Perryville Items.

The citizens of Green township will be gratified to learn that Dr. G. W. Parr has located in Perryville. Dr. Parr comes to us highly recommended as a physician and surgeon by the medical faculty of the Cleveland Medical college, where he has attended two courses of lectures. Especially is he commended to us by Dr. Thayer of Cleveland, one of the best surgeons in our state.

We hope our village may possess attractions and pecuniary advantages sufficient to induce the doctor to remain permanently among us, as he is the kind of stuff good citizens are made of; earnest, enterprising, ready to lay hold of any good work, full of the zeal that never grows cold, and generous to a fault.

The evening before the telegraph had brought us news of impeachment a splendid meteor crossed the heavens from east to west, leaving behind it a tail of light that gradually faded away. The light streamed in at our windows, and cast shadows upon our walls, just as though a lamp had been slowly carried past.

It had hardly died away, when from the west came an explosion like that of a cannon or the blasting of rocks. Everybody thought the cannon in Mansfield were called out to make known the final result of the "lost cause, jr."

A neighbor of ours, a good democrat, tumbled out of bed and started for Perryville to hear the tidings. When about half way to the village, he stopped and asked himself the question, "who is to fire cannon, I wonder—not the democrats, sure, for it is not their fight, and why in thunder would the radicals do it; a man ain't apt to rejoice or make funny demonstrations when his own dog turns and bites 'im."—and summing up the matter thus wisely, he turned and went home again.

The next night there was a similar meteor in the mid-heaven, but the explosion sounded from an opposite direction. These meteors, slowly crossing the heavens in a wide pathway of faint light, the trail growing dimmer and dimmer, are a grand sight, and one that fills the beholder with an awe unlike that which comes to him while gazing upon any of the sublime sights, in nature.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Hon. William Larwill for valuable legislative documents.

ACTNA.—We call the attention of the public to the statement of Mr. Phillip Q. Stoner, in relation to the payment by the Actna Fire Insurance Company of Hartford Conn., of his loss sustained by the fire in this place on the 5th inst. The promptness with which this company has met this loss, is only one among the many instances of its fair, honorable and ready manner of meeting all its liabilities, and justly entitles it to such, as the leading Insurance Company of the United States. When it is considered that the current losses by fire in the United States averages about $200,000 per day, the absolute necessity of selecting an untailing and reliable institution for reliance in the hour of need, must be apparent to every thinking mind. The ACTNA, standing nearly half a century, has paid losses to the amount of over $23,000,000. Its net assets amount to over $4,300,000, of which it has cash in bank to meet contingencies.

Such a company is a real blessing to the country, especially in these extraordinary times of fire. Its large capital, prompt and honorable manner of adjusting and paying losses should commend it to the public. J. W. & George B. Smith are its agents for Ashland, and we would recommend all those not already protected by an ACTNA policy, to call at once at their office on Church street and secure one, as delays are dangerous, and you cannot spend a small amount of money to a better advantage than investing it in an ACTNA policy.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, FOR JULY.—The July number of this "Queen of the Monthlies" opens with a beautiful engraving of Abraham and Hagar. Hagar and young Ishmael are admirable—while Sarah's face is a study. The double Fashion Plate of this number—and the variety of other fashions—can not fail to please the ladies. The music is "The Little Bride's Waltz"—the monthly piece of choice music is a great inducement to take this magazine. The literary matter of this month is "Evangeline in Prose" (concluded); Remembrances of Thaddeus Kosciuszko (the "Madness of Warsaw" of Miss Porter) "A Dead Man's Rule," lively, spirited and interesting as ever; "Angel Visits," a story by Annie Lett Leigh; "The Debary Fortune," a capital story by Miss Douglas; "Vacant Places," a fine poem by Florence Percy; Novels for July; Editorials, The Fashions, Receipts, &c. The "Lady's Friend" is published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, at $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving). "The Lady's Friend" $4.00. Sample copies, 15 cents.
