

Lancaster Intelligencer.

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 11, 1880.

Why They Quit It. It is not much wonder that old-time Republicans throughout the country...

That the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the states, and especially of the right of each state to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its own judgment exclusively, is essential to that balance of powers on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depends...

Where can be found better Democratic doctrine than this? Where is there an example of greater political aberration than in the present attitude of the Republican party toward this principle?

It will be seen that the claim was made that frauds in the national administration justified an "entire change." But what were the "startling developments" of that day in comparison with those of the past few years?

A PECULIAR FEW of the "business men" of Lancaster have good ground to fear that their business interests would be imperilled by Democratic success.

Then there is our good friend James H. Marshall, "which is postmaster," what will become of his business if Hancock be elected?

THE Republican head of the interior department gives to the public the results of that department's investigation into the alleged census frauds in South Carolina.

ONE of the Philadelphia white lead manufacturers posted up a notice that if Hancock were elected he would reduce his laborers wages to 60 cents a day.

THE Philadelphia white lead manufacturers posted up a notice that if Hancock were elected he would reduce his laborers wages to 60 cents a day.

the Hog drovers and Bull-ringers, who run Lancaster county Republicanism buy and sell their voters at the primaries.

SENATOR EATON, representing nearly all the mill owners of New England and on their petition, introduced a bill providing for a commission of experts to draft a comprehensive tariff bill...

AN OUTRAGE. For the INTELLIGENCER: I see in the Columbia correspondence of the New Era an account of the cutting down of a Garfield pole at Prospect hill school house, Manor township.

MINOR TOPICS. An enterprising New York advertiser and "business man" takes advantage of the latest popular hit by inserting this striking card:

IN accordance with the latest rapid transit plan in Brooklyn, devised under the auspices of a commission appointed by the mayor...

THE INTELLIGENCER'S earnest deprecation of the local attempts to introduce partisan views into the purely business relations of our every day life...

PERSONAL. Mr. GEORGE BANCROFT, the venerable historian, will probably head the list of Hancock electors in Rhode Island.

General Hancock says that he has had only one application for office as yet, and that was from a man who wished to go as minister to Corea.

STATE ITEMS. Chas. McCabe and Jas. Connell, two old men of Honesdale, quarrelled over politics and Connell was fatally stabbed.

Chas. McCabe and Jas. Connell, two old men of Honesdale, quarrelled over politics and Connell was fatally stabbed.

GRAVED BY HER DEATH. A Young Preacher's Funeral Sermon and Sudden Inauguration.

Incoherence at the Funeral of the Young Woman he Loved—Making a Slave in the Attacking Strangers.

There was great excitement in this city (Reading) this (Saturday) evening when it was learned that the Rev. James A. Shultz, a well-known young minister of the Reformed church, had been picked up in the street after he had received a severe beating in a fight on the leading thoroughfare of the city.

At the business meeting held last night Judge Galbraith, of the Erie car works and the Burdett organ company; Orange Noble, of the Noble & Hall boiler works; John H. Bliss, of the Erie City iron works; and a large number of business men, mechanics and laborers of the city were present at the Republican headquarters and ready to discuss the business issues.

After his identity was established at the police station Mr. Shultz was carried home. His rooms were found to be in terrible disorder. He had smashed all the furniture, pictures, ornaments and other things in the room.

At a late hour to-night he was still unconscious from the effects of the blow he received on the head from the bill in the hands of one of the men he attacked on the street.

Political Discussion Leading to Murder—Charges and Countercharges. Political excitement has become intense in Indiana and culminated on Saturday in two serious affrays at Shelbyville and one at Evansville.

THE Irving institute, a young ladies' school at West Farms, N. J., was burned last Thursday night. It was to have opened to-day.

THE Cincinnati industrial exposition closed on Saturday. Three hundred thousand persons have visited it. It realized $5,000 clear profit.

THE body of Patrick Kirwin, one of the men killed by the Hudson River tunnel disaster, was recovered yesterday. Three more bodies are in the water.

THE Cincinnati industrial exposition closed on Saturday. Three hundred thousand persons have visited it. It realized $5,000 clear profit.

has accepted the challenge and a match will ensue.

Saturday night the McClure house, at Red Rock, five miles east of Bradford, caught fire. The lamp explosion was destroyed, with the railroad depot and two small buildings.

One of the Sunday papers of New York has the following obituary notice of the late deceased brother of A. J. and H. W. Harberger, of this city:

JOHN S. HARBARGER'S DEATH. President of One of Two New York City Banks Whose Charters Near Date of the Last Session.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. Large Manufacturing Building Burned and Machinery Destroyed—Dwelling and House Injured.

On Sunday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, the large frame building, situated on Plum street, north of Marion alley, was discovered to be on fire and in a short time was totally destroyed.

A gentleman who has been in the employ of the bank for thirty years said that he never knew Mr. Harberger to lose his temper or speak harshly to any of his assistants, even under the most trying circumstances.

A HORSE RUNS THROUGH A SALOON GLASS. Graybill Bickhart drove into the city from Gettysburg, this morning, with a fine gray horse hitched to a buggy.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. GEORGETOWN AND VICINITY. A Budget of News From Bart.

THE trial of several cases, being suits for damages for injuries sustained by the accident on the Pickering Valley railroad on October 4, 1877, is set down for this week in our court.

THE trial of several cases, being suits for damages for injuries sustained by the accident on the Pickering Valley railroad on October 4, 1877, is set down for this week in our court.

has accepted the challenge and a match will ensue.

Saturday night the McClure house, at Red Rock, five miles east of Bradford, caught fire. The lamp explosion was destroyed, with the railroad depot and two small buildings.

One of the Sunday papers of New York has the following obituary notice of the late deceased brother of A. J. and H. W. Harberger, of this city:

JOHN S. HARBARGER'S DEATH. President of One of Two New York City Banks Whose Charters Near Date of the Last Session.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. Large Manufacturing Building Burned and Machinery Destroyed—Dwelling and House Injured.

On Sunday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, the large frame building, situated on Plum street, north of Marion alley, was discovered to be on fire and in a short time was totally destroyed.

A gentleman who has been in the employ of the bank for thirty years said that he never knew Mr. Harberger to lose his temper or speak harshly to any of his assistants, even under the most trying circumstances.

A HORSE RUNS THROUGH A SALOON GLASS. Graybill Bickhart drove into the city from Gettysburg, this morning, with a fine gray horse hitched to a buggy.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. GEORGETOWN AND VICINITY. A Budget of News From Bart.

THE trial of several cases, being suits for damages for injuries sustained by the accident on the Pickering Valley railroad on October 4, 1877, is set down for this week in our court.

THE trial of several cases, being suits for damages for injuries sustained by the accident on the Pickering Valley railroad on October 4, 1877, is set down for this week in our court.

has accepted the challenge and a match will ensue.

Saturday night the McClure house, at Red Rock, five miles east of Bradford, caught fire. The lamp explosion was destroyed, with the railroad depot and two small buildings.

One of the Sunday papers of New York has the following obituary notice of the late deceased brother of A. J. and H. W. Harberger, of this city:

JOHN S. HARBARGER'S DEATH. President of One of Two New York City Banks Whose Charters Near Date of the Last Session.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. Large Manufacturing Building Burned and Machinery Destroyed—Dwelling and House Injured.

On Sunday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, the large frame building, situated on Plum street, north of Marion alley, was discovered to be on fire and in a short time was totally destroyed.

A gentleman who has been in the employ of the bank for thirty years said that he never knew Mr. Harberger to lose his temper or speak harshly to any of his assistants, even under the most trying circumstances.

A HORSE RUNS THROUGH A SALOON GLASS. Graybill Bickhart drove into the city from Gettysburg, this morning, with a fine gray horse hitched to a buggy.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. GEORGETOWN AND VICINITY. A Budget of News From Bart.

THE trial of several cases, being suits for damages for injuries sustained by the accident on the Pickering Valley railroad on October 4, 1877, is set down for this week in our court.

THE trial of several cases, being suits for damages for injuries sustained by the accident on the Pickering Valley railroad on October 4, 1877, is set down for this week in our court.

has accepted the challenge and a match will ensue.

Saturday night the McClure house, at Red Rock, five miles east of Bradford, caught fire. The lamp explosion was destroyed, with the railroad depot and two small buildings.

One of the Sunday papers of New York has the following obituary notice of the late deceased brother of A. J. and H. W. Harberger, of this city:

JOHN S. HARBARGER'S DEATH. President of One of Two New York City Banks Whose Charters Near Date of the Last Session.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. Large Manufacturing Building Burned and Machinery Destroyed—Dwelling and House Injured.

On Sunday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, the large frame building, situated on Plum street, north of Marion alley, was discovered to be on fire and in a short time was totally destroyed.

A gentleman who has been in the employ of the bank for thirty years said that he never knew Mr. Harberger to lose his temper or speak harshly to any of his assistants, even under the most trying circumstances.

A HORSE RUNS THROUGH A SALOON GLASS. Graybill Bickhart drove into the city from Gettysburg, this morning, with a fine gray horse hitched to a buggy.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. GEORGETOWN AND VICINITY. A Budget of News From Bart.

THE trial of several cases, being suits for damages for injuries sustained by the accident on the Pickering Valley railroad on October 4, 1877, is set down for this week in our court.

THE trial of several cases, being suits for damages for injuries sustained by the accident on the Pickering Valley railroad on October 4, 1877, is set down for this week in our court.