THE IMPORTANT QUESTION. LANCASTER COUNTY REPUBLICANS. Hog Ringers for Blaine-Bull Ringers for Grant.

Lancaster Special to the Phil'a Press So far as Lancaster is concerned on the presidential question, there is but one outspoken Grant newspaper, the Examiner and Express. All the others are opposed to the third term, but united for Washburne, Sherman or any good Republican who has a prospect of winning. The New Era is for Blaine primarily, Washburne second, and only against Grant on the third term plea, being opposed to a violation of the unwritten law of the country. The Inquirer is opposed to a third term and the Volksfreund, an influential German organ, is also opposed to the third term, and will so declare in its next issue. The Intelligencer, Democratic, is for Tilden, if he is nominated, or any other Democrat. A majority of our bankers and leading professional and business men are for Blaine. In Columbia, the next important town in the county, the editor of the Spy. Republican, is for Blaine.

The editor of the Courant, Republican is opposed to the third term, although he thinks Grant is popular, and the editor of the Herald, Democratic, is for Tilden, while nine out of ten Republicans are for Blaine. The boroughs in this county may be judged from the following despatches received by your correspondent : An Acrobat's Position.

J. P. Wickersham, state superintendent of public instruction: "I was up in the western part of Pennsylvania last week and am mingling almost constantly I may say, with the people in every section of the state. As far as I amable to judge Blaine is most spoken of. There seems to be a wide-spread feeling that the nomination of Grant would be a questionable policy and detrimental to the best interests of the party. Having no prejudices against him myself, I do not wish him president, preferring instead Mr. Blaine. Sherman is little thought of. The Germans are quite generally opposed to a third term and seem to think it means empire. They represent a large vote in the state, and it will not do to slight them.

An Extra-Judiclal Deliverance. Judge D. W. Patterson: "As for myself alone I would rather see Grant president than any one else. Southern Democrats fear him more than any six third term. John Sherman would not run well in this county. Neither would Washburne. Blaine in my second choice. The Street Committee's Calculation.

Major R. W. Shenk, banker and lawyer: "Blaine, personally and politically, has nothing against him. He is my choice, first and last, and I am confident that he would bring out the full vote of the party. I have not given thought to a second choice. I have nothing against General Grant, but want no third-term bu siness. Tells the Truth, but Fears to Own It.

A prominent attorney said, who did not wish his name to appear: "When in office Grant gathered about him a horrible set of associates. If he is put in again he will repeat the operation, William M. Evarts is my choice, but he does not stand the ghost of a chance. Blaine's altitude on the Chinese question was that of a demagogue, stroyed. Joins Hands Across a Bloody Chasm. J. Hay Brown, lawyer: "I am for that his boom is nothing but a manœuvre for Sherman. That I will never submit to and am willing at any time to join hands with the anti-Cameron men to fight against John Sherman in favor of Baine. I have had as good facilities as any man in the county to get the drift of public sentiment. The other day I had a conversation with Benjamin Wissler and Henry S. Eberly, two of the leading Repablicans of Clay township, and Mr. Long, a member of the county committee from Drumore. They say that the people in their districts favor Grant, and would take off their coats to work for him. It is safe to predict that the delegates to the national convention will go there prepared to cast their ballots

Hark! From the Back Office! J. W. Johnson, ex-attorney and exchairman of the county committee: "Blaine for me first and last, because I like him and the people like him; Sherman if necessary for the party's interest. Grant would be too heavy a load to carry.

I have had a number of people through the county write me, and they were all for Grant. I have had no official letters mentioning Blaine's name. It would not be fair to say that I am not a Grant man or that I am. I respect him and believe that he would be a good candidate.' Up to Snuff.

Hon. Henry C. Demuth, member of the Legislature: "Grant first and all the time. Some people in this town prefer Blaine, and there's no telling but that he may make the 'ring' Grant and Civil Service Reform.

C. F. Eberman, deputy collector of internal revenue: "Grant every day in the week and don't you forget it." Dromio Geist.

only German Republican German paper published in Lancaster county: "Next week I shall begin a series of articles against a third term. No preference will be avowed for any particular candidate. I am willing to support either Blaine or Washburne, and am somewhat inclined towards the latter. The Pennsylvania Germans are bitterly opposed to Grant."

"My Favorite." Major Elwood Greist, editor Inquirer: My admiration for Grant is great, but his nomination would be a mistaken policy and almost certain to result in defeat. party leaders should not forget that there is a deep seated opposition among the rank and file against a third term. Blaine is the favorite of Lancaster county, and he is also my favorite."

Give Him Back His Old Commander. J. A. Hiestand, editor Examiner and Express, was naval officer at the port of Philadelphia during the whole of the Grant regime. When Hayes came in his resignation was requested: "Grant for I'd vo'e for Blaine as cheerfully. although I object to the position he took on the Chinese question. It was weak, and his attitude on the Force bill was weaker. Washburne is a tiptop man. Conkling is out of the contest, and there is little Sherman sentiment here.'

In General. The Press correspondent reports the Strasburg Republicans averse to a third term and for Blaine; Mount Joy's ten representative Republicans include five Grant men, two for Blaine, one each for Conkling and Washburne, and the other "agin Grant: Marietta is largely for Grant.

Brandy as a Medicine

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-clan of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those af-flicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beyerage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.

With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable dis ease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or ess debility, will find this simple medicine, or all their ills and aches. Be it, however

TRADE MARK. years, and has never failed, as fur as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various mpotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to ouy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy.

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numing bers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour cructations constitutions.

stand of food; he had sour cructations con-stantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a lit-tle occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.

RUSSIA.

Getting Ready for Ten Years Hence. LONDON, Jan. 13 .- The Times' Vienna correspondent says: "The new developments in Russia may be very significant of what may happen ten years hence, but those persons who are conversant with Russian military affairs do not think that Russia is preparing for some great action in the immediate future. The work of reorganization and introducing a standing order of battle in time of peace, which was greatly disturbed by the Turkish war, entails much moving about of troops and material movements very apt to be construed into something different from their real intention.

WILKESBARRE, Jan. 13.-Warrants were issued at Kingston, yesterday, for the arrest of William Allenbaum, of Plymouth, Wesley Williams and a man known as "Big Yank," both of Plains, who are charged with the murder of William Keating in 1872. WELL-TAKEN.

A Point Against the "Mother Country." Paris, Jan. 13.—The ultramontane newspaper, the Univers, has a violent article on the Irish crisis. It represents the English government as absorbed in African and Afghan affairs, heedless of the suffering of the Irish, and speaks of the Duchess of Marlborough's relief fund and the foreign subscriptions as utterly inadequate to alleviate the popular distress.
