

THE DRAMA. The "Illuminati" pronounced a Poor Play. Last evening the new play "The Illuminati" received its first production in this city before an audience which, although a good size, would have been a great deal larger had it not been for the unfavorable criticism of the play by the press of Philadelphia, where the piece was played during the whole of last week.

Death of an Old Citizen. Christian Berger, an old resident of this city, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Amos Deverter, on North Queen street, this afternoon about one o'clock, of consumption. Mr. Berger was born in Wurtemberg and has been living in Lancaster for forty years. He has two children living, one of whom is the wife of Mr. Deverter and the other of Jeremiah Snyder. Deceased was 70 years old to-day.

Incident. The inquest on the body of Isaac Knight who was killed on the railroad at Columbia on Saturday night will be concluded in the Coroner's office to-morrow afternoon at half past one o'clock instead of eight in the morning.

Delusion. Rev. D. H. Gessinger, late pastor of Grace church, this city, will this evening deliver the first of a course of lectures for the benefit of Grace Lutheran church, in its lecture room. His subject is "Delusion," and he will not doubt be a most interesting speaker. He is a pleasant speaker, and his old parishioners will delight to welcome him back.

Tobacco Inspectors. Elsewhere is printed the advertisement of Messrs. C. C. Hamilton & Co., of New York, tobacco inspectors, who have established a branch office in this city at 134 North Queen street, with Mr. Henry Trost as agent. Mr. Trost will promptly attend to orders left with him. By a mistake of the printer the name of the firm appeared in our advertising columns during the past few days as "Tobacco Inspectors." It should have read "Inspectors."

Amusements. The Minstrels To-night.—This evening the original New Orleans Minstrels will appear at the opera house. Their band, which is a very good one, will play a variety of music. The company includes Weiby and Pearl, song and dance men. Senator Frank Bell, Bob Robinson, Johnny Klotz, Mrs. Nellie Gordon and a number of others.

Don't Worry Me. "Don't worry me with your complaints about your teeth," said an annoyed father to his "sweet sixteen." "I told you to buy the SODIUM and use it," he said, "and you desert me to suffer. And so she did, and all other sweet sixteeners who act like her." m29-1w6d&w

From Hon. Andrew Cornwall, EX-MEMBER OF LEGISLATURE, NEW YORK STATE, ALEXANDRIA, VA., Jan. 3, 1880. H. H. Warner & Co. GENTS: I have been troubled with kidney difficulty for about three years, and in October last had a very severe attack. I then commenced taking your Sate Kidney and Liver Cure and obtained relief at once. I have used your medicine ever since, and it has always kept a supply of Warner's Sate Kidney and Liver Cure in the house.

THE MENSTRUATOR. The Easter concert and dance of the Lancaster Mannerchor, given in Mannerchor hall last evening, was very largely attended. The music, both vocal and instrumental, was of a high order of excellence, and the dancing and waltzing was fully up to the high German standard.

Resignation and Appointment. W. C. Pyle has resigned his position as police officer of the Eighth ward, to take effect on April 1st. John Harman has been appointed by the mayor to serve in his stead. Mr. Pyle is about to remove from the Eighth to the First ward.

Statistics prove that twenty-five per cent. of the deaths in our larger cities are caused by consumption, and when we reflect that this terrible disease in its worst stages will yield to a bottle of Locher's Renovation Cough Syrup, shall we condemn the sufferers for their negligence, or pity them for their ignorance?

Notice.—We were suffering the most excruciating pain from inflammatory rheumatism. One application of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil afforded almost instant relief, and two fifty cent bottles effected a permanent cure.

For sale by C. B. Cox, Caledonia, Minn. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Try Locher's Cough Syrup.
