

MORNING LEADER.

PUBLISHED BY E. COWLES & CO. FRIDAY MORNING, AUG. 20, 1858.

PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL PRINTING. The Press and the Printer, in every branch, from the most improved and most perfect, to the most simple and most imperfect.

Republican Nominations.

For Supreme Judge, WILLIAM V. PECK, of Scioto. For Attorney General, WILLIAM H. THRALL, of Franklin.

For Attorney General, CHRISTOPHER P. WOLCOTT, of Summit. For Member of Public Works, JOHN L. MARTIN, of Butler.

For Member of Congress, EDWARD WADE.

The Railroad Difficulties.

The persistent attempts of the New York Central Railroad to tie all the other lines into a "bundle of sticks" for the benefit of this great monopoly, will in the end result on that selfish Company.

The Buffalo Express states that the Buffalo, New York and Erie Railroad now does nearly all the passenger business that "as the traveling public become more fully posted up in regard to the merits of the controversy, and the importance of sustaining a rival route, even as a matter of protection, the tide over the New York and Erie increases, and that over the Central decreases in a corresponding ratio.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has "pitched in" to the freight monopoly of the New York Central has been carrying on, with vigor, and the recent course of that Company gives a new phase to the Railroad war.

The Committee was composed of five Whigs and four Democrats. The latter were Mr. Weston of New Hampshire, Mr. Jones of Va., Frank Pickens of North Carolina, and Dixon H. Lewis of Alabama.

Calhoun's Last Dodge of All. A Lawrence correspondent of the Boston Transcript expresses a fraud in the certificate of election to the Legislature, under the Compromise Constitution, of the vilest description.

Wisconsin Money-Chicago Flurry. Monday the leading bankers of Chicago threw out a large number of Wisconsin Banks, which alarmed bill holders and enabled the bankers to reap quite a harvest.

Eric County.—The Republicans of Erie county have nominated F. P. Smith for Sheriff, Holly Skinner for Treasurer, O. C. McLaughlin for Prosecuting Attorney, A. P. Foster for Surveyor, C. Beasley for Commissioner, John Weeden and H. G. Deany for Inferior Judges.

A Slave Mother Kills Her Child.—On Sunday last, a slave woman, about 45 years of age, owned by Mr. Cleveland, of Florence, Ky., gave birth to a child, and soon after she took the infant by the feet and beat its brains out.

Retired.—Mr. H. C. Johnson has withdrawn from the Western Republican, one of the best journals of Ohio, and the organ of the Republicans of Old Wayne. His partner, Mr. Fox, remains at the helm.

Ninth District.—Judge Carey, of Wyandotte county, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the 9th Congressional District.

Regatta, in which twenty yachts engaged, came off at Buffalo on Monday. The distance sailed was twelve miles, which was made in two hours, seven minutes and fifty seconds by the Yankee Blade, of Buffalo, which took the first prize.

Chas. Fox.—The long-logged interlopers are eating all before them about Fredonia, swimming in such numbers as the farmers have never witnessed. Chataque County is alive with them, and even the cornfields do not escape their ravages.

Female Equestrian.—This is to be one of the features of the State Fair. The Register states that the ring has been tendered for the purpose of a trial of skill in female equestrianism, and the first prize will be an elegant saddle, costing $50.

Land and Ocean Telegraph in Congress.

Columbus was named as the "cray Genoa" when he asked for "aid and comfort" in the discovery of the New World, and but for Queen Isabella it is quite probable his grand idea would have died with him.

Some sixteen years ago I had the honor of a seat in Congress as the Representative of this District. The Whig party had just achieved a great victory. They held possession of the Executive, and the House of Representatives.

One morning I entered the House of Representatives, and to my astonishment saw a gentleman rise from his seat, whom I had never heard open his mouth before, unless it was to vote or address the Speaker.

In a moment a page was sent to his desk, and the resolution was transferred to the Speaker, and by him delivered to the Clerk, who read—"Resolved, That the Committee of Ways and Means be instructed to inquire into the expediency of appropriating thirty thousand dollars to enable Professor Morse to establish a line of telegraph between Washington and Baltimore."

The gentleman who offered it was Mr. Ferris, one of the Representatives from the city of New York. He was a man of wealth and learning, but modest, retiring and diffident in his demeanor. It being merely a resolution of inquiry it passed without opposition, and out of regard to the mover, without comment. I think it came to the vote of address the Speaker.

At length Mr. Ingersoll, or Mr. Mason, I cannot now recollect which, broke the unanimous silence by moving that the committee be instructed to report a bill to the House, appropriating $30,000 for the purpose named in the resolution.

Cattle Stable Banned—Horrible Roast.

The Cow Stables of Wm. Hogan, on the State Fair grounds near Cincinnati, were burned Tuesday night, and seventy-four cows, four horses, one mule, five calves, and two goats, milk wags, etc., and a thousand dollars worth of oats, corn and hay, were destroyed.

Mr. Hogan describes the scene in the stables in the midst of the conflagration, as most pitiful and indescribably harrowing. The live stock were all tied in their stalls. The horses were crowded together in a usual manner, and the cows were bound around their horns.

Two or three horses and as many cows plunged through the flames and ran to the stable, and were seen to be in a state of great distress, and were seen to be in a state of great distress.

DELINQUENT SERVANT.—The Kansas City Journal describes the Missouri River city in a few lines, thus:

On one side of the river there are immense fields of cotton-wool, and on the other side tall cotton-wool standing upon immense bottoms. That's all.

CHILD RUN AWAY AND FOUND.—While a carriage of Judge McLean occupied by himself and wife, was on the highway, in one instance four or five carcasses together with their horns interlocked, forming a circle. It was a ghastly scene to contemplate.

INTERESTING RELIQUA.—Mr. Harmon Laughlin, of Realville, exhibited a Dutch Bible and a Bible Dictionary, printed in Amsterdam in 1718. The text was in large type—clear and distinct—the annotations in small type, and equally as legible as the Bible text.

Mr. Laughlin also exhibited a very large sized linen vest, worn by his grandfather over a hundred years ago. Among them were a willow basket—the first, perhaps, ever brought into Indiana—some table cloths and linen goods made in New York when it was a colony, and some other articles of domestic manufacture.

Mr. Peter Louisa, of Noble township, Rush county, produced a powder horn sixty-five years old; and a small ax which was used in Wayne's Army, in 1794, in clearing a passage for the baggage of the Continental Congress.
