GEORGE H. PENDLETON.

Subject to the decision of the Democratic National Convention.

HON. RUFUS P. HANNAY, of Cuyahoga.

Hon. Hugh J. Jewe, of Muskingum.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET

For Secretary of State. THOMAS HUBBARD of Logan.

For Supreme Judge. WILLIAM E. FINCK, of Perry.

For Member of Board of Public Works. ARTHUR HUGHES, of Cuyahoga.

For School Commissioner. J. F. KIRKWOOD.

For Clerk of Supreme Court. JOHN M. WEBB, of Mahoning.

The Republican Platform.

The Republican Party adopted a very singular and curiously written charter of faith at the Chicago Convention. We will take it up, plank by plank, and examine it.

THE PLATFORM.

1. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress, as evidenced by the rebellion of the States lately in rebellion.

2. The doctrine of the National Government is that the rights of all citizens are equal, and that the duty of the Government to sustain those rights is paramount to all other duties.

3. The reconstruction policy of Congress received its death blow, when the Jacobins failed to convict President Johnson.

4. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men of the South, was demanded by every consideration of safety, of justice and of the honor of the Nation.

5. The utter hollowness of this resolution, is apparent on its face. The Republican party always pretended that it was the intention of its leaders to have a uniform system of government for all the States.

6. When the soldier remembers that nearly all the leading republican speakers claim that the government is indebted for its success, in putting down the southern rebellion, to the "negro soldiers," he will be able to recognize the hypocrisy of the above resolution.

7. If anything more is needed we call his attention to the eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the soldiers relief fund stolen by a republican Legislature of Ohio in 1866 and 1867, and applied to other purposes while the wives and children of soldiers were suffering for the common necessities of life.

8. This foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth and development of resources and increase of power to this Nation, the source of the oppressed, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

9. It is the duty of the Nation to sympathize with all the oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

10. To retain the recollection of every one, that nearly all the present leaders of the republican party were engaged in a crusade, under "The native American flag," to keep out the "Dutch" and "Irish," and absolutely proposed to require them to live in this country twenty years before they could be naturalized.

11. The naturalized citizens be deceived by a dodge so transparent. We will see.

12. The Republican Convention at Chicago, last week, nominated Gen. U. S. Grant, for President; and Hor. SCHUYLER COLfax, of Indiana, for Vice President.

13. When the telegram announcing the nominations was received, the Editor of the Times made a spasmodic effort to work himself up to a little enthusiasm.

14. After a vigorous search to find a republican banner, he at last succeeded, and exhibited the same from his office window.

15. The shouts that greeted "that same old flag" in other days were not to be heard. The inquiry passed quietly around as to the cause of putting out "that same old flag."

16. When it was learned that the Times had read JUDGE CHASE out of the party; and was now trying to rescue a party for Grant, the spectators said, "is that all?"

17. Reader, that is all. There were no loud shouts—no squads of artillery—no illuminations, to be seen. The whole thing fell like a wet blanket on that party.

18. The government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy. We are agreed. How shall it be done? By turning out the thieves who have been robbing the treasury, and the people, for the last eight years? Yes. You say Andrew Johnson is the guilty party. Let us see. You made a law called "The Tenure of office law."

19. That law tied Andrew Johnson hand and foot. It was intended to prevent him from removing any government officer without the consent of the senate, for any crime, theft or misdemeanor, or Congress took upon itself then the responsibility of keeping the thieves in office!! Who will the people hold responsible? Congress.

20. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession to power of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, who has acted treacherously toward the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support.

21. He has usurped high legislative and judicial functions, has refused to execute the laws, has used his executive power to induce other officers to violate the laws, has employed his executive power to render insecure the property, peace, life and liberty of the citizen; has perverted the judicial power; has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional; has perverted and corrupted every agency in his power, every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the Nation; has violated the laws, has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption, and has introduced and properly pronounced reprobation by the vote of thirty-five senators.

22. Every step in the late impeachment trial most conclusively demonstrates that Andrew Johnson has followed out in good faith, the entire plan laid down by President Lincoln for the reconstruction of the southern States; and that if Lincoln had survived, he would have been tried for high crimes and misdemeanors instead of President Johnson. There was no occasion to drag the dead body of Lincoln before that convention. It was in exceedingly bad taste.

23. The doctrine of Great Britain and other nations, that because a man is once a subject he is always one, must be rejected in the reconstruction of the Nation, as a relic of feudal times, not authorized by the laws of nations, and at war with our National Government.

24. The citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were natural born citizens of the United States, natural or naturalized, must be held to the same standard of loyalty and foreign power for acts done, or words spoken in this country, and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the government to interfere in his behalf.

25. This is a gin set to entrap the Germans, the Scotch and Welsh. We hardly think they will relish the idea of being associated with the negroes at the polls. Ben. Wade, and other leading republicans have always held that in point of intelligence, the negro was far above any naturalized citizen. That proposition will catch no votes.

26. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war there were none entitled to more respect and honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of the campaign and cruise, and imperiled their lives for the defense of the Nation; the bonuses and pensions provided by law for the brave defenders of the Nation, should never be forgotten; the widows and orphans of the fallen should be cared for by the Nation.

27. The government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corporations which have been so abundantly created and fostered by Andrew Johnson, should be loudly for radical reform.

too much for endurance. The only chance for WADE, now is, to try to shove GARFIELD overboard, and take his seat in Congress. An attempt to do that, will get up a fearful fight in old TRUMBULL. We think "brave old BEN. WADE" has gone down; and that no resurrection will be written across his breast in large letters; and that he will have placed on his tomb stone, this superscription "Died from hate to the Constitution; and disappeared in failing to oust President Johnson."

Students Voting

The Republican Journal is trying to make capital out of the action of the Legislature making it necessary for students at colleges in the State to vote at their homes, and not where they may happen to be at the time of election. They are howling long and loud over it, saying that the Democracy in doing so, are striking at the very roots of education, and all such purposes of the said asylum, be and is heretofore, and is intended to be, a part of the United States of America; provided, however, that all civil and criminal process issued under the authority of the state of Ohio, or any officer thereof, may be executed on said lands and in the buildings which may be located thereon, in the same way and manner as if jurisdiction had not been so conferred; and provided, further, that nothing in this act shall be construed as to prevent the officers, employees, and inmates of said asylum, who are legally qualified voters of this State, and of the county and township in which said asylum is located, from exercising the right of suffrage at all township, county and State elections in the township in which said National Asylum shall be located.

How much injustice might and has been done, in districts were colleges are situated, by a political interest in the welfare of the place, voting upon matters of local concern, and by their numbers defeating the will and wishes of the majority of bona fide residents? To prevent just occurrences the Legislature requires, and wisely, too, this class of citizens to submit to the same rules as others.—Exchange.

We are unable to see why Students should not have a place of residence as well as farmers, mechanics, and professional men. This is all the "Students law," so called requires. It makes no attack upon students, more than upon any other class of transient voters. In manufacturing regions, as well as in the location of colleges, and asylums, it is notorious that large numbers before election, under one pretense and another, to influence the result. We are in favor of students and all other qualified voters, exercising that right, one place at a time.

THE SPECTRE ACQUITTED.

A telegram received just as we are going to press, announces the acquittal of Mr. JOHNSON on the second and third articles of impeachment, a dis sine die adjournment of the Court.—So ends the farce. Now comes the day of retribution. The people are to be heard. The impeachers are to find themselves arraigned before the bar of public opinion for their conspiracy to overthrow the government, and trample down the Constitution. May they have justice meted out to themselves; and that right speedily. This numbers the days of the republican party. Sic transit gloria mundi.

President Lincoln on Negro Suffrage.

It appears, from the testimony of Secretary Stanton before the Judiciary Committee, that President Lincoln up to the last period of his life was opposed to negro suffrage. Here is what Stanton says:

"The President expressed his views very clearly and distinctly. I expressed my views, and the members of the Cabinet expressed their views. The objection of the President to throwing the franchise upon the colored people appeared to be fixed, and I think every member of the Cabinet assented to the arrangement as it was specified in the proclamation relative to North Carolina."

After that I do not remember that the subject was ever discussed in the Cabinet.

This North Carolina Proclamation restricted suffrage to the white race just as it was before the war. It was afterwards adopted by President Johnson, and formed the substance of his whole reconstruction policy. The radicals now make Lincoln's views a ground of impeachment in his success.

For attempting to carry out the doctrine laid down by Mr. Lincoln, the President was denounced Johnson as a traitor to his party; and heaps at sorts of curses upon his devoted head Johnson will triumph over these men.

Ways of Committing Suicide.

Wearing thin shoes on damp nights in rainy weather. Building on the air "light principle." Leading a life of enfeebling stupidity, and keeping the mind in a constant unnatural excitement by reading trashy novels.

Going to balls in all sort of weather in the thinnest possible dress. Dancing till in complete perspiration, then going home through the damp air.

Sleeping in feather beds in seven by nine bed rooms.

Surfing on hot and very highly stimulating suppers.

Marrying in haste, getting an unequal companion, and living the rest of life in mutual dissatisfaction.

Eating without time to masticate the food.

Allowing love of gain to so absorb our minds, so as to leave no time to attend to our health.

Following an unhealthy occupation because money can be made by it.

Temping the appetite with vices when the stomach says no.

Continuing to keep in a continual worry about something or nothing.

Retiring in small hours and rising at noon.

Neglecting to take proper care of ourselves when a simple disease first appears.

After the Trial.

Most of the Cincinnati Commercial gives warning to the Republican leaders that the verdict will not end the impeachment case, but that it will have to go before the people next fall.

"The right or wrong of the verdict will be discussed before the people next fall. The burdens of proof will be upon the Republicans, and a heavy burden they'll find it, too, before they get through with it. They will have to justify the establishment of a pre-

"Disfranchising Soldiers."

Below we give the law recently passed by the Ohio Legislature, which, it is claimed by the radical press, disfranchises soldiers at the Soldiers' Home. We would be glad if they would be so kind as to point out the clause that does what they say:

A BILL.

To amend an act relating to the United States of America jurisdiction over certain lands and their appurtenances of the National Asylum for disabled soldiers, and exempting the same from taxation, passed April 13, 1867; volume 94, 149 and 150.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, that section one, after the preamble in said recited act, reads as follows:

SEC. 1. That jurisdiction of the lands and their appurtenances, which may be acquired by donation or purchase by the managers or the National Asylum for disabled volunteer soldiers within the State of Ohio for the uses and purposes of the said asylum, be and is heretofore, and is intended to be, a part of the United States of America; provided, however, that all civil and criminal process issued under the authority of the state of Ohio, or any officer thereof, may be executed on said lands and in the buildings which may be located thereon, in the same way and manner as if jurisdiction had not been so conferred; and provided, further, that nothing in this act shall be construed as to prevent the officers, employees, and inmates of said asylum, who are legally qualified voters of this State, and of the county and township in which said asylum is located, from exercising the right of suffrage at all township, county and State elections in the township in which said National Asylum shall be located.

SEC. 2. That the said original section one, passed April 13th, 1867, is hereby repealed. This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Passed May 1st 1868.

Irishmen and Germans Read This.

During the recent discussions in the Pennsylvania Legislature to strike the word "white" from the constitution, and the Registry bill John Hickman, the Republican member from Chester, said:

"I may possibly see the day that I may walk side by side with a colored man. I have seen a great many white men with a great many white men. I know a great many negroes who I think are better entitled to vote than a great many white men who do vote, and have long exercised the franchise."

Again, he said: "An negro is better than an Irish Catholic and is entitled to vote."

A. C. Reinhill, monger, from Lancaster remarked:

"If Democrats give the right of suffrage to foreign paupers to whom the colored people are better than, and who sell small of bilge water, and from whose garments the Celtic aroma or the Tonic fragrance of the fatherland has not yet been removed by the pure air of freedom, why should not the colored people be given the right of suffrage?"

The members of the National Republican Executive Committee will meet this week, to discuss the plans of campaign. Mr. Claflin, of Massachusetts is the new Chairman, and William E. Chandler the new Secretary of the Central Committee.

GENERAL GRANT'S COMING LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

It is understood that General Grant will not immediately reply to the official notification to be made on the 29th inst. of his nomination by the Ohio Convention. His formal letter of acceptance will appear in the course of the succeeding two weeks.

THE TAX BILL.

The Committee on Ways and Means intend to press the House to consider the tax bill on Monday next. The elaborate measure ever considered in Congress, and a great deal of discussion has already been prepared on the administrative sections relative to distilleries.

ANDREW JOHNSON'S PROVISIONAL INTENTIONS.

If the Senate finally disposes of the impeachment on Tuesday, and acquits the President on all the articles, the first act of Johnson thereafter will be to restore Stanton to the office of Attorney General. The other changes in the Cabinet are also promised by the President to his confidential friends at the earliest practicable moment.

APPOINTMENT.

The President has appointed D. W. Mason, of Wisconsin, Visitor of West Point, in place of ex-Governor Sharkey, declined.

LATE BUT HEFTY.

Senator Sumner will, to-morrow, file a elaborate memorial in support of the conviction of Andrew Johnson.

THE TELEGRAPH COMPANY SHUT DOWN ON THE INQUIRERS.

The managers of impeachment have made another requisition upon the Western Union Telegraph Office for telegrams passing between certain parties named declined to make any further exhibit of private telegrams unless they were compelled to do so by due process of law.

NEW YORK, May 26.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says: "If the President is convicted on Tuesday, a bill will be introduced for such a reconstruction of the Supreme Court as would get rid of Chief Justice Chase, and under the rule of Ben Wade, place Stanton at the head of the highest judicial tribunal."

The same dispatch states that Senator Fowler, of Tennessee, filled his opinion upon the eleven articles of impeachment yesterday. It is quite lengthy, covering about 50 pages of legal cap paper.

About one-half of it is devoted to the first article, and the second occupies the first article, and the paper is very ably prepared, and presents an overwhelming array of the most powerful arguments against every article of the list.

The filing of this opinion leaves only Senator Ross, of the seven Republicans required to defeat conviction, uncommitted on the question of acquittal.

The Conservatives of the Senate will call for a committee of investigation on Monday, to prove the charges of Col. Cooper against Senator Pomeroy.

The World's Washington dispatch says that no one there dares admit that the military government is a success. It is a failure, and we agree with the New York Herald, that it indicates that Mrs. Lincoln is, by no means, devoid of acumen and good judgment.

BOLTON, May 22.—Capt. Maloon of the British ship Thecalis, and Kearney, first mate, were found guilty of manslaughter, yesterday, for killing one of the crew.

The stock of the Hide and Leather Bank has declined from 144 to 101 since the late defalcation.
