was well known to the older people of Ebensburg, and Cambria county, he, up until the time of his election to the United States senate in 1870, being frequently in attendance at court engaged as counsel in many important cases.

—Killed on the Street.
On Sunday evening Messrs. Marsh and Leighton Rowland, sons of Richard Rowland, who reside about six miles north of Ebensburg, were in town attending church. After services were over—about 8 o'clock—they started home in a buggy. When opposite the drug store of Dr. Davidson, on High street, there was a flash of light from the horse's feet and the animal fell, got up and fell again, and after a few struggles, expired. A telephone wire on the line down the Blacklick had broken and fallen across the air light wires and from thence to the street, and being charged with death-dealing electricity, lightning happened to be an animal instead of a human being. Hundreds of people had passed along on their way home from the different churches and it was a kind of disappointment of evidence that ruled that an animal instead of some one of our friends was to be taken. The lesson is, that it is a wise course to beware of wires that are lying on the ground.

—The Coal Trade Journal says that some improvement is looked for in the bituminous trade, but it will be very gradual and will not increase in any great proportion until after the first of the new year.
