

The Ashland Union.

ASHLAND, JUNE 13, 1866.

The weather has been very warm in this locality for several days past.

A great deal of our space this week is taken up with the Report of the County Infirmary.

The call of the Democratic Central Committee for the Primary election, will be found in to-day's paper.

COURT.—The June term of the District Court was held in Ashland on Friday and Saturday last, Judge SAMPLER presiding.

Ashland Gas Works keep constantly on hand for sale, best Pittsburgh and Masillon Black-Smith Coal, Fresh Water and White Lime, Drain Tile of every size, Fire Brick, Clay and Cement.

TO CANDIDATES.—We will commence publishing the names of candidates for the different County offices, next week. Our terms will be, for subscribers, $2.00; non-subscribers, $3.00. All announcements must be paid in advance!

"ZEKE."—Our readers will find a very interesting letter from the able and racy pen of our Milton township correspondent, "ZEKE," in to-day's paper. He is after the Abolition bigots who attempted to organize a so-called "Temperance League," a few weeks ago. Hit them again, "ZEKE," they deserve it.

RUNAWAY.—On last Friday afternoon a young man drove out of the McNulty House alley at a 2:40 rate, and, on turning down street, his sulky capsized, spilling the chap out, and slightly disfiguring his physiognomy. The horse ran about half a mile, breaking the vehicle all to pieces.

THANKS.—We are the happy recipient of a handsome and tastefully arranged bouquet,—the kindness of Miss CLARA J., of Lima,—the fragrance and beauty of which adds new charms to our Sanctum. It is truly refreshing to be presented occasionally with such displays of nature's richest and most beautiful ornaments.—Life would, indeed, be dull and gloomy, were it not that flowers enliven and adorn its pathway. To the fair donor, we offer our thanks.

"Oh, Minstrel strike that note again." The young gentlemen who favored us with a Serenade on Saturday night last, have our thanks for their nocturnal visit, which was appreciated as well for the feelings which prompted it as the sweet music discoursed. We hope that their pathway through life may ever be resonant with the sweet notes of health, prosperity and happiness, and when "life's stful dream is o'er," may they each one tune their voices and instruments to sweeter strains "on the other side of Jordan." The next time they visit our Sanctum, we hope to have an opportunity of giving them a fitting reception.

FIRE.—A fire broke out at about half past six o'clock yesterday morning, in the little frame building, on the North side of Main Street, occupied by Mr. CABR as a Millinery establishment.—The stearn in front of Greenwald's Store, in less than three minutes after the alarm was given, and after throwing all the water out of it, proceeded, with great rapidity to the cistern in the rear of the Court House, and in a very short time was throwing torrents of water on the burning building, and the flames were soon extinguished. The firemen deserve great credit for their promptness and energy.

We did not learn the amount of the loss sustained by Mr. CABR, but it was not heavy. The building was considerably damaged, but it would not have been much loss to the owner or to the town if it had been destroyed. Such cries do not enhance the appearance of Main Street.

And we would very respectfully, in this connection, call the attention of the Town Council to the importance of having the cistern on Main street repaired so that it will hold water. It has been two years since it was built, and it has been of no use in case of fire, during all that time.

The cistern either ought to be repaired or filled up. Will the Town Council attend to this at once?

A Republican Washington correspondent says that while the reconstruction proposition now under discussion in the Senate, is much the best proposition yet discussed in either House, it is by no means as good as nothing at all would be. Unquestionably this is true.

A few weeks ago, a number of the citizens of Savannah, with three or four students, organized themselves into a mob, and made a raid upon a little grocery, breaking windows, doors, and doing considerable damage. The students who were engaged in it were immediately dismissed from the Academy, for a violation of its laws. A week or two ago, a number of students, who had nothing to do with the disturbance, were arrested upon the charge of riot, and had an examination before a Justice, and were discharged.—A motion was made for a new trial, which came off on Monday, and the students were again discharged, as there were no evidence adduced to sustain the charge. From the fact that three-fourths of the rioters are citizens of Savannah, and not students, it appears to us like an organized effort upon the part of some evil-disposed persons to injure the Academy.—Professors BOYD and FRAUNFELTER, as do all good citizens, deprecate such acts of lawlessness, and the attempt to cast reproach upon them is unjust in the extreme.

DEATH OF D. K. HULL.—It is our painful duty, this week, to record the death of our late friend, D. K. HULL, Esq. of Hayesville. On last Saturday afternoon, while on his way from this place to his home, he was thrown from his buggy, receiving internal injuries which caused his death in half an hour. In his demise, Hayesville has lost one of its best and most enterprising citizens; his interests were clearly identified with the growing prosperity of the town, and no man added more to nourish and assist in its improvement. He was strictly an upright man, kind to everybody, yet firm and unalterable in his principles and convictions of right. To say that he had some faults, is to say that he was human, but few men leave behind a clearer record than Mr. HULL. He was a kind husband, a tender parent, a genial friend—one whose natural refinement and native appreciation of feeling; whose upright constancy and manly adherence to friendship's vows, made firm friends of all with whom he came in contact, and in whose memories he will live through all time. Only those who enjoyed and were honored by his friendship, really know how thoroughly compatible his daily walk and conversation were with the exercise of amiable and generous feelings. Mr. HULL was not an enthusiast in his political sentiments, yet few persons entertained a warmer attachment for the Democratic party than he, and was ever a firm and unflinching worker in the cause. His adhesion to the party was purely a patriotic one, believing it to be for the best interests of the people and of the country. He was honored at different times with places of public trust, and at the time of his death was Justice of the Peace of Vermillion township.

On Sabbath afternoon his remains were taken to the M. E. Church, in Hayesville, where an able and eloquent discourse was preached by Rev. Dr. DIEPFENDORF; after which his body was followed by a vast concourse of people to the cemetery, where the Independent Order of Odd Fellows performed the last sad rites over the body of their departed brother.—Peace to his ashes, and ever green the memory of the noble hearted one who has gone home. With his family and friends we unite in mourning and sympathy.

Resolutions of Mohican Lodge, I. O. O. F. Ashland, Ohio, Upon the death of D. K. Hull, of Hayesville. At a special meeting of Mohican Lodge a committee was appointed to draft resolutions in regard to the death of Bro. D. K. Hull of Concord Lodge, Hayesville, Ohio. The committee reported the following, which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Hull our fraternity have lost one of its most loved and valued members. Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the bereaved family in their sorrow and misfortune, and that as Odd Fellows, we say the widow and orphans, at all times, shall be taken care of.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and be published in the newspapers of our country. J. D. JONES, J. J. JACOBS, H. S. SEE.

Sorrows come not single. Hundreds meet with misfortunes at every turn of the great wheel of life. Suffering, sorrow and sickness are the inheritances of man. Dyspepsia has claimed millions as its victims, and for years there has seemed to be no reliable remedy for it.—Our readers will rejoice to hear that Coe's Dyspepsia Cure will certainly cure in every instance. All its attendant afflictions, like cramps, colic, indigestion, sickness of stomach, souring and rising of food, sick headache, general debility and want of appetite are sure to yield to this Cure.

County News.

Milton Township. Messrs. EDITORS.—The abundant rains that we have been favored with of late, have given nature a thorough washing, and vegetation sprightly springs up rubbing its hands, and smiling under the influence of welcome showers from above. Everything looks fresh and blooming. The crops are growing rapidly, and despondent faces are scarce. Corn that a week ago looked yellow, and tender now regains unusual strength and promises us a favorable crop.

I learn from authentic authority that there were two cases of poisoning in the western part of this Township last week. Two children ate some wild parsnips and became seriously ill; they are now entirely out of danger, and improving rapidly. Owing to some misunderstanding, the "County Temperance" meeting held at the Town Hall some weeks ago, had no delegate from this township. Whether this was the result of over-zeal on the part of the originators, or because no suitable delegate could be chosen is yet a mystery. I am inclined to think the latter. Milton will not commit herself into the hands of a few R. R.'s, (Radical Reverends) to act as a support to the dying and hopeless cause of Abolitionism. That game will not gib. Milton faithful now, as she ever has been, and ever will be, will not turn aside from the faith in which she has so righteously triumphed. Neither will a thousand "special correspondents," with as many different non de plumes, to the "Cleveland Herald" serve as a propagator to such futile and contemptible machinations. More anon.

ZEKE.—The Mack-a-check Press, an Abolition paper published in Logan county, in this State, is in favor of setting Jeff Davis and every other political prisoner free. It believes that Jeff Davis is a much better man than Andy Johnson, who it calls a "traitor to the Republican party."

A Republican paper in Pennsylvania stated that the soldiers "would vote the way they shot," when he received the following note from a soldier: "Now, Mr. Editor, we shot for the Union, and not for the negro, and we intend to vote for the Union, and not for the negro. This is all I have to say. A REPUBLICAN SOLDIER."

MARRIED. On the 12th inst, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. A. Robinson, Mr. JACOB BRUBAKER and Miss AGNES HUMERICHKHOUSER; both of Ashland. We wish this young couple the full realization of love's fondest anticipations. May JEK never forget in the multiplicity of trials that beset mortal as they journey through this vale of tears to love and cherish the fair one he has selected as a companion as one more precious than the brightest diamond that adorns the crown of the richest potentate on earth, remembering that a good wife is Heaven's last and best gift to man, and that she will be his angel and minister of grace innumerable. In connection with the foregoing, we return the thanks of all hands, the "devil" included, to AGNES for the kindly manner in which she remembered them.

By the Rev. J. W. ROBINSON on the 31st of May, 1866, at the McNulty House, Ashland, Mr. G. T. BULL, and Miss ANN MAURER, both of this county.

DIED. On the 27th of May, in Orange township, of consumption, Mrs. Narcissa McCannell, aged 51 years, 8 months and 4 days. On the 29th, her remains were conveyed to the Presbyterian Church, in Orange, where, in the presence of a large congregation, an appropriate sermon was preached by the writer; after which her body was consigned to its last resting place to await the trump of God, which shall bid it arise. She leaves a husband and two sons to mourn her death. C. E. H.
