

DE LEON FOUND GUILTY. HE MAY GET FIFTEEN YEARS IN A NEW YORK PRISON.

Only One Witness Testified For the Defense. Mrs. Howes Was Kidnapped—The Closing Proceedings of a Sensational Trial in New York.

"Professor" John De Leon was found guilty on Thursday, in the court of general sessions, New York, of kidnapping Mrs. Sarah Howes out of the state. The minimum penalty is fifteen years' imprisonment.

Another Tell Tale Letter. Henry W. J. Bailey was the next witness called. He said: "I am superintendent of the Pacific Mail Steamship company in New York."

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

De Leon, on the 14th day of September and that on that day the City of Paris sailed. I saw the defendant, John De Leon, on that day at the company's office at the dock.

WILSON'S RAPID TRAVEL FROM ALLIANCE TO COUNTY JAIL—SURRENDERED BY HIS WIFE.

The certain prospect of being about to fulfill the matrimonial career of "Doc" Levi Wilson. The erstwhile nabob in the narrow confines of a prison cell, in Providence, R. I., deserted by all his friends.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

Wilson's great attempt on the 1st of December last to make people believe his name was the name of a prominent manufacturer of Worcester, from whom he had received large sums of money.

JAMES H. JACOBS IN COURT. A LARVA FOUND TO BE THE NUMBER OF EIGHTH WARD.

He is Formally Arraigned and Through His Counsel Pleads Not Guilty—His Trial Fixed for the Week Ending Monday, March 7. His Actions in Court.

Thursday Afternoon—Upon the re-assembling of court the trial of Peter E. Hess and Edward Aiken for the larceny of tobacco from the Gap warehouse, and Hess and Levi Eckert for the larceny of turkeys from a car, was resumed.

The commonwealth called a number of witnesses to sustain their allegation that the accused was guilty of the offense charged.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

For the defense it was claimed that Hess and Aiken knew nothing of the larceny of the tobacco. They admitted that they were at the Gap on the day of the larceny but not at the time the tobacco was stolen.

FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL CENTENAL. THE COMMITTEE FOR THE PURPOSE OF ARRANGING FOR THE CELEBRATION OF THE CENTENAL OF FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL COLLEGE.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

The committee for the purpose of arranging for the celebration of the centennial of Franklin and Marshall college, appointed a sub-committee consisting of Dr. T. G. Hager, Dr. J. S. Stair and Mr. John C. Apple to carry out the plans for the celebration.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS. A NUMBER OF BILLS REPORTED FAVORABLY BY THE HOUSE.

Those That Were Introduced—Mr. Davis, of this District, fails in his attempt to place the Revenue and Constitutional Amendment Bills on Special Calendar.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 21.—Bills were reported favorably in the House requiring seats to be furnished female employes in manufacturing, mechanical and mechanical establishments; for the abolition of blacklisting employes in any additional law judge in Montgomery county; allowing married women to make contracts out of their separate earnings; for punishment of persons injuring the property of live stock; depriving defendants of the benefit of the exemption laws in cases where a judgment for wages amounting to $100 or less has been obtained; for the better government of the cities of the 4th class.

A bill was negatively prohibiting the soliciting of votes within one hundred feet or less of the polls.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

There is not one citizen out of every fifty in Pennsylvania who is acquainted with the title of the laws passed by our legislatures, let alone the full text of the acts, and consequently the people are ignorant of the laws which govern them.

INTER-STATE COMMERCE. THE HOUSE VOTES TO ADOPT THE HOUSE REPORT.

Two Pennsylvanians Among the Forty-One Members Who Oppose It—115 Votes for Approval or Rejection by the President.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The vote of the House on concurring in the conference report on the inter-state commerce bill was 219, says L. The inter-state commerce bill will now go to the president for his approval.

After the reading of the journal the House adopted the conference report of the inter-state commerce bill—yeas 219, nays 41. The negative voters were as follows: Allen (Miss.), Alderson (Ohio), Biles, Boutelle, Boyle, Briggs, Brumm, Campbell (Ohio), Caswell, Dabbig, Ely, Evans, Fenton, Finckley, Fredericks, Gay, Gilliland, Greenway, Hayden, Hill, Johnson (N. Y.), Kelly, Keckham, Libby, Long, Markham, Martin, McKenna, Miller, Morrow, Oates, O'Neill (Pa.), O'Neill (Ohio), Ranney, Reed (Me.), Rice, Seymour, Watworth, Watt, Weaver (Pa.), White (Pa.).

The bill, after being enrolled, will now go to the president for his approval.

A communication from the president with a letter from Samuel C. Reed, was presented offering the nation the sword of his father, Captain Reed, who commanded the privateer, Frederick, Gray, Gilliland, Greenway, Hayden, Hill, Johnson (N. Y.), Kelly, Keckham, Libby, Long, Markham, Martin, McKenna, Miller, Morrow, Oates, O'Neill (Pa.), O'Neill (Ohio), Ranney, Reed (Me.), Rice, Seymour, Watworth, Watt, Weaver (Pa.), White (Pa.).

Mr. Colquitt presented a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. He said that he assumed no responsibility for the starting facts revealed in the petition; but he did answer for the pure motives and high character of those who laid it before the House.

Mr. Colquitt presented a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. He said that he assumed no responsibility for the starting facts revealed in the petition; but he did answer for the pure motives and high character of those who laid it before the House.

Mr. Colquitt presented a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. He said that he assumed no responsibility for the starting facts revealed in the petition; but he did answer for the pure motives and high character of those who laid it before the House.

Mr. Colquitt presented a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. He said that he assumed no responsibility for the starting facts revealed in the petition; but he did answer for the pure motives and high character of those who laid it before the House.

Mr. Colquitt presented a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. He said that he assumed no responsibility for the starting facts revealed in the petition; but he did answer for the pure motives and high character of those who laid it before the House.

Mr. Colquitt presented a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. He said that he assumed no responsibility for the starting facts revealed in the petition; but he did answer for the pure motives and high character of those who laid it before the House.

Mr. Colquitt presented a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. He said that he assumed no responsibility for the starting facts revealed in the petition; but he did answer for the pure motives and high character of those who laid it before the House.

Mr. Colquitt presented a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. He said that he assumed no responsibility for the starting facts revealed in the petition; but he did answer for the pure motives and high character of those who laid it before the House.

STAGNANT JAMES HUNTERS. COMMITTEE MANAGER, OF PHILADELPHIA, GIVES HIM A WARM ROASTING.

John Phillips, committee on Thursday in the joint session, James McManes, Henry R. Shultz and Edward A. Gaskill, who were recently named by the Republican caucus, were elected directors of the Philadelphia & Erie railroad.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.

Phillips being made that the nominations close Mr. Maloney, of the First ward, said he was not prepared to consent to the closing of the nominations. He said that as a Republican in the caucus it was his duty to oppose James McManes.