"Cause if you hadn't gone you see "You'd have two legs to canter me." "Why, child, I went because" and then I stopped to think. Of course I knew; I'd often told her brother Ben

When the recital filled me through,

And still she urged, "What did you for?

Papa, what made you go to war?" I looked abroad. The blacks were free, But voiceless, voteless, filled with woe Slaves of their masters seemed to be As much as twenty years ago. She said, "and what did Uncle Dorr

Get killed in front of Richmond for." A rifle club went wheeling by; I saw the murdered Chisolm's ghost; I heard the Hamburg Martyr crv-

The rebel yell-the vaunting boast; I saw the wounds of patriot dead; "What made me go?" my Jennie said. "My dear," I said-but nothing more, For, glancing through the Senate halls,

The rebel generals had the floor. And ruled the nation's council halls!

"Papa," she urged, "why did you go?" "My. child," I said, I do not know. -Detroit Post and Tribune THE ANSWER. No wonder, you base hearted churl,

That when that lovely little girl Climbed on your knee and asked, for ?" "And why did papa go to war?"

You turned and blushed, and stammered so, And, LYING said, "I do not know." You dared not tell that guileless child, Who'd read of battles fierce and wild, That when the call for troops was made,

Incited by the greed of gain, You joined the home guard wagon-train, Afar from battles wild turn oil. Your only view of Rebel soil Was gained from keeping in the rear, And robbing ben-roosts far and near. You know you never heard a shell, Or listened to the "Rebel yell."

Induced by bounties freely paid,

Your only thought through all the strife Was to preserve your worthless life; And well you managed not to hear The "Rebel yell" or "Union cheer" In front of Richmond's storm of heli Where " Uncle Dorr " and thousands fell.

They nobly fought, and nobly died, Not dreaming that your party lied, That all their talk of "Union" meant To hold the reins of power, and vent Their spleen and hatred on the South; Such men as you fought with the mouth,

Be honest, now, my one-legged friend, (If such a word you comprehend,) Tell "Jennie" that you did not go, That all your talk is simply "blow;" And tell her how your fame was won-"Kicked by a mule in Washington,"

Since, " while the lamp holds out to burn, The vilest sinner may return," Such frauds as you may yet repent And vote for honest government; While North and South alike rejole In HANCOCK as the nation's choice. -Detroit Free Press.

Arousing its Readers. An alarm of fire at midnight is a startling thing, but not half so startling to many who hear it as would be the sudden knowledge of their own dangerous physical condition. Thousands of thousands are hurrying to their graves because they are carelessly indifferent to the insidious inroads of disease and the means of cure. It is the mission of H. H. Warner & Co., with their Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, to arous: men to a sense of their danger and then cure them.—Memphis Appeal.

Peter Kieffer, cor. Clinton and Bennett streets, Euffalo, says: I was badly bitten by a lorse a few days ago and was induced by a friend who witnessed the occurrence to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, it relieved the pain almost immediately, and in four days the wound was completely healed. ## INVESTIGATION!

DR. GREENE has successfully treated over 800 of the most difficult chronic (so called) in-curable cases during a seven month's practice. The most of them had been the rounds of the leading physicians of Lancaster county. Now DR. GREENE is ready at any time to meet a committee of the Lancaster County Medical committee of the Lancaster County Medical Society at the Opera House or elsewhere to discuss the merits of Omnipathy its superiority over all other pathies in vogue.

The people are greatly interested and demand the fullest investigation. Invalids are every week dying in this county whose lives could be saved. Is there any subject about which the masses are more concerned than restoration to health, and the prolonging of their lives?
