

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR SALE - A fine chance for a young man... MISCELLANEOUS... THE BEST PAYING BUSINESS OF THE AGE... THE HIGHEST CASH PRIZE PAID... $50,000 MONEY ADVANCED... DAILY LEADER... WANTED - SLEIGH AND BOAT... WANTED - TWO NO. 1 SECOND-HAND... WANTED - A COMPETENT COOK... WANTED - AGENTS FOR SHERMAN AND HIS COMPANIONS... WANTED - A FEW ACTIVE INVESTORS... WANTED - A PRACTICAL JOINER... WANTED - AGENTS FOR GRANT AND HIS COMPANIONS... WANTED - ATTENTION... 500... KEENE SOLDIERS...

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE BEST PAYING BUSINESS OF THE AGE... THE HIGHEST CASH PRIZE PAID... $50,000 MONEY ADVANCED... DAILY LEADER... WANTED - SLEIGH AND BOAT... WANTED - TWO NO. 1 SECOND-HAND... WANTED - A COMPETENT COOK... WANTED - AGENTS FOR SHERMAN AND HIS COMPANIONS... WANTED - A FEW ACTIVE INVESTORS... WANTED - A PRACTICAL JOINER... WANTED - AGENTS FOR GRANT AND HIS COMPANIONS... WANTED - ATTENTION... 500... KEENE SOLDIERS...

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED.

Inaugural Meeting at Warren Yesterday. Speeches of Gen. Gov. Hon. J. Hutchins, Ex-Gov. Tod, and General Garfield. COY OF THE DUTY OF THE UNION PARTY. Unity of Action a Necessity. Details May Be Left to the General Government. Freedom Must Be Fully Secured to the Freedmen. The Governorial campaign in Ohio was formally inaugurated yesterday at Warren, Trumbull county, the home of the Union candidate for Governor, Major General Cox. Although the fine weather that prevailed was a strong inducement to the community to remain at home and take care of their crops, a large majority of them did, there was still a very liberal attendance of people from the adjacent country, and these, together with a free turn-out of the township, swelled the number who were in attendance upon the meeting to what may be termed, under the circumstances, a large assembly, filling every portion of Webb's Hall, (a very commodious room) to its utmost capacity. In the great material interests he had in mind, he had a very definite purpose to keep down forever the spirit of slavery that was certainly undivided. Upon the great vital questions it must remain as the prime objects were attained. He had been asked for his views upon certain questions, and he had given them in a friendly and unqualified manner. He had said that he had no objection to the right of private opinion, but he had nothing to retract, believing that the public interest would be served by his candidly stating his own views. He had said that he had no objection to the right of private opinion, but he had nothing to retract, believing that the public interest would be served by his candidly stating his own views. He had said that he had no objection to the right of private opinion, but he had nothing to retract, believing that the public interest would be served by his candidly stating his own views.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED.

necessary to secure and protect the just rights of persons and property. Negro suffrage, in the question of re-union, is a question of vital importance, assuming an importance which does not belong to it in Ohio. Let us consider for a moment the probable consequences of restoring the government to its former position upon the basis of white suffrage only. The Constitution of the United States provides that representation and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within the Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. Under this provision, which cannot be changed, except by an amendment of the Constitution, if the rebel States were now re-admitted to the Union, the number of members on account of three-fifths of their free population, and those members would be added to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. Under this provision, which cannot be changed, except by an amendment of the Constitution, if the rebel States were now re-admitted to the Union, the number of members on account of three-fifths of their free population, and those members would be added to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED.

General Cox, who was on the stand, was then called out and made a very brief speech, declaring that, while he did not assent to the theories propounded by General Garfield, he recognized the necessity of the Union. He then introduced and addressed the audience briefly. He announced that he had been from the first a supporter of General Cox for the Governorship, that he had urged his nomination, that he was warmly in favor of his election, and that he was now in support of Governor Tod. He then introduced and addressed the audience briefly. He announced that he had been from the first a supporter of General Cox for the Governorship, that he had urged his nomination, that he was warmly in favor of his election, and that he was now in support of Governor Tod. He then introduced and addressed the audience briefly. He announced that he had been from the first a supporter of General Cox for the Governorship, that he had urged his nomination, that he was warmly in favor of his election, and that he was now in support of Governor Tod.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED.

General Garfield, who was on the stand, was then called out and made a very brief speech, declaring that, while he did not assent to the theories propounded by General Garfield, he recognized the necessity of the Union. He then introduced and addressed the audience briefly. He announced that he had been from the first a supporter of General Cox for the Governorship, that he had urged his nomination, that he was warmly in favor of his election, and that he was now in support of Governor Tod. He then introduced and addressed the audience briefly. He announced that he had been from the first a supporter of General Cox for the Governorship, that he had urged his nomination, that he was warmly in favor of his election, and that he was now in support of Governor Tod.

S. B. HOWES' GREAT EUROPEAN CIRCUS! Second Season in America. Complete Circus. A GORGEOUS PAGNANT. Beautiful Lady Riders in this World! THE GREAT LION TAMER! METROPOLITAN GIFT BOOK STORE! ALL BOOKS ARE SOLD AT PUBLISHERS' PRICES. SEND FOR A CATALOGUE. BUY YOUR PHOTOGRAPH ALBUM AT THE METROPOLITAN. BUY YOUR BIBLES AT THE METROPOLITAN. BUY YOUR PRAYERS AT THE METROPOLITAN. A Gift worth from 50 Cents to $100. WITH EACH BOOK. D. LINCOLN, No. 140 Superior Street, CLEVELAND, O.