

CLEVELAND LEADER,
PUBLISHED
DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY,
AT NO. 143 SUPERIOR ST.,
E. COWLES & CO.
SOLE PROPRIETORS AND MANAGERS.
(Both issues complete in hand.)

Cleveland Leader

MORNING EDITION.

Attempted Assassination of the Pope
The Rome correspondent of the London
Weekly Register publishes the following curious narrative, which we give just as we received it.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1865.

VOL. XIX.—NO. 124.

The Latest News BY TELEGRAPH.

LAST NIGHT'S REPORT.

The Grand Review.

An Immense Concourse of People Present.

Everybody Anxious to see our War-worn Heroes.

The Order of the Review.

THE CONSPIRACY TRIAL.

THE PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY.

Court Adjourned to Thursday Morning.

Jeff's Place of Confinement.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Capture of St. Marks and Tallahassee, Fla.

Rebel Steamer Captured.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

Great Fire at Indianapolis.

$300,000 in Property Destroyed.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

GOLD LAST NIGHT 132 3-8.

Associated Press Report.

The General finally attempted to check the advance of the rebels, and to retain the weight of his force on him. In his flight the General lost his horse and was wounded. The President's stand he made was applauded by the multitude.

Between the passing of the rear of the Corps and the advance of the front Corps there was an interval of ten or fifteen minutes. An immense number of persons rushed into the opening which was in front of the stand occupied by the President. General Grant and the members of the cabinet, and gave each one repeated cheers. They were all around and bowed their acknowledgments.

The troops occupied six hours in review from 9 o'clock in the morning till 3 o'clock P. M. The cadence step was taken from the Capitol to 17th Street, from which point the various organizations proceeded to their respective quarters.

The review is spoken of as the greatest that has ever taken place on this continent. It was a great affair and suggestive of the trials and victories of the Army of the Potomac.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.
General McDowell has convened a Military Commission to try the rebel pirates under the command of Hogg, also known as the "Yellow Fever," off Panama, while attempting to seize the steamer Salvador. They were brought here on the steamer Lancaster several months ago and have been confined at Fort Alcazar in this harbor. The rebels and their gulls are believed to be irrefragable.

Three companies of the 7th regiment of California volunteers sailed for Arizona today.

The fire at Moore's flat, on the 19th, destroyed one-half of the town. Loss $30,000.

The Hawaiian ship Polaris brings news of the capture of the Sandwich Islands to the 15th of May.

Some roystering misanthropes of the British ship Clara, caused great feelings of indignation among the Americans at Liverpool by removing the national ensign from the American Legation amid the rejoicing over the fall of Richmond. The captain of the Clara was found guilty and restored the flag and made a public apology, after expressing his own regret at the occurrence.

The Albatross ship of Boston, was lost at Howland station on the 10th of January last.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

The American residents at Honolulu, occupied the 25th of April as a day for mourning the death of the late King of the Sandwich Islands. The occasion was marked by the firing of guns, and the playing of music.

State bonds are generally steady, but not much doing.

Railway mortgages are quiet, with only slight activity.

The gold market is stronger, and there was an advance today. The operations were quite large, but they were mainly for export.

The market for Exchange is firm with a fair demand.

The money market is steady, with no change in rates.

Petroleum stocks are in better demand, and prices are better with Krotzsch as the favorite. Sales of Cherry Run at 540; Manhattan 49; Rynd Farm 265; Tack 150; Buchanan Farm 115; Germania 41; Oceanic 212; United States 1925; President 300.

PHICES OF BULKHEADS.
Crude Oil, refined in tank 46 1/2; refined in cask 46 1/2.

ANOTHER PLAN OF THE CONSPIRACY.
The Director of yesterday, says that in addition to Dr. Blackburn's plan to introduce the yellow fever, the conspirators decided to send to Liverpool to procure about $100,000 worth of new clothing, after having it infected with the small-pox and yellow fever; and much of it was actually delivered to the Sanitary Commission.

WOULDN'T RECOGNIZE HIM.
The Tribune's Washington special says that a gentleman, who left Richmond at the first of the war, returned there and was recognized by very few of his old friends. Happening to meet one with whom he was formerly intimate, he asked him why he did not recognize him, he asked him why he did not recognize him, he asked him why he did not recognize him.

Another gentleman, who formerly lived in Fredericksburg, lately sent his family to that place and intended to make it his home, but he has received a letter from his wife that it will be exceedingly unpleasant for them to remain there as the feeling against them is intense.

MR. DANNA GOES TO FORT MONROE.
The Commercial's Washington letter says Mr. Dana has gone to Fort Monroe to give personal directions as to what is to be done with Jeff. Davis and those of his suite who were captured with him.

CONFEDERATE RECORDS.
The Times' Raleigh special of the 18th says the records of the rebel War Department, surrendered by Joe Johnson, reached that place on the 16th. There are 43 boxes, weighing probably eight tons, and filling six wagons. They are marked, "papers and books."

General Lee's headquarters contained the original drafts of Lee's reports of his battles and descriptions of the papers of the same descriptions. The original report of the Gettysburg campaign was found in a bundle several other manuscripts in Lee's own handwriting. Another box is marked "Official Reports of Battles of A. & L. G. O. B." and is labelled "Telegraph and Telegram Books," and will undoubtedly give a good deal of history of the recent workings of the rebels, as some of the dispatches are supposed to pertain to the secret department.

ARRIVAL OF REBEL ARCHIVES.
The Commercial's Washington correspondent announces the arrival of the rebel archives. A strong clerical force has been detailed to examine it, so it is not probable that strong proof will be secured of the complicity of Davis and associates with the assassination.

Additional evidence procured from Canada indicates that Davis will be tried as accessory to the President's murder.

REBEL WORKS.
The Herald's Mobile letter says that in that city. They display their sentiments, taking care of paroled rebels.

WASHINGTON, May 23.
These are the sentiments of the people generally.

REBELS' MURDERERS IN NEW YORK.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
General Sheridan met with a most interesting reception in this city last night. He was met by a large number of citizens, and he was met by a large number of citizens.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Tribune says: General Banks returned to New Orleans with sincere and avowed reluctance. Regarding the war as virtually ended, he wished to resign and retire to his private life. He is reported to be in the city all the time, and he is reported to be in the city all the time.

NEW YORK, May 23.
The Herald's New York letter says that the rebels' murder of the President is a crime of the first magnitude.

age as President Johnson and Jeff. Davis. The late Duke of Moray, P. E. Duke of Edinburgh, died at fifty-three. The Emperor of Russia is fifty-seven, and Victor Emmanuel is forty-five. W. K. Atkinson Post.

A Steamboat model was presented by Abraham Lincoln to the Patent Office.

Occupying an ordinary and commonplace position in one of the show cases in the large hall of the Patent Office is one of the models which it is said will be utilized as an engine for the most curious and one of the most sacred relics in that vast museum of science and progress. This is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

It bears date 1849, when the inventor first made a model of it, and it is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

Neither his practice nor his politics took up so much of his time as to prevent him from giving his attention to contrivances which he hoped might be of benefit to the world and of profit to himself.

The design of this invention is suggestive of one phase of Abraham Lincoln's early life, when he spent up and down the Mississippi as a fisherman, and became familiar with some of the dangers and inconveniences attending the navigation of the river. This was the object of the model, to make it an easy matter to transfer the power of the steam engine to the water.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been whittled out of a single piece of wood, is built with a view to its use as a model, and not as a toy. It is a model of a steamboat, really fashioned in wood, by the hand of Abraham Lincoln.

The model, which is about eight or ten feet long, and has the air of having been wh