

Continued from page 1.
Holding of Faira.
Commenced September 21st, 22nd, and 23rd.

The Republican Meeting for this county, is to be held in Jefferson, by present arrangement, on Monday, September 12th, 1859.

Gov. Ranney and Devisors, let it be recollected, speak at Cleveland on the 13th of September.

UNION SCHOOLS.—We are requested by the Board of Education to state that in consequence of unavoidable delay in finishing and fitting up the school buildings, that the opening of the schools will be postponed until Thursday, Sept. 15th, at 9 o'clock, at which time, all who expect to attend any of the several departments, should be present, in order that the organization and grading of the several schools may be perfected on Thursday and Friday, and all be in readiness to enter earnestly into the work on the following Monday.

Frost continues to visit us occasionally.—Not much in this immediate locality, but a little in the interior, on Wednesday morning, the corn, buckwheat, and pumpkin vines in several towns South, showed pretty clear signs of the subtle destroyer.

CHANDLER FOR CHANDLER.—Our friend THURSTON, who has so faithfully vibrated between the village and the depot, for two or three years past, sold out the other day to our quondam friend J. A. TALCOTT, but the business not being adapted to his taste, he has sold back again to Mr. THURSTON, who will attend to the wants of our citizens with the same fidelity as of old.

The Republicans of New York met at Syracuse on the 7th, and made their regular nominations.

The dwelling house of E. M. DEWOLF, of Connecticut, was pillaged not long ago. Mr. Dewolf and family had been absent several weeks, and on their return found household articles, consisting of bedding, clothing, &c., to the value of about sixty dollars, had been stolen. No clue to the burglars.—Con. Rep.

The officers of the Connecticut Agricultural Society desire us to say that entries of stock merely for exhibition, and not for premiums, may be made at any time.—Connecticut Rep.

An interesting speech of W. is visible on the North-west, in that "pluffy-phour phourly or phlight" region. The Island of San Juan in Puget Sound, has all at once become a matter of some importance to both 'er Majesty and Uncle Sam. Gen. Harney has taken military possession, and the officers of the crown proposed a joint tenancy until some instructions could be had from the respective governments, to which objection being made, Mr. Bull was constrained to take a position less prominent, where he could look on just as well. Such was the position of things by last advices.

FEDERAL OPSESSION.—Suits have been commenced in the United States Circuit Court at Cleveland against Ralph Plumb, Professor Peck, J. M. Fitch and a number of others for the value of the negro John who escaped at Wellington.

CHEER MAKING.—We publish this week the second of a series of articles, from the pen of one of the most successful dairymen of this county, on the subject of cheese making. This, though the second of the series, is the first that enters really into the merits of the subject. It is written in a clear and familiar style, and its practical common sense, and the evidence it carries with it, of the settled experience of the writer and his qualifications and authority to be heard on this subject, will, we think, gain for it, the respectful attention of the dairymen of the county. So well pleased is one of our principal dealers in dairy products with the character of the articles, and so well satisfied is he that the suggestion, thrown out of great practical utility, and should be disseminated, that he has ordered fifty copies of each of the papers containing the articles, for gratuitous distribution. Owing to the writer's engagements, he will be able to furnish but one article for each alternate week.

Mr. Ashtabula Telegraph, let us be just to all, and when you have another "melancholy affair," just give credit to whom credit is due. Don't you say so, taking the second sober thought.—Painesville Telegraph.

We do that, bro. Abner, and we had as good an intention as ever helped pave the pit, to give you the due credit, but alas for infallibility in a printing office! You don't think we are green enough to set ourself deliberately to work to pilfer, so near home, do you? Common prudence forbids it.

FINE PEARS.—A basket of a superior quality of pears, grown upon the premises of W. J. JANVY, and presented by Mrs. J., are duly appreciated. Such fruit should be a more common product of this fruit growing region.—Choice pears command almost any price in the Eastern markets, and richly repay the producer.

Foreign.—By the arrival of the North Briton, advices from Europe to the 24th ultimo, have been received. There is little news of importance. The Zurich Conference was still in session, but nothing was known of its doings. A defensive league had been formed between the States of Central Italy. The National Assembly of Modena and Tuscany had unanimously voted in favor of the annexation of those States to Piedmont. It was said that the Grand Duchesse of Parma had received assurances from Zurich that she should be restored to power, and a portion of the troops had declared for her. The Belgian Chamber of Deputies had indorsed the plan for the fortification of Antwerp by an immense majority. The builders' strike had not been adjusted, and there were symptoms of dissatisfaction in other trades. So far as was known, the Great Eastern would sail as advertised. Mr. Lever had made a second offer to charter her, upon more favorable terms than the first, which was pressed—but not officially understood—had been declined. Mr. F. C. Webb, an engineer of eminence, had at the request of the Directors of the Company, examined the Atlantic Telegraph Cable, and reported upon its present condition.

WUENIG.

Which is a feeling low and sad,
That creeps along my path to night,
That waves aloft its somber wings;

There comes the transient gleam of bliss;
There comes the shades of doubt and fears,
There comes the longings of my life,

Blindfold by lights of other years,
Slow blending in a mystic dance,
Of hope, of joy, of smiles and tears.

But like a dream, a long and sad dream
Of that which never more can be,
Comes through a blinding mist of tears,

Like shadows sweeping o'er the sea
The forms now buried in the past;
The hopes which are no more to me.

No more? No! I will ever reach,
And ever gaze with longing eye
Adown the vista low and dark,

When life, its dearest treasures lie,
And as they flash, and as they fade,
Then rise to flash, then sink to die.

I'll catch each dim and fading form,
In memory's pale and fitful glare,
I'll draw the lines of faith, and love

Along the realms ecclahated there;
And near the bulwarks of my hope,
A shield against the fiend despair.

We meet to part, we part to meet,
And breath affections softened tones;
With hand in hand in union sweet

Thine thus the seeds of love are sown,
Then comes the harvest, dark and scar,
With friends and hope forever flown.

For the Weekly Telegraph.

Mr. Editor:—I had proposed in my own mind to give, in detail, the evidence in favor of the claims of the Soldiers in the contest of 1812, to further compensation, but have concluded to say little else than to give the results to which those facts would lead, which will save both labor and ink. The New York Militia at the time referred to—1812—constituted almost the entire defence of the Post of Sackett's Harbor; they labored in repairing and strengthening its defences; performed camp duties; constituted its guards; a large number of them acted as Sentinels every night.

These, with other causes, brought on sickness and mortality, without a parallel in the annals of that war, and clearly show, that the present survivors are not only entitled to their country's gratitude, but to a liberal compensation—especially those of them, who are poor and needy, in whose favor both justice and mercy unite their power.

The House of Representatives at their last session, passed a bill to that effect, and there is scarcely a doubt, the Senate and the President will consummate the same, when they shall see its justice. I am not ashamed to advocate such a cause; my only regret is that this attempt is so far below the merit of its object. As this subject has been agitated for several years, in various parts of our country, it is manifest that those who think they have a just claim, should show the grounds of it. If the survivors of the war of 1812 would communicate to the public through their various localities, the information in their possession, it would, as I believe, do more to effect the object they have in expectation, than direct petitions to Congress. This was my only motive for troubling you, with what I have said, and you have printed for me on the subject, for which I thank you very kindly.

W. HUBBARD.

The Meanest Sort of a Swindle.

An arch knave named Hiram P. Leslie, formerly employed in the Patent Office in Washington, advertised in the Philadelphia papers for a number of young lady music teachers to go South into families as instructors. Fifteen respectable girls, allured by his specious promises, responded to his application, and tendered their services, agreeing to pay their way on to New York and then half of their fare to Montgomery, Alabama. On arriving at New York, Leslie stated that he had arranged for their passage at $30. They paid $15 each, making $150 in all. Leslie afterwards took to the Stevens Hotel, where the teachers stopped, removed all the valuable part of their baggage, and decamped. The heartless scamp was followed to Washington by the police and arrested. The ladies availed went back to Philadelphia, and recovered their baggage which had been sent to Washington, where Leslie has a wife. The directions on the trunks had been taken off and the name of his wife substituted. Letters found in his valise showed that he had traveled in the South, and was extensively engaged in dishonest schemes.

The good people of Connecticut, are enjoying the treat of an exhibition of wax figures representing Mr. and Mrs. Sickles and Mr. Key. A monkey and an orang outang make up the balance of the unique show.

We understand that the proprietors of "the show" contemplate the addition of some other attractions, such as an illustrated number of Harper, containing Cass's three nationalization letters, copyrighted, the 30,000,000 Cuba bill, and a splendid design of the American army enforcing the laws of the bogus legislature of Kansas, and a parallel, ably drawn up by the editor of the Constitution, between that inaugural address on Squatter Sovereignty, alluded to by our democratic county convention, and the Leocompton constitution, upon which this administration of blessed memory, staked itself a founded the party, all of which, it is thought, will naturally enhance the interest of the exhibition.

After an array of bills of assle, purporting to have been finished up by Marshal Johnson, establishing the fact of Judge Goolsong's having sold his niggers, on leaving the land of bondage, and upon the fact of Dr. Roback himself, who not only dispensed medical prescriptions, but got up the old school, as we know personally. Our advertisement will answer the rest of our friends' letters. See advertisement in another column.

Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Remedies.—The following testimonial is taken from the Hamilton (Ohio) State Valley Republican, of April 2nd, 1858.

SCANDINAVIA.—A friend writes to us for our "own opinion" of Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Remedies. We can state that we are frequently asked the same question. Scandinavia is the ancient name of Sweden and Norway, and a Scandinavian, that is a Swede or Norwegian, is a native of that country. Scandinavia, in the same sense as we speak of "Columbia," or "the Union." By the way, there are over nine thousand Scandinavian families in this country. Although a citizen of this country many years, Dr. Roback is a Swede by birth, and consequently his knowledge of Swedish, which we think the name is very appropriate. We have the very best and complete of the Medicines, and of Dr. Roback himself, who not only dispensed medical prescriptions, but got up the old school, as we know personally. Our advertisement will answer the rest of our friends' letters. See advertisement in another column.

MARRIED.

In Springside, Sept. 24, by R. R. Robinson, Esq., Mr. HOLLIS S. BOGERTON, to Miss MARY CONNER, both of Connecticut.

DIED.

In this village, on Thursday last, HENRIET, son of George Brown.

On the 24th inst. aged 11 years and 6 months, CHARLES ALBERT, only son of CHARLES C. and Sarah Gooden of Capt. Nathaniel Strong, of Beloit, Wis.

In Concord, Ct. Aug. 27th, Mrs. ELIZABETH BAIRDEN, aged 50 years.

In Cherry Valley, Sept. 6th, Mrs. MARY B. WIFE of Jehiel Hamlin, aged 39 years.

In Warren, Aug. 28th, of consumption, MARIETTA, wife of Allen Pomeroy, and daughter of James Morrison of Geneva, in the 4th year of her age.

In Connecticut, Sept. 24, EMMA C., daughter of John and Cornelia S. Wilets, in the 4th year of her age.

In Connecticut town, September 16, JOSEPH B. ARMSTRONG, aged 33 years.

CLOSING OUT SALE DRY GOODS.

ROBERTS' 5th Semi-Annual Sale for Closing Out his Stock.

WILL CONTINUE FOR THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS.

Goods will be sold at almost any price, without regard to cost, at the well-known Establishment of Edward H. Roberts.

All in want of Low Priced, Mellon, or Rich DRESS GOODS, should avail themselves of this opportunity.

The Goods must be closed out within the month, as the money is wanted to purchase a Fall stock, & the room is also needed.

The stock comprises a large variety of Staple and Fancy Dress Goods, suitable for the season,

Shawls and Mantillas, Gloves a Hosiery, Trimmings 4 Ribbons, Lace & Embroidery, White Goods, Yankee Notions, Cottonades & Cambrics, and every thing else in the line, all of which are offered for Cash, or Ready Pay, at lower prices than at any time this season. No reasonable offer refused.

EDWARD H. ROBERTS, Ashtabula, Ohio.

Just Received—Four piece Floor Oil Cloth, from one to ten yards wide, making my stock complete. E. H. R.

Stewart's Large Oven, Air-Tight, SUMMER WATER COOK STOVE.

WARRANTED to be the best Cooking Stove in the world, and requiring less than One-half the Fuel of the common Cook Stoves.

For sale by GEO. C. HUBBARD, 409

To All Concerned! I do wish that all of my old customers that have neglected to order goods, will call and settle immediately. I want my pay, as do my old customers, and must have it, and will have it where I can get it. I am in the Boot and Shoe Business yet, and am selling Cheap Cash, or Ready Pay, and nothing else, because

If I should trust each time I'm asked, As Cheap and Good as can be, And a Bankrupt then become, For Goods, I'd get none!

Once I trusted all my friends, (For so they seemed to be,) But when I asked them for my pay, They'd only laugh at me.

Then elsewhere they would trade for cash, To me they would not come, So I lost my stock, and lost my trade, And thus was our undoing.

And now my friends, I tell for Cash, As Cheap and Good as can be, And though your trade I wish to have, For Cash I'll trade you.

My work is the best, my price low, And I trust I seek most true, For smallest favors I will be, You may my humble servant. N. PHILLIPS.

CHANGE IN PROGRAMME at the New York Store!!

O. GILLET.

Has purchased the stock of Dry Goods at the

CELEBRATED NEW YORK STORE,

where he will continue to sell the best qualities of staple and Fancy Dry Goods at the

At lower prices than can be bought elsewhere in the County or State.

That he sells goods Cheap, you can see by reading the following prices:

Best Prints 10c

Good Prints 8c

Laws from 5 to 10c, worth 1c to 2c

Domestic Ginghams 11c worth 1c to 16c

Best Scotch do 1c worth 2c

Best Challies 1c in 16c

Stella Shawls, in great variety, $3 to $5 $4 to $10

WATCHES, JEWELRY, GOLD & SILVER PLATED WARE, SPECTACLES, CLOCKS, &c.

The Largest and Best Stock ever brought to Ashtabula!

The subscriber has just returned from New York with the largest stock of Goods, which were purchased for Cash, and is offering everything in our line lower than the same class of Goods ever sold west of New York.

Our stock will always be kept full, and of the

LAYER AND MOST FASHIONABLE STYLES.

Repairing of all kinds done at short notice and warranted to give satisfaction. GEO. W. DICKINSON, Ashtabula, May 19th, 1859.

L. Benedict & Sons, have received a large and complete Stock of SPRING and SUMMER

HATS AND CAPS, &c., &c., comprising all the latest styles of

White Goods, Yankee Notions, Cottonades & Cambrics, and every thing else in the line, all of which are offered for Cash, or Ready Pay, at lower prices than at any time this season. No reasonable offer refused.

EDWARD H. ROBERTS, Ashtabula, Ohio.

Just Received—Four piece Floor Oil Cloth, from one to ten yards wide, making my stock complete. E. H. R.

Stewart's Large Oven, Air-Tight, SUMMER WATER COOK STOVE.

WARRANTED to be the best Cooking Stove in the world, and requiring less than One-half the Fuel of the common Cook Stoves.

For sale by GEO. C. HUBBARD, 409

To All Concerned! I do wish that all of my old customers that have neglected to order goods, will call and settle immediately. I want my pay, as do my old customers, and must have it, and will have it where I can get it. I am in the Boot and Shoe Business yet, and am selling Cheap Cash, or Ready Pay, and nothing else, because

If I should trust each time I'm asked, As Cheap and Good as can be, And a Bankrupt then become, For Goods, I'd get none!

Once I trusted all my friends, (For so they seemed to be,) But when I asked them for my pay, They'd only laugh at me.

Then elsewhere they would trade for cash, To me they would not come, So I lost my stock, and lost my trade, And thus was our undoing.

And now my friends, I tell for Cash, As Cheap and Good as can be, And though your trade I wish to have, For Cash I'll trade you.

My work is the best, my price low, And I trust I seek most true, For smallest favors I will be, You may my humble servant. N. PHILLIPS.

CHANGE IN PROGRAMME at the New York Store!!

O. GILLET.

Has purchased the stock of Dry Goods at the

CELEBRATED NEW YORK STORE,

where he will continue to sell the best qualities of staple and Fancy Dry Goods at the

At lower prices than can be bought elsewhere in the County or State.

That he sells goods Cheap, you can see by reading the following prices:

Best Prints 10c

Good Prints 8c

Laws from 5 to 10c, worth 1c to 2c

Domestic Ginghams 11c worth 1c to 16c

Best Scotch do 1c worth 2c

Best Challies 1c in 16c

Stella Shawls, in great variety, $3 to $5 $4 to $10

WATCHES, JEWELRY, GOLD & SILVER PLATED WARE, SPECTACLES, CLOCKS, &c.

The Largest and Best Stock ever brought to Ashtabula!

The subscriber has just returned from New York with the largest stock of Goods, which were purchased for Cash, and is offering everything in our line lower than the same class of Goods ever sold west of New York.

Our stock will always be kept full, and of the

LAYER AND MOST FASHIONABLE STYLES.

Repairing of all kinds done at short notice and warranted to give satisfaction. GEO. W. DICKINSON, Ashtabula, May 19th, 1859.

L. Benedict & Sons, have received a large and complete Stock of SPRING and SUMMER

HATS AND CAPS, &c., &c., comprising all the latest styles of

White Goods, Yankee Notions, Cottonades & Cambrics, and every thing else in the line, all of which are offered for Cash, or Ready Pay, at lower prices than at any time this season. No reasonable offer refused.

EDWARD H. ROBERTS, Ashtabula, Ohio.

Just Received—Four piece Floor Oil Cloth, from one to ten yards wide, making my stock complete. E. H. R.

Stewart's Large Oven, Air-Tight, SUMMER WATER COOK STOVE.

WARRANTED to be the best Cooking Stove in the world, and requiring less than One-half the Fuel of the common Cook Stoves.

For sale by GEO. C. HUBBARD, 409

To All Concerned! I do wish that all of my old customers that have neglected to order goods, will call and settle immediately. I want my pay, as do my old customers, and must have it, and will have it where I can get it. I am in the Boot and Shoe Business yet, and am selling Cheap Cash, or Ready Pay, and nothing else, because

If I should trust each time I'm asked, As Cheap and Good as can be, And a Bankrupt then become, For Goods, I'd get none!

Once I trusted all my friends, (For so they seemed to be,) But when I asked them for my pay, They'd only laugh at me.

Then elsewhere they would trade for cash, To me they would not come, So I lost my stock, and lost my trade, And thus was our undoing.

And now my friends, I tell for Cash, As Cheap and Good as can be, And though your trade I wish to have, For Cash I'll trade you.

My work is the best, my price low, And I trust I seek most true, For smallest favors I will be, You may my humble servant. N. PHILLIPS.

CHANGE IN PROGRAMME at the New York Store!!

O. GILLET.

Has purchased the stock of Dry Goods at the

CELEBRATED NEW YORK STORE,

where he will continue to sell the best qualities of staple and Fancy Dry Goods at the

At lower prices than can be bought elsewhere in the County or State.

That he sells goods Cheap, you can see by reading the following prices:

Best Prints 10c

Good Prints 8c

Laws from 5 to 10c, worth 1c to 2c

Domestic Ginghams 11c worth 1c to 16c

Best Scotch do 1c worth 2c

Best Challies 1c in 16c

Stella Shawls, in great variety, $3 to $5 $4 to $10

NEW GOODS—SPRING SUPPLIES!

In these days of Cheap Goods, and when attention is directed to the quality of the goods, it is not surprising that the public should be attracted to the goods of the Benham's New Store, presents as many attractive articles as any other in this city. Its proprietor has returned from New York, with a Unusual large and varied Stock of all those commodities which go to fill a Country Store.

In the Dry Goods Department he is able to lay before his customers a variety of beautiful and desirable goods, which are marked at a very small advance from cost, which is a rare opportunity for the country trade. He has also a large assortment of our competitors. We cannot get into a full enumeration of the goods he has returned, but will mention a few of the most desirable.

Manillas, Heavy Shirts, Gilets & Hosiery, Embroideries, Summer Cloths, Cottons, &c.

Domestic, and all the latest styles of New Dry Goods, Crochery, Books and Shoes, Shell Hardware, Burning Glass, &c.

A very valuable article of Shirts & Hosiery, and a small quantity of Fine Wines and Liquors, for medicinal purposes only. Also an abundant supply of fresh fruit and condiments. A rare article of Raisins, has not been brought into town—Give us a call, and all will be verified.

THE LARGEST, CHEAPEST AND MOST DESIRABLE LOT OF WALL PAPER IN TOWN.

SAMUEL BENHAM, JR. Ashtabula, May 19th, 1859.

INSURANCE AGENCY.—H. Fassett, Ashtabula, Ohio.

In the authorized Agent for Ashtabula County, of the following named Insurance Companies, which have complied with the laws of Ohio, and are authorized to transact business in this State.

His terms on Farm and detached buildings and contents, at the lowest rates of responsible companies for one to five years, and on property in villages at fair rates. Loans liberally advanced and promptly paid.

Home Insurance Company, No. 112 & 114 Broadway, N. Y. Cash Capital, all paid in $1,000,000

City Fire Insurance Company, of NEW HAVEN, CONN. Capital actually paid in $100,000

Charter Oak Fire & Marine Insurance Co. HARTFORD, CONN., JANUARY 1, 1858. Capital actually paid in cash $200,000

New England Fire & Marine Insurance Co. Hartford, Conn. Cash Capital, all paid in $200,000

Conway Fire Insurance Company, CONWAY, MASS. Capital paid in $100,000

The official statements of the above Companies are duly filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, and accessible to all persons desiring to see them.

Charter Oak Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn. The reputation and actual condition of which is not surpassed by any company in the Union.

Drugs, Stationery & Groceries.

THE subscribers having taken the Drug establishment of S. P. Johnson, intend to put the business upon a more liberal and enlarged footing, by referring to our more varied and a wider range of business facilities. His large and well

Stock of Paper, embracing every description of the article with envelopes, and School and Miscellaneous Books, will be added to the present stock in trade, together with a new and Choice assortment of Groceries, Large Additions of Drugs, and visit their full and entire satisfaction.

The management of the business will be entrusted to Mr. James M. Allen, whose well known habits of accuracy, and business especially in the drug department, especially fit him for this position, and will be able to meet the wants of the community, and visit their full