

Ashland County

THE ASHLAND UNION

J. M. LANDIS & BRO.

Office—Opposite the Bank, Up-Stairs.

Subscription information: Mail Subscriptions in Advance, $2.50 not paid within six months, $3.00.

Business Directory

JUDICIAL OFFICERS: WM. OSBORN, Common Pleas Judge, T. C. BUSHNELL, Probate Judge, S. M. BARBER, Clerk of Court, G. W. HILL, Prosecuting Attorney.

COUNTY OFFICERS: ISAAC GATES, Auditor, HENRY BERSHEV, Treasurer, JOHN G. BROWN, Sheriff, GEORGE W. URIB, Recorder, JOHN KEBNE, Surveyor, ISAAC MARKLE, Coroner.

BANKERS: J. O. JENNINGS, Cashier, H. LUTHER, Jr. Director, FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ASHLAND, OHIO.

BAKER, BATTLES & CO., BANKERS: Dealers in Gold, Silver, Exchange U. S. Bonds, Discount approved paper, pay interest on time deposits, and so on.

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS: MILLER HOUSE, OPPOSITE the McNulty House, Ashland, O. M. MILLER, Proprietor.

HOPELS: MILLER HOUSE, OPPOSITE the McNulty House, Ashland, O. M. MILLER, Proprietor.

MULTY HOUSE: WM. McNULTY, Proprietor, South Side of Main Street, Ashland, Ohio.

LAWYERS: JOHN D. JONES, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Ashland, O. Particular attention paid to collecting and business in Probate Court.

W. T. JOHNSON, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office over Wallace & Anderson's Shoe Store, Main Street, Ashland, Ohio.

J. H. JACOBS, ATTORNEY AND Counsellor at Law, Ashland, Ohio. Office in the brick building over Singer's Hardware Store.

PHYSICIANS: DR. I. L. CRAVE, OFFICE One Door West of Quire's Drug Store, Up Stairs.

GEORGE W. HILL, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Particular attention will be paid to the treatment of the following special diseases: Dropsy, Pleurisy, Consumption, etc.

J. P. COWLEY, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

F. KILSTON, and Silver Smith, one door West of Drug Store, Ashland, Ohio. Specialties: Gold and Silver Jewelry, Watches, etc.

DR. J. P. COWLEY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

DR. J. P. COWLEY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

DR. J. P. COWLEY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

DR. J. P. COWLEY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

DR. J. P. COWLEY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

DR. J. P. COWLEY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

DR. J. P. COWLEY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

DR. J. P. COWLEY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Ashland, Ohio. Office over Hughes & Stacher's Store, opposite the Town Hall.

THE ASHLAND UNION

"THE UNION, IT MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED."

VOL. XXI. ASHLAND, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1866, NO. 24

Table with 2 columns: Description of advertising rates and corresponding prices. Includes rates for one square, one week, three months, six months, one year, and various other advertising options.

WOMAN.

BY GAWK. There's a curious bibeled, but whether its human, is a query with some; it is known as a woman, in form, like a man, though often more slender.

Editor's Troubles.

What's to be done? The sheet's not full; And yet we've not an item more! When times are so extremely dull, This editing's a bore!

THE INVESTMENT; Or, The Two Merchants.

"Can you loan me two thousand dollars to establish myself in a small retail business?" inquired a young man not yet out of his teens.

Thomas Jefferson on Pulpit Politics.

We find in one of our exchanges a republication of the following letter from THOMAS JEFFERSON, written in 1815, in which that profound philosopher and statesman gives his views on an abuse which has since become a scandal to the churches of the country.

A Reminiscence of the Charleston Convention of 1860.

The Charleston Courier relates the following: "We recollect on one occasion dining with Mr. Vallandigham, during the session of the Democratic Convention of 1860, in this city. It was at the period when the delegates from the South had intimated their intention to withdraw from its deliberations."

Inside a Printing Office.

It is not alone compositors who will enjoy the following. It is a capital and forcible illustration of a printing office dialogue: Foreman of office—"Jones, what are you at now?"

Tragedy in Summit County—Terrible Accident.

A terrible accident occurred on Monday, November 27th, at a village called Darrow Street, near Hudson. It seems that an old resident, about 40 years of age, named Addison McCoukey, sat his throat while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity.

Thomas Jefferson on Pulpit Politics.

We find in one of our exchanges a republication of the following letter from THOMAS JEFFERSON, written in 1815, in which that profound philosopher and statesman gives his views on an abuse which has since become a scandal to the churches of the country.

A Reminiscence of the Charleston Convention of 1860.

The Charleston Courier relates the following: "We recollect on one occasion dining with Mr. Vallandigham, during the session of the Democratic Convention of 1860, in this city. It was at the period when the delegates from the South had intimated their intention to withdraw from its deliberations."

Inside a Printing Office.

It is not alone compositors who will enjoy the following. It is a capital and forcible illustration of a printing office dialogue: Foreman of office—"Jones, what are you at now?"

Tragedy in Summit County—Terrible Accident.

A terrible accident occurred on Monday, November 27th, at a village called Darrow Street, near Hudson. It seems that an old resident, about 40 years of age, named Addison McCoukey, sat his throat while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity.

Thomas Jefferson on Pulpit Politics.

We find in one of our exchanges a republication of the following letter from THOMAS JEFFERSON, written in 1815, in which that profound philosopher and statesman gives his views on an abuse which has since become a scandal to the churches of the country.

A Reminiscence of the Charleston Convention of 1860.

The Charleston Courier relates the following: "We recollect on one occasion dining with Mr. Vallandigham, during the session of the Democratic Convention of 1860, in this city. It was at the period when the delegates from the South had intimated their intention to withdraw from its deliberations."

Inside a Printing Office.

It is not alone compositors who will enjoy the following. It is a capital and forcible illustration of a printing office dialogue: Foreman of office—"Jones, what are you at now?"

Tragedy in Summit County—Terrible Accident.

A terrible accident occurred on Monday, November 27th, at a village called Darrow Street, near Hudson. It seems that an old resident, about 40 years of age, named Addison McCoukey, sat his throat while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity.

Thomas Jefferson on Pulpit Politics.

We find in one of our exchanges a republication of the following letter from THOMAS JEFFERSON, written in 1815, in which that profound philosopher and statesman gives his views on an abuse which has since become a scandal to the churches of the country.

A Reminiscence of the Charleston Convention of 1860.

The Charleston Courier relates the following: "We recollect on one occasion dining with Mr. Vallandigham, during the session of the Democratic Convention of 1860, in this city. It was at the period when the delegates from the South had intimated their intention to withdraw from its deliberations."

Inside a Printing Office.

It is not alone compositors who will enjoy the following. It is a capital and forcible illustration of a printing office dialogue: Foreman of office—"Jones, what are you at now?"

Tragedy in Summit County—Terrible Accident.

A terrible accident occurred on Monday, November 27th, at a village called Darrow Street, near Hudson. It seems that an old resident, about 40 years of age, named Addison McCoukey, sat his throat while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity.

Thomas Jefferson on Pulpit Politics.

We find in one of our exchanges a republication of the following letter from THOMAS JEFFERSON, written in 1815, in which that profound philosopher and statesman gives his views on an abuse which has since become a scandal to the churches of the country.

A Reminiscence of the Charleston Convention of 1860.

The Charleston Courier relates the following: "We recollect on one occasion dining with Mr. Vallandigham, during the session of the Democratic Convention of 1860, in this city. It was at the period when the delegates from the South had intimated their intention to withdraw from its deliberations."

Inside a Printing Office.

It is not alone compositors who will enjoy the following. It is a capital and forcible illustration of a printing office dialogue: Foreman of office—"Jones, what are you at now?"

Tragedy in Summit County—Terrible Accident.

A terrible accident occurred on Monday, November 27th, at a village called Darrow Street, near Hudson. It seems that an old resident, about 40 years of age, named Addison McCoukey, sat his throat while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity.

Thomas Jefferson on Pulpit Politics.

We find in one of our exchanges a republication of the following letter from THOMAS JEFFERSON, written in 1815, in which that profound philosopher and statesman gives his views on an abuse which has since become a scandal to the churches of the country.

A Reminiscence of the Charleston Convention of 1860.

The Charleston Courier relates the following: "We recollect on one occasion dining with Mr. Vallandigham, during the session of the Democratic Convention of 1860, in this city. It was at the period when the delegates from the South had intimated their intention to withdraw from its deliberations."

Inside a Printing Office.

It is not alone compositors who will enjoy the following. It is a capital and forcible illustration of a printing office dialogue: Foreman of office—"Jones, what are you at now?"

Tragedy in Summit County—Terrible Accident.

A terrible accident occurred on Monday, November 27th, at a village called Darrow Street, near Hudson. It seems that an old resident, about 40 years of age, named Addison McCoukey, sat his throat while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity.

Josh Billings says of owls.

Birds is God's choicest. Taw the lion he gave majesty, tow the elephant strength, tow the fox cunning, and tow the tiger deceit. But to the burds, his pets, have duty and song.

From Texas.

We have dates to the 10th inst. The Galveston Citizen says: From the returns of the meager vote at the late election for members of Congress, for Texas, it is now believed that Burroughs is elected to Congress in the First District, Epperson in the Second, Branch in the Third, and Herbert in the Fourth.

Our Minister to France.

A Washington special says: General John A. Dix arrived this morning and had an interview with the Secretary of State, and this evening the President, in company with Judge Sherman, brother of the General, and consulted with the Executive upon matters pertaining to the Pacific Railroad. The period of the General's departure for France is now definitely settled. He had received final instructions and leaves for France, by the next Saturday's steamer from New York.

Queen Isabella of Spain is now.

in the thirty third year of her reign. She is the last of the Bourbons in the employment of royal power.