

Lancaster Intelligencer.

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 30, 1880.

Amusement Notes. Nick Roberts's pantomime company has three clowns. Willie Gill's "Goblins" have made a decided hit at the Arch, in Philadelphia.

In eleven years the London Gayety theatre has only been closed eleven nights.

Prof. Cooke will expose Spiritualism here on Wednesday night.

John T. Raymond was unable to appear at Memphis last week, in consequence of an attack of pneumonia.

P. T. Barnum recently gave $1,000 toward the erection of a new hospital in Bridgeport, Conn.

Tony Denier's pantomime troupe opens at the New National, Philadelphia, next week.

Sam. T. Jack, manager of Alice Oates, was married in Boston, on Sunday, to Alice Townsend, a member of that company.

It is said that if the season continues as good as it has been the "Tourists" will clear $40,000 this season.

Abbey "Humpty Dumpty" troupe opens at Booth's, New York, for eight weeks on Monday.

The Super who "goes on" in the plays must be pretty well disguised if his acquaintances in the gallery do not recognize him at once.

Charles A. Byrne, the former editor of the Dramatic News, has married Alfa Merrill, the actress, who caused the trouble between himself and wife.

George Denham, the comedian of Ford's company, is a resident of Washington, where he has more friends than Hayes himself.

The pleasant face of Barney Macaulay, in the character of Uncle Don't, has appeared in our windows. He will be here next month.

Will Gillette's company, which has been doing "The Professor," is disbanded. Some say this is the best thing it could have done.

Lester and Williams, the white face song and dance men, who traveled with Tony Denier last year, are performing at Tony Pastor's theatre, New York.

Cameron's minstrels are doing so well in Philadelphia that they do not know when they will start on their annual tour, if they go at all.

Buffalo Bill's advance paper, with a large cut of himself, announcing that he will shortly visit this city, has been posted. He advertises after the style of P. T. Barnum.

Minnie Wallace, who has been traveling with the company of her sister, Agnes Wallace-Villa, has left that troupe and will star in a new play entitled, "Settlers, or the Child of the Woods."

Colliers company, which visits us in March, is probably the strongest regular traveling dramatic company in the country. It contains such people as Louis James, Marie Wainwright Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walcott, and a number of others.

Miss Katie Mayhew has sold to John E. McDonough, for $1,000, all her right, title and interest in the play of "M'iss." This will allow of its production, by Miss Pixley, within the boundaries of New York state.

The local on Madame Rentz's minstrels, which appeared in the Examiner of Tuesday evening, should have been credited to the Albany Evening Journal, in which it had appeared once in the same words precisely.

Salvini is not doing well in Vienna, probably because the Viennese do not understand Italian, but many will attribute it to the luck of the house (the Ring Theatre) which has had nine managers in four years most of whom it has bankrupted.

Genevieve Ward is now resting in London after a successful tour through the English provinces, with her new play, "Forget Me Not." In February she appears at the Prince of Wales theatre, and next fall comes to the United States to star in the piece.

"Pico" the trick clown, who has been traveling with Coles' circus for several years, is the brother of George H. Adams, of Tony Denier's company. Their father, Charles H. Adams, who is the Grimaldi-Pantolon, recently celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of his wedding.

Joe Gaylord, of Philadelphia, will reorganize the Skiff & Gaylord minstrel company if he can secure a partner with sufficient capital. He says the troupe has a "thirty years standing reputation." The members of it also secured good reputation as walkers whenever it started out.

The Rice Surprise Party has the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York, in March, where "The Pirates of Penzance" is now being played. Mr. Ford is trying to buy Rice off, and has offered him $500 for that purpose. But he wants $1,200, and says he will not give up his date for a smaller amount.

Billy Kersands, the colored comedian, was discharged from Haverly's Georgia minstrels, in Indianapolis, a few days ago, for refusing to respond to an encore in conjunction with Tom McIntosh. In the sketch of "The Blacklie Quartette," Billy always was too fresh. Every manager with whom he has traveled of late has had trouble with him.

Two companies are being formed in New York to put "The Pirates of Penzance" on the road. One of these is principally made up out of the chorus, now singing at the Fifth Avenue, and will sing only in the small towns. The other is not yet complete enough to render possible a list of its names. Tompkins and Hill's offer of $20,000 for the exclusive rights in New England has not been accepted.

It is a great thing to have what is called nerve, and nothing contributes more to the power of physical country than named than warm safe nerve. It also relieves all kinds of pain, and cures headache and neuralgia.

Father is getting well. My daughter's case. How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters. He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable, and we are so glad that he used our Bitters.—A lady of Rochester, N. Y. 1152nd

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon hundreds of witnesses—one case in particular we cite.

Reigart's Old Brandy, A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhausted Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGarran's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a social man, with stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.
