

Cleveland Morning Leader

The situation at Charleston. The news received this morning goes to show that Charleston has indeed fallen into Federal hands. It is reported that the Navy Department has definite information that the attack was certainly to be made on Thursday last, and that one who is in a position to know as much as anybody upon the subject remarked that the officers of the ironclads were now in Charleston or in Heave. The rebels at Fredericksburg are particularly gloomy, and an extremely chary of sending our army rebel papers, which they readily do when they can report anything like a victory or drawn battle. A letter dated at Charleston on Wednesday stated that the fleet was busy hanging chains to the sides of the vessels to protect the machinery, and that the Admiral was expected that day, when it was thought the bombardment would begin. The Richmond Sentinel of the 7th says that the long expected contest for Charleston has come off, and it waits for the result with solicitude. All these facts point to the conclusion that the attack has really been made ere this, and we look with the greatest anxiety to the receipt of reliable news from the West. We believe that the Stars and Stripes now wave over the city of treason. Editor of yesterday.

Discharged Ohio Soldiers. A correspondent writes that about one hundred and fifty discharged soldiers from the Army of the Potomac are received and paid off in Washington daily by Major Taylor of Ohio. The whole arrangement for caring for these men, preserving them from the sharpers, and putting them safely on the way home, deserves more than a passing notice.

As fast as the men arrive at Washington they are met by the agent of the Sanitary Commission, who escorts them to the "stair" where they are lodged and fed until they can be paid off. In this respect their wants are all anticipated. A dormitory, capable of lodging all who come, is fitted up for their use. A dining hall, where the tables, laden with the best of food, stand ready at all hours, and attended by obliging servants, affords its compensation for months of "hard-tack" and pork rations. In an adjoining apartment a surgeon makes the proper examinations for pension papers, which are all made out correctly, while in still another, the soldier is furnished with a passage ticket to any part of the United States at Government rates. By the time he is rested, his "papers" have been examined, when he is paid off, and a responsible agent accompanies him to the train. All these accommodations afforded the broken down soldier are entirely free of charge, and speak nobly for the efficiency and care of the Sanitary Commission, and the officers in charge.

The average amount each soldier receives is about one hundred dollars, making an expenditure of over three hundred thousand dollars a month, and employing a force of eight or nine clerks.

Cameron found guilty. The Investigating Committee of the Pennsylvania Legislature upon the charge of bribery by Simon Cameron to secure his election as United States Senator, have made a report, finding him guilty of the charge. It will be remembered that Cameron offered him $20,000 for his vote. Cameron's friends asserted that the charge was false, and that Mr. Cameron would authoritatively deny it, but we believe the denial was never made. If the charge has been sustained by satisfactory evidence, it will be enough to consign Cameron to private life ever after, we trust. We want no bargain and sale of our public offices.

A Good Idea. Captain Couler, formerly of the 11th Pennsylvania regiment, who lost his arm at Fredericksburg, has obtained the sanction of the President to raise a brigade composed of men who through disability are unfit for active service in the field. These troops will be used for provost guard and hospital duty. By this means a large number of able-bodied troops now performing this duty, will be sent into the field.

The Committee of Safety of Mobile have asserted that, exclusive of army stores, there is equivalent to eight thousand seven hundred barrels of flour in that city, estimating rice as flour. Nevertheless, they significantly admit that some of each of these articles are safely stored away beyond their reach. The Shelbyville Rebel thereupon concludes there is yet enough subsistence in Dixie to last until harvest. It denounces those who conceal provisions with terrible vehemence as enemies of the Confederacy. The imprudent policy of the Government is seriously disapproved.

CLEVELAND & MAHONING RAILROAD. The business of this Road for January, February and March was as follows:

REBEL PRISONERS.—Forty-four carloads of rebel prisoners—about 600 in all—arrived at this city on Monday morning.

FINDING A WALLET.—Charles Swartz, a porter at the depot, whose business it is to put passenger carriages in order after the arrival of a train, picked up a wallet in one of the Cincinnati cars this morning, containing $17 in "greenbacks" and tickets from Cincinnati to New York.

THE STOCKS.—Our harbor continues to be most effectively blockaded by the ice. It is unlike the blockade established along the Southern coast, it can be "run." The steamer Morning Star and the propeller Conestoga are still in the ice, and make little headway in endeavoring to go through it.

DEATH OF AN UNKNOWN MAN ON THE CAN.—Last evening (Wednesday) about a quarter past seven o'clock, a man got on board a freight train on the Lake Shore Road, at Springfield Station, which was going West. He got on the front of the train and walked back to the caboose over the top of the cars while the train was in motion.
