

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

ASHLAND, SEPT. 9, 1868.

Read our business cards, and encourage the enterprise of our native rising citizens.

THE GREAT SHOW.—Mr. Corrick is making splendid pictures at his gallery just below the Drug Store of J. R. Squire. He will be prepared to take a large number of faces on the day of the show, and the great Democratic Mass Meeting. Drop in and get your picture.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE 14th DISTRICT.—Hamilton, Richwood, O.; Jones, Wayne County; H. J. Walker, H. N. Young, Medina County; H. S. See, W. Q. Porter, Ashland County; D. S. Hill, D. S. Maxwell, Holmes County; N. L. Johnson, P. W. Sampel, Lorain County; H. S. See, Ch. C. Hill, Ashland County; N. L. Johnson Sec'y.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—J. H. Kell is still taking excellent photographs at his old stand. He is now assisted by E. M. Emsinger, and can say to the public that he is prepared to do first class work on the shortest notice, and would be pleased to have his friends drop in and examine his work.

FOLZ & BARON, have removed their Drug Store to the Boffenire Block, one door east of the Miller House, where they will be glad to meet their old patrons.

WOODS.—We will take a few cords of wood, on subscription, for winter purposes, if brought in soon. Dry wood, such as beech and sugar preferred.

WANTED.—A good, smart, active young man or boy desirous of learning the photograph business will meet with a good opportunity by calling at Johnson's Gallery.

TOBACCO & CIGARS.—Joseph Abbe has established a Cigar manufactory one door east of Bushnell's Provision Store, where he will be able to supply the market with an excellent quality of cigars and tobacco. Examine his stock.

THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, commenced its third term on Monday last, Judge William Osborne presides. The civil and criminal docket is light, and the term will be short. Attorneys present from a distance, Hon. G. W. Geddes, Col. Dickcy and the Hon. Irishman, Jim. McSweeney.

TOBACCO.—We are indebted to the Columbus Crisis for an admirable likeness of Horatio Seymour and Frank Blair. The editors of the Crisis are presenting these likenesses to those getting up clubs for their paper. They ought to be in the possession of every democrat in the land.

ANDERSON'S.—R. M. Campbell addressed the Milton township Democratic Club at Anderson's school house on Saturday evening last. The speech was fair, and Mr. Campbell acquitted himself to the satisfaction of all present. Milton township is beginning to wake up, and if we are not greatly mistaken will roll up an increased majority for the democratic ticket in October. Keep the ball rolling.

SEVERE "STANDARD WINE BITTERS." The undeniable fact that these Bitters are composed in the main of Spain's pure wine analysed, and recommended to invalids and the Medical profession, by the best chemists in the United States, cannot fail in inspiring confidence in the public, in the use of the "Wine Bitters." Sold by Druggists.

PURRY.—A blinking, squinting, watery eye, at this place, attempted to furnish the Times, last week, with a little original matter, and precious little it was, on the democratic meeting of Tuesday last. The performance was a brilliant one, and suited well the talent and genius of a fellow that is willing to eat bushels of dirt from the feet of his master, Martin Walker. We have no doubts, the readers of the Times perused and relished the elegantly written (?) article furnished by this pedantic scribbler. He succeeded, in showing, beyond doubt, that all the army thieves, the government swindlers and defrauders, the speculators, the negro abolitionists, the hold holders, the impeachers, the revolutionists and the traitors to the constitution and our government, intend to vote for the drunken military despot and stupid tyrant that insisted on starving northern men in Andersonville by refusing to exchange Confederate prisoners for them. Try again, Mr. Fressell; the Times is exactly the paper for such literary effusions; and its readers, no doubt, fully appreciate your services in providing such a mess for them to devour.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. Editor.—We were informed by slipping hand-bills posted up all over the country that there would be a grand rally at Ashland, on the 10th of the day would be done up in a nice manner, as usual, by republican orators. The day came, the speakers arrived in fine condition, but the dear people were not there. Cause why? The people are tired of meeting the expenses, state and national, with a depreciated currency, while the bondholders are reveling in wealth, and drawing their gold from the treasury. MORE ANON.

Sabbath School Celebration at Jeromeville, Sept. 1, 1868.

Mr. Editor.—The Mass Convention of Sabbath Schools, held in this place, on Saturday last, passed off harmoniously.

At about 10 o'clock, A. M., the several schools assembled in the north part of the town; and the procession accompanied by instrumental music, proceeded to the grove, where the audience was addressed by Rev. Beer.

After dinner, an eloquent address was delivered by Rev. A. H. Ludwig. His themes were union, harmony and love. Short addresses were also made by Rev. R. Winbiger, Rev. J. Musinger and J. J. Winbiger. The exercises were interspersed with vocal music by the schools, and with instrumental music by the Jeromeville and New Pittsburgh bands. Our next picnic will be held on the third Saturday of August, 1869.

PERY TOWNSHIP ORGANIZED. Pursuant to previous notice a large number of the democrats of Perry township who are determined not to be the slaves of the bondholding aristocracy, and resolved not to permit barbarous negroes of the south in the fullness of their ignorance to decide who shall be the next President, assembled in the school house in Rowsburg, on Saturday evening, September 5th, and organized a Seymour Club, by electing the following officers and executive committee:

President, Solomon Hohenbach; Vice President, John A. Strayer; Treasurer, B. Reichenbach; Secretary, J. P. Van Nest.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. John Wiley, J. P. Smalley, Peter Lash, Wm. Heflinger, Mathew Williams, Jacob Ceefer, Sen., Samuel D. Moore, J. C. McConnell, Cyrus McEadde, John A. Shidler and Hartman Shidler.

Immediately after the organization of the club, Dr. Geo. W. Hill, who was present by invitation, was called for, came forward and addressed the assemblage. The meeting was an interesting one, and all retired for their homes, believing they had spent the evening in a manner that would contribute to the triumph of our principles at the approaching election.

THE next session of the Ashland Common Pleas will commence in Ashland, Sept. 7th, 1868. The following are the Petit Jurors. Joseph Beckler, Montgomery; Benjamin Stamin, Milfin; H. Shanbough, Green; John Taylor, do; Wm. Enos, do; Samuel Plice, Jackson; Henry Switzer, do; Samuel Craig, Vermillion; David Fox, do; Henry Wertz, Orange; Samuel Gault, Ruggles; H. K. Snyder, Perry.

DISTRICT JUDGE.—The following choice moral appeared in the Times of last week: "Fellow democrats—says Baber—my soul is stirred—I had expected to address a M—ss meeting, but I find so small a crowd here that it won't pay to show all the animals and I proposed a night meeting at the Court House, where the "Siamese twins" will be exhibited. They are not jined together like them exactly, but their sympathies are the same, they both want office—Crittfield wants the job, and I will give him $5,000 in greenbacks, and my friend Geddes wants the one I helped to make last winter specially for him, which will pay him the small sum of $2,500 a year. It was represented that you loved him so, that you were willing to be taxed an extra $2,500 just to give him an office—see that you give it to him, and don't abuse our confidence in responding to your desires. (Geddes hides his face in his hands and might never go back on him; he is a good judge, he is a judge of a good treasury, and few men exercise better judgment in wanting to be judge.)

Since the "mud Machine" down street, has been proper to give place to such stuff as the foregoing, we have concluded to let the people have all the facts in relation to the new Judiciary.

At the late election for judge in this district, Hon. G. W. Geddes, was unfortunately for the people, defeated by a pettifogger of very feeble attainments.

When the people of the district discovered that an old woman (we mean no disrespect to old women in general) was accidentally placed upon the bench; the question was immediately mooted as to how said old woman should be disposed of.

Upon mature deliberation, it was agreed that the shortest way to retire the present incumbent, was to create a new judgeship, under the pretence that the business of the courts was increasing, and that it was impossible for one learned judge to dispose of it.

Accordingly a petition was gotten up, chiefly by republicans, signed and sent on to Columbus, and a new District Judgeship created. These are the facts. Now how, ye idiots, and shout again.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—A Pittsburg paper says that a new scheme for swindling farmers is on the tapis. The article now offered is a wrought iron plow point, fitting into a hollow square of the economy of which wonderful tales are told. Those that have got bitten find that wrought iron points cost more than entire shares of cast iron. As these plow point swindlers are understood to be making a hurried sweep through the southern counties of New York, in order to get into West Virginia, Penn. sylvania and Western States, farmers would do well to be on the alert for them. Papers desirous of saving their patrons pockets will direct attention to this swindling scheme. It has cost the farmers of the West about two thousand dollars the past year.

We are under obligations to the publishers, for a copy of the "Voters Text Book," comprising a collection of the most important documents and statistics, connected with the political history of America, compiled from official records, with biographical and historical sketches of the eminent statesmen of the country; by James M. Hiatt, and published in Indianapolis, Ind., by Asher, Adams & Higgins. The book is well gotten up, typographically, and ought to have a good run. It is put forth as an unpartisan work, which is not strictly true; yet, the work is written in a spirit of apparent fairness, and may be regarded in general, as reliable. It will be well for book agents to examine the work for themselves, for it will certainly sell well.
