ALMSHOUSE AND ASYLUM.

The Poor Directors in State Meeting. At a meeting of the poor directors of the counties of Pennsylvania, in state convention at Harrisburg yesterday, Lancaster was represented by E. F. Cox, superintendent of the almshouse and hospital, and Geo. Spurrer, treasurer of the board.

Resolved, That it is against public policy to admit able-bodied persons as inmates of a poorhouse.

Resolved, That the almshouse receive all cases applying for admission, for lying-in purposes, and that the fathers of the children be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Resolved, That the custody of the insane, (the curable as well as the incurable,) should be taken, with the qualifications hereafter mentioned, absolutely out of the hands of the poorhouse of the state, and of township overseers; that even the best county asylums afford insufficient safeguards for this class, and that a present fair standard of care cannot be relied on in view of the changes in economy and supervision liable to occur under different administrations.

Resolved, That so long as the provisions by the state looking to this end, through a poor capita allowance and hospital accommodations, continue to be insufficient as an economical inducement, the law becomes positively inoperative.

Resolved, That in view of the peculiar claims of this class for protection, at the hands of the state, the arrangements for them are reorganized so liberally in the eastern and western as some of the other states, by the entire assumption of the care and support of the insane, irrespective of condition as in Ohio; therefore,

Resolved, That measures in this direction should be taken promptly, as the several counties are contemplating the support of their insane at home, and are withdrawing their cases from the state hospitals into asylums that are being erected in connection with the poorhouses, by which the value of the curative advantages of our state hospitals will, in great part, be lost.

Resolved, That the discrimination in favor of the acute class being sent to the hospitals cannot be relied on, through a law limit their benefits to this class, although inoperative in its terms. But if imperative in requiring that all in poorhouses, curable or incurable, recent or chronic, shall be removed to the state hospitals, and that the removal of the chronic insane who are capable of self care and of rendering assistance in household and out-door work. Careful investigation shows that quite a number of these patients may be made as comfortable in poorhouses and be as well provided for at the same time and at less expense, as in the lunatic hospitals.

Resolved, That we recommend the passage of an act by the Legislature of the commonwealth, providing for the removal of children between two and sixteen years of age to any jail or poor house, and make the violation of the act a misdemeanor or punishable with penalties.

Accident to a Marketman. Before daybreak this morning Mr. Henry F. Trout, while driving on the Harrisburg turnpike northwest of this city, was killed by an accident which might have proved very serious, but fortunately did not. He was on his way to market with a load of produce and had his little daughter with him. Coming to a rough place in the pike he attempted to drive down to the summer road. As it was dark, he could not see that the pike at this point was several feet higher than the summer road, and supposing it to be only of the usual grade, he drove over the embankment, upsetting the wagon. His little one, who was seated nearby, was thrown through the darkness, but luckily the bolt that couples the front running gear to the other part of the vehicle fell out, and the horse ran away with the shafts and front wheels only, leaving Mr. Trout and his little girl unhurt in the other part of the vehicle. The horse was caught, and after daybreak Mr. Trout fixed up his wagon, gathered up his marketing and came on to Lancaster.

Bitten by a Dog. Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock a little boy aged about eight years, a son of Mr. B. Lewin, was bitten on the face by a small dog belonging to Charles Knapp, grocer, North Queen street. Mr. Lewin had brought his family to Lancaster to participate in the observance of the Hebrew New Year. While walking on the Queen street, Master Lewin saw a little dog of Mr. Knapp playing with his pet dog on Major Howell's front steps. He stopped to look at or take part in the sport, and playfully struck or struck at the dog. Instantly the dog sprang at him, seized his trousers, and bit the little boy's cheek, and lacerating it severely. Mr. Lewin sucked the wound and had it cauterized by Dr. Abrigat. There is no fear entertained that it will result seriously. At the request of Mr. Knapp, the owners of the dog, Mr. Knapp had the dog shot. It was a pet and had been for years the companion of the little girl with whom it was playing at the time it bit the little boy, and would allow no one to lay a hand on its little mistress.

A Wedding at Litz. Miss Alice, daughter of Peter S. Reist, of Litz, was married yesterday. This is the second time she has been married in the Moravian church there and the services were conducted by Rev. Chas. Nagle, pastor of the church, in accordance with the Moravian forms. The attendance was large and the party quite brilliant, there being a large number of friends present from Philadelphia, Reading, Bethlehem, Lancaster and other places. After the marriage the bride and groom received their friends at the residence of the bride's parents, where they were very handsomely entertained. The bride's party left Litz in the afternoon train for a tour to the White Mountains.

Good Fields. John P. Freed, of Upper Oxford, had a yield of 100 bushels of Peerless potatoes from one third of an acre of ground. William C. Mullen, of Rocky Springs, Cecil county, had a yield of 284 bushels of wheat per acre from an eight-acre field. This is a clever crop for the farmers—so big in fact that the land has certainly got over all the barren nature it ever possessed.

William Armstrong, of the Fourth district, Cecil county, Md., has nine profitable winter wools from lambs, which sold at $4.50 each, and the fleeces of the ewes sold for $2.55 each, making the snug sum of $85.05 profit during the year.

Accidents. Harry Brenner tried to board a freight train to ride from Columbia to Lancaster, but he was violently thrown to the ground and severely injured.

Case Settled. To-day Nan Butler, colored, was to have had a hearing before Aldermen Donnelly, of the Seventh ward, on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by J. Patterson. When the parties met together at the alderman's office, they settled the suit by Nan paying the costs.

Hancock Tomatoes. We are indebted to Frederick Hartman for a sample of tomatoes which he names "Hancock." On a single stalk, grouped closely together, were six immense tomatoes weighing 12 pounds. They were of good shape and of a handsome flavor, whether cooked or uncooked.

Political Bulletin. Conference Committee. This (Wednesday) evening being the regular meeting evening of the general Democratic conference committee of the ward clubs and the members of the campaign committee are requested to meet at the Central Headquarters at 7 1/2 p. m.

Campaign Committee. The members of the city campaign committee are expected to all be in attendance at the SUICIDE.

John Sheak Mangle Himself. John Sheak, a bachelor farmer, aged between 50 and 55 years, residing about half way between Conestoga Centre and Shenk's Ferry, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself in his barn. He ate his breakfast as usual yesterday morning, and about 11 o'clock his dead body was found hanging in the barn. Deputy Coroner John Brenner was at once summoned. He impaled a jury consisting of Jacob Good, Andrew Good, Henry Hess, Samuel Rankin, John Jones and Christian E. Miller. They rendered a verdict of suicide. No cause can be assigned for the rash act.

WASHINGTON BOROUGHS ITEMS.

From Our Correspondent. One of our citizens has a hat of the original style worn when Penn's treaty was made. It is well preserved. The tobacco is nearly all housed. Everybody seems happy in the prospect that the crop will turn out quite as good as last year's.

Assaulted in the Wigwam. Augustus Roadman, watchman at the Sixth ward wigwam, declares that last night about midnight three unknown men entered the wigwam, fired a pistol at him, and struck him over the head with the butt of the pistol, inflicting severe wounds. He does not know who his assailants were nor what was the object of their assault. They were well dressed and had on high hats.

The Republican Pole at Salunga. A correspondent assures us that the Republican pole raised at Salunga is only 92 feet in height, and being part of poplar and part of pine, will not be likely to stand the news from Indiana next month. Eshehman and Franklin remade old speeches of '76 and four voters from Springfield. The crowd was disorderly and in all the meeting was 'small potatoes and few in the bill.'

Chicken Thieves Shot at. At Millway, on the R. & C. railroad last night about 12 o'clock two persons were in the act of robbing a hen roost on the premises of P. S. Brubaker who was away from home. Mrs. Brubaker heard the chickens screaming, she took the revolver, went out on the balcony about 20 yards from the thieves, and fired several shots at them. They left the bag drop and fled into the woods. Mrs. Brubaker is master of the property when P. S. is away from home.

Off for Kansas. On the last west this afternoon Jno. B. Warfel, esq., of the New Era, Rev. Frank J. Levin, D. D., of Rome; M. E. Franklin, esq., of Potosi; J. S. Reist, of Litz; and Bishop Vail, of Topeka, Kan., who has been sojourning here, left for Kansas with the Keeney excursion of capitalists and newspaper men, who are going West on a grand tour of general inspection.

A Snake Charmer. The snake man is in town to-day giving free exhibitions on the corner, to the delight of the small boys and to the disgust of everybody else. He allows the reptiles to crawl all over him, and makes the proprietor rich. He sticks their forked tongues in his mouth, and some of the boys declare he diversifies the show by occasionally swallowing a snake.

In Town. R. A. Malone, who has a large contract in Boston, is in the city on a visit. H. N. Breneeman, of Cincinnati, brother of B. Frank Breneeman, of this city, is in town.

Pay Your Taxes. All persons who have taxes to pay should do so at once, as Collector Warfel will be in the court house but a few evenings yet.

New Catholic Church. The dedication of the new Catholic church near Pleasant Grove, this county, is announced to take place on the 19th inst.

Rockland Street S. S. To-morrow evening the Rockland Union-temperance school will give a free entertainment in the East Orange street public school building, commencing at a quarter before 8 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Amusements. Ada Gray in "East Lynne" To-night.—Miss Ada Gray, who will appear in the leading role of Mrs. Wood's famous emotional drama of "East Lynne," to-night, comes heralded as an actress of uncommon power. Though a stranger in this region the credentials which she brings from so respectable a source as the Cincinnati daily papers ought to secure her a hearing. The Commercial of that city says: "There is a subtle refinement in every look and every movement that few actresses possess, and delicacy in her stroke of sentiment that can spring alone from intuition. Her thorough and complete assumption of the part tells how great a mistress of her art Miss Gray is. She has thrown her strong nature boldly in her personation, which is not only grand, but a beautiful piece of art."
