Mixed Relationship.

A novel case of matrimonial relations comes from the south Side, Pittsburgh. Some weeks ago Wilhelm Gensch, a wealthy tobacconist, thought the most agreeable thing he could do would be to take a life partner. So he married the widow of his deceased brother. She had three or four children pretty well grown up. Everything went pleasantly in the new household until, great grief, Mr. Gensch, who is now about 40 years old, began to feel lonely again. His affections were fixed on his step-daughter, Lottie Gensch, a golden-haired and young German woman of 25. The remainder of the family expressed their disapproval of such a union, but the old man and his young wife, who is now about 30 years old, are now doing Europe. A call was made at the store on Carson street on Tuesday when it was learned from the young man in charge that his sister, who is now his step-mother, and his step-father, who is also his brother-in-law and uncle and his sister's uncle, step-father and his husband, have arrived safely in Germany.

Broke the Pastor's Nose. The congregation of Mount Zion Baptist church, of Indianapolis, was in court on Monday for having participated in a general fight inside of the church. There has for some time, the congregation being about equally divided in opposition and support of the pastor, Elder Morton, at the direction of the trustees, and this provoked threats of violence from his followers, but with a view of bringing about an adjustment of the difficulties the elder was induced to tender his resignation. Elder Williams was brought to the church as a successor, and the trustees declared that he should not occupy the pulpit. The elder replied that he proposed to preach the gospel if he had to fight. With this the young man in charge's nose was smashed and a general knockdown followed. Several of the brethren were badly disfigured. The continuing factors of the riot started for the city, and the police were called out. The rioting was arrested on charges of assault and battery and disturbing the peace.

Four of the Bay Club Return. Alderman Halbach, Israel Carpenter, Harry Demuth and John Reist, who were on the Bay club excursion, left that party at Washington yesterday and arrived home last night. Informing business required them to stay in Lancaster to-day.
