

SUMMER FESTIVITIES.

SUPPERS, DANCING AND FESTIVALS.

The Knights of Pythias Remember Their Lady Friends—Y. M. C. A. Festival—Birthdays.

The strawberry festival of the Young Men's Christian association opened in their hall last evening, and was fairly patronized. The hall was very tastefully decorated with a profusion of American flags arranged around the walls and in the chandeliers.

Last evening's Inland division, No. 7, Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias, gave a sociable and supper in Excelsior hall, to their lady friends who lent their valuable aid to make the recent fair of the division a success.

Yesterday Mr. John Burger "came of age" and his fellow members of the Union fire company determined to give a fitting celebration of his change from boyhood to manhood.

From Our Regular Correspondent. A Walnut street family are much annoyed by a crow which has lately lived under the weather boarding of their house yesterday, and would like to know what means to pursue to rid themselves of their unwelcome neighbor.

A miller from York county fell from the front of the wagon on which he was sitting as he was crossing a gutter on Fourth street, yesterday, and narrowly escaped being crushed under the heavily laden vehicle.

The young folks had a delightful time at their picnic on Chiques Rock, yesterday, although their pleasure was somewhat lessened by the showers which prevailed.

Mr. Joseph Dean's back pay amounts to $7,792, a check for that amount having been received last evening. He will hereafter receive a monthly pension of $72.

Mr. Joseph McCall has one of the first editions of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, a little sheet then only eleven by fifteen inches, quite a contrast to the present ample dimensions of that paper. He has received an offer of $5 from a relic hunter.

The late Thomas M. Hall's funeral services will be held in Cookman's M. E. chapel to-morrow at 3 o'clock, p. m. Deceased came originally from Chester county.

On account of several of the members of the tower committee of the Columbia fire company being absent, last evening, the award for the building of the hose tower was not given out.

One of the most cheering nights in this place is Purple's greenhouse. Here it must be a curiosity.

A ball will be held in the armory to-night by a number of young ladies. The weather is too hot for such an amusement.

A riding party will leave town this evening for a jaunt into the country. The beauties there to be found are enough to tempt any person to flee the town.

Willis Piers left for his home in New York this morning after passing a pleasant vacation among familiar scenes here.

Phil Gossett will scour Bucks county for game during the next three weeks, having left to day for a visit to Mr. Robert Crane in the rural districts.

Westminster Presbyterian.

The Home Missionary Presbyterian society of Westminster presbytery, composed of the churches of York, Lancaster and Lebanon counties, held in York, yesterday, its first meeting since its organization last February. The church was redolent with the odor of flowers.

A Harp tuned in Brecknock. A dispatch from Reading this afternoon says: "Additional reports received to-day, show that last night's storm was one of the greatest for years. A force of men was kept at work nearly all night in repairing the break, caused by the washout at Perkiomen Junction, on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad.

The Ephrata Church Case. In the opinion of the supreme court in the Ephrata church case, as printed in the INTELLIGENCER last evening, occurred the following:

The will of Mrs. Sarah Mulvaney, of Vine street, who was buried on Wednesday last, has been admitted to probate. She died after her husband's death, and her will is paid, $100 shall be set apart to pay for masses for the repose of her soul; and the balance of her estate she bequeaths to the Little Sisters of the Poor, Philadelphia.

The funeral of Harry Reed, who was killed on Friday night by falling from a window at Shober's hotel, took place this afternoon from the residence of his sister on Green street. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives, including the employees of Attek & Son's carriage shops, whose deceased was employed. The interment was made at the Lancaster cemetery.

Bridge Location. Yesterday the county commissioners, accompanied by S. C. Slaymaker, civil engineer, paid a visit to Myer's Farming, between Rapho and East Donegal township, on the Little Chickies creek, and located a bridge which will be built as soon as proposals can be let.

Drunk and Disorderly. Ruth Woods, colored, was arrested and committed to jail by Alderman Alex. Donnelly for a hearing of drunken and disorderly conduct, proffered against her.

Before the Mayor. The mayor had but four vagrants, three men and a woman, this morning, and they were all discharged.

Good Approved. The postoffice department has approved the $500 bond of Ben. F. Diffeuffer, postmaster at Old Lion, this county.

The Queen's Model. Zeller & Woodward, the energetic and active music dealers, who are ever ahead in such matters have to-day received from the Mason & Hamlin organ manufactory the Queen's Model organ. It is a fine specimen of the organ recently made by Mason & Hamlin from furnished specifications, and is a fine specimen of their Gracious Majesty Victoria, Queen of England. This organ, the finest ever brought to Lancaster, can be seen in Zeller & Woodward's window, No. 28 West King street.

SECOND EDITION.

PRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 8, 1883.

TO-DAY'S NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE. The Trials of the Conspirators Began in Dublin—The Various Haces in London—Treason Among the Runners.

DUBLIN, June 8.—The trials of the murder conspirators Kingston and Gibney have been postponed. They were admitted to bail.

The prisoner Poole was to-day acquitted of the charge of conspiring to murder and was immediately re-arrested on the charge of murdering Kenney, in Seville place.

The race to-day for the Alexandria Plate was won by Faugh a Ballagh, with Wallenstein second.

The race for the Workman stakes was won by Donnell with Hornsbe second and Tyndrum third. There were sixteen starters, including Lorillard's Aranza.

The Hadwick stakes was won by Tristan, with Lorillard's Iroquois second. There were nine starters in this race.

LABOR TROUBLES. Hundreds of Miners Make Demonstrations in Western Coal Fields.

ST. LOUIS, June 8.—Information has been received here that a band of from 300 to 400 striking miners left Belleville, Illinois, yesterday, bearing a banner with the inscription "Bread or Blood." No body seemed to know their destination, but it is believed that they left for Collinsville, where the machine mines are situated.

Dispatches have been received that a demonstration of a crowd probably made at the Abbey mines or Collinsville this morning, but whether it would be hostile or merely a quiet conference is not known.

All the men engaged in these mines are well armed and are said to be under orders to fire upon any party who lay hands on any of the mining property. It is thought the party will be about 600 strong when they arrive at Collinsville.
