Several articles of Mulligan's were found there. Gray, who is an American, was at once apprehended. The coroner's jury returned a verdict that Thomas Mulligan was murdered, that William Gray was the principal or one of the principals in committing the deed, and that Mrs. Gray was an accessory after the fact. Both prisoners were removed to Sherbrooke jail.

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

What His Friends Say About the Chances of His Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

A Washington correspondent of the New York Sun, under date of January 2, says: "There is a growing impression that Horatio Seymour is really a candidate for the presidency. This impression is largely due to the course of Senator Kernan, who is known to be the intimate and confidential friend of Mr. Seymour. His close relations with Mr. Seymour being so generally known, it is natural that leading Democrats should ask him whether it is possible to induce the Sage of Deerfield to accept the Democratic nomination. Mr. Kernan always replies that he believes that Mr. Seymour is sincere in his declarations about desiring to end his days in the retirement of private life, but he always manages to convey that he might be induced to sacrifice his inclinations to the unanimous demand of the national Democracy. Senator Kernan is very emphatic in his statements about the mental and physical condition of Mr. Seymour. His intellect is as clear as it ever was, and his health is unusually good for a man of his age, for he has always been abstemious and regular in his habits. The stories about the possibility of danger being anticipated by his physicians in the event of his engaging in an excited political campaign Mr. Kernan says are hoax. The interview with Mr. Seymour which was recently telegraphed all over the country goes far toward strengthening the belief that he would accept if the Democratic national convention should with unanimity nominate him. It was noticeable that in that interview Mr. Seymour, while reiterating his oft-repeated declaration that he sincerely desired to end his days in retirement, did not say that he could not be induced to accept the Democratic nomination. He said that he believed he would not be nominated—that it was not probable that he would be nominated; but from the beginning to the end of that interview, which has every indication in its preparation and publication of being by authority, Mr. Seymour does not say that he will not accept if nominated."

RARE OPPORTUNITY.

Offer for sale the entire stock, glass and fixtures of my GROCERY, GLASS and QUEENSWARE STORE, No. 147 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa. I have been a well established business stand for more than 10 years, having a large and good stock of both city and country patrons, and is only one square from both the Northern and Central Markets. If desired, the stock will also be sold. The reason for offering this chance is the necessity of devoting my time to the manufacture of Knapp's Vegetable Pills, which have, in the short time since their introduction, grown to such great popularity as to demand my whole attention.

Local Sentiments on a Third Term. The New Era recalls the fact that at the Republican state convention, held at Harrisburg, August 19, 1874, a resolution endorsing the third term principle and pledging Pennsylvania to Gen. Grant, in the event of his candidacy, was voted down with loud shouts of disapproval, and that the late Mr. Dickey, of this county, made an earnest speech against the third term in which he said:

I don't believe that he [Grant] has such an aspiration; but if he has, then it is time for the great Republican party to say, one and all, that they will stand by the precedent of Washington and the fathers of the republic—a precedent that has become the common law of the nation. No responsible party of men of any class, of any political complexion in this broad land for a moment dreams of a necessity of having any body violate that precedent of the fathers.

That we declare a firm and unqualified adherence to the unwritten law of the republic, which wisely and under the sanction of the most venerable examples, limits the presidential service of any citizen to two terms; and we, the Republicans of Pennsylvania, in recognition of this law, are unalterably opposed to the election to the presidency of any person for a third term.

It will be seen that this plank was not only strong and "unqualified" in its terms but it expressed that which was declared to be the "unalterable" opposition of the Pennsylvania Republicans. Nevertheless we have seen the very men who passed that resolution or allowed it to be passed reversing themselves and we have little confidence that the position then assumed will be maintained even by those who still profess to adhere to it.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY.

Little Girl Severely Injured. This morning about half past eleven o'clock, a team of horses belonging to a countryman, was being driven along West Lemon street. When near Charlotte street the animals frightened and started to run. At the time a little girl named Laura Gross, between 11 and 12 years of age, was crossing Lemon street, and the horses ran against her, knocking her down. She was trampled by the animals and was dragged for some distance.

What a Pity.

That the otherwise beautiful girl should have such bad teeth. And all because she did not use SOZODONT. It costs so little to buy it—considering the good it does, and its benefits stretch out into her future life. Poor girl!

SPECIAL NOTICES.

No More Hard Times. If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, fine food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheap and better clothing; get more real substantial things of life every day, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive quack doctors or using so much of the humbug medicine that does you only harm.

Try Loehrer's Cough Syrup.

J. F. Davis, of Portsmouth, Ohio, sold in one year fourteen thousand boxes of "Soldiers' Liver Pills."

The tonic effect of Purifying-Wort is produced by its cleanliness and purifying action on the blood. Where there is a gravelly deposit, or the urine, or milky,ropy urine from disordered kidneys, it cures without fail.

Use Loehrer's Horse and Cattle Powders.

Nauseous medicines seem all that doctors can think of. Try "Soldiers' Cough Syrup," and you will be delighted beyond measure.

CURE FOR COLIC OR COLIC. As soon as there is the slightest uneasiness of the chest, with difficulty of breathing, or indication of colic, take during the day a few "Bronch's Bronchial Troches."

Seasick Canadian. Mr. Gaultois, of Brockville, Canada, after being cured of a prostrating malarial disease contracted in Texas by means of Warner's Safe Pills and Safe Bitters, writes to us: "I shall never travel in that climate without your Safe Pills and Safe Bitters as part of my outfit."

Statistics prove that twenty-five per cent. of the deaths in our larger cities are caused by consumption, and when we reflect that this terrible disease in its worst stage will yield to a bottle of Loehrer's Renowned Cough Syrup, shall we condemn the sufferers for their negligence or pity them for their ignorance?

In Hot Weather an immense number of persons suffer from disordered kidneys and enlarged Liver. Kidney Wort is the great hot weather medicine. It is prepared without the use of liquors, and therefore it does not heat the system, but acts each organ to keep up its vigor and vigorous action.

A Mother's Grief. The price of a mother, the life and joy of a home, are her children, hence her grief when she loses them, and when we reflect that this terrible disease in its worst stage will yield to a bottle of Loehrer's Renowned Cough Syrup, shall we condemn the sufferers for their negligence or pity them for their ignorance?

The Best I Ever Knew Of. J. G. Starkey, a prominent and influential citizen of Iowa City, says: "I have had the Sufferer's Kidney Wort for several years, and have used every remedy I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your Sufferer's Kidney Wort advertised in our paper, and was persuaded to try it. I am happy to say that it has cured me. It is certainly the best remedy I ever knew of. Price 75 cents. Sold by D. Heintsh, Lancaster, and M. L. Davis, Millersville."

Soldier's Catarrh Remedy. A marvelous cure for Catarrh, Diarrhea, Canker Mouth, and Head Ache. With each bottle there is an ingenious nasal injector for the most delicate and safe application. Price 50 cents. Sold by D. Heintsh, Lancaster, and M. L. Davis, Millersville.

PRETTY FURNITURE.

This morning we were shown a very handsome set of parlor furniture, which was manufactured at the shop of Walter A. Heintsh, on East King street. It is made of beautifully carved walnut, with French veneer, and is upholstered in handsome raw silk, of fine quality. The upholstering was done by Mr. Heintsh himself. The set consists of a patent rocker, four wall chairs, an arm chair and a sofa. It is already sold, as another one like it is to be made. At the same shop we also noticed two pretty chairs, upholstered in brocade.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."—Rial and Draper's company, which arrived here this morning, appeared in a new play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," in the play of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." They have an ugly, fierce-looking Siberian bloodhound with them, which is introduced in the play. He was led through the streets this morning and attracted a great deal of attention. The Harrisburg Independent says that the troupe gave the play in that city on Thursday evening to a large house, and their rendition of it was very good.

Kate Watson.—On Monday evening we are to have that popular little actress, Miss Kate Watson, here in her new play, "The Countess," which she is now playing, bringing with her new scenery, costumes, &c., besides a large company, including old favorites. In the third act of the play a live baby is introduced.

Variety Entertainment.—John D. Mislter has brought a number of companies here this season, and almost every one was first-class of its kind. The variety troupe, the "Lily and Kernels" is no exception, and our citizens will not be able to witness as good a show for some time to come at such low prices. They on Tuesday evening.
