STATE MATTERS IN BRIEF.

The Best of News Cuffed From a Nativist of Boston.
George D. Boyer, of Virginia, had a narrow escape from strangling while the Reading Times. He came to Reading to visit the fair and stopped in at Dr. Brock's eye-out eating house, Seventh and Penn streets, where he ordered a breakfast for breakfast. He was in a hurry and not properly masticating a piece of the beef nearly three inches square; it stuck in his throat, and it was with difficulty removed by Dr. J. W. Keiser, who had been called in, with a piece of wire. Boyer was slowly strangling, his face had turned blue and he gasped for breath.

FOOT UNFORTUNATES.

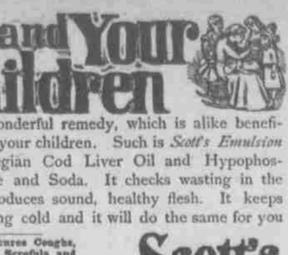

The Sheriff has got three Pennsylvanians. Executions were issued during the week from the Prothonotary's office against the following parties, says the March Chunk Times.
Anton Schmidt, the owner of a house and lot in the Second Ward, March Chunk, in favor of a claim held by Henry Warkne, for $197.70. The sheriff levied on Tuesday. Other judgments on record against the property are Henry Warkne $106.50, John Pags, to the use of, $125, and Charles Neast $237.34.

Where Venust Capotes Frequently.

The capturing of a vessel tied up to a pier in Reading, enough to say that the family and its tributary streams. The usual rise and fall of the tide along that bay is from forty to fifty feet, and high tide sometimes exceeds sixty feet. With the fall of the tide all craft are left high, but by no means dry, with an area of chocolate colored mud all about them. This mud is too shifting. In high water, on each pier is provided with one or more strong wood frames called shoes, fixed at the bottom of the stream.

A Minute Only.

Nineteenth century methods of trading allow no old foggyism or loggardenism. They are relics of the last decade. New ideas, original methods, push, pluck and enterprise are the exigencies of the present age.

We admit no dull season. Everything must be kept on a constant move. Trade must be stirred up with the same activity at the end of the season, as in the beginning.

We think we have struck the right chord when we started our present Low Water Mark Prices. Warm weather doesn't stop it. Old-Fog's burning rays cannot clog our wheel of commerce.

Now is the time and we note the fact that we are head quarters for all kinds of School Supplies and carry fifty different styles or Tablets at fifty different prices. Fine Stationery, Books and Magazines of all kinds, Pocket-Books, French Tissue, Toys, Games and Novelties.

THE CARBON ADVOCATE

EDITOR OF THE ADVOCATE: Some of my enemies have been circulating the idea that I had made a compact with Mr. B. J. Knott, Republican nominee for the Legislature, to get him to sign a bill. I desire to say through your columns that it is false, and that I am grateful for W. F. Biery, the Democratic nominee.

There is room in this town for sanitary improvement. Some of the evils need to be done, and it is to be hoped that nothing less than a disease breeder.

All the improvements made in this town by Council, during the past season have been badly needed and are of a good kind. Unfortunately a lack of money will stop off more repairs until next spring.

John L. Sullivan has stepped down from the throne and gone the way that men of his class always go.—Haddonfield.

There was a clean knock out.

This BETHLEHEM TIMES is now eight pages and is printed from a Goss Perfecting Press at the rate of 12000 copies. The Times is without question the very best evening daily printed between Haddonfield and March Chunk and to add still more to its excellence the proprietors will next week add a full associated press report.

LEHIGH has furnished a most excellent precedent for our borough schools; the other day a youth in that beautiful town was fined $7.00 for attacking a man with a stick, or at the rate of 87 1/2c for each inch used. Were this law to be put in force in our town, the revenue derived therefrom would be enough to liquidate all indebtedness incurred by the erection of the proposed new hose house.

THE CIRCULATION of this paper is steadily increasing—there is no special jump, but a steady, even upward movement every week, that will soon day not far distant give us our long looked for 2000 circulation. The ADVOCATE readers are a thrifty, intelligent people which gives extra value to our advertising space. The efforts of our friends to make the paper popular is sincerely appreciated.

Hon. Wm. MITCHELL who now so ably represents the whole people of the eighth district in the National House of Representatives was again re-nominated for the office at the conference held in March Chunk on last Thursday. THE CARBON ADVOCATE was for Craig, but our friends who had the brilliant and brainy fellow who has in the past two terms made for himself a reputation over the whole country as a wise, judicious and conservative legislator. There can be no quibbling over the result for "Bill" Mitchell fills the bill.

WE HAVE so far met no Democrat from the lower end of the county who will not support the Carbon Advocate. He is a man of very good judgment, of much more than ordinary intelligence and reliable as a sound Jeffersonian Democrat, and we are confident that he will represent the people of our county ably and faithfully.—March Chunk Democrat.

The Carbon Advocate knows that he will Mr. Biery is a hard working, honest, energetic man and the people have faith in him. He is the poor man's candidate because he comes from the ranks of the laboring class and will be their faithful, honest champion in the State Legislature. There is no success in Mr. Biery's career for this important office—in this in all else, he is plain, solid, practical and makes his friends among the people. Republicanism and Democrats who meet by this honest man's vote against Matt Quay.

SOMEWHAT ON MITCHELL.
Mr. Mitchell is one of the ablest members of the Democratic side of the House in the present Congress, and his record will be alike readable to his district and the party at large. Far-sighted, deliberative, fearless, of unswerving honesty, grounded in the Democratic faith, Mr. Mitchell is one of Pennsylvania's Democrats who may well be called a leader.—Harrisburg Patriot.

For the sixth time the Democrats of the Eighth Pennsylvania district have nominated Hon. William Mitchell for Congress. Mr. Mitchell is now serving his fifth term in the House, and is one of the hardest workers and one of the most effective members of that body. As a member of the Appropriations Committee Mr. Mitchell has rendered most valuable service to the country, and the Post is pleased to see that his ability is duly appreciated by his constituents.—Washington Post.

RAILROAD NOTES.
Short Paragraphs That Will be of Interest to the Railroad Boys.

All the railroad operators in this part of the county met here Monday and organized a branch of the Order Railway Telegraphers. Messrs. Wilson and Brodus, of March Chunk, members of the order, acted as organizers, and the new branch starts out with a good membership.—Freeland Tribune.

Owen Hawkins, of March Chunk, engineer of engine 690, and conductor Jos. Beaver, of Franklin, are on a three months leave of absence for cutting off a passenger train at Coplay the other day.

Henry Eckhart, of town, and Ollie Whitehouse, of Long Run, are enjoying a two weeks lay off for pushing a freight car at Allentown. Both are on train drawn by engine 57, Lehigh Valley.

E. A. Geiger, extra conductor on Lehigh Valley train drawn by engine 87, is nursing a badly cut right arm caused by being pushed through a cabin window on the sudden stoppage of his train.

When you call at the county seat visit Southside's Tailoring Hall and examine the largest stock of piece goods in this valley which will make a dozen in suits or overcoats at a reduction of 30 per cent. in order to reduce stock.
