MANAGER, JUNE 6, 1888. THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER publishes all the news of the United States...

Grever Cleveland. Today the Democratic national convention in St. Louis will renominate for president of this republic Grover Cleveland...

When Samuel J. Tilden was elected to the chair of chief executive of the nation and defrauded therefrom, the name of Grover Cleveland was unknown to many in the city of Buffalo, New York...

His administration of the office of president has been marked by the same signal success that characterized his entire past career. His unerring selection of officials for places of high trust...

And now the time has come around to place the verdict of approval upon the work of this model president, this worthy servant of the people. From Maine to Florida, from Texas to Oregon...

Are Criminals Crazy? Before the International Congress of Anthropologists, Dr. Henry Mandley, of England, read a paper on "Crime and Criminals," in which he treated of the growing disposition in some quarters to look upon every criminal as an unsound person...

THE REMARK HAS OFTEN BEEN heard in this city that "Cash prices interfere with the regular channels of the grocery trade." Do they? The low cash prices of the Original and Only Cash Grocer...

PERSONAL. PROFESSOR JOHN CONRAD LEBRECHT, a well-known educator of Baltimore, died on Monday, aged 69 years.

A New Departure. Generally the vice presidential nomination occupies very little of the attention of a national convention; and never before now has it been the absorbing question of interest.

The people who have urged that he is too old for the nomination, evidently do not keep their hands on the popular pulse. It is his age that lends additional attraction and strength to his candidacy.

would were he a candidate for president. It is true that he may reach that office by accident; but this accident has never seemed so imminent as to call for the scrutiny of a physical and mental features of a vice presidential candidate...

The Democratic convention in nominating Mr. Thurman will make a great departure from the usual plan of presenting a less prominent man as well as a younger man for the second place.

Cleveland, with all his strength of character, must yield to Thurman in magnetic influence. He is colder in temperament and commands respect in fuller measure than affection.

On Sunday next there will be a big boys' meet in this city, which will attract attention throughout the state. It is interesting to look at the question of the tariff in relation to bicycles.

THE silver-tongued Daniel Dougherty presides Cleveland's name for president in the St. Louis convention. When he named Hancock in 1880 at Cincinnati, he was a Pennsylvania, and Hancock was bested.

Engineering News has a carefully prepared article on the actual status of the Panama canal, which is accompanied by a profile sketch showing the amount of work done to January 1, of the present year.

For those who in their wills provide for masses for the dead, it may be well to recall that the New York court of appeals has decided that a bequest for masses is perfectly legitimate and proper if the particular church or churches or priest be specified in the will.

PERSONAL. MISS GRACE ELIZABETH MATTHEWS, daughter of Justice Matthews, of the supreme court of the United States, and Mr. John Harlan Cleveland, of Kentucky, nephew of Justice Harlan, were married Tuesday at the residence of the bride's father in Washington.

FRANK McLAUGHLIN has won his suit against the Beech Creek railroad company. McLaughlin contended to build seven sections of the railroad, but a dispute arose as to measurements. Rather than go to law, McLaughlin was willing to compromise his claim of $29,000 by taking $12,000, but the company declined. Then arbitrators were chosen, who gave him more than $20,000 in excess of the amount for which he originally agreed to compromise.

Killed by a Walking Match. William Bauerator, a pedestrian who won third place in a walking match in Baltimore last week, died Tuesday of pneumonia. He had been walking with a vitality supported by the strain on his constitution consequent upon his exertions last week.

WANNAMAKERS. PHILADELPHIA, Wednesday, June 6, 1888. Bargains in Cotton goods echo through the aisles like the notes of a song: Gingham, 10 to 50c. Satens, 12 1/2 to 37 1/2c. Seersuckers, 5 to 12 1/2c. Shirtings, 6 to 15c.

Nothing for dress so easy to do up as Crazy Crepe. A little care in Sun drying so the garment won't get askew. That's all. The jumbled, tumbled look is part of the beauty. A surface of crinkles, wrinkles, and thread wrinkles, and the printed designs as exact as on Saten or Challis. How is it possible? Never mind. There's no breezier, easier stuff to go out with. Colors and patterns. 12 1/2c.

Curtains of soft, swaying color, or crisp, creamy mesh. Cottage or palace. Canvas (special), 90c a pair. Nottingham, 8 and 11 1/2 a pair. Tenthredin Mullin, 2 1/2 a pair. Madras, colors (special), 85c a pair. These only suggest. A roomful of sorts.

Floor Linens. Honest flax. No jute or waste; no regrets. A few pieces of 180-inch at $1.50. Near Women's Waiting Room. Linen Lawns. Sheer, clean, cool; Hot weather stuffs that won't wash mean or lousy. White grounds colored spots and figures, 22, 30 to 40c. Also solid color grounds of navy, black, white.

Linen Crepe Towels, 12 1/2c. Spongy, generous. You've seen them before, but never a more cheerful money's worth. On a special counter near middle Chestnut street entrance. Large Plaid Linen suitable for Children's Dresses. You and we have thought it good value at 20 cents. To-day 15 cents.

90 inch Sheetting Linen, 68 cents. Grand value. Ladies' White Unlaundered Initial Handkerchiefs, 12 1/2c. Broken lots. The whole Linen section is a-brim with things in which the value is just as big. Something new in white handled table cutlery. Like ivory. Only an expert can tell it from ivory, but the price is almost exactly half. Stands hot weather; won't crack. Everything in the cutlery way that hotels, boarding houses, or private families need. Interesting prices always. Judge by these: Celluloid Handle Dinner Knives, $2.75; regularly $3.50. Celluloid Handle Dinner Knives, $2.90; regularly $3.50. Celluloid Handle Breakfast Carver and Fork, 90c; regularly $1.20. Celluloid Handle Carver, Spanish blade, $1.50; regularly $2.00. Celluloid Handle Carver, Spanish blade, $1.35; regularly $1.75. Celluloid Handle Carver, Fork, and Spoon, $1.25; regularly $1.50. Near J. W. H. Wright, 10th and Chestnut streets.

THE REMARK HAS OFTEN BEEN heard in this city that "Cash prices interfere with the regular channels of the grocery trade." Do they? The low cash prices of the Original and Only Cash Grocer are for CASH-PAYING PEOPLE, and therefore do not at all interfere with CREDIT STOCKS. We would not sell at these prices on credit, but when you give us a check, we give you credit from the grocery, would expect to buy goods on credit at cash prices. However, if you pay cash, so matter whether you deal with us or your goods at cash prices, don't you think so?

CANNED CORN! CANNED CORN! Felt's Oyster Canned Corn has always had a good reputation. It is considered wonderfully cheap to a can. Creamy Cheese at 6c a lb. not high. Pennsylvania Cream Cheese is 12c and Fancy Cream 15c. Chipped Dried Beef, 1/2 lb in a can, 15c, 1 lb very cheap and convenient. Just what is wanted for picnic, etc.
